There is one contest in the Senate -between T. R. Cornelius and P. G. Buford, as Senator from Washington. In the House there are two contestsone between G. Reynolds and Bart. Curl, as Representative from Grant, and Jos. Jeffers, who claims a seat from Clatsop.

We shall furnish our readers with a weekly synopsis of the Legislative proceedings.

Note.-Since writing the above, the Senate organized by electing Senator Cochran, of Lane, President ; Syl. C. Simpson, Chief Clerk.; C. C. Royce, Assistant; R. M. Guerney, Sergeantat-arms ; J. C. Head, Door-keeper.

The House was still balloting for Speaker at last accounts.

It is rumored that Beecher, says the Guard, is going to retire from the ministry and assume the editorial toga, and is to take charge of a new Republican paper to be started in New York City. In all humility we ask, what has the editorial fraternity done to bring upon itself such a curse ? Why should the profession be disgraced and its high character for virtue, honor and probity be fouled by the contaminating association of such a lecherous

The Eugene Guard of the 15th inst. says that for about three years, at each term of the Circuit Court for Lane county, have come up cases of Holladay vs. Patterson and others, to collect subscriptions to the Oregon and Califavor of the defendant, whereupon the plaintiff appealed to the Supreme Court, which, on Monday last, sustained the decision of Judge Mosher. This will be gratifying to those who failed to pay their subscription when due.
