

WARM SPRING INDIANS IN TROUBLE.—Yesterday morning three members of the band of Warm Spring Indians, who, with their chief, Donald McKay, recently gave a series of theatrical entertainments at the Bowers Theater, appeared before Mr. Kellogg, Superintendent of the Out-door Poor Relief Bureau of the Department of Charities and Correction, and petitioned to be assisted back to their homes in Oregon. Having been left behind by their companions, without money and possessing but a very limited knowledge of English, they presented a pitiable spectacle of want and destitution. Superintendent Walling, whose attention had been attracted to their condition, has written to Washington, acquainting the proper authorities with the circumstances attending their case, and the desire of the Indians to put back to their homes. Pending the receipt of a reply, they will be cared for in the Colored Home. The names of these unfortunate aborigines are Capalons, aged twenty-seven years; Stallica, aged forty, and Juno Youmalia, aged twenty-six years. All of them are reported to have rendered valuable service to the Government during the Modoc war.—New York Times, June 11th.

A HUSBAND WORTH HAVING.—Hermann, the celebrated magician, was married recently, and his wife doesn't have to get up at daylight to go to market. When she wants a dozen of eggs she simply hands her husband the empty bag, and he produces them by sleight of hand; then he cooks an omelet, in a borrowed hat, and converts a can of sawdust into that much white sugar, and similar cups filled with chipped paper changed into hot coffee; then he takes the same hat, stirs up its emptiness with a magic wand, and presto, change! out comes a loaf of bread, a fresh shad, two pickles, one pie, a bucket of coal, a dish of hash, with natural hairs in it, and half a dozen knives and forks. This much cheaper than going to market. But Mrs. Hermann is not happy. When her husband wants a gold dollar he mysteriously picks it off the end of his wife's nose. And she is dissatisfied because she can't perform that trick herself.

GRASSHOPPER REMEDY.—A writer in the New York Tribune recommends as a remedy for the grasshopper plague, that every family in all that country use all the turkeys and chickens that it is possible for them to hatch out from all the eggs that can be obtained in the country. By so doing the Western farmers can be saved and made rich by the poultry business. If, after hatching out millions and millions of turkeys and chickens, the grasshopper crop should fail, then feed corn and other grains—and much profit will come to them, whichever course they pursue. Do this work, and the farmers of the West will be living in keeping with the laws of God, and prosper. Let the grasshoppers come, and be ready for them, and all in that country will soon praise the Lord for them, and by and by will pray for a grasshopper to feed the poultry.

SCANDAL.—The story is told of a woman who freely used her tongue to the scandal of others, and made a confession to the priest of what she had done. He gave her a ripe thistle-top, and told her to go out in various directions, and scatter the seeds one by one. Wondering at the penance, she obeyed, and then returned and told her confessor. To her amazement he bade her go back and gather the scattered seeds, and when she objected that it would be still more difficult to gather up and destroy all the evil reports which she had circulated about others. Any thoughtless, careless child can scatter a handful of thistle-seed before the wind in a moment, but the strongest and wisest man cannot gather them again.

THE sheep raisers of New Mexico employ goats as leaders to their herds of sheep, because they understand a person's voice so well and will come whenever they are called. The goats have to be trained and the sheep will always follow them. When a stream has to be passed this is very important. Raising goats is quite a business with the Mexicans. They will breed twice a year. The Mexicans eat them and also sell them to those who raise sheep.

Not satisfied with the presents offered them by the Great Father at Washington, the bellicose and beggarly Sioux chiefs have departed for their unhappy hunting grounds at the base of the Black Hills, there to scout and scalp the adventurous gold hunters until they get even. If an Indian war does not grow out of this Black Hills business, it will not be the fault of the managers at Washington or of the agents in the Indian country, either.

A COLORED congregation in Dayton, Ohio, have decided to forgive their clergyman betting on three-card monte and losing $90 of festival money. One of the deacons remarked: "We is all human, and de game is werry exciting, werry deludin'."

They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the quick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs, in Bilious Disorders. If men will enjoy good health, let them use VINEGAR BITTERS as a medicine, and avoid the use of alcoholic stimulants in every form. R. H. Ayer's Ague Cure, For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons. No one remedy is louder called for by the necessities of the American people than a safe and sure cure for Fever and Ague. Such we are now enabled to offer, with a perfect certainty that it will eradicate the disease, and with assurance, founded on proof, that no harm can arise from its use in any quantity. That which protects from or prevents this disease must be of immense service in the communities where it prevails. Prevention is better than cure, for the patient escapes the risk which he must run in violent attacks of this fatal disease. This "Cure" expels the miasmatic poison of FEVER AND AGUE from the system, and prevents the development of the disease, if taken on the first approach of its premonitory symptoms. It is not only the best remedy ever yet discovered for this class of complaints, but also the cheapest. The large quantity we supply for a dollar brings it within the reach of everybody, and in bilious districts, where FEVER AND AGUE prevails, everybody should have it, and use it freely, both for cure and protection. It is hoped this price will place it within the reach of all—the poor as well as the rich. A great superiority of this remedy over any other ever discovered for the speedy and certain cure of Intermittent fever, is that it contains no Quinine or mineral; consequently it produces no quinsinism or other injurious effects whatever upon the constitution. Those cured by it are left as healthy as if they had never had the disease. FEVER AND AGUE is not alone the consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysteria, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, but on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "Cure" expels the poison from the blood, and consequently cures them all alike. It is an invaluable protection to immigrants and persons travelling or temporarily residing in the malarious districts. It taken occasionally or daily while exposed to the infection, that will be executed from the system, and cannot accumulate in sufficient quantity to ripen into disease. Hence it is even more valuable for protection than cure; and few will ever suffer from Intermittent fever if they avail themselves of the protection this remedy affords. For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity, and producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines fail. PREPARED BY DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., Practical and Analytical Chemists, AND SOLD ALL ROUND THE WORLD. PRICE, $1.00 PER BOTTLE.
