

AGENTS FOR THE TIMES.

Geo. P. Rowell & Co. New York. S. M. Pettigill & Co. New York. Dan. L. Green. Josephine County. Chas. Hughes. Kervyville. Ben Haymond. Rock Point. L. P. Fisher. San Francisco. Thos. Boyce. San Francisco. Rowell & Chesman. St. Louis.

INSANE.—Daniel Smith was examined before Judge Watson by Dr. Matthias on Wednesday, and adjudged insane. Smith was taken below yesterday by H. L. Webb.

REMOVED.—Kahler & Watson have removed their law office to the Court House, upstairs, in the room formerly occupied by Fay & Rea, where they may always be found hereafter.

STAGE UPSET.—The Oregon and California stage, while on its way between Rufus and Byron Cole's one day this week, upset, killing a horse. No passengers were aboard, and but little other injury was sustained.

BOUND OVER.—Albert Johnson, accused of breaking open Horace Rice's house last October and stealing some articles therefrom, had a preliminary examination before Justice Stinson last Friday, who held him to appear before the Grand Jury in the sum of $2,000. Being unable to respond, he now languishes in jail.

BUYING CATTLE.—Capt. Barnes, of Goose Lake, is now in this county purchasing cattle. He proposes buying about 350 head, and has part of them already herded on the Desert. When the band is completed, it will be driven to the Captain's ranch in Goose Lake. Alex. Martin is assisting Mr. Barnes in his business.

FIFTY-SIXTH ANNIVERSARY.—The Odd Fellows of Jacksonville and vicinity will, on Monday, April 26, 1875, celebrate the Fifty-sixth Anniversary of the introduction of Odd Fellowship in America by a social reunion at the Hall in Jacksonville, at 2 o'clock P. M., and supper at nine—the latter free. All members of the L. O. O. F., with their families, are requested to participate. By order of the Committee. S. J. DAY, R. S. pro tem.

ADMITTED TO BAIL.—Judge Prim has admitted Wm. Brown, one of the Brown brothers now confined in the County Jail, to bail in the sum of $10,000. His Honor granted the motion for bail upon the sworn testimony of Doctors Callender and Matthias, that the prisoner was afflicted with the consumption and that his death might ensue before the June term of the Circuit Court for Lake county, if confined within the Jail. As yet, the requisite bonds have not been procured.

DR. J. GREY JEWELL.—This gentleman, a former resident of this place, has received a nomination for Representative to the Legislature from the Democracy of Sacramento county, Cal., which news will doubtless be well received by his numerous friends here. The Doctor is a man of much ability, a good Democrat, and will be an ornament to the Legislature of California. The Democracy have done well in their choice, and he should be elected by a good majority.

NEW GOODS.—Reames Bros. will in a few days receive a complete and first-class supply of general merchandise, including a fine assortment of Spring and Summer goods.

Fisher & Caro have just received a fine stock of millinery, which they will dispose of at reasonable rates. They are also expecting a full assortment of Spring and Summer goods.

Sachs Bros. will about next Monday open one of the most elegant stocks of Spring and Summer goods ever brought here. They will also receive a full supply of millinery at the same time.

COUNTY FAIR.—The Jackson County Agricultural Society proposes holding another Fair this year, and to this end will call a meeting for the 1st of May. It is supposed that as there is now more concerted action among those who should feel an interest in the matter than formerly, that it will no doubt prove a success. Regular yearly Fairs are of great benefit to the county at large, and everybody should lend their aid in making them what they should be. Smaller and more insignificant counties than Jackson boast of their annual exhibitions, and there is no reason why we should not maintain County Fairs with regularity and success. Let all take hold of this matter with a will, and we will yet astonish the outside world with what we can raise and manufacture.

ANOTHER SAD AFFAIR.

Scarcely has the excitement consequent upon the killing of McMahon subsided, ere we are again called upon to chronicle another sad affair, which occurred last Sunday evening. From what we can learn, Daniel Doty, who lives about five miles east of town, and Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson, who was crossing his land on her way home with a grand-child, a girl aged about 10 years, at the time, became involved in an affair, during which Doty beat Mrs. Johnson in a serious manner with a club. The little girl ran to the house for help, and succeeded in bringing Thomas and Brooks Johnson, sons of the old lady, to the scene, though also struck on the arm by Doty with his club. After parleying for a time, he shot Thomas, the elder, with a shotgun, who fell at the first fire. Thomas then told Brooks to shoot, which he did, as also did Doty, but both missed. It seems that Brooks then dropped his gun and fled, pursued by Doty, who shot at him four or five times with a pistol of some kind, most, if not all, of which took effect.

