CAMPAIGN TIMES.—The TIMES will take an active part in the campaign just opened, and will be furnished from now until after election for a dollar greenback.

AUCTION SALE.—There will be an auction sale of household and kitchen furniture, etc., at the residence of Thos. Giannini, on Saturday, April 4th, 1874, at half-past 10 A. M.

PROPOSALS.—Sealed proposals will be received at the office of the Commissary of Subsistence at Portland and at the office of the Acting Commissary of Subsistence for the Post, until 12 M. Monday, April 20th, 1874, for the delivery at Fort Klamath of 76,365 pounds of flour and beef on hand.

LAST CALL.—Sheriff McKenzie in another column gives warning to all those that have not paid their taxes that his patience is about exhausted, and a settlement must be made immediately.

NEW QUARTZ LEAD.—We were this week shown a quartz specimen by H. L. Webb, of the "New State," which gave evidence of being very rich. It was taken from a ledge lately discovered near Jewitt's ledge, on Rogue river, by W. A. Johnson.

QUILTING EXTRAORDINARY.—Last week we mentioned the fact that Mrs. N. Fisher had manufactured a quilt of 960 pieces, which we thought went a little ahead of anything in this line hereabouts.

APPLEGATE GRANGE.—D. S. R. Buick, D. D. W. M., assisted by Overseer Helman and Secretary Beeson, of Ashland Grange, on Wednesday, March 25th, organized a grange on Upper Applegate.

HARMONY POINT GRANGE.—D. S. R. Buick, D. D. W. M., this week organized a Grange at Deskins, with 30 charter members and 14 initiatory members.

Dr. Bell's horse, while passing the "New State" this week, made a sudden plunge for that place, and before she could be checked had got inside, through a folding door, which was partly opened, without injuring anything or anybody.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The grass is springing up finely everywhere. Greenbacks in San Francisco are quoted at 89 1/2 @ 90.

Hon. James D. Fay left for San Francisco this week. The Vieuxtemps Bros. are teaching music in Ashland.

Plenty of new school books at Ben Sachs', at reasonable prices. Don't forget to see the entertainment of the Literary Society to-night.

The full proceedings of the Democratic State Convention will be found on our first page. Grangers' sons now play marbles with only four in a ring.

A new Florence sewing machine can be had at a reasonable figure by calling at this office immediately. Hon. Owen, the sage, sojourned a few days with us this week.

Hon. J. N. T. Miller returned this week from Albany, where he has been in attendance on the Democratic State Convention. Sheriff McKenzie has returned from Salem, having safely turned over Baker, who will make brick for a year, to Bill Watkins.

The Republican County Convention, for the election of seven delegates to the State Convention, will convene at the Court House to-day. No certificate of publication will be given on legal advertisements, unless all charges are paid.

L. Horne left for Santa Barbara via Portland last week, where he intends engaging in business. His family will also leave us in a short time. H. L. Webb, familiarly known as "Curly," and H. A. Breitbarth have assumed charge of the New State Saloon, and repaired it in good style.

John Bilger, Esq., County Treasurer, has returned from Salem, having safely deposited this county's quota of State taxes with the State Treasurer. Alex. Martin, Esq., has been so indisposed this week that he has been confined to his bed, but we are pleased to announce that he is rapidly recovering.

Thos. Giannini left for the North last Sunday, for the purpose of searching for a business in which to engage. His family will shortly follow him. Wilbur P. Hunt, son of J. T. Hunt, of this place, has recovered $15,000 damages from the O. S. N. Co., at the Dalles, for the loss of an arm by that company's cars.

Alfred Preater, formerly of this place, writes us that he has just purchased the Lockford House, 10 miles from Stockton, Cal., and is doing well. Glad to hear it. R. F. L. Hallock, who has done much towards developing the quartz mines of this county, has gone to Redding to assume the management of a mine there.

It is said that most of the stock that will survive will be so thin that they have to lean against a fence to wink. A still further loss is expected when they commence to feed on the new grass. The tall chimney which has so long stood among the ruins of the U. S. Hotel, at the danger of the boys that were continually playing around it, was last week demolished by Marshal Grob, assisted by others.

The late pleasant weather has at last started the trees to blooming. Should the frost not be too rough on them this year, an enormous crop of fruit is expected. There is no place that can get away with Jackson county for fine fruit. The post offices hereabouts are again deluged with Senator Mitchell's speeches on the Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad, etc. He is strenuously engaged in endeavoring to dispel the evil opinion the people entertain for him, and the Lord knows what he won't attempt. He is succeeding admirably in his object—in a horn.

Dr. Bell's horse, while passing the "New State" this week, made a sudden plunge for that place, and before she could be checked had got inside, through a folding door, which was partly opened, without injuring anything or anybody. What makes the affair the more curious, a horse can hardly be walked through the same space in which the feat was accomplished.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

TUESDAY EVENING, March 24th. The Board of Trustees met this evening at the usual hour. A full Board was present and the meeting was called to order by the President, who then read the rules governing the proceedings of the meeting of the Board.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The attention of the Board was then called, by the President, to a defect in the bond of Marshal, which was accepted at the previous meeting, and by motion the matter was deferred for subsequent action by the Board.

The bond of P. Boschey, Street Commissioner, was presented and the same approved. An ordinance providing for the licensing of lager beer saloons was submitted, read, and on motion laid on the table.

