

FOR CALIFORNIA.—James A. Cardwell will in a few days start with a number of fine horses for the California market.

COUNTY COURT.—The Board of County Commissioners was in session this week. The proceedings will appear in our next.

DISTRICT SCHOOL.—The Jacksonville District School reopened on Monday last with an attendance of 92 scholars, which number will be increased somewhat.

INFORMATION WANTED.—Elizabeth Bennett, who is supposed to be living near this place, will hear of something to her advantage by calling at the Post Office in Jacksonville.

HON. L. F. LANE AT ASHLAND.—A good audience was in attendance to hear Hon. L. F. Lane at Ashland. He delivered an able and forcible address, which was highly appreciated by those in attendance.

ON DIT.—The marriage of a prominent citizen and one of Jacksonville's fairest daughters is announced to transpire next week. We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to be present at the ceremony, for which we tender our sincere thanks.

ANGORA GOATS.—Thos. Chavir bought eighty-five Angora goats from Landrum & Rogers, who were recently in this county with a large band. He also purchased a thoroughbred buck from the same firm, for which he paid the round sum of $200.

COMING.—Gen. Sheridan and party are coming overland, and will travel through to Reading by special stage, stopping at night and traveling only by daylight. Nine days is the time set for his trip from railroad to railroad, and he will doubtless be in town in a day or two.

INSANE.—Insanity seems to have become almost a plague in this section lately, three unfortunates having been committed to the Asylum within a week. The last of these, John Stow, was examined before Judge Watson on Saturday last by Dr. Callender, and was taken below the next morning by Herman Helms.

PERFECTLY SECURE.—Since the late financial crash in San Francisco, persons in this as well as other sections seem somewhat afraid of gold notes; but this fright is entirely unnecessary. Notes of gold banks in circulation are perfectly good whether the bank fails or not, as the government has full security in bonds for all the notes issued. The San Francisco gold note bank simply closed for the lack of the coin, and will undoubtedly be in good running order again ere long.

JACKSON COUNTY BIBLE SOCIETY.—This organization held its annual meeting at the M. E. Church on Thursday evening, September 2d, at which the following proceedings transpired, as furnished us by John A. Boyer, the Secretary:

In the absence of the President and Vice President, Wm. Hoffman acted as President. The minutes of the last annual meeting were read and approved.

On motion, the old officers were retained, except substituting O. Gunnison in the place of R. C. Armstrong, on the Executive Committee.

Article 3 of the Constitution was changed to allow life membership on payment of $5, and the portion relating to paying $1 and receiving a bible in return was stricken out. It was moved and carried that the next meeting of the Society be held at the Methodist Church in Jacksonville.

After a few remarks by Rev. Mr. Heltzer, agent of the American Bible Society, the meeting adjourned.

FROM LINKVILLE.—A correspondent, under date of Linkville, August 26th, writes:

Linkville is improving some and has a hopeful future, notwithstanding its isolated locality.

At a recent session of our County Court, held August 23d, there was appointed J. P. Roberts as County Commissioner, and N. D. Stephenson, County Clerk, to fill the vacancies existing in the County Board, caused by the previous resignation of Henry Fuller and Wm. Roberts. The new appointees are both good men and will no doubt fill their official stations satisfactorily to the people.

Political matters are quiet with us, but there is a general feeling of sentiment prevalent in Lake county that the Democratic nominee, Mr. Lane, will be elected. This county will give him a respectable majority over all his opponents, any way.

THE JOINT DISCUSSION.

A large audience, composed of persons from all portions of the county, were in attendance on the joint discussion last Wednesday afternoon between Honorable L. F. Lane, Henry Warren and George M. Whitney, respectively the Democratic, Republican and Independent nominees for Congress. A fair sprinkling of ladies was also present. Hon. Henry Klippel was chosen Chairman of the meeting, and after making some preliminary remarks, introduced

MR. LANE.

