A MAN WITH AN AIM.

Give me a man with an aim,
Whatever that aim may be,
Whether it's wealth or whether fame,
It matters not to me.
Let him walk in the path of right,
And keep his aim in sight,
And work and pray in faith away,
With his eye on the glittering height.

Give me a man who says,
"I will do something well,
And make the fleeting days
A story of labor tell."
Though the aim he has small,
It is better than none at all;
With something to do the whole year through,
He will not stumble or fall.

But Satan weaves a snare
For the feet of those who stray,
With never a thought or care
Where the path may lead away.
The man who hath no aim
Not only leaves no name
When this life's done, but ten to one
He leaves a record of shame.

Give me a man whose heart
Is filled with ambition's fire;
Who sets his mark in the start,
And moves it higher and higher.
Better to die in the strife,
Than to glide with the stream in an idle dream,
And live a purposeless life.

WHAT CAUSES THE SCAB.—Joseph Hoyt, Superintendent of the Salem Woolen Mills, says that when he first came to Oregon, about thirteen years ago, the wool of the country was clean and in nice order, much more so than at the present time. The presence of the scab in sheep deteriorates the value and is a great damage to the wool. He expresses the opinion that sheep should be sheared as early as possible in the spring, and before the first of May. During the winter the wool stops growing, and when the spring weather commences it commences to grow again, and where the old growth stopped and the new commenced the wool is always weak and rotten and it is a damage to it to have any of the new growth clipped. It is his opinion that leaving sheep to carry their old fleeces too long has a tendency to cause skin diseases and that scab is either caused or made worse in that way. That is a matter of importance to our wool growers and we should like to have the results of their experience in this connection for the benefit of our readers. The wool interests of Oregon are scarcely second to any other, and it is important not only to exclude disease from the flocks but to keep them in a condition to improve every year and grow better sheep and better mutton.—Record.

Two brothers named Gaff have established a mammoth hennery in Colorado, ten miles from Denver. It covers about four acres, which is laid out like a village, with streets and avenues, along which are built long rows of houses of various designs. Regular families of hens are assigned to these houses, and it is found that they quickly domesticate themselves without troubling their neighbors. The population of the village is about 2,000, divided closely into social cliques of Brahmas, Cochins, Shanghais and Dorkings, and the chief products are eggs and Spring chickens. Sunday included, the industrious matrons of the village turn out daily from forty to fifty dozen of eggs, which are sold in Denver for from thirty to fifty cents a dozen. The brothers Gaff express but a single regret, and that is, that they did not found the colony fifteen years ago, when eggs brought five dollars a dozen, and a Spring chicken was worth a pennyweight of gold dust.

A SAILOR explaining a quadrille to a messmate, thus described the third figure: "You first heave ahead, and pass your adversary's yard arm, regain your berth on the other tack in the same order, take your partner in line, back and fill, and then fall on your keel, and bring up with your partner; she then maneuvers ahead, off alongside of you; then make sail ahead, in company with her until nearly astern of the other line, make a stern board, cast her off to shift for herself, regain your place the best way you can, and let go your anchor."

THE TRUEST BEAUTY.—The truest beauty is not that which suddenly dazzles and fascinates, but that which steals upon us insensibly. Let us each call up to memory the faces that have been most pleasant to us—those that we have loved best to look upon, that now rise most vividly before us in solitude, and oftentimes haunting our slumbers—and we shall usually find them not the most perfect in form, but the sweetest in expression.

A GAME of chess between Europe and New York, which was started in 1859 by correspondence, was recently concluded, after having been in progress for sixteen years. The contestants were Dr. Brenzinger, of Forzheim, in Baden, Germany, and F. A. Brenzinger, of New York. The latter player won the game.

A BACHELOR and a young lady bought some tickets in partnership in a lottery at the recent Sanitary Fair at Milwaukee, agreeing to divide the proceeds equally. They drew a double bedstead, a baby-crib, and a lunch basket and the question is, how to divide them, or whether they shall not use them "jointly."

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Life is Sweet.

The blood is the life of the human system. Keep it pure and all is well; for this purpose no standard medicine has had so uniform and amazing success as Dr. Henry's Celebrated L. X. L. Bitters. This is a pure stimulant, medicated with the finest tonics and alteratives which the vegetable kingdom affords; and is the only preparation at present known which thoroughly meets the emergency. The effect of this popular restorative is continuous. Each dose taken invigorates the vital energies and the brain, and its prolonged use will unquestionably cure any case of debility, or mental torpidity that does not arise from organic causes beyond the reach of medicine. It is in the strictest sense of the word, an invigorating and regulating cordial. If the nerves are tremulous and relaxed, it braces them; if the liver is torpid it promotes activity in that organ; the appetite is poor and digestion a slow and painful operation, it creates a relish for food and enables the stomach to convert it into healthful aliment. Moreover, it is a specific for a large number of ailments, some of which are particularly prevalent in the damp and chilly weather which we so often experience in mid-winter. Among these may be mentioned rheumatism, chills and fever, and all the morbid conditions of the digestive organs. By insuring perfect digestion and a proper flow of bile, it insures pure blood, a vigorous circulation, and the prompt discharge of all waste matter from the system.

How to get STAMINA.—Iron frames and strong nervous systems are not the lot of all. But the feeble need not despair. By adopting the right means, they may live long and enjoy life as much as their more robust neighbors. Physical invigoration is, however, necessary to this end; and while the spirituous tonics and nervines usually administered eventually depress the body and mind, Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters invariably supply new vigor to the frame, while they regulate every disordered function.

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs, in Bilious Diseases.

If men will enjoy good health, let them use VINEGAR BITTERS as a medicine, and avoid the use of alcoholic stimulants in every form.

HALES

VEGETABLE SICILIAN

HAIR

RENEWER.

Every year increases the popularity of this valuable Hair Preparation; which is due to merit alone. We can assure our old patrons that it is kept fully up to its high standard; and it is the only reliable and perfected preparation for restoring GRAY or FADED HAIR to its youthful color, making it soft, lustrous, and silken. The scalp, by its use, becomes white and clean.

It removes all eruptions and dandruff, and, by its tonic properties, prevents the hair from falling out, as it stimulates and nourishes the hair-glands.

By its use, the hair grows thicker and stronger. In baldness, it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, and will create a new growth, except in extreme old age. It is the most economical HAIR DRESSING ever used, as it requires fewer applications, and gives the hair a splendid, glossy appearance.

A. A. Hayes, M.D., State Assayer of Massachusetts, says, "The constituents are pure, and carefully selected for excellent quality; and I consider it the BEST PREPARATION for its intended purposes."

Sold by all Druggists, and Dealers in Medicines.

Price One Dollar.
