ASHLAND NOTES.

ASHLAND, March 1, 1875. We learn that James Thornton has bought into the Woolen Factory. We hope it will continue operations. Its manufactures are pronounced equal to any in the State.

The Academy is well attended this quarter. The commercial department is pretty well crowded, and there are about forty students searching for knowledge in the mercantile branch. Several will finish the course this quarter.

We are happy to greet our old and welcome friend, Dr. Jackson, again, who arrived on yesterday's stage. He intends remaining with us for several days, and we hope his visit will be an agreeable as well as a profitable one.

The Ashland Variety Troupe is in full blast. They will give an entertainment on Saturday, March 6th. We think the boys are prepared to give general satisfaction. They propose to play some of the choicest pieces, while their jokes, stump speeches, etc., are the very latest. We hope there will be a large attendance to encourage them in their efforts.

Mrs. Anderson, who has been lying at the point of death, died Saturday evening. The funeral services took place at the Academy at two o'clock Sunday afternoon. The Rev. J. H. Skidmore preached an able and touching sermon, after which the corpse was borne to the cemetery and there deposited in its last resting-place. Mrs. Anderson leaves three sons and two daughters to mourn her loss, besides numerous friends.

CHANGES.

ASHLAND, March 3, 1875.

Business in Ashland is rather dull.

The Woolen Factory has resumed work.

The Ashland Variety Troupe has flaming bills promiscuously scattered around, announcing a grand entertainment at the Academy on the 6th inst. Theatrical infatuation is running high.

Passing along the street to-day, I met a member of the Ashland Mining Company, and civilly inquired of him the latest mining news. He looked at me a moment in a kind of patronizing way and simply remarked, "Eureka, Mozenda," and passed majestically on. What did he mean?

Wood & Terwilliger intend building a paint shop between the Post Office and Ed. DePeatt's shoe shop.

The following assistants were chosen at the recent Good Templars' installation: Miss M. E. Smith, R. H. S.; Miss M. M. Quigley, W. L. H. S.; Miss Ida Cronmiller, W. A. S.; Miss M. J. Shaw, W. D. M.

Lake County Items.

LINKVILLE, Feb. 21, 1875.

No whisky retailed in Linkville. Everybody sick with bad colds.

Splendid weather. Snow going off with a rush.

J. H. Small is Deputy Clerk for Lake county.

Lake County Court convenes at Linkville on the first Monday in April.

The Epizootic is going the rounds again, proving fatal in several instances.

She is here, and Uncle George Nourse is serenely happy. We wish we were those.

Fourteen land patents have been received at the Linkville Land Office for parties in this vicinity.

N. Stephenson has been appointed Justice of the Peace for the Linkville precinct, vice H. M. Thatcher, resigned.

J. H. Small, of this place, has negotiated in the lower valleys for one thousand head of yearling steers, to be delivered east of the Cascades in June.

Isaac Wilson, of Langell Valley, has just returned from Reno, Nev., where he drove and disposed of a band of beef cattle. Did not learn the price received.

Jay Beach, the irresistible and popular merchant of Fort Klamath, has purchased quite a number of fine young horses of O. T. Brown, and is engaged at present breaking them to drive.

Lieut. Hoyle, of Fort Klamath, passed through here to-day, en route for Yreka. He reports everything O. K. at the Fort, and claims to own the fleetest "purp" in the Klamath basin.

MARCH 3, 1875.

There is a foot of snow on the Cascades.

Applegate Bros., a few days since, sold 150 head of beef cattle to a San Francisco cattle merchant.

THE MINES.—The weather of the past week has been rainy and disagreeable, so as to render prospecting and other mining developments almost out of the question, which may account for the sparseness of this class of news this week. Several persons from town have returned from Galice Creek, but report no further developments. There are about 150 people there at present, but large numbers are constantly coming and going, as the accommodations are not ample enough as yet.

AGRICULTURAL.—So unfavorable has been the weather, that up to within the past month or two comparatively little grain has been sown. The recent pleasant weather has been taken advantage of by the farmers, however, and the acreage sown will be sufficient at the least.

ANNUAL REPORT.—Superintendent Fleming is preparing his annual report to the State Superintendent. The county apportionment of school money will be made this month.

GIVE YOUR NAME.—Correspondents must give their true names, as well as their nom de plume, or their communications will not be noticed.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

TUESDAY EVENING, March 2d.

A special meeting of the Board of Trustees was held this evening. All the members were present.

The meeting was called to order by President Beekman.

The reports of the Town officers were then called for. The Recorder reported that in accordance with the order of the Board he had made out and posted the annual statement of the receipts and expenditures of the Town to Feb. 8, 1875, and submitted a copy of the same to the Board. The statement shows the total amount of receipts to be $843.82, and expenditures, $680.52. Balance on hand Feb. 8, 1875, $163.24. Ordered on file.

The following bills were presented: David Linn, making fire ladders, $26.50; also $56.87 for posts for cemetery and painting the same. The bills were ordered paid.

An ordinance for restraining cows from running at large at night was submitted and read a first time.

The returns of the election were then laid before the Board, and after being canvassed, the result was declared as follows: Trustees, C. C. Beekman, K. Kubli, Sol. Sachs, II. Judge and John Miller; Recorder, U. S. Hayden; Treasurer, Henry Pape; Marshal, James P. McDaniel; Street Commissioner, Silas J. Day.

It was thereupon ordered that certificates of election be issued to each officer-elect.

An order was made allowing the Inspectors and Clerks of Election $3.00 each for their services.

