LEGAL ARRAY.—The legal fraternity is well represented at this session of Court. Besides our local bar, Messrs. Fay, Reed and Gazley, from other sections, are in attendance.

PICNIC.—We learn that the Temperance organizations of Jacksonville, Ashland, Phoenix and Heber Grove, propose uniting in a picnic, to be held in the upper portion of the valley some time next week.

LAND PATENTS.—Cash patents have been received at the Roseburg Land Office for John Callaghan, Henry Ammerman, J. G. Van Dyke, J. E. Wells, H. C. Dollarhide, Hanes True, Andrew Dosier, of this county, and George W. Dimick, of Josephine.

ADDITIONAL JURORS.—By instructions of the Court, the Sheriff has summoned the following eight persons to complete the panel of trial jurors for the present term, to-wit: John A. Boyer, Benton Ellmore, Jesse Wilson, Sr., A. Olfert, M. Lindley, Daniel Hopkins, W. H. McDaniel, Alex. Martin.

LAKE COUNTY ITEMS.—From a letter received this week from the Big Springs, Lake county, we glean the following items: A cinnabar ledge has been discovered by Oliver Swingle in the canyon where Black Jim, the Modoc warrior, was captured.

Shook & Walters' saw mill, at this place, is nearly completed.

THE GRAND JURY.—The following is the Grand Jury empaneled for the May term of the Circuit Court: Mathew Fountain, foreman, James McDonough, Q. N. Anderson, J. P. True, Daniel Chapman, John A. Grieves, Ben George. Up to time of going to press the Jury was still in session, and had returned three indictments, to-wit: An indictment of murder in the first degree against Daniel Doty; one against Mathew Harris for larceny of a horse, and one against Albert Johnson, for larceny in a house.

PROBATE COURT.—The following business has been transacted in this Court within the past few days: Letters of guardianship have been issued to Kaspar Kubli, as guardian of Katharine Ruch and Elizabeth Ruch, minor heirs of Fredolin Ruch.

In the matter of the estate of Samuel Dewitt, Asher Heald, Administrator, filed his final exhibit and prays that a day be set for hearing. Prayer granted, and July 6, 1875, appointed as the day for said hearing.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Read the new advertisements. Strawberries are coming into market. The matrimonial market is improving.

Louis Hubert has his sprinkling cart in operation. Henry Judge will to-morrow hold a public auction.

Old papers, in quantities to suit, for sale at this office. Prof. I. Cox's school gave an exhibition yesterday evening.

Rev. R. C. Oglesby officiated at the M. E. Church last Sunday. J. Nunan has purchased the residence of H. Judge, on C street.

Horseback riding is quite popular among the gentler sex at present. The name of the Lakeport Post Office, in Lake county, has been changed to Morgansville.

P. J. Ryan is having his building, next door to Reames Bros., completed. D. Linn has the job.

Prof. I. Cox will give an exhibition of Odie force at the Swinden School House to-morrow evening. Canned Columbia river salmon is now sold in town. It is regarded as a luxury by all who have it tried.

The weather Wednesday night was so cold as to kill the tender vegetables in various portions of the country. New goods were received this week by Reames Bros., Fisher & Caro, E. Jacobs, John A. Boyer and others.

Mr. Scott showed us some fine rock taken from a well defined ledge lately discovered by him on Rogue river. The spelling mania has about died out. We believe this section is the only one that has escaped its ravages.

Street Commissioner Day last week had a force of men working on the Crescent City road, which was sadly in need of repairs. There is quite a number of strangers in town this week, owing to the prevalence of Court, which gives the town a lively appearance.

A party of five San Francisco capitalists, who have been on a trip in the northern portion of the state, stopped in town a day last week. Miss Mollie McCully's school had a pleasant picnic at Bybee's Grove last Friday. The event was duly appreciated by the participants.

The oration of H. K. Hanna, Esq., delivered at the Red Men's celebration on the 12th, will be found entire on the first page of this issue. It is high time something was being done towards celebrating the Fourth of July, if the people of Jacksonville intend observing that event.

It is not altogether certain that Barden will come to trial at this term, and, perhaps, never will. His condition is not improved in the least. The stages are arriving somewhat earlier than usual, but lay over a considerable time before starting. Summer time will be made from next Tuesday on.

James Steel and J. G. Kelly, of Portland, were in town last week. They are looking after their quartz interests at Altohuse, Josephine county, and, we learn, think of putting up a mill there.

To-morrow is the time set for the meeting in Jacksonville of the committees from Jackson, Josephine and Curry counties, appointed in relation to the construction of the Chetco Waggon Road.

A son of A. W. Sturges died on Saturday last of typhoid fever, and was buried the following day at Uniontown. The infant son of C. D. Reed and wife, of Farmer's Flat, also died about the same time.

We learn that operations are being actively prosecuted by the company incorporated to turn the water at the big bar of Rogue river, for mining the bed thereof, and that several hands are employed in the enterprise.

