RELIGIOUS DIRECTORY.

M. E. CHURCH.—Religious services every Sunday, at the usual hours, by the Rev. J. R. N. Bell, J. S. McCain and M. A. Williams, alternately. CATHOLIC CHURCH.—Divine Services every Sunday, at the usual hour, by Rev. Father Blanchett.

P. O. REGISTER AND TRAVELER'S GUIDE.

Stages leave Jacksonville as follows: For Rock Point, Grant's Pass and Roseburg, every day at 8 a. m. Mail closes at 7:30 p. m. For Phoenix, Ashland, Yreka and Redding, California, every day at 10:30 a. m. Mail closes at 10 a. m.

ALFALFA.—Sachs Bros. have a quantity of first-class alfalfa seed for sale.

COUNTY COURT.—The March term of the County Court transpires next week.

INSANE.—Thos. Smith, of Butte Creek, was examined before Judge Watson yesterday, by Dr. Matthias, and pronounced insane.

THE WINTER IN LAKE.—Edward Kilgore, of Lake county, arrived in town this week. He reports the weather warm and pleasant, and that no stock has died during the winter.

MODOC WAR CLAIMS.—A dispatch dated Washington, February 21st, says the House committee on military affairs have reported in favor of the bill for the payment to the State of Oregon of $72,631 and to the State of California $4,621, on account of expenditures in the Modoc War.

CATHOLIC CHURCH.—The Catholic Church was crowded last Sunday morning and evening to hear the Rev. Father Heinrich, of Roseburg. A good attendance of Germans were present to hear his morning sermon, which was delivered in the German language. He left a favorable impression on his audience on each occasion.

LELAND ITEMS.—A correspondent, under date of Leland, Feb. 22d, sends us the following items:

The winter so far has been a poor one for miners. E. G. Browning & Co. are extracting quartz from their mines on Grave Creek, and have a fine lot already taken out.

Panthers are numerous and troublesome. Three of these animals attacked a mare and yearling colt belonging to F. A. Davis, and killed the latter. The mare reached home, but is so badly injured that she will probably die.

MAIL TO GALICE CREEK.—We may now look with a degree of confidence in the establishment of a mail route from here to Galice Creek. As will be seen by the proceedings elsewhere, the citizens of Jacksonville met Tuesday evening and appointed a committee to send a telegram to our Representatives in Congress in relation to this matter, and also to draft a petition to the Postmaster-General for a daily mail service on the same. The petition will be circulated at an early day. The telegram was sent the next morning, of which the following is a copy:

JACKSONVILLE, Feb. 23, 1875. To Senators J. H. Mitchell and J. K. Kelly and Representative J. W. Nesmith, Washington, D. C.:

It is generally believed that there will be 3,000 people at the Yank ledge by the first day of May. At a large meeting held here tonight, it was unanimously resolved to urge you to get a post route and daily mail established immediately on the south side of Rogue river from here via Galice Creek to the Yank ledge in Josephine county. Daily service necessary.

B. F. DOWELL, J. N. T. MILLER, E. B. WATSON, H. K. HANNA, C. C. BECKMAN, Committee.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

No empty houses. The stages arrive on time. City election next Tuesday. Louis B. Tucker has gone South. Building the new County Jail is progressing.

Several interesting items are crowded out this week. Old papers, in quantities to suit, for sale at this office. Certain sections of the game law are in operation again.

Work on the Masonic building was resumed this week. John A. Boyer has a superior supply of garden seeds for sale. N. Langell has removed to his new building on California street. We are prepared to print horse bills neatly and at reasonable rates.

