NEW GOODS.—The firms of Sachs Bros. and Reames Bros. this week opened most complete and elegant stocks of Spring and Summer goods of the latest styles, consisting of hats, clothing, millinery, etc. Don't fail to call and see them.

RETURNED.—Geo. Stephenson, who took Alex. Martin's band of horses and mules to California week before last, returned a few days ago, having disposed of the entire number before getting as far as Reading. They were sold without any trouble, and brought good figures.

HEAVY EXPENSE.—The unusual abundance of crime this year will be a heavy expense to the county. There were about $5,000 outstanding when the present administration took charge of affairs, and considering the fact that no extra provision was made therefor, together with this unexpected increase of expenses, the county will necessarily run somewhat behind.

INFORMATION WANTED.—Information is wanted of the whereabouts of James P. Johnson, who left this section a few months ago. When last heard from he was at Cottonwood, Shasta county, Cal. His presence is needed at home to attend on his wounded brother, who is suffering from the effects of pistol wounds. Address Elizabeth Johnson, Jacksonville, Oregon. California papers please copy.

PROBATE COURT.—In the Probate Court last week, the following business was transacted:

In the matter of the guardianship of George T. Baldwin. C. L. Hammond resigned his trust as guardian, and Robt. T. Baldwin, Sr., was appointed instead.

In the matter of the estate of Geo. H. Erb. Will admitted to probate, and Elizabeth Erb appointed executrix under will. John P. Walker, John L. Grubbe and John Devlin appointed appraisers.

I. O. O. F.—There was a good attendance of Odd Fellows present last Monday to celebrate the fifty-sixth anniversary of the introduction of their Order in the United States. The flag of the Order was raised, as were those in some other localities, while appropriate exercises were had at the Hall at the appointed hour. The members and the invited guests sat down to an excellent collation, prepared by Mrs. Horne, at half-past nine p. m., after which everybody adjourned to Velt's Hall and tripped the "light fantastic" until the "wee sma' hours of morning." The celebration was altogether a very pleasant affair.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

Beautiful weather. Croquet is in bloom. Roads getting dusty. The base ball season has opened. Sweet cider at Wintjen & Helms. Garden sass is becoming abundant. See changes in the programme of the Red Men's celebration.

The May term of the County Court will commence next week. The M. E. Sunday School will have a picnic at Bybee's Grove to-morrow. Attention is called to the array of new advertisements in another column. Several new fences have been and are yet in course of construction about town.

You must advertise if you wish to sell your goods with dispatch and profit.

J. S. Howard last week made a diagram of the scene of the Johnson-Doty affray.

The young folks will to-morrow celebrate the 1st of May by a picnic on Roger river.

A large number of horses, mules, cattle and hogs will be driven out of the county this year.

J. E. Beggs left for Roseburg Wednesday with a load of deer skins, shipped by John Orth.

We learn that James R. Neil proposes removing to Linkville for the purpose of practicing law there.

W. J. Lewis has taken Isaac Constant's gray stallion "Sampson" to Siskiyou county, for the season.

James Lynch, an old stage driver, is now confined in the County Hospital with dropsy. He is in a critical condition.

Fisher & Caro this week received new Spring and Summer goods, and are expecting more in a few days. Call and see them.

The freighting season is about fairly opened. We understand that some of our merchants intend shipping by way of Crescent City this year.

The snow is about all gone in the valley sections around Fort Klamath, and the weather there, as everywhere else, has been warm lately.

The condition of Brooks Johnson is but little improved, and the chances for his recovery are not the best. He is as badly paralyzed as ever.

The mails delayed by the breaking of the Union Pacific railroad by floods in Utah, are now coming along, and the stages are heavily loaded in consequence.

Ben. Sachs this week received a supply of new goods, and will to-day receive a full and elegant Spring and Summer stock. He will take flour in exchange for goods.

We learn that the Stage Company will not commence running on Summer time for a week or ten days yet, as the roads in some portions of this State are rather rough.

Street Commissioner Day is after the Chinese liable to road tax, and proposes making them either work out the same or punge the equivalent. Which the same is correct.

A grand ball will be given at L. Herling's old stand, on Poorman's Creek, on Monday, May 10th. Good music and supper will be provided, and everybody is invited to attend.

