INSANE.—A man named S. B. Starr was on Monday last examined before Judge Watson by Dr. Aiken, and pronounced insane. He was yesterday taken to East Portland by John Pearson.

SELLING CHEAP.—Sachs Bros. are selling their large and first-class stock of dress-goods, black silks, Irish poplins, ladies' fancy goods, clothing, etc., cheaper than the cheapest. Read their new advertisement and don't fail to give them a call.

GRAND JURORS.—The following are the Grand Jurors empaneled for the November term of the Circuit Court, now in session: Thomas F. Beall, foreman; John Cardwell, W. A. Johnson, John Buckley, George Brown and James D. Buckley, A. Cantrell.

SURRENDERED HERSELF.—Mrs. Caroline Briggs, convicted of manslaughter at the last term of Court and sentenced to five years' imprisonment in the Penitentiary, surrendered herself this week, and is now confined in the County Jail. She will be taken to Salem in a few days.

ALARM OF FIRE.—Last Wednesday, while Peter Britt, of this place, was experimenting with alcohol, the liquid exploded, burning his face and head and setting the ceiling of the room in which he was at work on fire. Had it not been for the timely arrival of assistance, the building would have been consumed; as it was, but little damage was done.

COUNTY COURT PROCEEDINGS.—The following are the proceedings of the County Court at its November term: Present—Hon. E. B. Watson, Judge; M. A. Hueston and John O'Brien, Commissioners; E. D. Foudray, Clerk; J. W. Manning, Sheriff. E. D. Foudray, County Clerk, was authorized and instructed to have the County Jail painted.

PERSONAL.—Hon. Jas. D. Fay, of San Francisco, and Hon. J. F. Watson, of Roseburg, are in attendance on the Circuit Court. Hon. Henry Klippel and lady and Mrs. John Bilger arrived from San Francisco this week. G. Karowski has gone to Portland. Col. W. S. Stone passed through town this week. Dr. Callender has returned from Coos Bay.

LOST AT SEA.—Wm. Hoffman, Esq., last Tuesday received a telegram announcing that George T. Vining, a son-in-law of his, had been lost on the steamer Pacific, an account of the loss of which will be found elsewhere. Mr. Vining was in an early day a resident of this section, and was prominently connected with its affairs. He was once a candidate for Secretary of State on the Democratic ticket, and filled several offices of trust while residing in Oregon. At the time of his death he was engaged in the mercantile business at Franklin, W. T., where he leaves a family to mourn his untimely end.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

More rain this week. Circuit Court in session. Apples plenty and cheap. Jurors were in demand this week. Holiday amusements are budding. County warrants always taken at par at this office.

Teamsters arriving from Roseburg report the roads as fearful. Don't fail to call soon and settle what you owe the TIMES office. Snow is now visible on the high mountains surrounding this valley. Read the Sheriff's sale and land notice among our new advertisements.

Senator Mitchell passed through town the other day, en route for the East. More rain has fallen within the past month than during the entire of last year.

Several persons from Josephine county are in attendance on the Circuit Court. Hon. Henry Klippel is officiating as Deputy Clerk during the session of Circuit Court.

The Lewis Bros. are on their way here and will favor this section with an entertainment. Owing to the prevalence of Circuit Court, Jacksonville presents quite a lively appearance.

The warm rains have started the grass and volunteer grain to sprouting finely. Stock is doing well. Mrs. Caldwell has rented the Soda Springs to J. H. Russell, of Ashland, and removed to Jacksonville.

The slaughtering of hogs commences ere long, and a large number will be converted into bacon, hams, etc. Sheriff Green, of Josephine, will call on the tax-payers of that county ere long, for the purpose of receiving taxes. Veit Schutz elsewhere cautions the public not to credit his wife on his account, as he will pay no debts of her contraction.

The ground is in fine condition for plowing. The farmers are only awaiting some good weather to take advantage of this fact. Miners in various sections are preparing for the Winter's campaign. The prospects are favorable at present for a busy season.

E. D. Foudray, Esq., is Sachem of Oregonian-Pocahontas Tribe No. 1, I. O. R. M., vice P. D. Parsons, who has removed to Chico, Cal. D. B. Rea, formerly of this place, is now located at Tucson, Arizona, where he is practicing law and also interested in some promising mines.

The County Jail will receive sundry coats of paint ere long. This step is rendered necessary to keep the building in a good state of preservation. The roof on the new Masonic building is being put on, and the structure itself is being painted. J. L. Carter & Son have the contract for doing the painting.

