DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR CONGRESS,

LA FAYETTE LANE.

OF DOUGLAS. A FEW WORDS MORE.

Democrats, next Monday is the day of election, and it is your duty to be at the polls and cast a vote for Hon. L. F. Lane, the nominee of your party.

General Lane at Eugene.

By request, General Joseph Lane delivered a speech at Eugene City on the 12th inst. An immense crowd greeted the old veteran, whose effort is highly spoken of by the press and those who heard him, even his most prejudiced opponents giving him the credit of having acquitted himself nobly and fairly.

Encouraging Outlook.

We have encouraging news from all sections of the State, and the prospects are bright for a grand Democratic victory next Monday. In the Willamette valley, the stronghold of the Republicans, it is very doubtful whether Warren will receive a plurality over Lane, and many think that the Democrats will carry that section by from 100 to 400 votes.

What's Become of the Money?

Hon. J. K. Luttrell, in his speech here last Saturday, showed, from official authority, that $500 per annum had been annually drawn for the past ten years from the United States Treasury for the support of the "Rogue River Indians, in the Rogue River Valley."

THE OCTOBER ELECTIONS.

Ohio, Iowa and Nebraska held their elections on Tuesday, the 12th inst., and the result thereof, although not as favorable to the Democracy as it might be, does not tend to discourage it in the least.

The result in Ohio is accounted for by Hon. John G. Thompson, Chairman of the Ohio State Central Committee, to be due to "the lavish expenditure of money, fraudulent votes and the introduction of the public school question, by the Republican party."

Now that the Ohio election is settled, we are sincerely glad of the defeat of the Democratic ticket. Had it been successful on the rag-money platform, strenuous efforts would have been made to embody that plank in our National platform, and inevitable disruption and defeat in the Presidential campaign would have followed this foolish deviation from the immortal principles of Democracy.

Here Assertions.

The Republican press has been particularly noted for one thing in this campaign now closing, and that is the recklessness of the assertions made by it. Never caring how flimsy the charges that are presented, and which are never supported by the proof, no incontrovertible statement of bearing has yet been or can be made against the Democratic nominee.

The State Fair.

The State Fair, which closed last Saturday, was the greatest and most successful Fair ever held in the State. It is estimated that on several days between 15,000 to 20,000 people were in attendance.

Troubles Them.

Mr. Warren's Know-Nothing record troubles him and his partisans severely. They try to squirm around and pass it lightly by; but like Banquo's ghost it will not down. Deny it satisfactorily they cannot, for it is written down in black and white.

Grand Finale.

To-morrow evening the Democracy will close the campaign in this State with a grand mass meeting at Portland. Governor Grover, Hon. J. K. Luttrell, Hon. L. F. Lane and other prominent Democrats will address the people.

NEW, THIS WEEK.

DR. T. CALDWELL MACKAY, PHYSICIAN & SURGEON, Jacksonville, Oregon.

N. B.—Night calls promptly attended to.

WANTED!

20,000 Lbs. of Old Cast Iron, DELIVERED AT THE FOUNDRY IN Ashland, for which we will pay the highest price.

Every farmer has more or less old castings about his premises, such as old stoves, plowshares and other articles. These they would do well to gather up, and bring them before the rain sets in.

A GRAND BALL

WILL BE GIVEN At VEIT SCHUTZ' HALL, Friday Eve., Nov. 5th, 1875.

GOOD MUSIC WILL BE FURNISHED BY the Ashland String Band. Tickets, $1.00. Supper will also be provided for those desiring it.

DISSOLUTION NOTICE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT the co-partnership heretofore existing between the undersigned, under the firm name of Callender & Matthias, practicing physicians, is this day dissolved by mutual consent.

SETTLE UP.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT the accounts of the firm of Manning & Ish have been placed in my hands for collection. All persons indebted to said firm are requested to settle immediately.
