MAX MILLER, P. M.

NOTICE.—All those indebted to the firm of Hull & Nickell are requested to pay up immediately, as the business affairs of that partnership must be settled forthwith. All accounts not settled in a short time will be placed in the hands of an attorney for collection. Business is meant.

CHANGE OF TIME.—The Stage Company has revised its schedule, and Summer time will be made hereafter. The stages will arrive in Jacksonville from the South at 8:30 A. M., and from the North at 2:30 P. M. The stage going North will stop here for breakfast, while the other will remain long enough to change mails.

SENTENCED.—Judge Prim last Saturday sentenced Albert Johnson, convicted of larceny in a dwelling house, to seven years' imprisonment in the Penitentiary, and Mathew Harris, who plead guilty to an indictment of larceny of a horse, to six years' confinement in the same institution. They will be taken to Salem ere long.

ARRESTED.—Two boys, named Dack Foster and James Riley, living on Butte Creek, were arrested this week under a warrant sworn out by John Colvig, charging them with breaking in his house and taking some articles therefrom. They had an examination before Justice Stinson, who bound them over to appear before the Grand Jury.

RETURNED.—George W. Frey returned last week from a trip of recreation to Crescent City, looking much improved. We were mistaken in saying that he was in search of a locality where to ply his vocation, as he has no intention of leaving Jacksonville. He proposes remaining here, and may ever be found prepared to do all work in his line in the best manner and at the lowest prices.

NEGRO CAPTURED.—Mathew Harris, who escaped from the County Jail, was captured on the evening of the 27th by two boys named McKee and Chapman. The boys were secreted near the road passing by Louis Herling's old stand, when the negro came along, who quietly submitted to being captured. He was forthwith taken to town and lodged in Jail. Harris was doubtless on his way here after something to eat, and we learn that he had been in town a few nights previous. The captors received $20 apiece for their trouble.

PERSONAL.—Father Blanchet has returned from a pastoral visit to Lake county.

Jay Beach started for San Francisco last Friday.

W. C. Griswold, of Salem, is in town. Henry Judge and family left for San Francisco Sunday, where they will hereafter reside.

J. C. Avery, of Corvallis, passed through town this week on his way to the Chewaucan valley, to look after his cattle interests there.

Dr. Jones, of Lake county, was in town this week. He was on his way to Yreka, where he contemplates practicing his profession.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Ripe cherries are becoming abundant. The fruit crop in this county will be large this year.

The various schools will soon close for the Summer months.

The County Court will convene for the June session next week.

H. C. Fleming has been appointed administrator of the estate of David Farrar.

K. Kubli last Friday received a large and first-class stock of new goods. Call and see them.

Freight is being hauled at Summer rates from Roseburg, which the same is two cents per pound.

Old papers, in quantities to suit, for sale at this office. They are just the article for putting under carpets.

About 1,500 head of sheep, belonging to Martin & Cameron, yielded 6,000 pounds of wool. A good yield.

Mrs. Fenton, fashionable milliner, has removed to the west side of Oregon street, near the Jackson creek bridge.

Barden's condition is greatly improved, and he now talks a little and eats more than he has for some time past.

We learn that Robt. Fulford and an efficient troupe will visit Jacksonville ere long, and favor us with some theatrical performances.

The young folks of Jacksonville have of late been holding a series of sociables, which have been well attended and heartily enjoyed.

Ben Sachs has just received a fine assortment of violin bows, flags and gentlemen's furnishing goods; also good California cheese and Yreka crackers.

M. Caton last Saturday brought to town some rich cinnabar ore. It comes from the Evans Creek District, and is of a very promising nature. A specimen may be seen at this office.

A letter passed through the Post Office for Nedy, Clackamas county, the other day, addressed thusly:

Please forward this letter
O'er hill and level
Like the very devil.

The grain crop throughout the county seems to be in fine condition, and an abundant harvest will doubtless be reaped. A little warmer weather would be of considerable benefit, however.

The Summer fights commenced in earnest last Sunday. The "Heathen Chinese," as well as his white brethren, were all somewhat belligerently inclined, although no serious damage was done.

H. P. Deskins, who started with a loaded wagon for Roseburg about two weeks ago, arrived there all right, having got over the rough hills, canyons, etc., in safety. He had not been in that place very long, when, while passing down the main street, he upset. No damage done.