The case of John Fritz vs. J. N. T. Miller, administrator of the estate of W. Nus, has been appealed from the Probate to the Circuit Court by the plaintiff. H. Kelly is his attorney.

The railing along the cemetery road has been repainted. The gates and fence will also receive a coat or two, which will greatly improve their appearance. Carter & Son are doing the work.

Mr. Brown, father of the Brown brothers, left for his home in the Willamette for the purpose of procuring bonds for his son William, who Judge Prim has admitted to bail in the sum of $10,000.

The club with which Doty beat Mrs. Johnson has been found. It is about three feet long, of green white oak, and portions of the twigs remain. Stains of blood are discernible in different places.

H. M. Hopewell, who taught school in this county quite recently, is now teaching in Shasta county, Cal. We have received some excellent poetry from him, which will appear in due course of time.

Some cattle men, who have been sojourning in town for a short time past, left last week for Lake county, where they propose looking at the Brown Bros' cattle, with the intention of buying them.

H. F. Phillips returned from California the other day, bringing along with him several carriages and buggles, for which E. F. Walker and himself traded horses while on their trip there last Fall.

H. Amy, of the Eureka Mills, was last week quite severely injured by being thrown from a mule. He caught cold subsequently, and his injuries threatened to be dangerous at one time. We are pleased to learn that he is rapidly recovering.

There being an unusual strain of business liable to be docketed for the June term of the Circuit Court, it is probable that Judge Prim will convene the Court before the regular time, as he will have to hold Court in Lake, commencing the fourth Monday in June.

The President of the Siskiyou Agricultural Society requests the Journal to state that the residents of Jackson and Lake counties, in Oregon, are privileged to contest for premiums at their county fair next Fall, and are respectfully invited to bring in stock and products for exhibition.

EXAMINATION OF DOTY.—Justice Stinson's Court was occupied the greater part of last Saturday and up to late that evening with the examination of Daniel Doty, charged with assault to kill Thos. W. Johnson. The Court House was thronged the greater portion of the time, and the greatest interest was manifested throughout. H. K. Hanna, Esq., Prosecuting Attorney, appeared for the State, and Messrs. Kahler & Watson for the defendant.

The examination of witnesses and the statement of Doty took up the entire day, the respective attorneys making their pleas in the evening, after a short adjournment. The Justice held the defendant to appear before the Grand Jury, and remanded him to Jail without bail. We have no desire to review the testimony adduced at present, knowing the effect of such action on the public mind; but we assure our readers that a full and concise report will be furnished them of this and other prominent affairs at the proper date.

PERSONAL.—Col. J. N. T. Miller has gone to Lake county to look after his stock interests there.

G. Karewski has returned from Portland.

H. L. Webb returned from East Portland yesterday, having turned Smith over to authorities of the Insane Asylum.

PATRONS OF HUSBANDRY MILL CO.—An association of prominent Grangers have purchased the Wimer Flouring Mills of Phoenix, and they propose in a short time to assume the management thereof. They filed articles of incorporation in the County Clerk's office on the 16th instant. The association will be known as the Patrons of Husbandry Mill Company. The capital stock is placed at $12,000, divided into shares of $100 each. The objects of the company is to carry on a general milling business—buy wheat, sell flour and grind. The following gentlemen are the incorporators: John E. Ross, J. N. T. Miller, Fred Barnaburg, Jacob Ish, F. M. Plymale, Conrad Mingus, John S. Herrin, N. C. Dean, John O'Brien, James D. Buckley, L. The Ashland Base Ball Club will play the Greenhorn Base Ball Club, of Yreka, a match game to-morrow on the latter's grounds. This will be the first of a series of three games to be played. THANKS.—Mrs. Horne has our thanks for a liberal supply of delicious cake.

MINING NEWS.

Messrs. Foudray, Watson & Manning have men employed running a tunnel into their quartz ledge on Brush Creek. Work is progressing finely and the prospects are considered good.

Hon. Henry Klippel, who the other day arrived from the Elizabeth ledge, reports matters progressing finely there. The main ledge has been found, which is four feet wide and constantly increasing in width.

We this week saw some of the ore from the enormous cinnabar ledge on the hills three miles south-east of town, owned by Messrs. Bilger, Coates, Foudray and others. It is fine-looking rock and will doubtless yield well.