S. J. Day, School Clerk, is taking a census of the school children in this district. We learn that A. P. Owen, formerly of this place is clerking in a drug store at Coos Bay. J. H. Remme, of Yreka, has taken the place of E. F. Lewis, as foreman of the Sentinel. The Modoc Indian war cost the Quartermasters of Subsistence Departments $411,000. Frank Niday and Mr. Harkness, students at the Ashland Academy, were in town last week. Dr. Parker, who was lately so severely injured by a kick from a horse, is able to be about again. Geo. Smith, lately of this place, has located at Ashland and set up a watch and jewelry repairing shop. The snow on the Cascades, where the road crosses them, is two feet deep. But little snow at Linkville. Those who have promised us wood are requested to bring the same forthwith, as we are in need of it. Herman Helms has been appointed administrator of the estate of John Blattner. See notice elsewhere. John Blattner, who had his arm amputated last week, died last Friday evening, and was buried the following day. Two citizens near Phoenix had an affray lately, which resulted in one breaking the other's arm with a piece of scantling. The average hoodlum seems to be badly afflicted with the Spring fever, and delights in sunning himself on some convenient corner or door-step. Samuel Colver, of this county, and Nelson Stephenson, of Lake, are members of the Executive Committee of the State Temperance Alliance. A large amount of fruit is wasted in this county each year. The Alden drying apparatus would doubtless prove a profitable investment here. By a late Elko (Nev.) paper, we see that our former townsman, G. M. Banks, has been appointed U. S. Marshal, and is also Constable. Glad to hear it. G. W. Mace has removed to his farm on Bear Creek, where he will engage in the raising of Angora goats more extensively than ever. His family accompanied him. Scarlet rash and chicken pox have been prevailing among the children of Jacksonville for some time. No cases have ended seriously as yet, as the diseases are only of a mild type. The Vieuxtemps Brothers have bilked the citizens of San Diego, Cal., and made tracks for Fort Yuma, A. T. It will be a pity if the Apaches don't raise the hair of these irrepressible dead beats before they leave there. Washington's birthday passed off quietly last Monday. Were it not for the flags being hoisted, the occasion would have transpired unnoticed. The ball in the evening went off pleasantly, but was not as well attended as it might have been, owing to prevailing circumstances. The supper given by Madam Holt was pronounced excellent. RETURNED.—Sheriff Manning returned last week from California with Cunningham, who decamped with one of the livery horses of Manning & Ish, and sold him to H. Casey. Cunningham returned $20.75 of the money he received from Casey for the horse. He now languishes in the Jail. CORRESPONDENCE.—We shall always be pleased to receive correspondence from all parts of Southern Oregon. Send along the items or call on us yourself, and we will put them in shape.

LETTER FROM GALICE CREEK.

QUARTZVILLE, Feb. 14, 1875. EDITOR DEMOCRATIC TIMES:

As a few items from the Yank ledge and a reliable description of the same may be of interest to your readers, I take it upon myself to furnish them.

Commencing at the Yank ledge, running south, the lode facing Rogue River is not as many would believe, from former descriptions, rising abruptly up to a height of 500 feet, supposed to have been cut down by the waters of the river. The high mountains on each side of the river ascend gradually, receding from the stream till they attain the height of some 500 feet, with a visible cropping out of the ledge down to the high water mark at the base of the hill on each side of the river. Here this immense ledge is washed bare for about 300 feet. Large spurs extend above the water at intervals and cross the river, running southerly or up the same. Along the summit of the mountain, for a distance of four miles to Galice Creek, a well developed ledge all the way tamped and laid bare by every mountain stream crossing it, can be traced for many miles by its heavy croppings.