Gaylord and wife, who gave a couple of entertainments in Jacksonville some time ago, are catching it thick and heavy from the Northern press—especially the former. "Bilk," "fool," and other choice epithets are showered on him with reckless profusion, of which Mrs. Gaylord receives a fair share.

The Shoo Flies of Kerbyville have challenged the Jacksonville base ball club to a match game, to be played (if the challenge is accepted) at this place on the 4th of July. There being no organized club here as yet, the Kerbyville tossers will doubtless be disappointed in their challenge not being attended to.

The Yreka Journal says a Masonic Lodge was organized at Linkville, near Klamath Lake, on the 20th ult. It is under the dispensation of the Grand Lodge of Oregon. This is the first we have heard of the matter, and as our regular correspondent has not said anything about it, we think our cotemporary is in error.

From James A. Stewart, just in from Sprague river, we learn that the weather has been cold in that section, freezing nearly every night. Some cattle men from Nevada, who were here a few months since, bought 225 cattle belonging to the Brown brothers. The cattle ranged from yearlings up, and $13 a head all around was paid for them.

The Chetco Wagon Road Committee from Jackson, Josephine and Curry counties, held a meeting last Saturday at the Jacksonville Grange Hall. Articles of incorporation were filed in the Clerk's office, incorporating the Chetco Wagon Road Company. As the proceedings of the meeting were not final, by request, we refrain

LAKE COUNTY ITEMS.

LINKVILLE, May 30th.
Fine weather and good roads. The spirit of litigation has revived. Grain and hay crops promise well. Wm. R. Jones, Lake county's School Superintendent, is in Linkville. Uncle George Nourse is expected back daily, a wiser if not a better man. The prices this year for furnishing Government supplies are extremely low. Lively times are anticipated in Linkville during the months of June and July. Lieut. Elstein and wife have returned to Fort Klamath, from a visit to Europe. S. B. Cranston has assumed his "official robes" as Register of the Linkville Land Office. The new hospital at Fort Klamath is near completion, and presents an imposing appearance. Capt. Johnson, of Fort Klamath, has been ordered to Sitka on business connected with the Military Department. D. J. Ferree has the mail contract between Linkville and the Fort. He has also the hay, straw and coal contracts. A dyspeptic correspondent of the Jacksonville Sentinel, sailing under the nom de plume of "Occasional," seems to entertain a supreme disgust for Lake county, her officials, and Uncle Sam's mail wagon in particular. We have cogent reasons for believing it to be

A tenor hovl,
From B. F. Dowell.
After such a tirade of sarcasm and unprincipled assertions as appeared in the Sentinel of May 22d, we earnestly hope that his bombastic spleen has been permanently relieved. His statement that "a man can walk or ride in a loaded wagon faster than the mail goes," is simply false, showing only an unprovoked disposition to injure. The proprietors of the mail wagons on the Ashland and Lake City route presume to know their own business, and are performing their work in accordance with instructions received from the Postmaster-General. If "Occasional" can be the means of accelerating the speed of said wagons, the proprietors thereof would indeed be thankful; and a mere suggestion from him to that effect would, no doubt, be immediately entertained by the head of the Post Office Department. OBSERVER.

MAN FOUND.—A friend writing from Ellensburg, Curry county, under date of May 24th, sends us the following: The body of an unknown man was found in the boom of the Mill Co. here, on the 18th inst. The body was in a bad state of decomposition, evidently having been drowned some time ago. The person was a large man, almost, if not fully six feet high, with small hands and feet; perfect, but large teeth; with very high narrow forehead. The hair was all chafed off and gone, with the exception of a small portion of the mustache, which was of sandy, brown color.

There were the remnants of three shirts hanging over his head, which, with his boots, were all the clothing that was left. He had on a denim jumper, a gray striped wool shirt, and a yellow woolen undershirt. His boots were heavy kip, with nailed half-sole. He had on a new pair of cotton socks, good quality, and also had cotton cloths wrapped around his feet. The pockets in his shirts were chafed out, but a piece of candle, two inches long, was found entangled with the tatters of his shirts.

He was buried on an island at the mouth of Rogue River. His boots and portions of his shirts can be seen at the store of Riley & Stewart. We suppose it is the body of the man drowned at Galice Creek in April.