This gentleman occupied the hour allotted him with an able and forcible address on National affairs. He reviewed the attitude of the administration toward the people of the South, the abuses of the tariff by the Republican party, the Salary Grab, the Finance question, and other important matters now agitating the public mind. He referred to the Indian policy now in force, and in a most emphatic manner denounced the action of the Federal Government in the late Modoc War. He pronounced himself in favor of reimbursing Oregon to the last cent for her expenses in that war, and if elected to Congress he pledged himself that he would labor for that matter as well as endeavoring to secure the passage of a bill to indemnify the losses of the settlers in that war. Mr. Lane was equally as earnest on the school question, and put a quietus on the false report that he was opposed to popular education. He said he was in favor of public schools, was supporting them, that it was of Democratic origin, and that nearly, if not all the benefits accruing school interests from land grants, were secured by Democrats. If elected, he would labor assiduously for the interests of Oregon, and especially for those sections which had been neglected and most needed it, as the southern portion of the State, for instance. Mr. Lane's remarks were logical and interesting throughout. He was listened to with marked attention and made a favorable impression. He was frequently applauded, and it was very evident that Lane men were greatly in predominance. After his conclusion was introduced. His remarks throughout were of an apologetic character, jumbled up and without any connection whatever. He jumped from one subject to the other like the Irishman's flea, hardly arriving at the point at which he aimed before he was off on another entirely foreign to the previous one. And how he murdered English was most exasperating to see. He was evidently fighting the civil war over again, from the tenor of his remarks, and seemed woefully ignorant of the fact that over ten years had elapsed since that event and that it was dead and should be forgotten. On National affairs he did not pretend to be conversant, admitting his inability to comprehend even the most prominent matters, and in attempting to discuss them exhibited a proneness to wander off on matters not at all connected with the campaign, such as the canal and locks, Baker City Academy, which have long ago been passed upon. Mr. Warren evidently is a votary of George Francis Train's motto, "If you don't blow your own horn, nobody else will," and showed a decided weakness to self-praise throughout his entire remarks. He excused himself for his poor effort on the plea of weariness, which is rather early in the action to commence with such complaints. Like Mr. Lane, we are of the opinion that Republican party has either no platform or no candidate, judging from the style Mr. Warren repudiated the platform adopted at Salem on August 11th. He evidently feels hard towards Grant, for removing him from the Oregon City Land Office, from the manner in which he went back on him. He also attempted to dally with the votes of our laboring citizens by sneering at the professional classes and trumping himself up as a working man, when his days of labor, since he took hold of the public teat sixteen years ago, are few and far between. The Indian question and other matters of moment were severely let alone. He seemed much embarrassed throughout and doubtless felt his own weakness. A general sigh of relief seemed to pervade the room as he took his seat and the Chairman introduced

MR. WHITNEY.

This gentleman is a rather fluent speaker, uses good language, but in a political campaign is like a ship at sea without a rudder. He afforded much merriment by his eccentricities, and to a degree dispelled the impatience and weariness that seemed to overspread the audience at the close of his predecessor's speech. As he hardly spoke the time allotted him, and consumed the most of that in exposing the trick certain designing Federal officials attempted to play on him, he discussed other topics but little; hence we cannot judge how he stands on matters of National importance. But he seems to have little information concerning affairs outside his own sphere. Judging from the delivery of his address he is more of an exhorter than an orator, and also rather incoherent. The manner in which he scored the Republican tricksters was highly enjoyed, and Mr. Warren winced under his merciless onslaught on Mallory and Underwood. He admitted being sold out by the leaders of the Independent party, but goes on with the campaign nothing daunted. Mr. Whitney complained of not being able to find an Independent in this section. Fortunately a gentleman who has been casting his fortunes with every party for the past six years was present; and the two embraced each other in a cordial manner, shortly after which the Independent candidate summarily closed his remarks and subsided.

CONCLUSION.

Mr. Lane then took the floor for ten minutes and wound up his competitors' arguments in the most approved manner, which was highly appreciated.

Mr. Warren followed in a five minutes' speech, but adduced nothing new. He, however, failed to answer Mr. Whitney in any of his charges against the Republican party of this State.

Thus closed the first joint discussion between these Congressional candidates, and there seems to be one almost general opinion, and that is, that Mr. Lane is too much for the others and has an easy race.

LAKE COUNTY ITEMS.

LINKVILLE, September 6th.

Threshing and sheep-shearing are in progress.

Several parties in Lake county lost by the California Bank failure, but to no ruinous amount.

Linkville was quite lively during the past week in consequence of social parties, horse-racing and various other amusements.

Our much esteemed and jovial friend, Lieut. Hoyle, "draps down" in our midst occasionally, who, by the way, is a relative of Hon. L. F. Lane.

We regret to state that Alex. Miller is quite unwell, and is now at Fort Klamath under treatment of Dr. McElderry. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery and return.

At a special call of Lake County Court, N. D. Stephenson was appointed Clerk, vice Wm. Roberts, resigned; and J. P. Roberts, Commissioner, vice Henry Fuller, resigned. Other business of minor importance was transacted.

Hon. L. F. Lane spoke here yesterday, on the political situation, to a rather small, though appreciative audience. His address was able, truthful, and therefore forcible. We predict a handsome majority for him in Lake county at the coming election. None of his opponents were present—utterly ignoring Lake county.

OBSERVER.

SHERIFF'S SALE.—The goods in the store of John A. Boyer will be sold at Sheriff's sale on Saturday, September 11th, between the hours of 9 o'clock A. M., and four P. M. The stock consists of groceries, provisions, boots and shoes, tobacco and cigars, candles, nuts, stationery, etc., of the first quality, and those wishing the best of goods at their own rates should not fail to be on hand.

