He now owns, besides the Atlantic Garden and Bowery Theatre, a large brewery up town, a fine residence, a couple of hotels at Sharon Springs, and a crockery store in the Bowery—all from lager at five cents a glass.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

THURSDAY EVENING, March 12, 1874. The Board of Trustees met according to adjournment.

A full Board was present, with President Bilger in the Chair. The Journal Record of last meeting was read and approved.

Street Commissioner's Reports and Accounts submitted, which were read and ordered on file.

The Committee having in custody the Fire Engine Fund made their report, showing total amount of said Fund on hand to be $120.25.

Report read and placed on file, and an order passed authorizing said Committee to transfer said Fund to the custody of the incoming Board.

The Street Commissioner presented a bill of $30 for superintending work on the roads and streets.

A motion to allow the same was not sustained and the bill was ordered returned to the Street Commissioner, with instructions to make his money out of delinquents.

Tax list returned, showing a delinquency of $42 in road taxes.

The President then presented his yearly statement, which was read. It stated fully the present condition of the Town, financially and otherwise, and recommended many things for the consideration of the new Board, improvement and enlargement of the Town Hall, etc.

On motion of Mr. Linn, the Board then adjourned sine die.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE NEW BOARD. THURSDAY EVENING, March 12, 1874. The Board of Trustees elect assembled this evening at 8 o'clock.

All the members were present, to-wit: K. Kubli, John Bilger, C. C. Beckman, Sol. Sachs and Henry Judge, who were then sworn into office by the Recorder.

C. C. Beckman was chosen Chairman, who called the meeting to order and stated that the first business in order was the election of a permanent President.

On the 4th ballot C. C. Beckman was chosen President of the Board of Trustees. The President then announced the Board duly organized and ready for any business that might properly come before it.

Standing committees were then appointed, as follows: Finance—Sol. Sachs, J. Bilger, K. Kubli.

Public Improvements—J. Bilger, H. Judge and K. Kubli.

R. S. Dunlap was chosen Sexton. A special Committee, consisting of Sachs and Kubli, was appointed to receive the Fire Engine Fund from the Committee of the old Board.

On motion, Fred Grobe, Marshal, and Henry Judge were chosen Fire Wardens.

Bonds of officers were approved as follows: U. S. Hayden, Recorder; bond, $500; sureties, Wm. Hoffman and N. Langell.

H. Pape, Treasurer; bond, $1,000; sureties, Jos. Wetterer and Alex. Martin.

Frederick Grobe, Marshal; bond, $1,000; sureties, K. Kubli and Peter Britt.

Peter Boschey, Street Commissioner; bond, $1,000; referred for correction.

Mr. Bilger suggested that this Board take early action to make some disposition of unoccupied town lands. He thought, in the present condition of the treasury, which shows an indebtedness of over $200, that said lands should be sold to aid in removing that indebtedness.

Mr. Judge said that he desired early to call the attention of the Board to the sanitary condition of the Town, representing that some firm and decided action ought to be taken immediately in regard to it.

Other matters were the subject of informal discussion, when the Board adjourned to meet at the call of the President.

JOSH BILLINGS says: "There is but few things on the face of the earth more worthless than a poodle, and yet I am glad there is some people who wouldn't have any object in living, and have nothing to live."

A BOSTON man was cursing an editor the other day, when he fell dead. This should be a warning to those who are disposed to commit this unpardonable sin.

Official Paper for Jackson & Josephine RATES OF ADVERTISING. Advertisements will be inserted in the TIMES at the following rates: One square, one insertion, $3.00; each subsequent one, 1.00.

LITERARY NOTICES.

WHAT NEXT?—We have received the March number of the Illustrated Edition of this magazine, which the publisher claims to be "the best, cheapest and most beautiful magazine for young folks and everybody."

There are two editions, the Plain, furnished to subscribers for the amazingly small sum of 25 cents a year, and the Illustrated, which costs $1.00 a year. The number before us is charmingly illustrated, and its pages are crowded with a great variety of excellent reading from the pens of popular and gifted writers.

The success of What Next? as reported by the publisher, seems quite remarkable, an aggregate circulation of 75,000 copies having been attained, though only two years old. Specimens of the two editions will be sent, post-paid, for 10 cents. Address JOHN B. ALDEN, Manager, Chicago, Ill.

THE March number of Woods' Household Magazine is a capital one. It opens with an interesting story entitled, "The Guiding Hand," by Mrs. H. G. Rowe; following this Joseph Snider gives his "Experiences in the City," an article which for its simple truth the youth of the land should read to their profit; "My prayer" is not a religious sketch as one would suppose from the title, but is a touching story told in the sincere manner and rough speech of a railroad hand.

"The Weekly Diabical," by Karl Kase, aims a sharp and timely blow at sensational literature. "The Kaiser Frederick" is one of Mary Hartwell's entertaining stories. In the installment of "Misery Jippeau," H. V. Osborne raps the knuckles of the fashionable clergyman, and buries Penny Post from sight. There are several other articles of merit, and some choice poetry. The Magazine contains six illustrations, including a fine design for a Country School House. Terms only one dollar a year. The magazine and chromo "Yosemite," in connection with the TIMES, for the low price of $4.00, in advance.

DEFAULTER.—Another Oregon Radical has been found a defaulter. Mr. O'Meara, the Washington correspondent of the Portland Bulletin, gives the following publicity in his letter to that paper, under date of February 23d:

"I suppose you already know that Mr. A. B. Meacham has been dropped at last—but none to soon, nor soon enough—from the worse than useless Peace Commission. But he still keeps up his slanders on the people of Oregon, especially in connection with the Modoc troubles. He does this, of course, for effect—to ingratiate himself with the Indian Commission Ring, and thus to work out his liabilities to the Government—as it is well known he is a defaulter to the amount of several thousands as Superintendent of Indian Affairs. It is difficult to predict what the come out will be. Yet it is a comfort to know that he is finally stopped from receiving a salary which he never earned, and upon which he sustained himself while maligning and trying to injure the good name of the people of the frontiers generally, and of Jackson county, Oregon, and Siskiyou county, California, in particular. It is now known that he and Steele, who was all the time Captain Jack's agent and adviser, did more to bring about the trouble with the Modocs and the massacre of the Lost River settlers, than any others, be they whom they may."

JOHN WILKES BOOTH'S LADY LOVE.—The Concord, New Hampshire, Patriot says the death of the Hon. John P. Hale, of Dover, New Hampshire, brings to light a fact often hinted at pretty broadly before, but in which no lady's name has ever been given in print till now to our knowledge. The fact is that it was a daughter of Mr. Hale, who was then a United States Senator in Congress from New Hampshire at the time of the assassination. It was this gentleman's daughter who was engaged to Wilkes Booth, the man who shot President Lincoln. In Booth's diary, which was taken from his body, there was a picture of this lady. Why was not Miss Hale arrested and tried by a court martial? She was as near to Booth as a picture of her. Why was not Miss Hale arrested and tried by a court martial? She was as near to Booth as a picture of her. Why was not Miss Hale arrested and tried by a court martial? She was as near to Booth as a picture of her.