Quite a large number of immigrants have lately been coming into Josephine county, which is an excellent section for persons in search of homes, with small means. There is considerable land not yet taken up, and everything is cheap.

The Plaindealer says: Wm. Carl returned from the Rogue river mines last week, where he took about 20 miners. His reports of that locality are very flattering, and those he took there commenced operations on good paying placer diggings the same day.

A correspondent of the Mercury, writing from Chewacan Valley, says that that section was visited by a fearful snow-storm on April 6th. The thermometer was down to 10° below zero and the storm was the worst ever experienced in that locality.

Since that time it has been very warm and dry, and the farmers are irrigating the grain fields wherever it is possible, but owing to the small amount of snow in the mountains water for irrigating purposes is very scarce.

PRISONER ESCAPED.—Harris, the negro held to answer the charge of larceny of a horse, last Saturday escaped from the County Jail. It seems that while James Leslie, the Jailor, was at breakfast, and Chas. Harris alone in charge, the negro asked to go out in the yard, and permission was granted him. One of the prisoners inside the jail just then called for a basin, and while Charley was giving it to him, the negro slipped the shackles (which Harris had fastened too loosely) off his feet and made tracks for the brush. His absence was soon perceived, and R. L. Ish and W. H. McDaniel dispatched after him. Although he was supposed to have gone in the direction of Bear creek and was reported to have been seen in that vicinity, a thorough search there failed to reveal his whereabouts. A few days afterwards, he was seen on Applegate. Deputy Sheriff Kent started after him on Tuesday, and succeeded in getting on Harris' track; but owing to the inefficiency of those assisting him, together with some tall running on the part of the negro and the thick brush convenient, he failed to capture him. Mr. Kent returned yesterday, and we learn from him that the negro broke into a cabin belonging to a Mr. Baker, stealing a pair of blankets and some provisions therefrom. He thinks the prospects for his capture very fair.

PERSONAL.—Jay Beach, of Fort Klamath, and Misses Ida and Carrie Beach, of Oakland, Cal., are in town on a visit. Hon. James D. Fay, of San Francisco, arrived in town Sunday morning. He has been retained as counsel for Daniel Doty, Brown Brothers and Mrs. Briggs and son, whose cases will come up at the present and regular June terms of the Circuit Court.

John A. Boyer, who has been in attendance on the Grand Lodge of the I. O. O. F., at Portland, returned home Monday. Wm. Bybee returned this week from a trip to California. James F. Gazley, of Douglas, and attorney for Barden, arrived in town this week.

Judge J. H. Reed, of Portland, is in town. He is one of the counsel in the case of State vs. Mrs. Briggs and son, and will, we learn, assist in some of the cases before the present term of Court. George Conn, of Linkville, was in town this week. "Governor" Briggs, of Josephine, is in town.

Deputy Sheriff Kent returned from Crescent City a few days ago, having with him a witness in the case of the State vs. Albert Johnson, indicted for larceny. FROM THE AGENCY.—A letter from the Klamath Agency, Lake county, under a late date, gives these items: We have fine weather and grass is growing finely. The mosquitoes are gathering in from all quarters and preparing for the Summer's campaign. The Agency is being whitewashed. The Indian school, taught by C. H. Dyer, is prospering. The scholars are fair readers and some of them write tolerably well. The fish are running in the streams, which are full of them. The Indians have all the trees along Williamson river covered with fish, which they are drying for winter's use. Some say that fish were so thick in Lost river at one time that it was dangerous to ford it, as the horses were liable to step on them and slip down.

A TRAIN of nine wagons passed through the city Sunday, en route for the Willamette. There were several families, all from Jackson county.—Roseburg Plaindealer. These immigrants may have passed through this county into Douglas, but our contemporary is in great error when he asserts that they are from Jackson county, as no such immigration has left or is likely to leave here. The Plaindealer should at least give this county the benefit of a correction. Go one, go all, both great and small, and examine the large stock of Spring and Summer goods received by Sachs Bros. They have selected them with a view to suit the tastes and fancies of everybody, and are offering them very low for cash and to prompt paying customers.

ST. NICHOLAS FOR JUNE opens with one of the most charming frontispieces that have yet appeared in the magazine, illustrating a fanciful poem by Rachel Pomeroy, about a little giant-girl, who is certainly unlike any other of her race with whom we are acquainted.

Stories of adventure have by this time come to be a fixed fact with the boys who read St. Nicholas, and they will fully appreciate the interesting account of the manner in which a "First Trout" was caught, the article telling them just "How to Camp Out at the Beach," and a certain crisis in the story of "The Young Surveyor." As for the girls, they will testify that there is no lack of enjoyment for them when they have read the chapters of "Eight Cousins," "The Story for the Bird-defenders," "Christine's Answer," and "Among the Lillies."

