SOLDIERS'
WAR CLAIM AGENCY!

NO. 34 MONTGOMERY BLOCK,

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.

W. H. AIKEN, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, of the Republic of California, No. 34, Montgomery Block, San Francisco, will give his attention to the collection of Additional Travel Pay, now due California and Nevada Volunteers discharged 300 miles from home. Soldiers can depend on fair dealing. Information given free of charge. When writing enclose stamp for reply and state company and regiment and whether you have a discharge. Congress has extended the time for filing claims for additional pay to April 1, 1875, so all such claims must be made before that time. Original Bounty of $100 has been allowed all volunteers who enlisted before July 22, 1861, for three years, if not paid the same when discharged. Land Warrants can be obtained for services rendered before 1855, but not for services in the late war. Pensions for late war and 1812 obtained and increased when allowed for less than disability veterans, but pensions are allowed to Mexican and Florida war soldiers. State of Texas has granted Pensions to surviving veterans of Texas Revolution. New Orleans and Mobile Prize Money is now due and being paid. W. H. Aiken also attends to General law and Collection Business.

SHALL WE KILL THE CALVES.

If farmers were in the habit of killing like tradesmen, they would find that a large portion of the young calves had for profit better known in the head at once than made into veal, as the amount of milk they will consume in the fattening is of more value than they can get for their calves. On the other hand, if they would take the calves and have a desire to raise good stock, it can be done economically, with proper care, and at the same time save the milk for butter and cheese; and calves so raised and carried to the second or third year will pay a handsome profit.

We have met with excellent success in rearing calves apart from their dams by the following method: Take the calf away from the cow at three days old; teach it to drink at once by fastening an India rubber or leather teat in the bottom of a shallow trough, and feed with fresh milk for a week twice a day; then gradually mix with skimmed milk, increasing the quantity day by day for another week.

On the third week use only skimmed milk and a gruel composed of one-third barley and two-thirds oats, ground together very fine, sifting the mixture. The gruel is made as follows: To one quart of the flour add twelve quarts of water; boil the mixture half an hour, and let it stand until milk warm. Each calf should receive a quart of the gruel morning and evening. A little of the flour put into a small trough for them to lick at is of service, and small bundles of fresh, fine sweet hay should be suspended in the stable for them to nibble at. Feed them thus until they are about three months old, gradually increasing the quantity of gruel and feeding twice a day. Three bushels of the above mixture will raise six calves.—Exchange.

A PRETTY DISH FOR A WOMAN IN BAD HEALTH.—Miss Nellson, the celebrated actress, was dined and wined before her departure from California, and a San Francisco scribe, after going through a description of various delicacies, says: "All these were as nothing beside the grand course—the dish by which Monsieur le Cher has made himself an undying name. It was composite; the center was a hummingbird surrounded by a spring limet, which, in turn, was enveloped by an English snipe. These the carcass of a stuff'd grouse surrounded, covering which two canvas-back ducks raised in a cel-ry-garden, the whole placed within the bosom of a Chicago goose. Soaked in raisin-wine for six days, then larded, and smoked three weeks over burning sandal-wood, it was at last placed on the spit and roasted with pig-pork drippings. The sauce was of truffles stewed in Private Cuve; the garnish, mose-rose buds.

No wonder the fair artiste was delighted!"—Cincinnati Commercial.

IF I ONLY HAD CAPITAL, we heard a young man say a few days ago, as he puff'd away at a ten-cent cigar, I would do something. If I only had capital, said another, as he walked away from a dram shop where he had just paid ten cents for a drink, I would go into business. The same remark might have been heard from the young man loafing on the street corner.

Young men with the cigar, you are smoking away your capital. You from the dram shop are drinking yours and destroying your body at the same time—and you on the street corner are wasting yours in idleness and forming bad habits. Dimes make dollars.

Time is money! Don't wait for a fortune to begin with. If you had ten thousand dollars a year and spent it all you would be poor still. Our men of power and influence did not start with fortunes. You, too, can make a mark, if you will. But you must stop spending your money for what you don't need, and squandering your time in idleness.

ANOTHER PLOT TO KILL BISMARCK.—The North German Gazette

publishes the following: "In Sept.,

1878, a French Archbishop received an anonymous letter, the writer offering to kill Bismarck for $12,000. In a second letter the writer enclosed his photograph and gave his name and address as follows: "Duchesne Poncel Rue Leopold." The Archbishop communicated the letters to the French Government, which informed Bismarck. Poncel, who was found and identified as a workman, was watched.

It was ascertained that he was preparing to go to Germany, but becoming aware of police surveillance gave up his intention. The communication to the Archbishop was not written by Poncel, but by one of his fellow-workmen, who is supposed to have been a confederate.

SOMEBODY says, "few lawyers can make a will that cannot be broken."

Smudgins says his wife has one that can't be broken.
