

DEMOCRATIC VICTORIES EAST!

Hard Money Democracy Triumphant!

Mississippi and Wisconsin fall into line! Democratic Gains Elsewhere!

As the returns of the November elections arrive, the results in the various States become very encouraging for the Democracy. They gain some very substantial victories and lose nothing in particular to denote that a reaction has taken place in favor of the Republicans.

In Pennsylvania, the Radicals elect their State ticket by less than 20,000 majority, which is small, considering the vast advantage they had in the campaign. In the first place, this State has gone Democratic but once since the war, (in 1874) and then only by a small majority. Through the blundering of the Democracy this year, in adopting an inflation plank, Republican success was conceded and certain. We do not believe that any Democrat was foolish enough to expect a party triumph there, after the reverse in Ohio, where the Democracy refused to stand solid for this heresy, and which fact was again verified in Pennsylvania. The only surprise is that the majority is not greater.

New York comes gallantly to the rescue with a large majority for the Democracy. We may have lost the Legislature through dissensions existing in New York city, although there is still a prospect that the official returns may bring us in a majority even there. However, the Legislature is of little consequence at present, as no U. S. Senator is to be elected. But the Democratic State ticket has a majority which will run up to 20,000 and over. The reform measures of Gov. Tilden have driven from Democratic ranks all persons who affiliated with the party from corrupt motives, and who naturally have sought refuge with the Republicans and materially aided them in the election, which accounts for the increase in their vote. This fact makes our victory the more glorious, and shows New York to be a reliable Democratic commonwealth. The party in that State has kept true to its traditions, resolved for hard money, and the consequence is a signal triumph.

In Mississippi, a grand victory has been gained, and the government of that unfortunate State at least partially wrested from the carpet-baggers and negroes who, ever since the war, have involved it in bloodshed and ruin. The Democracy elect nearly all the Congressmen, a gain of from three to five, secure both branches of the Legislature, and carry the State by a large majority.

The latest news from Wisconsin, always a steadfast Republican State, denotes the election of the entire Democratic ticket, with possibly the exception of Governor, which is a decided triumph. Late telegrams from Minnesota and Kansas report a considerable gain in the Legislatures of those States by the Democracy.

Massachusetts goes Republican by a small majority, while that party also secures a slight ascendancy in the Legislature of New Jersey; but no U. S. Senator will be chosen there now.

Maryland, Virginia and Tennessee signify their allegiance to the Democratic faith by large majorities for the Democracy.

Taking the November elections as a whole, it is plainly evident that if the Democracy has gained little it has lost less. If, through its own blundering, it has beaten itself in one or two States, it has made ample reparation in others. There is reason for encouragement for the Democratic party in these elections. Where it has kept in the right track it has triumphed, while wherever it attempted to endorse a heresy, as it did the inflation dogma in Ohio and Pennsylvania. These results cannot but be beneficial, and the year 1876 will witness the Democracy thoroughly united, in which condition it will wage effective warfare for the Presidential prize.

GENERAL NOTES AND NEWS.

Rich mines are being discovered near Prescott, Arizona.

The Cuban question is agitating the Cabinet at Washington.

In the East, there have been several severe shocks of earthquake.

Harvard students have been trying to blow up college buildings with nitro-glycerine.

Failures to the average amount of $100,000 a day have occurred in the East during the last month.

Most of the leading papers of all parties denounce Grant for appointing Zach. Chandler Secretary of the Interior.

The statistics of the cattle disease in England are of a most remarkable character, and the number of cases exceedingly large.

Dr. S. Palmer, of Douglas county, has been indicted for manslaughter in causing the death of Mrs. L. Beldis through incompetency.

The regular meetings of the Board of Land Commissioners for the State of Oregon will hereafter be held on the first Tuesday in February, May, August and November.

Eastern Oregon papers are already talking up a grand joint celebration for the Fourth of July, next year. The Union county fair grounds is proposed as the place, and everything east of the Cascades is expected to join.

The Healine Mining Company, composed of citizens of Salem, has fully organized under our general incorporation laws. The assay of ore already taken out on the Santiam insures a "good thing" for all interested, and the work will be pressed.

The ship Western Shore, built at Coos Bay by Simpson Bros., has made a trip from San Francisco to Liverpool in 104 days, the fastest time of the season, and the return voyage was made in 110 days; thus beating the best time of the season by 24 days.

