PASSED THROUGH.—Ben Holladay passed through town on Friday, 5th inst., on his way to "Frisco." He tarried long enough with us to make provisions for the wiggling of his "Campbell," and was off for the more congenial clime of California.

JACKSONVILLE DISTRICT SCHOOL.—This school will re-open next Monday morning, after a vacation of several months. W. J. Stanley, Esq., is the principal, and his reputation as a superior and experienced teacher is sufficient to ensure a successful and well-attended session.

KAFEDAR'S INVENTION.—John Kafedar, of Fort Klamath, is now in Sacramento exhibiting his patent tire-tightener, and the Union has this to say of it: "Kafedar has shown us drawings of a new invention upon which he recently obtained letters patent. It is an improved wagon-tire tightener, and is so simple and effective that any man can use it with success."
