

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

The candidates on the Democratic ticket and others will address the citizens of Jackson county at and on the following places and times: Grant's Pass, Thursday, May 25th, at 1 o'clock p. m.

WOODVILLE, at month of Evan's creek, on Friday, May 26th, at 1 o'clock p. m. Rock Point, on Friday, May 26th, at seven o'clock p. m.

THE excellent ticket nominated by the Democracy gives general satisfaction everywhere. The Democrats are confident and sanguine of success, while the Pizzarinkums look rather blue and act as if the ticket put out last Saturday had blasted all hopes of success they ever entertained.

TRANSFERRED.—At the May session of the County Commissioners' Court it was ordered that the Building Fund belonging to the county be transferred to the County General Fund, to be applied to the redemption of the outstanding warrants, and to remain in the fund until the further order of the Court.

CENTENNIAL CONTRIBUTIONS.—The Finance Committee of this precinct will call on our citizens next Monday for the purpose of soliciting contributions to the fund being raised for the Centennial. All amounts contributed for that purpose after that date can be left at the Post Office or Express Office, or handed to Newman Fisher.

THE BALL.—The party given by the Improved Order of Red Men last Friday evening was a complete success. Fifty-nine tickets were sold. The reputation of the Tribe in giving the best and most agreeable parties is proverbial, and on this occasion it more than fully sustained itself in that particular. Dancing was kept up until broad daylight, when everybody retired well satisfied with the night's amusement.

PROBATE COURT.—In this Court last week, J. Elliott filed his bond as administrator of the estate of Samuel Laport, with W. G. Bishop as surety. Sam. Furry, Harvey Outman and Wm. Mathes were appointed appraisers of said estate.

P. J. Ryan, administrator of the estate of Daniel McMahon, deceased, filed his petition for final settlement of said estate, and it was ordered that the hearing of said account be had on Tuesday, June 20, 1876.

FROM various sources we learn that Kelly, the Pizzarinkum candidate for County Judge, endeavors to palm himself off as a Republican or Democrat, as the case may require. He claims that the only true Democrats and Republicans are to be found supporting the Owen-Langell combination. The absurdity of this assertion is only equalled by the cheek and assurance assumed by Kelly when he thus attempts to gull the intelligent citizens of Jackson county with such twaddle. The Democracy has a full ticket representing its claims, while the Republican party has no county candidates in the field.

PERMANENTLY ORGANIZED.—The proposed club effected a permanent organization last Monday evening and elected E. D. Foudray, President; Chas. Nickell, Secretary; David Linn, Treasurer. The Jacksonville Social Club is the name adopted, and it starts in with about thirty charter members. The large room in the Masonic building, up-stairs, has been engaged, and the work of fitting it up in appropriate and comfortable style is now progressing. The membership is composed of some of the best citizens of this place, and the Club will doubtless be conducted after the manner of those of larger cities. Max Muller, U. S. Hayden and E. D. Foudray have been appointed a Committee on by-laws and constitution, and will submit their report on Monday evening, May 22d, the next regular meeting of the club. All members are requested to be present.

An impromptu party occurred at Veit's Hall last Saturday evening. Although nearly all hands present participated in the Red Men's ball the evening before, the affair passed off in a lively and pleasant manner until twelve o'clock. Professors Woods and Hull furnished excellent music for the occasion.

The City Drug Store came near being destroyed by fire early Tuesday morning. The fire is supposed to have originated from a stump of a cigar smouldering in a box of saw-dust that was used for a spittoon, and, when discovered, had consumed the box and burned a hole in the floor about a foot square. The timely application of a few buckets of water doubtless saved us from another disastrous conflagration.

AFTERNOON SESSION. The Convention assembled pursuant to adjournment, H. K. Hanna, presiding.

On motion, J. S. March was chosen Assistant Secretary.

During the recess, while the Convention was waiting for the report of the Committee on Order of Business, Mr. Klippel was called upon and responded in a few pertinent remarks, giving the history of the late Democratic State Convention. He said his nomination was not given as a compliment to himself, but the Democracy of the State gave it to honor the Jackson county Democrats for their past patriotism in the cause. He also gave a brief history of the "People's" movement in this county.

The Committee on Order of Business submitted the following report: MR. PRESIDENT: Your committee respectfully report the following as the order of business for this Convention, and recommend its adoption:

Miller received a majority of all the votes cast and was declared duly nominated.

THE Sentinel says that the Pizzarinkums will doubtless have a paper out before long. If their past career in the newspaper line is any criterion, we would amend by suggesting that "smut-mill" is far more appropriate a name for any campaign paper they may issue. Having not the first political principle to fight for, they will perhaps content themselves with besliming the Democratic candidates and descending to the lowest depths of personalities, in the hopes of thus securing votes to their candidates.

However, there is not a candidate on the Democratic ticket but what is well known to the people of Jackson county as a man of character and capacity for the place to which he aspires, and the showers of mud this Pizzarinkum will may throw will have but an opposite effect from which it was intended.

THE Democrats of Josephine have nominated an excellent ticket, which will doubtless squelch all opposition that may be brought against it. The Legislative ticket is especially good. Dan. Green for Senator and W. W. Fidler for Representative are men the people of Josephine should take great care in sending to the Legislature, for they can then rely upon having their interests there attended to in an able, upright and satisfactory manner. The whole ticket should be elected by a rousing majority.

