Jackson Co. Democratic Convention.

A Democratic County Convention for Jackson county is hereby called to be held at the Court House in Jacksonville on at 1 o'clock P. M., for the nomination of a full legislative and county ticket and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before it.

It is recommended that the primary meetings in the various precincts for the election of delegates to the County Convention be held at the usual places of voting on Saturday, May 6, 1876, at 1 o'clock P. M.

The several precincts will be entitled to one delegate for every twenty votes east for Col. LaDow in 1874, and one for every fraction of eleven and over, to-wit :

The citizens of Kerbyville were re cently delighted with sundry performances by the Centennial Minstrel Troupe of Williamsburg. This company intended visiting other points but it is said that Grant telegraphed to the manager that he would take his post office away from him unless he attended to it, and their hopes were blighted.

WM. BYBEE this week mounts his high horse and rushes into print to deny the charge so generally made against him that Bill Owen is to be his Deputy in case of his election. THE Sentinel, the organ of the straight Republicans, is very explicit about having it understood that the late Republican Convention did not endorse the Cayuse ticket. It says that the Republicans still have an organization in this county and that its members can vote as they please in the county election. It evidently takes no stock in this cheeky attempt to capture the county offices, and tells a patent truth when it says that there is not a genuine Republican on the ticket, which we amend by adding that not a genuine Democrat can be found on it either. It is made up entirely of political free-booters, with hand. not a shadow of a claim on either party.