A PHENOMENON.—A daughter was born to the wife of Wm. Williams, of this place, recently, which possessed two teeth at its birth. This is one of the first instances of the kind that has come to our knowledge, and of such a strange nature that many seem to doubt it as being a fact. Mr. Williams, however, invites those doubting it to call and see for themselves.

MISSOURI GRASSHOPPER.—B. Hall left at this office on Monday a grasshopper, imported from the afflicted regions of Missouri. It is small in size, similar to those here, but of a brownish red color. There is nothing remarkable about the insect, but anybody wishing to see one of the pests now devastating some of the Western States, can call and see it.

CALL at Sachs Bros. and examine their elegant stock of Spring and Summer goods, which they are selling at most reasonable rates.

BASE BALL IN KERBYVILLE.—A correspondent from Kerbyville, under date of May 24th, sends us the following: We have a base ball club here, fully organized, under the name of the Shoo Flies. The club has met and tried its metal in a match game between the first and second tens. The following are the respective tens:

The writer neglects giving the result of the game, but says J. B. Sifers acted as umpire, and Daniel L. Green as scorer.

QUARTERLY MEETING.—The fourth quarterly meeting for Jacksonville Circuit, M. E. Church, will be held in the grove at Ashland, in connection with a basket meeting, commencing Friday, June 11th, at 2 o'clock P. M. Friday will be observed as a day of fasting and prayer. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

J. S. MCCAIN, Pastor.

MORE INDICTMENTS.—Since our last issue, the Grand Jury has found indictments against Barden for murder in the first degree, and against Barden and Carey for larceny of sheep. No further business being before that body, the Jury was discharged.

LETTER FROM SAM'S VALLEY.

ANTIOCH, May 28, 1875.
TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:
Again Sam's Valley has taken another downward step. But a little while ago we made a forward movement in securing a post office, which is of vital importance to the citizens; but we regret to say that it is about to be discontinued, to never be re-established, or at least for years. No one is deserving blame but ourselves. Robert Wood made an application to serve as Postmaster, but it was alleged he was incompetent, no one desiring to go on his bonds. At this critical moment, Ed. Morgan, rather than stand by and see the office discontinued, came forward and tendered his services to assume the responsibilities of the office; but no one could be found to fill his bond either. It is a shame we can't have a post office in Sam's Valley. What excuse we have to offer for not filling Ed's bonds I hardly know, as everybody is aware he is wholly competent, unless it was to reclaim the old proverb that "no good can come of Sam's Valley," which saying is a familiar one far and near. We looked upon the establishment of Sam's Valley Post Office as being the first good step forward in the advancement of our population. But, never mind; the Grangers will build up Sam's Valley. The farmers are now beginning to wear a cheerful grin, as the prospect for a bountiful harvest was never more flattering. The Antioch school, under the guidance of Miss Mary A. Berry, is well attended and progressing satisfactorily. It is claimed by stock dealers that J. Satterfield owns the most promising two-year-old colt on the north side of Rogue river, and not surpassed by any in the county. A correct statement of the mining interests will be forthcoming ere long. CITIZEN.

THE DOTY TRIAL.—The trial of Daniel Doty, indicted for murder in the first degree, consumed a portion of last week, and is now in progress in the Circuit Court. The prosecution is represented by H. K. Hanna, Esq., District Attorney, and Judge J. H. Reed, while Hon. James D. Fay and Messrs. Kahler & Watson conduct the defense.

A motion was made by defendant's counsel to set aside indictment—1st, on the ground that it was not endorsed and presented according to law. 2d, that the jury list from which the Grand Jury was drawn was not in accordance to law. The motion was overruled. A demurrer to the indictment by defendant's counsel, on the ground that it does not sufficiently define the manner in which the killing was done and that the indictment does not conform substantially to the requirements of Chapter III of the code of Criminal Procedures, was also overruled.

The following Jurors were this week empaneled to try the case: Thos. Chayner, Samuel Robinson, Daniel F. Fisher, John McKee, Thos. Wright, Thos. Curry, R. V. Beall, John A. Boyer, John W. Stockbarger, Jacob Slagle, J. B. Saltmarsh, Geo. Yaudes.