P. Boschey was appointed Pound-keeper. An order was passed, directing the Street Commissioner to make out a list of the names of all persons liable to a road tax in his district, and to file the same with the Recorder, who shall complete the tax book and return it to said Street Commissioner.

An informal discussion was had on the subject of working the roads and streets and properly applying the road labor, and a road committee was appointed to have general supervision and direction, with the Street Commissioner, on all improvements of streets and roads. Said Committee consists of John Bilger and Sol. Sachs.

It was ordered that as the ordinance requires all moneys collected for road tax be paid into the Treasury, that the Treasurer keep a separate account of the same. Messrs. Judge and Kubli were appointed a Sanitary Committee, and were instructed to examine into the present condition of the town in this respect, and to report, so that prompt action may be had to remove all nuisances affecting the sanitary condition of the town.

The Board then adjourned. FATAL ACCIDENT.—W. A. Owen, who arrived in town from Elk Creek this week, brings news of a fatal accident, which resulted in the death of H. Abbott. It seems that H. and Al. Winkle were engaged in dispatching a panther about 10 o'clock P. M. of the 23d, which had been treed by the dogs. Abbott had shot the animal which fell among the dogs, and was punishing them severely. Winkle went to their relief and was getting the worst of it, when he dropped his gun to grasp his knife for better warfare. The gun was cocked, and in falling went off, accidentally shooting H. He called to Winkle that he had been hit, but told him to save the hounds. These were the last words he uttered, for when, after killing the panther, Winkle went to assist him, he found him dead, shot through the body.

FREE FIGHT.—A free fight, between the white, negro and Indian race has been going on during the past week. Albert Johnson and a white creature, named Barnhart, had a combat over a dusky daughter of the forest, and in the melee the latter was battered up in a manner most fearful to behold. He swore out a complaint against Johnson, but the latter was too wily for the officers, and up to yesterday had eluded their vigilance. Barnhart is covered with wounds from head to foot, inflicted with a club. This Johnson has of late made himself notorious with his lawless exploits, and the sooner the community gets rid of him, the better.

P. S.—He was captured yesterday. AT HOME.—J. W. Crutcher, Esq., has favored us with a copy of the Paris (Mo.) Mercury, from which we learn that Major Glenn, accompanied by his family, has arrived at his old home, which he has not visited for over twenty years. The Major is joshing the natives by passing himself for a Californian, but should they take the trouble to examine his pedal extremities, by the webs that have there concentrated it will be observed that he rightfully belongs to the land of big red apples and pretty girls.

IN TROUBLE.—Barnhart, who was beaten by Johnson, has gotten in still further trouble. Being belligerently disposed, he attacked his partner Lennox with clubs and stones, much to the latter's disgust, who swore a warrant out against him. His trial will shortly come off, if it has not already.

ANOTHER RICHMOND.—O. A. Davis, of Ashland, in this issue announces himself as an independent candidate for Sheriff of Jackson county.

REPUBLICAN PRIMARIES.

Our Republican opponents held their primary meeting last Saturday at the Court House, in this place, and it was a most remarkable gathering—for the Democrats, who went to see the fun, outnumbered the Republicans two to one. C. W. Savage, he of the aldermanic proportions, was nominated by the genial and intellectual Turner, for Chairman, and the nomination was speedily ratified. Mr. Stanley being the only good penman in the Republican ranks, and being very obliging and popular withal, was unanimously chosen Secretary. Neither of the gentlemen appeared to think the honors bestowed of sufficient importance to thank the party for them, and in this we coincided. After the officers had taken their places, our friend Crystal, the blacksmith, who is a sturdy fellow, and by the force of circumstances a Republican, rose in his place, and as a question of privilege sought information. He desired to know, seeing so many "Democrats" present, an "independent" in the chair, and a "Nesmith" man Secretary, if this was a Republican meeting? But the chair could not exactly understand brother Crystal's way of asking questions, and very promptly, and with great dignity, ruled the gentleman out of order. The delegates to the County Convention were then nominated. Little or no interest was manifested—the Express Office ring seeing they were in a hopeless minority—from all of which we opine a very big split in the Republican ranks. The following are the delegates, who will vote for Tolman in Convention: M. Caton, Geo. Brown, M. Bellinger, H. Kelly, J. A. Wilson, H. P. Phillips, Jos. Blatt, L. Danforth, Jesse Dollarhide. There will likely be several candidates for Sheriff, County Clerk, and other offices, of Republican tendencies. The more the merrier, and all the better for the Democracy, who are bound to win anyhow.

ENTERTAINMENT.—The Literary Society gave an entertainment at Veit Shutz' Hall last night, but owing to the TIMES having gone to press no report thereof appears. The Society has made great preparations for the occasion, and all should go and see the performance. The following is the programme for to-night: Song—"What are the Wild Waves Saying?"

Recitation. Reading of Society Paper. Tableau. Comedy—"Mr. and Mrs. Peter White."

Declamation. Song—"Hail, Silent Night." Recitation. Tableau. Charade. Duett. Comic Song. Song—"Good Night."

DEAD.—By telegram from the N. G. of Albany Lodge to K. Kubli, N. G. of Jacksonville Lodge, we learn that Isaac Long, formerly foreman of the Sentinel, died in Albany yesterday. He had long been ailing, and was finally taken off by that fell destroyer, Consumption. Requiescat in pace.