The Yank Company have struck some very fine ore 15 or 20 feet wide at the eastern wall. There is a beautiful town site laid out near the Yank ledge, owned by Mr. McNair, a wide-awake and energetic gentleman, who has set apart thirty-two town lots for sale, at $50 each, the proceeds of which he intends appropriating towards building a wagon road running from Quartzville to Harkness', on the stage road, a distance of 15 miles. This road commences at a ferry now being constructed by a couple of enterprising gentlemen from Eugene, running up a gulch called Creeve Gulch, along the Yank ledge north a distance of two miles to the summit of the Grave Creek hills; thence down the hill to Grave Creek, a distance of five miles, intersecting a road running up said stream; thence up said road a distance of seven or eight miles to Harkness' Hotel, on the stage road. You will perceive there is only about seven miles of road to build to intersect the Grave Creek road. There is also a neat town site one mile above Quartzville, on the river, owned by old Yank, at the base of the hill bearing the ledge. This town is called by some Lumberville and others Yankville. I really do not know which of these names are correct. However, if the ledge is half so valuable as represented, the property will be very valuable in a short time. J. S. Howard surveyed this town off into lots on the 13th. There is also a ferry boat ready to launch at Lumberville, owned by Williams & Co., of Yanny's Ferry. There will also be a wagon road running from this ferry up a gulch called Fowl Air Gulch, intersecting the Creeve Canyon road on the summit of the Grave Creek mountains, at a distance of three miles from Lumberville. There is a company making arrangements to build a mill on Fowl Air Gulch, half a mile from Lumberville. I would say, for the benefit of those wishing to purchase lots in Quartzville, that Mr. McNair will sell lots in that place, 25 feet front by 80 feet back, for $50 each, and the parties purchasing can work out the amount on the Creeve Canyon road, at $2.50 a day and board themselves, if they will apply before they are all taken. He disposed of seven on the 13th on the above mentioned terms. Mr. Harkness floated 5,000 feet of lumber from the mouth of Louise Creek down the river to Quartzville a few days ago, to be used in constructing a hotel. I would say to the citizens of Jackson county if they do not take immediate action in building their wagon road they will be left behind in this matter. The interested parties in Lumberville and Quartzville, as well as the citizens of Grave Creek and Douglas county, are manifesting a lively interest in the Creeve Canyon wagon road, and operations at this time are being prosecuted on both ends with vigor. M. Peterson and O. Ganiard have purchased half of the Lumberville town site for $600. Doubtless a good investment. E. Walker has also invested in quartz by purchase. Peterson & Co. intend cutting a canal tapping Rogue river above Lumberville. Surveyors are likely to have a great deal of work here in the way of reviewing surveys. J. S. Howard has already reviewed two 20-acre lots and found 45 acres contained inside the line. It is supposed the needle used was too fine to withstand the great metal attraction from the Yank ledge, as the extra five acres were at the base of the hill, immediately under that ledge. CITIZEN.

INSTALLATION.—At a regular meeting of Eden Lodge No. 197, held at Phoenix, Feb. 6th, the following officers were installed by J. M. Hoxie, Lodge Deputy: J. H. Oatman, W. C. T.; Isabel Rose, W. V. T.; L. Colver, Secretary; John Stillwell, W. F. S.; Miss H. Bryant, W. T.; H. H. Taylor, W. M.; E. E. Gore, W. C.; Mrs. J. Oatman, R. H. S.; Mrs. L. Colver, L. H. S.; Miss Nettie Gore, A. S.; Miss Ida Gore, D. M.; Mrs. Sarah Barker, I. G.; George Dunlap, O. G.; L. A. Rose, P. W. C. T.

HEARD FROM.—We last week received a letter from our old friend Alfred Preater, formerly a resident of this place. He is now keeping hotel at Lockford, San Joaquin Co., Cal., and invites his friends to call and see him, when passing that way. Mr. Preater has our thanks for a goodly remittance of "the needful." May his shadow never grow less.

THANKS.—Hon. J. W. Nesmith has our thanks for an illustration of the recent dead-lock in the House, so skillfully manipulated by the Democratic members. Also for copies of the Congressional Record.

MINING NEWS.