The examination of witnesses is now going on. Those on part of the State have already been examined, and those for the defense are now on the stand. The trial will probably last some days yet before it is submitted to the jury.

EXCELLENT WORKS.—W. J. Stanley is at present engaged in canvassing for the following standard works: "Life and Labor of Livingstone," "Home Life in the Bible," "Wild Life in the Far West," "Macaulay's History of England." These are among the best and most interesting books lately issued, and are meeting with a large sale everywhere. They are bound in elegant style and sold at reasonable rates, especially the "History of England," which is complete in one volume, and costs about one-third the price usually charged for it. Don't fail to examine his specimens.

EXTRACT from a letter from Mrs. J. C. Aldrich, Wauseon, Fulton Co., O.: "R. P. Hall & Co., Gentlemen—Please send me one dozen bottles of your Sicilian Hair Renewer. Our 'bald and gray' do not want to be out. My mother is a living recommendation of the results from the use of the Renewer. Being almost seventy years old, and having worn a wig over thirty years, it seems a miracle to those who have known her so long so bald, and what little hair she had being perfectly white; now her wig is thrown aside, her hair grown out, and a smooth glossy brown as in girlhood. Hoping you may long continue to pour blessings on the heads of the afflicted, I remain yours truly. Such evidence, with the endorsement of the great chemists of New England, Dr. A. A. Hayes and S. Dana Hayes, should satisfy any one, which of the preparations produce the best results.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:
Prof. I. Cox gave a public entertainment on the evening of the 28th ult., at the Swinden school house. The Professor and scholars under his training deserve special notice for the time and attention they bestowed upon the preparatory drilling necessary to make a school exhibition interesting to outsiders, as well as profitable to the participants, which the Professor's exhibition truly deserves the merit of being. The exhibition opened with a few very instructive and eloquent remarks from the Professor upon the importance of early training. The whole school then came upon the stage and sang the opening song, entitled "Be Happy," which brought forth the applause of the audience. The scholars all performed their part so well that we would be pleased to give each a special notice, but as it would occupy too much space, we will only mention the names of a few, assuring those whose names are not mentioned that they are equally meritorious. Among the ladies, Elizabeth Wallace, Catharine Ralls, Catharine Parker, Mary and Martha Dodge, and Sarah Fredingburg, distinguished themselves as good speakers and sweet singers. Among the gentlemen, James Wallace and John Harding deserve special notice for the part they performed, to make the exhibition a success. John Harding is a grandson of Ben. Harding, of the Mexico war notoriety, and promises fair to make his mark in the world. The Emerson family deserve special notice for the active interest they took, and great credit is due to Mrs. Emerson for her valuable services, which were highly appreciated by the teacher in making the exercises entertaining. CARD OF THANKS.

To the Editor of the Times:
"I was sick and ye visited me;
A stranger and ye took me in."
Will you permit me through the columns of your excellent paper to express my heartfelt gratitude to the noble women who have ministered so unflinchingly to my wants and cared for my little ones during my late protracted illness. I came among them a stranger, in destitute circumstances, and by cruel necessity deprived of the care of my husband. And they found me in my humble home, and not only relieved my temporal wants, but also extended to me the warm hand of generous friendship; and by their refined and intelligent conversation whittled away the tedious hours of my convalescence. Among whom I would mention particularly Miss Katie Hoffman, Mrs. S. J. Day, Mrs. Daniel Cronmiller, Mrs. J. N. Miller, Mrs. Hoffman, Mrs. Neil, Mrs. Farmer, Mrs. Duncan, Mrs. Linn, Mrs. R. C. Armstrong, Mrs. Kinney, Mrs. McDonough, Mrs. Manning, and a host of others, to whom language would fail me to express what I feel in appreciation to their kindness. And to my physicians, Doctors Callender & Matthias, I would tender my sincere thanks for their unremitting attention, and careful and skillful treatment, which has accomplished thus far my recovery, with every possibility of its being ultimately successful. And to the insignificant fee in this city and elsewhere, who have characterized my ailments as imaginary, and in some instances wholly misrepresenting the nature of my disease, I would say should misfortune ever place them in the position in which I have been, I earnestly hope they may receive the disinterested Christian charity and kindness that has been bestowed on me by the better class, so that in future they may heed the divine precept to "Judge not that ye be not judged."

