MILLINERY.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Mrs. Fenton, who has lately opened a millinery establishment at the residence of W. F. Drannan, on Oregon street. She is now prepared to do all work in her line in the best style and at reasonable rates.

CIRCUIT COURT.

The term of the Circuit Court, which commences next Monday, is called especially for the disposal of the cases of C. P. Barden, Wm. Carey, Daniel Doty, Albert Johnson and W. H. Harris. Judge Prim will instruct the Grand Jury to that effect. The regular term of the Court will commence on the second Monday in June.

PERSONAL.

Hon. E. Steele and lady, of Yreka, passed through town on Wednesday from Crescent City, where the 'Squire has been attending to some legal business.

Mrs. Wm. Kreuzer left on Saturday's stage for San Francisco, to join her husband there.

W. H. Frink, the genial insurance agent, sojourned with us a few days this week.

Mrs. J. R. Neil left last week on a visit to her relatives in Albany.

SHEEP LOST.

Wm. Chapman, of Josephine, was in town Sunday, on his way searching for about 200 sheep strayed or stolen from the range of Ben. Ball about the last of February. Mr. Chapman is of the opinion that they were stolen, as about 23 of the missing number were found on the opposite side of the river some time afterwards, having evidently strayed back. They could not have gotten across the river unless driven there, which seems to strengthen his suspicions. He offers a reward of $100 for the recovery of the sheep and $250 for evidence that will lead to the conviction of the thieves.

ANOTHER SUICIDE.

Mrs. Ruch, widow of Fredolin Ruch, who suicided week before last by taking strychnine, also committed suicide on Thursday night, May 13th, by drowning herself and her smallest son, aged about five years. She had been very despondent since her husband's death, and said before that she would drown herself, only for her little boy. From all appearances, at about midnight, she arose, and taking her son along, made her way to a reservoir a short distance off, in which she leaped. A few hours afterwards, the oldest boy discovered the absence of his mother, and after a vain search aroused the neighbors, who found the bodies in the water, a short distance apart. We learn that before committing the rash act she laid out her own and child's burial garments and did some chores about the house. This is a sad affair, the like of which we hope never again to chronicle in Jackson county.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Circuit Court next week. Read the new advertisements. Immigrants are constantly arriving. Ben. Sachs has some fine children's buggies for sale cheap.

John A. Boyer received an excellent stock of new goods this week.

The Sisters' school had a pleasant picnic excursion to Table Rock last Tuesday.

There is a person from below, whose business here, we learn, is the writing of the life of Barden.

Mrs. Mathews, wife of Milo Mathews, the stage driver, died of consumption at Rock Point last week.

The finest lot of parasols of the season just received at Fisher & Caro's dry goods store. Call and see them.

The mail between Linkville and Ashland has been changed to a tri-weekly. The service will commence shortly.

Hall & Smith are busily engaged in putting up a substantial fence around the new Jail, which will be completed in a few days.

Prof. J. D. Fountain, of Ashland, will deliver an address before the Alumni of the Corvallis College on June 11th, 1875.

The Literary Society has suspended for the Summer months, but will commence active operations again on the first Friday in September.

Dr. Conlan, who some time ago made himself a nuisance in this place, as well as in Linkville, is confined in the Tehama (Cal.) Jail for stealing a watch.

P. J. Ryan has placed a new fence around and is fixing up the building near Jackson Creek, on Oregon street, preparatory to taking up his residence there.

Wool is coming into the market at present, some having been sent below this week. The wool crop in this and adjoining counties will be quite large this year.

We learn that Hon. James D. Fay, of San Francisco, will be in attendance on the Circuit Court next week, to act as counsel in some of the cases that will then come up.

A hoodlum was one night this week observed tearing down an article from in front of one of the stores in town. A repetition of this act may prove unhealthy for the perpetrator.

Mail transportation between Linkville and Fort Klamath (semi-weekly service), has been awarded to a party whose name we have not learned, at the rate of $39 88 per month.

G. W. Frey and Adam Smith started on a trip down the Coast on Wednesday. They are looking for localities where to ply their respective vocations with more pecuniary success than in Jacksonville.

The Red Men ran only about $12 behind in the entire celebration of St. Tammany's Day, which is doing well, considering that no pains or expense were spared to make it a success, which it was in every sense of the word.

The young men of Jacksonville have been circulating a proposition for the formation of a base ball club, which is receiving numerous signers. This is a step in the right direction, and will doubtless afford much recreation and amusement to the participants, should an organization be effected.

CHETCO WAGON ROAD.

The Committees from the counties of Jackson, Josephine and Curry, in relation to the proposed wagon road to Chetco, will meet in Jacksonville on Saturday, May 29, 1875, for the purpose of incorporating a company and transacting other business. We learn that the County Court of Josephine proposes making a county road of that portion which runs through Josephine from Kerbyville, and give the proposed incorporation a charter. There are capitalists in San Francisco ready to build the road; but an endeavor will first be made to have the people construct it, if possible, and thereby secure a low rate of toll. The road will be built at all events, and if the people fail to respond to their interests, the capitalists will take the enterprise in hand and charge a rate of toll to suit themselves, which will doubtless be higher than if the road were built by the citizens themselves. A full attendance of the committees will doubtless be present.