The affair was witnessed by a son of Rev. W. F. Bonebrake, who informed the neighbors, and the wounded were removed after laying some time on the ground. Doctors Callender & Matthias were then summoned, and dressed the wounds of the sufferers.

From persons who have visited the wounded persons, we learn that Mrs. Johnson was beaten in a severe manner, but will doubtless survive. The little girl was hit across the arm, injuring it severely, but not breaking the bone entirely. The load from the shotgun lodged in the groin of the oldest son, Thomas, penetrating internally. The wound will doubtless prove fatal, and it was expected that he would not live over last night. Brooks, the younger, was shot three times in the back and once in the leg. The lower portion of his body is paralyzed, and it is supposed he will also die ere long.

Shortly after the reception of the news here, H. L. Webb and Stephen Booth started for the scene to arrest Doty, but met him on the road to town. He is now lodged in Jail, awaiting a preliminary examination, which will take place to-morrow.

We refrain from giving further particulars at present, but have given only the facts as stated to us by persons whom we consider reliable and unprejudiced.

I. O. R. M. CELEBRATION.—As will be seen elsewhere, Oregonian-Pocahontas Tribe No. 1, Improved Order of Red Men, will celebrate St. Tammany's Day on May 12, 1875, with appropriate ceremonies and in fine style. The tribe will form in procession at the Wigwam, and after marching through the principal streets, will proceed to the School House, where the programme announced will be carried out. The event will close by a grand ball in the evening, at Veit's Hall. Excellent music will be furnished by the Jacksonville String Band, under the leadership of John Dick, while Mrs. Horne will provide a supper eminently worthy of the occasion. No pains will be spared to make the affair a grand success, and the well-earned reputation heretofore enjoyed by the Red Men is sufficient guarantee that all will pass off in the best possible manner. Everybody is invited to attend.

THE GAME LAW.—The law for the protection of game, as amended by the last Legislature, amounts to virtually nothing, and is of but little more effect than no law at all. The "bob white," or Eastern quail, is the only bird having protection, as the law allows persons to always kill what they choose for their own consumption, which is but little less than would be done anyhow in this section, without restriction. A law affording ample protection to game is of much benefit, but the one as it stands at present does not meet the requirements of the case.

EAGLE SAMPLE ROOMS.—Webb & Jones, the new proprietors of the Eagle Sample Rooms, have taken possession of them, and are now prepared to attend to the wants of the thirsty public. They have made some substantial improvements in the same, and will keep constantly on hand a complete supply of the best wines, liquors, cigars, etc.

SETTLE UP.—John Noland will shortly leave for San Leandro, Cal., and desires those indebted to him to come forward and settle immediately, if not sooner. All accounts not settled then, will be placed in the proper hands for collection.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The picnic season has arrived. The regular quarterly advertising bills are due.

C. W. Savage has again taken charge of the "New State."

The Odd Fellows' anniversary will occur next Monday.

Greenbacks in San Francisco are quoted at 87 1/2 cents.

The Literary Society will hereafter hold semi-monthly open sessions.

Barden's pictures went off like hot cakes, several being sold at 25 cents each.

The Red Men have secured the services of John Dick for their ball on the 12th of May.

J. S. Howard will in a few days start on a surveying trip to the Butte Creek country.

Street Commissioner Day is cleaning the streets and making other substantial improvements.

The Jewish event of Passover commenced last Monday evening and will continue eight days.

John Noland will sell all his household and kitchen furniture, etc., at public auction to-morrow.

The late firm of Hull & Nickell have something of importance to say among the new advertisements.

The weather has taken a sudden change, and as we go to press it looks as if we will have rain ere long.

Look over the columns of the TIMES and see who advertises there. You will generally find those who advertise the best and most liberal to deal with.

D. R. Jones informs us that another appropriation of $20,000 has been made for the completion of Fort Bidwell, which will make it a first-class three-company post.

April has been Jacksonville's unfortunate month, regarding fires, for two years past, but the chances are favorable that we shall escape another infliction of that kind in April of this year.

Capt. James Jackson, 1st cavalry, is appointed to act as inspector on certain camp and garrison equipage at Fort Klamath, for which Capt. John L. Johnston, 21st infantry, commanding company F, is accountable, reported the 31st ult. as requiring the action of an inspector. He is also appointed to act as inspector on certain medical and hospital property at Fort Klamath, for which Assistant Surgeon Henry McElderry, port surgeon, is accountable, reported the 31st ult. as requiring the action of an inspector.

