

The Democratic Times.

Official Paper for Jackson & Josephine Counties. FRIDAY, AUGUST 20, 1875.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR CONGRESS, LA FAYETTE LANE, OF DOUGLAS.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

HON. L. F. LANE, Democratic candidate for Congress, will address his fellow citizens at the following times and places, to-wit: Linkville, September 8th; Jacksonville, " 10th; Kerbyville, " 12th; Roseburg, " 16th.

A Weak Nomination.

The nomination of Henry Warren, of Yamhill, by the Republicans, is not by any means a strong one. The circumstances of his nomination are similar to those which placed Hiram Smith in the field against Hon. J. W. Nesmith two years ago.

"Goldsmith Maid" Beaten.

The "Queen of the Turf" has at last met with a defeat, being beaten at Rochester, N. Y., on the 14th by the mare "Lulu," who made an excellent record last year. It was an exceedingly fine and well-contested race, the fastest consecutive heats on record being made.

In the Field.

George M. Whitney, the nominee of the Independent Convention, has accepted the nomination, and signifies his intention of making a thorough canvass of the State. There seemed to be a desire on the part of some interested persons to make it appear that he had accepted the Independent nomination under the proviso that he was to be nominated by the Republicans also, and failing in the latter case he would not consent to be the candidate of the Independents.

Hon. L. F. Lane Coming.

As will be seen by the appointments at the head of our columns, Hon. L. F. Lane will address the citizens of Southern Oregon at various points, commencing at Linkville on Sept. 4th. Mr. Lane is a ready and effective speaker, and his efforts will amply repay the attention of the public.

Journalistic Courtesy.

We acknowledge the following specimen of journalistic courtesy shown us by the Coos Bay News of the 11th: We saw among the advertisements in Gale's Directory of Coos County that the News is advertised as the only democratic paper published in Southern Oregon, which is incorrect.

Temperance Candidate.

The State Temperance Convention met in Salem on the 13th and nominated Rev. G. W. Dimmick, of Marion county, for Congress. Thus another Richmond enters the field and one more is added to Lane's victims next October.

OUR STANDARD-BEARER.

The following notices of Hon. L. F. Lane, gleaned from our various exchanges, will doubtless prove interesting:

To-day we fly at the head of our columns the name of the Honorable L. F. Lane, the Democratic candidate for Representative to the 44th Congress, that meets in December next. We think the Convention acted wisely and well in the nomination of Mr. Lane, and around the standard of the Democracy borne by him will gather the Democratic hosts from every city and town, from every plain, hill and valley in the State of Oregon, and with one acclaim will triumphantly elect him to the halls of Congress.

Mr. Lane is about thirty-three years of age, of classical education and fine legal attainments. He was born in Indiana, and came with his father, Gen. Joseph Lane, across the plains when but a small boy, and has grown up to manhood in this, his adopted State. He is identified with our interests, for a long residence has given him a general knowledge and thorough acquaintance with our numerous wants. His name and fame are not unknown to the people of Oregon. His father held many prominent positions from the people in the early settlement and development of our territory.

His integrity is questioned by none; his Democracy is of the Jeffersonian stamp, and his fidelity to principle without variability or the shadow of turning. He is a gentleman of fine attainments, good abilities. We do not think he will lose a single Democratic vote, while his popularity in Southern Oregon will secure him the support of large numbers of Republicans and Independents.

Whether acting in a public capacity or otherwise, no one has ever impeached his ability or his honesty. An able, logical debater, he will make a successful canvass against any man that he may be called upon to meet. The Convention gave us a good platform and a good standard bearer, and it is the duty of the Democracy to elect Mr. Lane by a large majority. He comes up to the Jeffersonian test, "he is honest and capable." - Lafayette Courier.