THE attention of the public is called to the fine stock of dry goods and ladies' hats at Sachs Bros. They have received a very large stock and offer them at hard time prices.

MINING NEWS.

The reports for Cooling & Co.'s cinnabar mines, in the Evans Creek District, we are informed, have arrived and been taken to their destination.

The work on Bilger, Coates & Co.'s cinnabar ledge, east of town, still continues. A shaft of considerable depth has been sunk on it, and the rock is of a very promising nature.

A rich mining discovery of some kind has been made somewhere, but the locality is not known at present. Some parties have started from this place for the scene, but were careful to leave no trace behind.

The Bulletin says Mr. Jay G. Kelly, the mining expert and assayer, arrived in Portland Thursday from Seattle, and is en route for the Southern Oregon mines for the purpose of erecting a quartz mill on claims recently located by him.

Cas. Murray, of Siskiyou county, who was bound for the Galico Creek mines, so we are informed by 'Squire Steele, of Yreka, has made a promising cinnabar discovery across Rogue River. The ore he exhibited is said to be very fine.

The mining prospects of this and Josephine counties are very encouraging. There is quite a number of prospectors coming in from other sections, while the residents here are also active. We may expect something big ere long, as the country will doubtless be well prospected this year.

We received a letter this week from E. G. Browning, the owner of the quartz ledge on Grave Creek. We stated a few weeks ago it was reported that these mines were worked out, says the Plaindealer, but Mr. Browning says such is not the case. He has been only saving the gold heretofore, but he is now getting machinery to save the silver also. The last run of seventeen days made only a partial clean up and got over twenty ounces. He did all the work himself. He claims that the ledge is only just opened, and is as rich as any yet found. Mr. Browning wishes his friends to call and see him five miles above the stage road, on Grave Creek.

BARDEN.—The Sentinel of last week, in commenting on our article relating to the above individual, does not seem to think that Barden's death at this time would disappoint the public, and argues that it would save the county considerable money if he should die now. While the people of Jackson county desire to have justice done, regardless of expense, our cotemporary errs in supposing that the county would be out a few thousand by his natural death. Barden has considerable property, and if he comes to trial the State has a lien on it—the real estate, at least—and can recover the costs, unless he is acquitted. On the contrary, his death now would preclude a trial, and the county would lose what it has already expended on him. Consequently, it would not only disappoint the public in justice not being done, but the county would be loser in the bargain, which latter argument appears to be the nucleus of the Sentinel's article.

PLUMMER'S DRYING METHOD.

We last Friday received a call from E. Spaulding, traveling agent for the Spaulding Bros., proprietors of Plummer's Fruit Drying Apparatus. The advantages claimed for this method over the Alden are that the capacity of one Plummer is equal to three Aldens, occupies a building of one story, while a three-story one is needed for the other, and is cheaper. It also dries vegetables as well as fruit. Mr. Spaulding left a small package of pumpkin dried by this method with us, which has every appearance of being equal to the fresh pumpkin itself. He has disposed of a number of these machines in Oregon, and his business here was to see what prospects there were of Jackson county investing in one. What success he had we did not learn.

AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS.

Attention is called to the extensive advertisement of Hawley, Dodd & Co., the leading dealers in agricultural implements of Portland and also the State. They are agents for the celebrated "Challenge Thresher," Buckeye Mower and Reaper, Haines' Header, Marsh Harvester and other first-class agricultural implements, as well as the renowned Mitchell and Shuttler wagons. Their prices are moderate and wares superior. Our farmers should favor them with their orders, as the well known reputation of this firm is sufficient guarantee that they will fare well in buying of them.

LAKE COUNTY ITEMS.

LINKVILLE, May 16, 1875. No vacant houses in Linkville, which speaks for itself.

No regularly established price for marriage license in Lake county.

J. P. P. Smith having resigned, Lake county is without an Assessor.

A tin shop will soon be in operation here, George Baldwin, of Ashland, proprietor.

The good rain has been coming down, and all nature is refreshed and mankind rejoicing.

The Fort Klamath Minstrel Troupe amuses the people by their excellent performances.

School, under the guidance of H. Clayton, is well attended and progressing satisfactorily.

The monotonous routine of life at Fort Klamath is very agreeably broken by the presence of a number of lady visitors.

Messrs. Cranston & Conn are now prepared to attend all cases in law coming within their jurisdiction that may be brought before them.

The Misses Cranston, of Marion county, after a protracted visit with their relatives in Lake county, have returned home. Couldn't help it, could we, Jay?

Married, on the 12th inst., by Rev. Father Blanchet, Mr. George Nourse to Mrs. Kate Schira, all of this county. Immediately after the ceremony, the happy couple established themselves behind a span of fast steppers, and sped swiftly en route for San Francisco. Long may they prosper.

OBSEVER.