THE COUNTY FAIR.

The Jackson County Agricultural Society met on Wednesday, and determined to hold a County Fair. Bybee's Grove was selected as the place and October 21st, 22d and 23d as the time for holding the Fair. The following Committees were appointed:

Executive Committee.—D. S. K. Buick, C. Mings, J. S. Herrin.

On Revision and Preparation of Premium List.—H. K. Hanna, J. N. T. Miller, N. C. Dean.

Ladies' Department.—Mrs. W. J. Plymale, Mrs. Daniel Cronemiller, R. S. Dunlap.

Finance Committee.—J. C. Tolman, John Sizemore, C. C. Beekman, S. Booth, Peter Simon, Geo. Stephenson, Wm. Ray.

On Arranging Speed Programme.—Henry Klippel, John E. Ross, Thos. Wright.

This is a good and laudable resolution. With an enterprising people here, Jackson county is destined at no distant day to take first rank among the most favored counties of the State. No person can assign a good and sufficient reason why we may not hold a respectable fair from year to year. Our agricultural, mineral and manufacturing resources are almost unlimited, and in the matter of horses, cattle, sheep and hogs, no county can excel us. Jackson county has won an enviable reputation through the number and excellence of her fine horses. If we desire to advertise our stock, products, manufactures, etc., let us make a public exhibition and show what we have and we can do. A county fair managed for the public good cannot but result greatly to the advantage of the community at large.

Let every person interested in the prosperity of this county lend a helping hand, and we shall have a fair of which none of us need feel ashamed. It can be done, and all there lacks is the disposition. Let us all lift together for once and see what the result will be. We feel certain that we shall so far surpass our own expectations as to be for once happily disappointed.

THE NEW POSTAL CARDS.—The color of the new postal card is technically styled "cream white" in other words, it is a yellowish white. This color the Department believes preferable to pure white, because the latter soils so easily. The design of engraving is the same as that heretofore agreed upon, viz: In the upper left hand corner is the monogram "U. S." in ornamented letters, across which is a scroll with the words "Postal Card" in bold face letter. Below this, in a straight line, in hair letter is, "Write the address on this side—the message on the other." In the upper right hand corner is the stamps, the design of which is a profile bust of the Goddess of Liberty, surrounded by a frame work border, the sides of which represent fasces, connected at the top by a scroll bearing the words "U. S. Postage," and at the bottom a curved hand inclosing the words, "One Cent." The monogram, letter and stamp will be printed in black, and the card will have no border. They will be manufactured by the present contractors, the Morgan Envelope Company, of Springfield, Massachusetts, and they are nearly ready for issue. The color at first selected was the shade known as the "Water of the Nile," but after a full consideration of the matter, cream white was thought better.

DEATH.—Frank Silva, a Portuguese well known in this vicinity and Yreka, died last week of consumption.

IMPORTANT TO SWAMP LAND CLAIMANTS.

Notice has been given to the Executive Department by the Land Office at Linkville that instructions have been received at that office from the General Land Office at Washington, to withhold all lands from sale, pre-emption and homestead entry, claimed by the State of Oregon as "swamp and overflowed," that have been surveyed since March 12, 1860, and making them subject to the same rules that lands are, embraced in the Surveyor General's list that he has filed and may hereafter furnish that office certifying to their swampy character and approving them to the State of Oregon. The request for this withdrawal, says the Mercury, was made more than three years ago by the Governor and has been constantly urged by him since. This action of the General Land Office will greatly facilitate the segregation of the swamp lands.

SOME new quartz mines have recently been discovered sixty or seventy miles northwest of Winnemucca. The discoveries were made by E. M. Silvers while on his way across from this county. Mr. Silvers also reports that he discovered several ledges in Stein's Mountain and other places along the route.

AT APPLAGATE.—Hon. L. F. Lane addressed the citizens of Applegate and vicinity yesterday. Whether he was joined by the other candidates we did not learn. All will meet together at Kerbyville to-day, however.

FOR SALE.—Those desiring a first-class sewing-machine, brand new, at less than first cost, can be accommodated by calling on E. C. Brooks and examining one of the celebrated Wilcox & Gibbs' machines.

BOOK NOTICE.—W. J. Stanley requests us to state that those who have subscribed for books, through him, can procure them by calling at the City Drug Store.

WOOD.—Those who have promised, as also those who intend settling their subscription in wood, are informed that we are now ready to receive the same.

THANKS.—We last week neglected to mention that Jos. Rapp favored us with a fine watermelon, for which he has our thanks.

SCHOOL.—Miss Mollie McCully's school will commence next Monday, September 13th.

The National Gold Medal was awarded to Bradley & Rulofson for the best Photographs in the United States, and the Vienna Medal for the best in the world. 429 Montgomery street, San Francisco.