C. C. Beekman, agent of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s express, will receive subscriptions intended for the sufferers of the Virginia fire and forward them free of charge. A pleasant party took place at Veit Schutz' Hall last Friday evening. The Ashland Band discoursed excellent music for the occasion, and Madame Holt provided a good supper.

The O. & C. Stage Company have been paying their employees along the line during the past few days. It is said that their disbursements for this quarter amount to about $30,000. No official news has been received from the election in Lake county as yet. Parties from that section last week inform us that at last accounts Mr. Lane was seventy ahead. The vote was light.

John R. Tice and others, while on the road to Fort Klamath with freight, encountered a regular young hurricane, which upturned several trees and played havoc generally. Fortunately no one was hurt, although it was a close call. We learn that the Portland company, interested in the mines at Althouse, Josephine county, will engage six teams to haul quartz from their ledges to the mill. The persons forming that company mean business, and will no doubt make it pay.

The Yreka Journal tells of a pompous-looking individual palming himself off on the people of that section as a mining expert, but subsequently proving to be a humbug. After giving him a lively airing, that paper states that he has made tracks for this region. Look out for him.

ASHLAND NOTES.

ASHLAND, Nov. 9, 1875. Miss Frances Myer has been employed to teach at the Linkville school. Miss Katie Thornton is the assistant teacher in the Ashland public school. She succeeds.

The young, hilarious and festive of the town, were in attendance at an evening party in the Grangers' Hall on Saturday night. It was a very pleasant affair. C. B. Watson has charge of the school above town, near Daniel Walker's. He and his family are residing at Judge Tolman's. Mr. Watson is a proficient teacher.

How Ashland radiates teachers! We have many young men and ladies sufficiently disciplined to assume control of our public schools. Those who have been engaged have almost universally satisfied their patrons. Recent rains have had a copious downward tendency. The market sloped over and the medium is now running down. The stock-holders are content, but merchants and their jobbers claim they have been "sadly taken in."

Hiram Farlow's temporary home on Little Butte creek was one day last week destroyed by fire. He resided alone and was out hunting at the time it occurred, so nothing was saved. The property consumed consisted of grain, tools, guns, etc., the total value of which was about three hundred dollars.

On Friday night Ashland Lodge of I. O. G. T., through A. D. Helman, L. D., installed the following officers: C. H. Hill, W. C. T.; Elda McCloud, W. V. T.; C. Merritt, W. S.; Nellie Russell, A. S.; N. A. Jacobs, W. F. S.; Pauline Eubanks, W. T.; J. S. Eubanks, W. M.; Sessie Hill, W. I. G.; J. D. Fountain, W. O. G.; M. E. Helman, W. D. M.; M. J. Swingle, R. H. S.; M. A. Hudson, L. H. S.

The election of officers to assume control of the secular concerns of our town took place on the 1st inst., which resulted in the choice of the following persons: Councilmen, J. M. McCall, Wesley Mitchell, Isaac Miller, Sr., F. W. Ewing and A. D. Helman; Recorder, C. K. Klum; Marshal, L. A. Neil; Treasurer, B. F. Reeser. They were properly inducted into their respective positions Saturday evening. J. M. McCall was elected President of the Board of Councilmen; and now for a year to come the law-making machinery of our temporal affairs is supposed to operate unctuously.

PILOT ROCK. PROBATE COURT.—The following business was transacted in this Court last week: In the matter of the estate of John Blattner. Herman Helms, administrator of said estate, was ordered to pay preferred claims in full and the balance pro rata. In the matter of the estate of P. W. Stow. Herman Helms, administrator of said estate, was authorized to pay $175 to Quinton Anderson, upon said Anderson relinquishing his lease upon the farm of the deceased.

JURY SECURED.—In the Circuit Court, most of this week has been consumed in empanelling a jury in the case of State vs. David Briggs, indicted for murder. After exhausting the regular panel and three subsequent ones, a jury was finally secured, to-wit: C. C. McClelland, Thos. Ferguson, Albert Osborne, Joab Robinson, Isaac Skeeters, Geo. Bush, Wm. Harper, Josiah Neathamer, H. J. Terrill, Arthur Pool, Wm. Payne, Wm. Sutherland. The trial begins to-day.

GRAND BALL.—Ruth Rebekah Degree Lodge No. 4, I. O. O. F., will give a grand anniversary ball on Thursday evening, December 30, 1875. Good music and supper will be provided and no pains spared to make it a success in every particular. Everybody is invited to attend. See the advertisement elsewhere.

OFFICIAL RETURNS OF JOSEPHINE.—Sheriff Green of Josephine informs us that the official vote of that county gives Mr. Lane 38 plurality. No polls were opened at Vannoy's and Leland, and the vote everywhere was light.