Mrs. Diaz's "Bad Luck of Bubby Cryaway," the story of a "Ragamuffin Party," "Mrs. Headache," and the beautifully illustrated poem of "The Little Girl who Wouldn't say Please," are all of them very serious in one sense and very funny in another; while children of a studious turn will find something exactly to their mind in the "Life of a Clothes-Moth" and the description of "The Druids and their Temples."

The poem of "The Fays"—beautiful in itself—is illustrated most exquisitely by Jessie Curtis, who has no superior in the dainty and graceful execution of drawings of this delicate order.

The illustrations generally are admirably drawn and engraved; and the various departments are, as usual, full of information, anecdote, and humor.

THE SQUIRREL.—Here, boys, is a regular bonanza: Governor Pacheco, of California, publishes a letter received by him from a firm of paint brush manufacturers of New York, suggesting that he offer a reward for the skins of the squirrels, which have become such a nuisance in the rural districts of his State. The tails of the little animals, it is said, furnish what is known as "camels' hair" in the brush business, and a market can be found for all that the boys can procure. Write a letter to Governor Pacheco, at Sacramento, Cal., for the address of the brush factory, then set your traps, clean out the squirrels, saving to the State many thousand bushels of wheat, and sell the squirrel tails for a ship load of money.

GERMAN MINISTER.—Rev. Mr. Krebs, of Marysville, Cal., held divine services at the Court House last Sunday morning and evening. He is of the Lutheran denomination, delivering his sermons in the German language, which were listened to by a good audience.

CAMP MEETING.—Notice is hereby given that there will be a Union Camp Meeting held on the Sam's Valley Camp Ground, commencing on the 3d day of June next. All are cordially invited to attend. T. L. JONES, Pastor.

CIRCUIT COURT.—After waiting on the Grand Jury for some time, the Circuit Court commenced business yesterday morning. The case of the State vs. Albert Johnson, indicted for larceny, was first called, and was still being considered as we went to press.

FOR YREKA.—Patrick Fehely left for Yreka last week, where he goes to make a kiln of 45,000 brick, which will be used in constructing the new Siskiyou county jail. He took some employes from this place with him.

THANKS.—We are under obligations to Hon. James K. Kelly for a supply of public documents. Also to Hon. J. W. Nesmith for like favors.

IMPORTANT.—Endorsed by the Medical profession. DR. W. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS cures Coughs, Colds and Consumption, and all diseases of the Throat and Chest. DR. TOWNSEND'S TOOTHACHE ANODYNE cures in one MINUTE.

BORN. HYZER.—On May 22, 1875, to the wife of Joseph H. Hyzer, a son.

NEW, THIS WEEK.

Notice of Final Settlement. In the County Court of the State of Oregon, for Jackson county, sitting in Probate May 26, 1875. In the matter of the Estate of Samuel Dewitt, deceased.

ASHER D. HEALD, ADMINISTRATOR of said estate, having filed in said Court his final account for settlement, and also praying for an order for setting the time for hearing the same; therefore notice is hereby given that said final account will be heard and determined in said Court on Tuesday, the 6th day of July, 1875, at which time all persons having any objections to said final account and settlement must then and there make the same.

By order of Hon. E. B. Watson, County Judge. E. D. FOU DRAY, Clerk. May 26, 1875.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Life is Sweet. The blood is the life of the human system. Keep it pure and all is well; for this purpose no standard medicine has had so uniform and amazing success as Dr. HENLEY'S Celebrated I. X. L. BITTERS. This is a pure stimulant, medicated with the finest tonics and alteratives which the vegetable kingdom affords; and is the only preparation at present known which thoroughly meets the emergency. The effect of this popular restorative is continuous. Each dose taken invigorates the vital energies and the brain, and its prolonged use will unquestionably cure any case of debility, or mental torpidity that does not arise from organic causes beyond the reach of medicine. It is in the strictest sense of the word, an invigorating and regulating cordial. If the nerves are tremulous and relaxed, it braces them; if the liver is torpid, it promotes activity in that organ; the appetite is poor and digestion a slow and painful operation, it creates a relish for food and enables the stomach to convert it into healthful aliment. Moreover, it is a specific for a large number of ailments, some of which are particularly prevalent in the damp and chilly weather which we so often experience in mid-winter. Among these may be mentioned rheumatism, chills and fever, and all the morbid conditions of the digestive organs. By insuring perfect digestion and a proper flow of bile, it insures pure blood, a vigorous circulation, and the prompt discharge of all waste matter from the system.

INCURABLES RESTORED.—Do not despair because your physician shakes his head. Professional opinions are not infallible; and they are never wider of the mark than when they pronounce Chronic Dyspepsia an incurable malady. To mitigate its pangs, the faculty usually prescribe air, exercise, and brandy. The first two are God's medicines; the last is a satanic poison. The only medicine needed in Dyspepsia and its concomitants is Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters, the great vegetable tonic of the age.