DEMOCRATS should bear in mind that a U. S. Senator is to be elected next September. It is highly important that the Legislature should be Democratic and that the members from this county should be Democrats. Waste no votes on the Owen ticket, but stand to your principles and vote for the candidates put out last Saturday, and bury this motley combination so deep that it will never be heard from again.

B. C. GODDARD, candidate for Assessor on the Pizzarinkum ticket, evidently has very little faith in the success of his party. He is now engaged in building a grist-mill for Wimer & Son, in Josephine county, and says he does not mean to spend any time or money in the interest of the ticket. Mr. Goddard is a sensible man, as he don't propose to be anything loser through this movement, though he is one of the candidates.

INSTALLED.—W. R. Dunbar, G. W. C. T., on the 15th installed the following as officers of the Good Templar Lodge in this city: Miss Dora Cardwell, W. C. T.; J. Dollarhide, R. H. S.; T. J. Kenney, L. H. S.; S. M. Hubbard, S.; Geo. Howard, A. S.; L. F. Stinson, F. S.; Miss Lizzie Wallace, T.; J. A. Carter, I. G.; F. Kasshafer, O. G.; Mrs. Daniel Cronemiller, P. W. C. T.

CHANGED.—The Chinese mining cases have been transferred from the Circuit Court of this District to Judge Deady's Court at Portland. N. Langell, U. S. Deputy Marshal, served the papers last week.

RESUMED PRACTICE.—Dr. G. H. Aiken has resumed the practice of medicine in this section, and may be found at Brooks' drug store until further notice.

LETTER FROM ASHLAND.

ASHLAND, May 16, 1876.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

Our enterprising Road Supervisor, J. P. Woodson, informs us he has employed the Diamond road scraper in working the roads of this district, with splendid success. He thinks it a great improvement on anything of the kind he has ever used or seen, and would recommend its adoption for the working of roads throughout the county.

The legal talent of Ashland is rapidly developing and every day adds lustre to the bar. When litigation begins men leave their workshops—even down to the barber shops—and rush for the Court room to engage in the exhilarating sport of brow-beating each other. "Bijah" says he can't tell criminal from counsel, and hardly knows "which one of the boys he is."

How "tenderly" Eph. noticed us in last week's Sentinel. His compliment is received in the same spirit in which it was uttered. He says many of the statements from our pen are without the "shadow of foundation." It is easy for him to say so, but it would be difficult for him to prove them false. That "Eph." is a Pizzarinkum in the broadest sense of the term is evident by the aptitude with which he manipulates their only stock in trade—misrepresentation. In his account of the Democratic primary held here on the 6th he says one of the members of the meeting acknowledged that the Pizzarinkum ticket was very strong. To our knowledge no such expression was made use of by any Democrat in the primary, and we hold ourselves in readiness to prove this fact, as we also do the charges we have heretofore made, of which "Eph." in the style peculiar to that class of Bohemians who, "living by their wits are but the mouthpieces of others," makes denial. But, then, poor fellow, he is to be pitied, for he must obey the behest of M. P. (which means Merchant Prince or Melancholy Pizzarinkum) or his chances for establishing a Pizzarinkum organ are but slim. The gentleman to whom "Eph." says we acted as amanuensis no doubt thanks the egotistical "cherub" for the delicate allusion to his occupation. He probably finds more satisfaction in following a legitimate and honest calling, if it is "cobbling," than he would if he was trying to humbug the people of this county, as we believe our friend "Eph." is doing.

"O, would some power the gift give us To see ourselves as others see us; It would from many a blunder free us."

The Democratic party is not the party that bush-whacks for votes, as "Eph." says, but is a staid and tried party, and has principles that the people honestly and faithfully support—principles which will gloriously triumph in the coming election, the Pizzarinkums to the contrary notwithstanding.

Democrats here express themselves well pleased with the work of our last Convention and give their hearty support to the ticket put forth.

WE call attention to the appointments made by the nominees of the Democratic party of this county. They propose to let the people hear from them direct, and have therefore appointed times when they will meet them in the various precincts. Political opponents of every stripe and color are cordially invited to participate in the discussion. Let a full attendance greet the speakers everywhere.

THERE is a wonderful moderation in the tone of the Pizzarinkums since the Democratic ticket has been nominated. A short time ago they said they were good for at least 75 majority at Ashland, which they reckon as their stronghold. Now they claim but forty, which is a decided concession so early in the canvass.

SCHOOL MEETING.—By order of the School Directors of this District, a special meeting will be held at the school house on Friday, May 26th, at four o'clock p. m., for the purpose of considering the propriety of building an addition to the school house and taking a vote on such proposition.

FROM JOSEPHINE.—Hon. W. W. Fidler, of Williams' creek, was in town this week. He has been re-nominated by the Democracy of Josephine for Representative, which position he ably filled in 1874, and is bound to be elected.

FOR PRECINCT OFFICERS.—The delegates to the Democratic County Convention from this precinct nominated T. B. Kent for Justice of the Peace and John Pearson for Constable.

MARRIED. YARBAUGH—INGLEMAN.—On the 13th, near Waldo, by Rev. David Hopkins, David Yarbaugh and Miss Annie G. Ingleman.

BORN. McNEIL.—At Eagle Point, May 12th, to the wife of A. McNeil, a daughter.