Prospecting as lively as ever. J. S. Howard arrived from Galice Creek last week, and reports everything lovely. Alex. Martin, Gen. Ross, John R. Tice and A. M. Berry went to Galice Creek this week. Messrs. McDaniel, Pape, Huffer and Smith have located claims on a ledge on Applegate, which is supposed to be a good one. The Hawk cinnabar deposit on Griffin Creek is proving better than at first anticipated. Some very fair rock from it was brought to town this week. We were this week shown some good claims from the claims of Kincaid, Fisher & Co., lately discovered on Grave Creek, which seems to be a good article. Wm. Bilger, who returned from San Francisco this week, has a sample of rock from the Panamint (Cal.) mines, owned by Senators Jones, Stewart and others. Work is progressing towards ascertaining the worth of the Hodges cinnabar ledge by Caton, Turner & Co. Considerable labor has already been performed on it, and the prospects are very favorable. From parties who have visited Galice Creek, the Roseburg Prüfdecker learns that the nature of the mines has not been exaggerated in the least, but on the contrary the press does not do them justice. Those who doubt the reliability of the late test of the quartz from the Yank ledge by mill process, can call on Wm. Bilger and be convinced of this fact, as he has the assayer's receipts for the same. W. M. Turner informs us that another rich cinnabar deposit was found in the neighborhood of the Hodges ledge by Mart. Dickenson. The ledge is large, fourteen claims of 1,500 feet each having been already taken upon it. Chas. Griffith brought to town on Wednesday some ore from a ledge of large dimensions discovered near Kerbyville. The croppings have assayed $4 in silver per ton, and the quartz from the main ledge is expected to pay handsomely. Frank M. Smith, of Applegate, brought to town last week some fine looking rock from a ledge he has discovered in the Siskiyou mountains, a quantity of which he has sent to San Francisco for assay. He informs us that a cinnabar ledge of enormous proportions has also been found in that section of the country. Quartz from what is supposed to be a continuation of the famous Steamboat or Fowler ledge, on Applegate, which has been abandoned by other parties, was brought to town the other day, and a test made of it by A. W. Sturges. Two pounds of the same, crushed in a mortar, gave $2.87 in gold, or at the rate of over $2,000 a ton. We learn that this ledge was formerly worked by two men, one who has died and the other is an inmate of the Insane Asylum, and that some hundred tons of rock has already been taken from it. It is at present located upon by Alex. Martin, A. W. Sturges, Sol. Sachs and Herman Helms. We learn that operations on it will soon commence. FROM BUTTE CREEK. BROWNSBOROUGH, Feb. 16th. EDITOR DEMOCRATIC TIMES: On Friday last I attended the examination of the Brownsborough scholars (40 odd) by J. B. Farley, Esq., their teacher. The house was well filled with visitors, who seemed to be well pleased and listened with close attention to the exercises of each class. Mr. Farley seems to be at home at a school examination. At the close he gave us a treat, in a few remarks on mathematics, which were highly interesting and received with applause. Mr. Henry Brown congratulated the teacher upon the progress made, and the scholars for their general good behavior. Through the kindness and liberality of Mr. James Miller, the scholars were regaled with cake and tea, and so ended a very pleasant day in Brownsborough. VISITOR. CRACKERS.—Those desiring crackers, etc., will do well to favor Jos. Lang, of Yreka, with their orders, who manufactures superior articles at the following low prices per pound: Soda crackers, 9 cents; sugar crackers, 10 cents; ginger snaps, 15 cents; Jenny Lind cakes, 16 cents. Large amounts at a fair reduction from these rates. THE weather is beautiful.

Lake County Items.

Our regular correspondent, under date of Feb. 17th, sends us the following: Land Office business looking up. The road across the mountain is just horrible. A good quality of hay is selling at $10.00 per ton. Some of Scotland's nobility is doing the Lake country. Alex. Miller has been quite ill, but is now convalescent. J. R. Neil and H. Kelly, of the legal fraternity, sojourned a few days in Linkville recently, transacting business connected with the Nus estate. St. Valentine's day was duly observed in Linkville. The general remark there, on that day, was, "I can lick the individual who sent this." The Clerkship of Lake county so far is a pecuniary success. No marriage license issued as yet, but judging from energetic demonstrations on the part of the sterner sex, there soon will be a call for that kind of article. Owing to the progressive influence of the Temperance Society, and the never failing good that attends the presence of ladies, Linkville, hitherto of questionable moral purity, is rapidly improving. We want more of 'em; that is, the ladies. TESTING GOLD ORES.—As there is much prospecting going on in this section at present, the following from the Helena (Montana) Independent, may be of importance: Persons prospecting for gold quartz frequently come upon lodes that contain sulphurets and are unable to tell whether the ore is valuable until they have gone to the expense of having assays made of it. The following simple yet effective process may save the miner many a dollar and much time in getting to a place where he can have his ore assayed. It will not hold good in all kinds of rock, but will bring out more or less of the precious metals, if there be any in it: Put a piece of rock into the fire, say about the size of your fist, and heat it to a cherry-red throughout, but do not get it to a white heat, as it will fuse and run; take it out of the fire and give it a gentle shower bath, so as to cool it off slowly, so as to sudden a cooling will slack up the rock. When cool, examine the rock, and if it is rich it will generally show the gold. But for a surer test, pulverize it and "horn it out" in the usual way. This, perhaps, is not so sure a way as a test with acids, but acids are not always at hand in the woods with the prospector. After burning, as above, if it does not show gold, it will not be apt to do so with acids, as it scarcely, if ever, fails to bring the color; that is, where the sulphuret is composed mostly of iron and sulphur, or arsenic, this test is good and will not fail. But where the sulphuret is copper (and iron) the test is not so good, because the copper fuses and carries everything that comes in contact with it, so if there is any gold with it, it will be covered or tused with copper.
