Speaking of the work of the State Board of Equalization, the News says: The work before the Board has been of the most laborious and tedious character, and it has been pursued in the most thorough, systematic and painstaking manner. Some idea of its magnitude and character in this respect, and the delay that has necessarily attended it, may be gathered from the fact that the rolls from the counties of Clatsop, Columbia, Josephine, Lane, Marion, Multnomah, Tillamook, Washington and Yamhill, were the only ones that did not require correction.