The Plaindealer learns that E. G. Browning's quartz ledge on Grave Creek has been worked out. This ledge has been paying handsomely for some time past—a number of years—and we should be sorry to record its entire failure. We hope the report may be at error.

The working of placer mines has not been very extensive this season, owing to the limited supply of water. Quite a little sum has been cleaned up, however, considering the obstacles in the way. An abundance of water is all that is needed to make times lively again, for there is plenty of good mining ground left.

From Mr. Uested, of Wolf Creek, the Roseburg paper learns that Geo. Southwell is the lucky man; that one day recently he found in his mining claim on Cayote Creek a nugget of gold weighing 2 1/2 ounces, and equal in value to about $444. Is this another nugget, or is Uested mistaken in the name and size of the piece, and this the chunk of gold mentioned lately in the TIMES as being found by Sam. Stockton?

Lake County Items.

LINKVILLE, April 22d. Mosquitoes abundant.

High waters on the Lake City road. Sunny days, grass growing, and everything lovely.

A majority of Commissioners being absent, County Court was necessarily a failure.

School is to commence in Linkville on the first Monday in May, H. Clayton, of Ashland, teacher.

S. B. Cranston has been appointed Register of the Linkville Land Office, vice W. J. Small resigned.

Many of the settlers in Sprague River Valley seem much dissatisfied, and talk of leaving for Arizona this coming Fall.

Goose Lake Valley has the appearance of prosperity. Stock looking well, and farmers are busy plowing and sowing.

D. S. K. Buick organized a Grange at Hot Springs on the 15th inst. The people in that locality seem to be highly in favor of the Grange movement.

Dull times in Surprise Valley, Cal., as far as ready cash is concerned, but the farmers, judging from the amount of farm work going on, are not in the least discouraged.

As many as thirty families will soon be in readiness to start from Surprise for the Panamint mines, Inyo county, Cal., which are authentically reported as extremely rich.

Ochoho's band of Putes are returning to the Yainax Reservation. It seems that Ochoho had choice of reservations, either Yainax or Malheur, and chose the former. The Indians are certainly in a very destitute condition.

A RARE ENGRAVING.—We have received from George Stinson & Co., Portland, Maine, art publishers, a very beautiful engraving called, "The Little Orphan's Dream," which represents a sleeping child dreaming of its angel mother, who, with shadowy wings, bends over and presents a lily to the sleeping child. The picture is well engraved, of sufficient size to fill a handsome frame, the figures and design are harmonious and pleasing and the artist whose mind conceived it has transferred to his work the beautiful thought that dwelt in his mind and has contributed to the mind of every beholder an impression that does not grow weaker with being often refreshed. The advertisement of this firm was published some weeks ago and the excellence of this picture satisfies us they deserve to be encouraged.

ARRESTED.—A young negro, named Harris, was last week arrested on Little Butte Creek by Stephen Booth and Frank Dow, and brought to town and lodged in Jail. A short time ago Manning & Ish lost a horse from the farm of Phillip Riley, and Harris was lately seen taking an animal answering his description through Brownsborough; hence his arrest. Harris had a preliminary examination before Justice Stinson on Monday, who held him to appear before the Grand Jury in the sum of $800 bonds, in default of which he was remanded to Jail.

ANNUAL MEETING.—The annual meeting of the Jackson County Agricultural Society will be held at the Court House on Saturday, May 8, 1875. Officers of the Society for the ensuing year will then be elected, and other business of importance transacted. A full attendance of the Society is requested.

FORWARDING.—Attention is called to the advertisement of Bush & Johnson, successors to Johnson & Hearn, forwarding and commission merchant, at Reading, Cal. They are experienced hands in the business and will doubtless give general satisfaction.

DISSOLUTION.—The firm of Judge & Nunan, saddlers, has been dissolved, and those indebted are requested to settle with Mr. Judge immediately and save trouble. See notice.

SOLD OUT.—J. Wimer & Son have sold their mills at Phoenix to an association of Patrons of Husbandry, and have something of importance to say elsewhere to all concerned.

NEW JAIL.—The County Jail is nearly finished and the prisoners will be removed into it in a few days. We will give a full description of it ere long.