CINNABAR.—A number of Oregonians from Jacksonville, says the Yreka Journal, have colonized a mining District on West Beaver Creek, in the Siskiyou range, in Siskiyou county, and located some ten claims on a rich cinnabar ledge. The claims are all 1,500 feet in length and 600 feet wide, or 300 feet on each side of the ledge, as shown by the descriptions sent to the Clerk's office last week and now on record. The locators probably made their own local laws and elected a recorder, and we suppose the claims can remain without any work on them for a year, they having been taken up in compliance with the laws of this State and the United States, which recognize certain local regulations. In one of the claims a tunnel has been run, notice of which is also recorded. This cinnabar ledge is undoubtedly a rich paying one, as several good prospects have been found in Oregon also, not far from the locality above named. Messrs. Henry Klippel, W. F. Cornell and Wm. M. Turner are doubtless the discoverers, as they have been prospecting for cinnabar in the Siskiyou some time, and bring rich rock as the result of their labors.

POISON FOUND.

Chas. Harris, the assistant Jailor, while searching Barden's clothes the other day, found a small quantity of arsenic, wrapped in a paper, in a pocket of his coat lying under the prisoner's head. How he procured it is a mystery, as no one has been with him since his confinement, except J. F. Gazley, his attorney, who doubtless did not furnish it. Barden may have brought it with him to jail, as a slit in his collar, where he may have had it concealed, was discovered. Various surmises are made as to the purpose for which he intended the poison, some thinking he sought to put Carey, the only witness against him, out of the way with it; but the officers were careful that the two had no communication with each other, which may account for his failure. He may have intended to take his own life, should his case prove hopeless; and he may have brought himself into his present condition by its limited use. This discovery will doubtless cause his recovery, if he has been taking the arsenic, but his case is about the same as yet. The supposition is that he is practicing a dodge to prevent a trial.

STOCKHOLDERS MEETING.

The first regular meeting of the stockholders of the Patrons of Husbandry Mill Company was held, by mutual consent, for the election of a Board of Directors and the transaction of other business, at Jacksonville Grange Hall on Monday, May 17, 1875, at 1 o'clock P. M. D. S. K. Buick was elected chairman, and W. J. Plymale and J. M. Hoxie, Secretaries. The following named persons were elected Directors for the ensuing year: Jacob Ish, F. M. Plymale, J. S. Herrin, Sam. Colver and J. E. Ross. Meeting adjourned subject to call of Directors.

Jackson County Agricultural Society.

The annual meeting of the Jackson County Agricultural Society was held, pursuant to notice, on Thursday, May 13th, at 1 o'clock P. M.

J. S. Herrin, President, called the meeting to order, and in a few clear, concise and appropriate remarks set forth the objects and purposes of the Society, the practical benefits to be derived from a Fair properly conducted, etc.

Several members spoke at length of the importance of such an organization and the benefits which would accrue to agriculturists generally by a County Fair properly and judiciously managed.

The election of officers being in order, the following persons were nominated for President, namely: Jacob Ish, Conrad Mingus, D. S. K. Buick, Jesse Dollarhide, J. E. Ross, W. C. Myer, L. Chappel. Jacob Ish having received, on second ballot, a majority of all the votes cast, was declared duly elected President of the Society for the ensuing year. J. S. Herrin and L. Chappel were elected Vice Presidents; M. Hanley, Treasurer; W. J. Plymale, Secretary. The Directors elected were C. C. McClendon, F. M. Plymale, Conrad Mingus and John O'Brien.

Jacob Ish being a Director, a vacancy was created by his election as President. The vacancy was filled by the election of J. C. Tolman.

The meeting adjourned subject to the call of the President.

JACOB ISH, President.

W. J. PLYMALE, Secretary.

FROM LELAND.—A correspondent writing from Leland, under date of May 18th, says:

I notice in a late number of the TIMES the failure of E. G. Browning's quartz lead, on Grave Creek, copied from the Roseburg Plaindealer. It is only a mistake, as Mr. Browning is still working away on rock that pays $14 to the ton, and has no signs of giving out.

It was George Southworth and J. B. Hannum that got the 24 1/2 ounce nugget on Cayote Creek, instead of Samuel Wheelton.

The wheel shaft of E. G. Browning's quartz mill broke a few days ago, and he will not crush any more quartz for a few weeks.

CARBOLIC SHEEP DIP.

Hon. D. W. Stearns, an extensive sheep-raiser of Douglas, in a recent number of the Willamette Farmer, strongly recommends the Carbolic Sheep Dip. T. A. Davis & Co., druggists, Portland, are sole agents for this celebrated remedy for scab on sheep.

INCURABLES RESTORED.

Do not despair because your physician shakes his head. Professional opinions are not infallible; and they are never wider of the mark than when they pronounce Chronic Dyspepsia an incurable malady. To mitigate its pangs, the faculty usually prescribe air, exercise, and brandy. The first two are God's medicines; the last is a satanic poison. The only medicine needed in Dyspepsia and its concomitants is Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters, the great vegetable tonic of the age.

IMPORTANT.

4. If subscribers remove to other places without informing the publisher, and the newspapers are sent to the former direction, they are held responsible.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers from the office, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.
