MAX MILLER, P. M.

MILLINERY.—Mrs. P. Donegan will in a few days receive one of the most elegant and complete stocks of millinery ever brought to Jacksonville. The ladies should not fail to see them.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Henry Pape requests those indebted to him to settle immediately.

Webb & Jones are now running the "New State." Call on them and "smile."

GOV. GROVER will speak at Ashland next Friday, and in Jacksonville on Saturday. Opposing candidates are invited to participate. Rally, Democrats, rally!

RESUMPTION.—Wm. Boyer informs his many friends that he will resume business as soon as his stock arrives and he can secure quarters. He requests those indebted to call immediately and settle.

MAY-DAY PARTY.—As will be seen elsewhere, H. P. Deskins will give a grand ball on the 1st of May. A purse of $50 for ponies and a similar purse for target-shooting are offered. A fine time is expected.

RETURNING.—During the past week various persons sent from this county to the Insane Asylum have been returning. J. Blattner, who was sent there several months ago, has returned. F. Wetzel, also formerly of this place, passed through town on his way to Yreka, where he has relations living.

A CONUNDRUM.—A leading question is the reason of the Sentinel not saying anything about the Radical "wake" held in town upon the receipt of the news of Tolman's nomination. Was it because of the insignificance of the effort, and the lack of participants and enthusiasm? Or was it in kind regard of the feelings of the ring?

RELIEF ENTERTAINMENTS.—We learn that it is the intention of the Independent Literary Society to give a series of entertainments for the sufferers by the late fire, and have already sent for dramas, comedies, etc., therefore. This is a very commendable object, and the Society deserves much credit for the interest taken in the matter.

MINING ACCIDENT.—The hydraulic mine on Brimstone Gulch, near Grave Creek, belonging to Messrs. Isham & Co., caved on Thursday afternoon, 9th inst. Mr. Southwick Isham was caught by the fall of the cement, and had his right leg badly broken in two places—a longitudinal fracture just below the knee, and a transverse comminuted fracture near the ankle. Dr. Jewell was telegraphed for, and informs us that he expects to save Mr. Isham's limb, but that it will be at least two months before the injury is repaired.

ARRESTED AND FINED.—A fellow by the name of Cartwright being very belligerently inclined the day of the fire, undertook to show his skill by capsizing several individuals with his mawleys. Not satisfied with this, he struck at Marshal Grob, who was remonstrating with him at his conduct, but that officer brought him to terms with his cane and marched him off to jail. Recorder Hayden found him guilty and fined him $10 for his trouble, which was paid and he was released from custody.

DISASTROUS CONFLAGRATION.

Scarcely has a year elapsed since Jacksonville was visited by a disastrous fire which destroyed several thousand dollars of property and laid waste a large area of buildings, when we are again called to chronicle another which, although not so destructive as the former, is a severe stroke on our town.

At about half-past three or four o'clock on Tuesday morning, when everybody was soundly slumbering, an alarm of fire was given, and before assistance could be given the frame buildings on the south side of California street, between Oregon and Third, from the Eldorado saloon to White & Martin's store, and on the east side of Oregon street, from Wintjen & Helms' saloon to the corner of Oregon and California, was one sheet of flame and past all hope of safety. The buildings being old and of pine wood, burned like so much paper, and it was with difficulty that some of the persons asleep escaped in time. The fire rapidly spread to the opposite side of California street, and in a twinkling the frame buildings between Judge & Nunan's saddlery store and John Bilger's tin and hardware store were being devoured by the fiery element.

By this time the town was fairly aroused, and by almost superhuman efforts the fire was prevented from spreading to the sheds back of Bilger's and Sachs Bros.' buildings on the north side of California street, and Wintjen & Helms' and White and Martin's on the south. The fire was thus fortunately kept in these bounds and the business portion of the town saved from entire destruction. Meanwhile the fire had become so hot around the brick buildings of A. Fisher and Judge & Nunan, that despite the best of our citizens they at last succumbed and the combustible material contained therein was entirely consumed.

John Orth's large brick was also in imminent danger, and the TIMES office, contained therein, received a close call. But thanks to a good pump and hose in the butcher-shop, the entire building was saved. D. Linn's furniture ware-rooms were also in close quarters, and escaped only by the timely application of blankets and water. The following are the losses sustained by various persons:

Fisher Bros., general merchandise and building, $28,000; insured for $10,000. Judge & Nunan, saddlery, etc., $2,400; fully insured. N. Langell, shoe-shop, building occupied by Solomon and himself, $700; no insurance.

Henry Pape, saloon fixtures and stock, $500; no insurance. C. Colman, building occupied by Pape, $1,000; insurance, $500.

Ben. Sachs, damage to stock, $500; fully insured. Wm. Boyer, groceries, etc., including money and personal property, about $3,500; no insurance.