The President gave notice that he would at a subsequent meeting submit a proposition to the Board for the enlargement and improvement in other respects of the Town Hall.

The Board then adjourned.

TOWN ELECTION.—The election last Tuesday passed off quietly, but was nevertheless a spirited one. Only 130 votes were cast, which is a comparatively small vote for Jacksonville.

Agreeable to the new law passed by the last Legislature, the saloons were closed during election hours. The following is the result, as returned by the officers of election:

COUNTY ASSESSING.—The new law relating to Assessors, says that he shall enter upon the duties of his office on the first Monday in March, and shall make his return before the first Monday in September next following such assessment. Mr. Childers, our Assessor, was in town last week, making preparations to commence operations. Owing to the non-receipt of the necessary material for taking the census, from the Secretary of State, he has been delayed in his work. He will commence assessing as soon as they arrive, however.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—Prof. L. L. Rowland, State School Superintendent, announces that the Teachers' Institute for this county will be held on the second Monday in June, at which he will be present. He will also hold an Institute in Lake county on the fourth Monday in June.

LODGE INCORPORATED.—Jacksonville Stamm No. 148, U. O. R. M., has recently filed articles of incorporation in the offices of the Secretary of State and County Clerk. The amount incorporated in is $1,000. Herman Helms, Max Muller and Louis Petzold are the Trustees.

CORRECTION.—In our last we made a mistake in saying that Wm. Bilger had receipts of assays of quartz made by mill process. Mr. Bilger had no quartz tested by this method, but by simple assay, the receipts of which he will show those wishing to see them.

FOR EAST PORTLAND.—Deputy Sheriff Kent left last week for East Portland, leaving in charge Thos. Smith, who was adjudged insane on the 25th ult.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The postponed term of the Circuit Court will commence on Monday, March 15th.

SOMETHING FOR THE CHILDREN.—One of the greatest pleasures which St. Nicholas brings to its readers, is certainly the monthly chapters of Miss Allcott's story. This time we catch a delightful glimpse of the "Eight Cousins" at home and in the midst of the confusion and riot produced by the return of their sailor-uncle. Just as interesting, also, is the sight of Rose in her new fancy-couture, and the peep with her into that curious room never before explored, where she makes a great discovery.

But Rose is not the only character in the March number who meets with a remarkable surprise, for in Mr. Trowbridge's serial the "Young Surveyor" is as completely astonished by finding his stolen horse when and where he does. If ever there was an ingenious horse-thief, the fellow who captured "Shogfoot" was he! It is a proof of his cunning, that Jack, after all his efforts to find the missing animal, and after his search has been at last so strangely rewarded, is not yet "out of the woods," and seems to be threatened with another unexpected adventure.

Almost all boys and girls like narratives of wars and battles, and they will find a story of this sort in the poem called "The War of the Rats and Mice," which is every way as thrilling in its way as the deeds of any favorite hero from Richard Cour-de-Lion to Jack the Giant-Killer. The illustrations by Stephens are admirable; one of them, a true "battle-piece," representing a tournament both exciting and novel.

As for the rest of the number, we have several excellent stories by Frank R. Stockton, Annie La Forge and others, sketches of travel and science with illustrations, an article by W. H. Ridding on the Naval Academy at Annapolis, a French story, two delightful poems by Lucy Larcom and Mary E. Bradley, and—besides other good things—the irrepressible Jack-in-the-Pulpit, whose fun and jokes are always full of wisdom.

THE SAM'S VALLEY CINNABAR.—The cinnabar deposits discovered in Sam's Valley are reported to be exceedingly rich in the metal. This district is said to embrace about ten miles of country, several of which are already claimed. One of the locators claims that he does not exaggerate in the least when he says these mines will rival the New Almaden, in point of abundance and richness. The rock is of a yellow cast, but when crushed exhibits a blood red color, strongly impregnated with quicksilver. Some work has been done on these mines, and those interested are sanguine of having struck it rich. We hope so.

PERSONAL.—Hon. W. W. Fidler, of Josephine county, was in town last week.

M. Caton returned from the cinnabar district in Sam's Valley this week. We have been unable to interview him on the prospects as yet.

Sam Bowden has gone to fulfill his contract of running a tunnel 100 feet long into Linn & Orth's quartz ledge on Applegate.

Lost.—Prof. Kennedy lost his memorandum book, containing the names of various persons in Oregon and California, and also pictures of S. R. Wells and Frank Logan. The book is of little value to anybody but the Professor, who will be duly grateful to the person finding the same and leaving it at his office.

COMING.—We learn that Calvin B. McDonald, the talented editor of the Salem Statesman, intends visiting Jacksonville ere long. We trust he will, and hope that he can be prevailed upon to deliver his celebrated lecture of "the massacre of Glencoe."

TO RETURN.—We are pleased to learn that John Neuber has so far recovered as to be able to return home in a few weeks, should nothing happen.

APPOINTED.—Hugh F. Barron has been appointed Administrator of the estate of Miss Walker, deceased.

JUDGE PRIM will be in Jacksonville in a few days to hold Court.

IMPORTANT.—Endorsed by the Medical profession. DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS cures Coughs, Colds and Consumption, and all diseases of the Throat and Chest. DR. TOWNSELY'S TOOTHACHE ANODYNE cures in one MINUTE.

BORN.

PEARSON.—On Applegate, March 3d, 1875, to the wife of John Pearson, a son—a 15-pounder.

NEW, THIS WEEK.