The report of the Bureau of Statistics shows that during the fiscal year ended June 29, 1875, there arrived in the United States 227,493 immigrants, which is 180,149 below the number received in 1874, and less than one-half the number that arrived in 1873.

The Washington Chronicle is responsible for the statement that at Sparta, Tennessee, graves of pignies have been found with headstones and pottery. The skeleton of one pigmy was twenty-six inches long, the thigh bones being little thicker than a man's finger.

Senator Bayard of Delaware made a speech the other day at Richmond, Virginia, in which he declared himself a hard money man, and said if the American people were true to themselves they would never rest until they had restored the standard of value so that we might have a firm basis for our prosperity.

A correspondent writing from Curry county says an expedition from the Smithsonian Institute, under the supervision of Paul Shoonemaker, late of the United States Northwest Coast Survey, sent out for the purpose of gathering Indian relics, to be exhibited at the coming Centennial, is unearthing and plundering the aboriginal "Macphelah," near the mouth of Rogue river.

Oregon has got nearly a year of politics before her. The election of Congressman took place on the 25th inst. Next June come the general, State and county elections. In the Fall comes the Presidential, and as the Congressional elections hereafter are uniform throughout all the States, and come on the same day as the Presidential, the successor of Lane will also be elected on that day.

The Ohio election is not such a victory after all for the Republicans. Through the aid of scared Democrats, who bolted on the school and financial questions, and out of a total vote of 600,000, Hayes is elected by a majority less than six thousand. If the election demonstrates anything at all, it is that a popular Democratic candidate can carry Ohio in the Presidential contest by a majority of 25,000.

Chicago, the largest grain market in the world, handles about 90,000,000 bushels annually, and has now in operation eighteen steam elevators, with a capacity of 15,350,000 bushels, or more than the average product of 1,000,000 acres of the fertile wheat-producing lands of the continent. Their capacity varies from 200,000 bushels to 1,500,000. The entire cost of the eighteen elevators now in operation was about five million dollars, exclusive of the cost of the grounds on which they stand.

Election Returns.

The following are the latest returns from this State. In most instances the majorities given are official, while in other cases we give the reported majorities:

Table with columns: Counties, Lane, Warren. Lists election results for various counties including Linn, Marion, Jackson, Washington, Lane, Multnomah, Coos, Yamhill, Clackamas, Josephine, Douglas, Lake, Benton, Columbia, Tillamook, Curry, Polk, Clatsop, Wasco, Umatilla, Grant, Baker, Union, and Lane's plurality.

Whitney has received 637 votes as far as heard from, and Dinick 236.

A New Candidate for President.

The Ohio election prognosticates no good to any of the Republican Presidential candidates who have been heretofore prominent in the field. It brings forward at once onto the front rank a new candidate with portentous claims; Governor Hayes, says the New York World, has suddenly assumed the leading position in his party. For although nothing can be more certain than that the election of the 5th ult. was in no just sense of the word a Republican victory, the battle having been fought and won upon an issue which the Republicans even of Ohio never accepted as a party issue, and on which the Radical party at large cannot pretend to go before the country until it has burned all its records of the last fourteen years, yet the better portion of the Republican party will unquestionably begin at once to gather around Gov. Hayes as a victorious leader. It will not be easy even for Governor Hayes to make headway against the general drift of Grant and his Administration. But he will certainly be urged to undertake the task.

Loss of the Pacific.

A report from Seattle, Puget Sound, speaks the following from Port Townsend: The American ship Messenger arrived on the 7th, nine days from San Francisco, and reports picking up part of the pilot house, twenty miles south of Cape Flattery, with Henry L. Jelley, the only surviving passenger of the steamship Pacific, which sailed from Victoria Thursday morning, and founded forty miles south of Flattery Thursday evening. Mr. Jelley floated on the pilot house from Thursday night to Saturday morning. Mr. Jelley is too low to give full particulars. All the passengers, principally from Victoria, and crew, numbering about 150, are lost.

The Result of the Ohio Election.

The New York Herald's Washington special notes the least important result of the defeat of Allen in Ohio is the impression made upon the sentiment of the Democratic party in the South. The conversion of the faltering and the confirmation of the strong in faith on hard money will bring a united hard money delegation from the South to the National Democratic Convention next year. Even the small majority of Hayes does not interfere with the growth of this feeling. This is a subject of much congratulation in the Democratic circles in Washington and elsewhere.