Personally considered Mr. Lane is a genial, whole-souled gentleman; and possesses those rare magnetic powers which all feel who come within the charmed circle of their influence. We see it charged that he is a Catholic. We are entirely uninformed on this point, and we suppose it is really a matter of very little importance to a majority of the voters whether he is a Catholic, Presbyterian, Baptist, Methodist, or Episcopalian, or whether he makes no pretensions at all to any religion whatever. If elected, he will not represent any man's religious views or opinions; but simply do his best to carry out the principles of the Democratic platform.

No selection could have been made that would be calculated to harmonize the different sectional preferences more satisfactory to the entire party. Southern Oregon, that has had but one candidate on the Democratic State ticket during the past eight years, claimed the right to furnish the candidate in case Eastern Oregon could not bring a man before the Convention with sufficient strength to secure the nomination, and the name of that candidate was Hon. Lafayette Lane; a young man of fine ability, an eminent and rising member of the bar, endowed with rare scholarly attainments, a firm and uncompromising Democrat.

Latest advices from Ohio indicate that the Democrats are solid, enthusiastic and confident of success. They expect to take a good many Republican votes; and there is no doubt that their platform has strong hold upon Western sympathy.

The Ohio Election.

The Maryland Democracy. The Maryland Democratic Convention last week nominated John Lee Carroll for Governor, Leven Wolf Ford for Comptroller, John Gwinn for Attorney General, and adopted a hard-money platform.

GENERAL NOTES AND NEWS.

The loss in New Jersey from storms has been heavy. Hon. John Burnett is supporting Lane for Congress.

Farm laborers are in brisk demand in Grand Ronde valley.

Advices from nineteen grain-growing counties in Nebraska speak well of the crops and harvesting.

The burnt district in the town of Weston, Umatilla county, is being rebuilt in a more substantial manner than ever before.

Hon. Lafayette Lane's friends claim he will carry Douglas county by one thousand majority; his enemies admit Mr. Lane will receive the support of a number of Republicans, though they deny his majority will be so large.

The Radical members of the Alabama Legislature have resolved that Spencer, Sheats, Force-Bill White and their other old leaders are a bad lot, and that the Federal offices in Alabama need a thorough overhauling. Taking the third term in earnest has sounded the knell for the carpet-baggers.

Europe has five million of soldiers all ready for fighting with fifteen thousand cannon, and a navy of 2,039 vessels, manned by 280,000 sailors, and carrying fifteen thousand guns. The cost of these immense armaments is five hundred and sixty millions of dollars annually, three-fifths of the amount being consecrated to the armies.

San Francisco is now the third city in the United States, as a port of entry, and the fourth in its exports. New York and Boston alone out-rank it in imports; New York, Boston and New Orleans alone in exports. With its three great banking houses, each with a capital of $2,000,000 gold, and its other rich banks and capitalists and vast general wealth, it will rank close to New York, in the matter of money.

Statistics of the Churches.

The information contained in the following statistics is rare and valuable. It shows the strength of the churches in America and under the control of Americans for the year 1874: The Protestant Episcopal Church has 3,040 clergymen, 2,750 parishes, and 273,554 communicants. The Roman Catholic Church has 4,873 priests, 4,731 churches, 1,902 chapels and stations, and 5,761,242 Catholic population. It has now one Cardinal. The Baptist Church has 943 associations, 5,510 churches, 13,354 ordained ministers, and 1,761,171 members. The Church of United Brethren has 3,959 churches, 1,886 ministers, and 131,895 members. The Universalist Church has 624 churches, 674 ministers, and 30,905 members. The Congregational Church has 3,404 churches, 3,273 ministers, and 330,391 members. The returns of the annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States show that there are now in that church 10,854 traveling preachers, an increase of 283 over last year; 12,581 local preachers, an increase of 320; 18,628 Sunday schools, with 200,481 teachers, and 1,363,876 scholars. The number of members is 1,563,522, an increase over last year of 99,494. The church property is valued at $69,288,815, an increase of nearly $13,000,000 over the value of property last year. The contributions to the Missionary Society were $611,954, a decrease of $60,996.