EXCHANGING HORSES.—Quite a lively exchanging of horses is going on at present, which is not exactly agreeable to all parties concerned, as in many instances the owner of the best horse is not consulted about the exchange. We learn that D. S. K. Buick lost a fine horse, just shod, the other evening, some person leaving a rather dilapidated animal in his place. Other like exchanges have been made, but many more such are not likely to occur, as everybody is taking precautions against them.

P. S.—Since the above was in type, we learn that Mrs. Rader, of Butte Creek, also lost a fine horse and saddle the other night. Elder Peterson, who bought a new saddle the other day, had it taken the same night, and found an old saddle some distance off, evidently left by the thief. Many seem to think that an organized band of horse thieves infests the surrounding country at present and have a rendezvous in some obscure locality, where they make away with the plunder obtained.

THE Spring time has arrived, Gentle Annie, and the merry voices of the blue-bird, of the festive bull-toad and of the juvenile porcine quadruped is heard in the land; the agriculturally inclined granger has finished fiercely chasing the plow over the virgin soil and the garden seed man, says the Democrat, is in the midst of a rich harvest. And, yet amid all these convulsions of nature, a still small voice is whispering through the trees in the evening twilight and wafting across the meadows at rosy morn the triumphant truth that the TIMES will continue to be published to each and every one at the insignificant small price of three dollars a year, without regard to sinner or sinner, sex, age or previous condition of servitude.

PROFESSIONAL.—Attention is called to the law card of H. Kelly, Esq. Mr. Kelly has already acquired an excellent reputation as a barrister, and will doubtless gain a fair share of the practice.

HORSES FOR CALIFORNIA.—Alex. Martin last week sent thirty-four head of horses and mules to the California market. They were good animals, and will doubtless find a ready sale.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

TUESDAY, April 20th.

A regular meeting of the Board of Trustees was held this evening. All the members were present except Mr. Sachs. The meeting was called to order by President Beekman.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The ordinance to prevent cows running at large at night was submitted and read. By consent, it was referred to Messrs. Kubli and Judge to amend the same in some material respects.

R. S. Dunlap, Sexton, submitted his annual report, which was read and ordered on file.

The following bills were presented: R. S. Dunlap, Sexton's salary, $30; R. S. Dunlap, work in cemetery, $23.25; J. S. Howard, surveying cemetery, $7.50. Referred to the usual committee.

A petition was received from J. S. Howard and others, asking the Board to have a sidewalk constructed on the west side of Oregon to Fir street. The Board took present action on the petition, and ordered that sidewalks of plank or gravel be constructed by the property owners having frontage on Oregon street from Oak to Fir street, and the Street Commissioner be ordered to have the walk constructed without delay.

Liquor licenses were granted to Wintjen & Helms, Webb & Jones, H. Pape and C. W. Savage.

An order was made requiring the Street Commissioner to report to the Recorder a list of the names of all persons liable to road tax in this District.

The Cemetery Committee was authorized to procure 13 more posts and all that was necessary to complete the circular road as commenced. Said Committee was also authorized to contract for newly painting the posts and railing and the fence and gates.

An order was passed requiring the Fire Wardens to enforce the Fire ordinance in regard to fire flues, and to prosecute all persons disregarding the ordinance.

Board then adjourned.

PERSONAL.—T. G. Reames returned from San Francisco this week, where he has been laying in a large stock of goods.

Judge J. B. Sifers, of Josephine, was in town last Saturday.

Martin Angel, a former resident of this place, is in town.

Father Willis, of Douglas, the spiritual adviser of Barden, who has been in town for the past few days, returned home this week.

Henry Fuller, County Commissioner of Lake, who has been to Salem on business, left for home this week.

'Squire Gearhart, of Sprague river, was in town Sunday.

Wm. A. Owen, of Flourence Rock, was in town yesterday.

Our old friend, Ed. Magruder, who has been seriously indisposed, is able to be about again.

CIRCUIT COURT.—Orth & Giannini vs. John Cimborosky; action to recover money. Judgment for plaintiffs for $110.20 and costs.

B. F. Dowell vs. J. A. Cardwell and W. C. Griswold; injunction. Continued.

E. C. Brooks vs. Wm. Williams et al.; injunction. It was mutually agreed that this cause be submitted to the Court upon written briefs and that the findings and decisions of the Court may be rendered at any time during vacation after the term.

EDITOR TIMES.—Dear Sir:—Through your journal allow me to express my gratitude and thankfulness for the kindness and courtesy shown me while in Jacksonville, from all parties with whom I became acquainted, and especially toward the Sheriff and Jailor, particularly in view of the fact that the duties calling me among you being of an unpleasant character.

Yours, Truly, W. A. WILLIS.
