

THE HAT OF THE PERIOD.—The Chicago Inter-Ocean has a treatise on woman's hats, in which it says: "You meet a remarkably modest and timid appearing young lady to-day, and you notice that her hat has a meek and shrinking indentation in the crown. It looks as if it wanted to shun the wicked world and hang its self up in a nursery. To-morrow you meet the same lady, and what a change! She appears as charming as Joan of Arc and as independent as the president of a woman's congress. And her whole appearance is thus altered by pinning up the front of the hat. Next day she appears in a different. This is not a fiction, it is a fact. The hat is fastened out, and her eyes gleam frantically from underneath, as if watching an opportunity to order you to stand and deliver. You see her again, and the rim is turned up behind, while it is worn flat in front, giving her an appearance of a female Solomon Shingle being in front a customer for that kind of apple sauce. Again, and it is pitched on the extreme back of the head, reminding you of T. Odies in his cups, when he is assuring the sailorman that when his father heard of the sailorman's death he went broken-hearted to his grave, and died there. With all these advantages, it is no wonder that the reigning hat is popular and is comfortable to the head—so they say—and it is an ornament or a disguise, as required. Its demure, jaunty, meek, saucy, bold, sly, obstinate, conciliating, tender—whatever you please—everything by turns and nothing long. It is the hat of the period, cunning and deceitful, but, above all things, desperately wicked."

THE NECK.—Perfect health demands that the clothing about the neck should be very moderate in quantity, and worn so loose as to prevent the slightest compression. The great error frequently committed in clothing this part of the body consists in wearing such an amount as to overheat and weaken the throat, and thus render it easily susceptible to cold, or in wearing it so tight as to retard the circulation of the blood to and from the head. Great care should be exercised upon this point, as the arteries and veins leading from the head to the brain are situated so near the surface in the neck that a slight compression there serves to check the flow of the blood. Many cases of congestion of the brain and headache are caused by too tight collars and cravats.

A NEW STORY OF HORACE GREELEY.—A writer in the St. Paul Press tells a new story of Horace Greeley. Horace wrote a note to a brother editor in New York, whose writing was equally illegible with his own. The recipient of the note not being able to read it sent it back by the same messenger to Mr. Greeley for elucidation. Supposing it to be the answer to his own note, Mr. Greeley looked over it, and said to the boy: "Go, take it back. What does the d-d fool mean?" "Yes, sir," said the boy, "that just what he says."

OLD SHINGLES.—A writer in the New York Tribune says there is a house in Hanover, N. H., that was shingled with pine shingles on the very day of the battle of Bunker Hill was fought, and has not been repaired since. The house is occupied, and the roof looks but a trifle. In one or two places. You would not call it an old-looking roof.

CLEANING STOVES.—Stove brushes when mixed with turpentine, and applied in the usual manner, is made and more glossy, and more durable than when mixed with any other fluid. The turpentine prevents rust and when put on an old rusty stove will make it look as well as new.

A BAPTIST church in G. Baton, Louisiana, has decided that a Granger cannot remain a member of the church until he is a member of the order of P. O. of Husbandry. The grounds assumed by the church is that the Patriarch of Husbandry is a secret order.

"Vell, mine shon," said a well-to-do Israelite to his hopeful, who asked for a nickel, "I don't mind de value of de fife sheets; but shust dink vot de interest on dot sum would be in von hundred years."

It is said of the printer—"He beats the farmer with his hoe, the carpenter with his rule, the mason in setting up columns, the lawyer in attending cases, and the parson in the management of the devil."

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For the relief and cure of all derangements in the stomach, liver, and bowels. They are a mild and safe cathartic, and an excellent purgative. Being purely vegetable, they contain no mercury or mineral whatever. Much serious sickness and suffering is prevented by their timely use; and every family should have them on hand for their protection and relief, when required. Long experience has proved them to be the safest, surest, and best of all the Pills with which the market abounds. By their occasional use, the blood is purified, the corruptions of the system expelled, obstructions removed, and the whole machinery of life restored to its healthy activity. Internal organs which become clogged and sluggish are cleansed by Ayer's Pills, and stimulated into action. This important disease is changed into health, the value of which cannot be reckoned on the vast multitudes who enjoy it, can hardly be computed. Their sugar coating makes them pleasant to take, and preserves their virtues unimpaired for any length of time, so that they are ever fresh, and perfectly reliable. Although searching, they are mild, and operate without disturbance to the constitution, or diet, or occupation.

Directions are given on the wrapper to each box, how to use them as a Family Physic, and for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Distress, Lassitude and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach, and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Biliousness, Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Stools, Bilious Colic, and other Disorders of the Liver, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause them.

For Biliary or Diarrhoea, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Limbs, they should be continued until the disease has changed the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings, they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression, a large dose should be taken, as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional use stimulates the stomach and bowels, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.