With my best wishes for the health and happiness and continued prosperity of the good people of our city.
I am respectfully,
MRS. F. A. M. ROBERTS.

THE CINNABAR DEPOSITS ON BEAVER CREEK.—The cinnabar deposits on West Beaver Creek, which are attracting considerable attention at present, this year first engrossed the attention of Messrs. Henry Klippel, W. F. Cornell, John S. Miller and W. M. Turner. Five years ago, however, Messrs. J. D. Conghlin, D. B. Rea, P. P. Prim, H. Klippel and M. F. Alcorn prospected the same locality for cinnabar, and two years later they ran a tunnel forty feet long and spent considerable time and money in developing it; but the enterprise did not pay. This year, the first-named gentlemen again sought this region, and we find them now, in company with several others, actively engaged in developing their locations. Several claims have been located, and nearly, if not every one of them are being developed. There are from twelve to fifteen men at present working there. The recent prospects look favorable, and the parties have struck the regular cinnabar rock and hope to find it of a paying quality. The float cinnabar taken from the creek is of a rich character and has been the chief inducement for prospecting that portion of the mountains. We predict that the parties now prospecting will give that country a thorough trial this summer.

TEMPERANCE PICNIC.—The temperance organizations of Jacksonville, Ashland, Eden and Heber Grove, will hold a union picnic at Phenix to-morrow. Everybody is invited to attend.

The farmers are now beginning to wear a cheerful grin, as the prospect for a bountiful harvest was never more flattering. The Antioch school, under the guidance of Miss Mary A. Berry, is well attended and progressing satisfactorily. It is claimed by stock dealers that J. Satterfield owns the most promising two-year-old colt on the north side of Rogue river, and not surpassed by any in the county. A correct statement of the mining interests will be forthcoming ere long. CITIZEN.

THE DOTY TRIAL.—The trial of Daniel Doty, indicted for murder in the first degree, consumed a portion of last week, and is now in progress in the Circuit Court. The prosecution is represented by H. K. Hanna, Esq., District Attorney, and Judge J. H. Reed, while Hon. James D. Fay and Messrs. Kahler & Watson conduct the defense.

A motion was made by defendant's counsel to set aside indictment—1st, on the ground that it was not endorsed and presented according to law. 2d, that the jury list from which the Grand Jury was drawn was not in accordance to law. The motion was overruled. A demurrer to the indictment by defendant's counsel, on the ground that it does not sufficiently define the manner in which the killing was done and that the indictment does not conform substantially to the requirements of Chapter III of the code of Criminal Procedures, was also overruled.

The following Jurors were this week empaneled to try the case: Thos. Chayner, Samuel Robinson, Daniel F. Fisher, John McKee, Thos. Wright, Thos. Curry, R. V. Beall, John A. Boyer, John W. Stockbarger, Jacob Slagle, J. B. Saltmarsh, Geo. Yaudes.

The examination of witnesses is now going on. Those on part of the State have already been examined, and those for the defense are now on the stand. The trial will probably last some days yet before it is submitted to the jury.

EXCELLENT WORKS.—W. J. Stanley is at present engaged in canvassing for the following standard works: "Life and Labor of Livingstone," "Home Life in the Bible," "Wild Life in the Far West," "Macaulay's History of England." These are among the best and most interesting books lately issued, and are meeting with a large sale everywhere. They are bound in elegant style and sold at reasonable rates, especially the "History of England," which is complete in one volume, and costs about one-third the price usually charged for it. Don't fail to examine his specimens.

EXTRACT from a letter from Mrs. J. C. Aldrich, Wauseon, Fulton Co., O.: "R. P. Hall & Co., Gentlemen—Please send me one dozen bottles of your Sicilian Hair Renewer. Our 'bald and gray' do not want to be out. My mother is a living recommendation of the results from the use of the Renewer. Being almost seventy years old, and having worn a wig over thirty years, it seems a miracle to those who have known her so long so bald, and what little hair she had being perfectly white; now her wig is thrown aside, her hair grown out, and a smooth glossy brown as in girlhood. Hoping you may long continue to pour blessings on the heads of the afflicted, I remain yours truly. Such evidence, with the endorsement of the great chemists of New England, Dr. A. A. Hayes and S. Dana Hayes, should satisfy any one, which of the preparations produce