James Drum, groceries, provisions, etc., and building, $400; no insurance. Geo. Schumpf, barber-shop fixtures, $500; no insurance.

Jacksonville Social Club, room fixtures, $200; no insurance. John Wolters, saloon fixtures, stock etc., $2,000; no insurance.

Wm. Kreutzer, bakery stock, household and kitchen furniture, —; no insurance. S. Cohn, general merchandise, etc., $2,000; no insurance.

L. Solomon, general merchandise, $8,000; insured for $3,000. E. Jacobs, grain, flour, etc., $700; no insurance.

John Orth, damage to building, etc., $300; fully insured. Veit Schutz, building occupied by Kreutzer, $1,000; no insurance.

McMann & Owen, buildings occupied by Schumpf, Social Club and others, $1,500; no insurance. David Linn, building occupied by Judge & Nunan, $3,000; insured for $1,500.

John Bilger, damage to store, $500; fully insured. C. C. Beckman, damage to goods by removal, $200; no insurance.

P. J. Ryan, building occupied by Boyer, $1,500; no insurance. The total amount of loss, according to the above, is $58,000; insurance, about $20,000, in the Imperial, Home Mutual, Fireman's Fund, Phoenix and other companies.

In this connection we may add the loss sustained by White & Martin, Wintjen & Helms, and others, on account of damage to building, removing goods, etc., which, though small, will somewhat swell the aggregate. In some cases the loss given is somewhat exaggerated, but we think that $50,000 will represent the entire loss, not including the insurance.

Everybody worked with a will when fairly started, and matters could not have turned out better under circumstances. Ladies also worked with a will in carrying water, etc., and lent no inconsiderable aid. Nor can we go farther without noticing the aid and comfort rendered the tired men by ladies liberally supplied with hot coffee, already sweetened and prepared.

The origin of the fire is not precisely known, and reports in regard thereto are conflicting. Some say that the fire first broke out in the rooms of the Social Club, while others aver it started in the Eldorado saloon. Others, however, believe it to have been set on fire, and John Lenn-x, white, and Albert Johnson, mulatto, both notorious characters, were arrested on suspicion. The evidence against them not being sufficient, however, they were discharged.

While this is a severe loss on every one concerned, still we are happy to say that a majority signify their intention of starting again. A. Fisher will commence rebuilding shortly, though this is the second time he has been burned out in the same place.

Judge & Nunan, who some time ago purchased part of the ground formerly occupied by the U. S. Hotel, have commenced operations already. They saved quite a lot of their stock, which may be found at the Union livery stable.

Langell and Colman, who own the land between Bilger's and Judge & Nunan's former quarters, contemplate erecting a fine brick thereon.

D. Linn will doubtless repair his building.

Wm. Kreutzer has already commenced removing his house from Jackson creek and erecting a temporary bakery on his old ground.

Boyer & Son will resume as soon as possible.

Geo. Schumpf, barber, may be found in an apartment of Caton's shoe-shop, where he is ready to accommodate his customers. He will rebuild shortly.

Others also intend starting again, as rapidly as they can secure quarters.

LOCAL BRETTIES.

Fire!

Don't forget to hear Gov. Grover next week.

S. C. Peck, stage agent at Yreka, was in town this week.

Since the pleasant weather set in stage travel has perceptibly increased.

Asher Marks, of Roseburg, passed through town this week for San Francisco.

H. Kelly and J. M. McCall, delegates to the Republican State Convention from this county, have returned.

White & Martin and John Bilger received a quantity of new goods by way of Roseburg this week.

The Board of Trustees did not hold a meeting last Tuesday. They will meet next Tuesday, however.

N. Langell is the member of the Republican State Central Committee from this county. Alex. Watts represents Josephine in that body.

The O. & C. Stage Co. will commence running on summer time on the 1st of May, making the trip from railroad to railroad in 52 hours.

Ben Sachs, having sustained considerable damage to his goods by the fire, is selling them for almost nothing. Those wishing a bargain should not fail to call.

Geo. P. Fitts, of this place, has received a patent on a grain tally, an invention of his own. We hope that George will make his fortune on the invention.

McCall & Co., of Ashland, will in a few days receive the novelties of the season. If you want a bargain in their line call on them, as they know how to suit everybody.

The Vieuxtemps Bros. give a grand musical entertainment at Ashland this evening. They have been teaching music there for some time, and the concert is given by their scholars. They have our thanks for complimentary tickets.

Hon. J. B. White and family left for Oakland, Cal., this week, where they intend permanently residing. Mr. White and lady are old and respected residents of this county, and we are pained to part with them.

The Republicans of this District didn't make a nomination for Prosecuting Attorney. They evidently thought it was no use to put up anybody against H. K. Hanna, Esq., and doubtless nobody wanted to sacrifice himself in so hopeless a cause.