IMPORTANT DECISION.—The Department of the Interior decides that an administrator or guardian cannot relinquish the homestead entry of a deceased person without authority from the Probate Court. R. B. HARGADINE, of Ashland, last week received another addition to his first-class stock of goods.

CIRCUIT COURT PROCEEDINGS.

The following proceedings have transpired in the Circuit Court up to time of going to press: MONDAY, Nov. 8th.

Officers present—Hon. P. P. Prim, Judge; H. K. Hanna, Esq., District Attorney; E. D. Foudray, Clerk; J. W. Manning, Sheriff. The cases of the State of Oregon vs. Arch. Chrisman, James Hards, Joseph Wells, W. B. Darberry, Chas. Wilson, were continued. Wm. Ray, J. M. McCall and Henry R. Brown were excused from serving as Jurors for the present term.

State vs. Caroline Briggs; indictment for murder. Mandate from the Supreme Court ordered spread upon the records and stand as the judgment herein. State vs. Chester Barden; indictment for murder in the first degree. Defendant arraigned and leave granted until to-morrow to plead to said indictment.

TUESDAY, Nov. 9th. James D. Fay vs. P. J. Malone; action to recover money. Continued. State vs. David Briggs; indictment for murder in the first degree. Drawing of jury in said case ordered by Court, and C. C. McClelland, Thos. Ferguson and Albert Osborne secured from the regular panel and from another subsequently summoned by the Sheriff. Sheriff ordered to summon forty-eight good and lawful men to complete said panel of jurors, to appear to-morrow morning.

WEDNESDAY, Nov. 10th. State vs. Caroline Briggs; indictment for murder. Motion that bail given on appeal be exonerated was granted. The Grand Jury, through their foreman, returned two true bills into Court, to-wit: One against Robert Brown, charged with larceny of a horse, and one against Andrew Casey, charged with larceny in a dwelling house.

Eubanks & Miller vs. D. S. K. Buick; appeal from Justice's Court. Motion to dismiss appeal argued and taken under advisement by the Court. Ormstead & Bixby vs. A. J. Reynolds et al; appeal from Justice's Court. Motion to dismiss appeal argued and taken under advisement by the Court.

A SPLENDID ENTERTAINMENT.—The celebrated Lewis Bros.' Grand Culmination, which has been creating a furore for the past season in California, and comes with exceedingly complimentary testimonials from the Eastern and Southern press, will appear in this place next week. The favorable reputation preceding this entertainment is a guarantee that our people will have an opportunity of attending a popular and legitimate place of amusement. In regard to the nature of the performances, we refer our readers to the programmes and large illustrated and pictorial posters about town, which advertise a routine of startling and refined sensations, pleasing acts, daring feats of jugglery, tableaux, vivants, grand operatic selections, vocalizations and musical gems of the day. Tickets, only 50 cents; children half-price.

SALE OF FINE HORSES.—We learn that W. C. Myer, of Ashland, recently sold eight head of his Percheron horses to Messrs. Bonney & Jones, of Wasco county, viz: "Gen. Murat," a full blood, foaled May, 1874, weight, 1,300 pounds; Percheron mare, three-fourths blood, imported from Ohio, weight, 1,600 pounds; "Eugenie," seven-eighths blood, foaled May, 1875, weight, 600 pounds; "Bismarck," one-half blood, three years old, and four one-half blood fillies from one to three years old—from No. 1 American mares. The introduction of these horses will doubtless prove of benefit to the stock interests of Eastern Oregon.

HOLIDAY GOODS.—The holidays are approaching, and Ben Sachs is in the field with a fine assortment of notions, toys, nuts and candies; also dry-goods, groceries, fancy goods, etc., which he sells cheap. Give him a call and see for yourself.

THE DOCKET.—The Circuit Court docket presents quite a formidable appearance and embraces thirteen criminal cases, twenty actions at law and thirteen chancery cases. The prospects are favorable for a session of several weeks' duration.

PREACHING.—Elder W. H. Bradford, a Baptist minister, will preach on the "Immortality of the Soul" in the M. E. Church, Jacksonville, on next Sunday.

At a regular meeting of Warren Lodge No. 10, A. F. & A. M., held on Saturday, November 6th, 1875, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

Something further of importance will be observed by consulting his advertisement, which will be found elsewhere.

ARRAIGNED.—Chester P. Barden, indicted for the murder of Daniel McMahon, was this week arraigned, and will perhaps be tried ere long. He was carried into Court and presented a rather emaciated appearance. Hon. J. F. Watson has been appointed as his attorney.
