GENERAL NOTES AND NEWS.

There is talk of dividing Linn county. Some Missourians who lately arrived in Marion county intend putting up a brandy distillery. Mr. Griswold will rebuild the Wilamette Mills at Salem if capitalists will aid him after they are erected.

In a half mile dash at Lexington, Ky., on the 13th inst., Aristides made the fastest time on record by one second, 47 1/2. A man named Shea, living in Sweet Home valley, Linn county, intends manufacturing sauer kraut for the markets of Germany.

The Liberal Republicans of New York have resolved to await the action of the Conventions at Cincinnati and St. Louis, with a view to supporting the better candidate. A large number of prominent men representing almost every State in the Union met at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, New York, on the 15th for the purpose of organizing a new party.

Gen. Joseph Lane delivered a Democratic speech at Roseburg on Saturday, the 14th inst. It is said that he has enlisted for the Centennial political campaign, and that he will speak in quite a number of places. The World's Washington special says the indications are the Senate will decide by nearly a party vote that it has no jurisdiction in Belknap's case.

By private letters from Washington we learn that it is scarcely expected that Congress will adjourn before the first of August. The Democrats are determined to expose and uproot the evil doings of the administration, and find it such an exhaustive task that an unusual length of time is required to consummate even a portion of it.

During a trip to Roseburg, the editor of the Independent was shown by Mr. Asher Marks a lump of pure gold about the size of a man's fist, the result of the last clean up at the Esther ledge, on Grave Creek. The gold is of a dark yellow color and is valued at something over a thousand dollars, and is proof positive that in the Esther the stockholders have property with millions in.

The Liberals and Free-thinkers of Oregon and Washington Territory are requested to meet in Convention at Portland, Oregon, July 5th, 1876, at 10 o'clock A. M., at the rooms of the Liberal Association, for the purpose of perfecting a general organization of the Liberals and Free-thinkers throughout the country, and for such other business as may properly come before such Convention.

The telegraph tells us that the National Independent Convention, in session at Indianapolis last week, nominated on the fifth ballot Peter Cooper of New York for President and Newton Booth of California for Vice President. By-the-way, Peter Cooper sensibly declined the Presidential nomination, and, no one having yet been selected to fill his place, Booth is left solitary and alone to lead the greenback cause.

S. Rigdon, of Pine Opening, in Lane county, furnishes the Mercury with the following statistics of the travel on the military road leading from Eugene City across the Cascade Mountains, to the Klamath and Goose Lake country during the year 1875: Going east—men, 502; women, 108; children, 182; horses, 879; wagons, 174; cattle, 3,221; sheep, 5,426. Going west—men 440; women, 123; children, 166; horses, 774; wagons, 164; cattle, 25; sheep, 11.

GRAND LODGE OF ODD FELLOWS.

The Right Worthy Grand Lodge of Oregon, I. O. O. F., assembled in Odd Fellows' Hall, Salem, on the 16th, at 10 A. M., and was called to order by T. M. Gatch, Most Worthy Grand Master. The Committee on Credentials made their report, showing 141 delegates entitled to seats as representatives.

The Grand Master's report was presented and read and shows that the jurisdiction has at present 2,900 members, and the entire jurisdiction is in a flourishing condition. Three new Lodges have been instituted during the year with an application for another. The Widow and Orphan's Relief Association was referred to and favorably recommended to the attention of the members of the Order generally.

The financial condition of the Grand Lodge was reported in good condition and out of debt, with nearly enough on hand to pay the current expenses of the present session. The Grand Secretary, J. M. Bacon, read his report, which was referred to the Finance Committee. His report shows the whole number of Lodges 66; number of members in good standing December 31, 1875, 2,803; initiated during the year, 451; admitted by card, 136; reinstated, 24; withdrawn, 135; suspended or dropped, 136; expelled, 5; deceased, 26; number of Past Grands, 720; amount of receipts for the year 1875, $55,364.43; number of brothers relieved, 325; number of widows relieved, 35; total amount paid out for relief, burying the dead, etc., $14,612.28.

The Grand Treasurer's (I. R. Moores) report was read, which shows total receipts and expenditures of $6,300.09, with balance cash on hand of $1,691.73. The report was referred to the Finance Committee. At the evening session, the election of Grand Officers was declared in order, and the following were chosen: R. W. Grand Master, J. N. Dolph, of No. 2. R. W. Dept. Grand Master, O. N. Denny, of No. 15. R. W. Grand Warden, W. J. Snodgrass, of No. 16. R. W. Grand Secretary, J. M. Bacon, of No. 3. R. W. Grand Treasurer, I. R. Moores, of No. 1. R. W. Grand Representatives, A. G. Walling, of No. 15, long term, and H. G. Struve, of No. 6, W. T., short term.

A CONTRARY MULE.—A farmer in this county, says a North Carolina paper, has a muleso awfully contrary that he can do nothing with it. Put him in harness and it is hard to say which way he is going to travel. Put a saddle on him and he appears to doze, but try to mount him and he will of a sudden begin to kick every way—straight out, straddling, with all four legs at once. As to eating, he will eat anything, from his feed trough up to a wooden saddle. The owner took a notion to have him shod; but he kicked out the blacksmith shop and returned home. The owner tried to kill him some time back, so he tied his ears with a trace chain and rode him for six consecutive days and nights as hard as he could under whip and spur. The fact is that he nearly killed himself in the effort and had to be carried up-stairs to bed, and his firm belief was that the mule would die that night; but to his astonishment, the next morning he found that the mule had kicked to death a Chester sow weighing 300 pounds, bit a piece out of his horse's shoulder, ate up a saddle, blanket, and bridle, tore down the fence, and was splurging about more devilish than ever to find something else meaner to do.

ACCORDING to a French statistician, taking the means of many accounts, a man of fifty years of age has slept 6,000 days, worked 6,500 days, walked 800 days, amused himself 4,000 days, was eating 1,500 days, etc. He has eaten 17,000 pounds of bread, 16,900 pounds of meat, 4,600 pounds of vegetables, eggs and fish, and drank 7,000 gallons of liquid, viz: water, coffee, tea, beer, wine, etc., altogether. This would make a respectable lake of 300 square feet surface and three feet deep, on which small steamboats could navigate. And all this makes up the routine of an average man's life.

DAMPNESS.—For damp closets or cupboards which generate mildew a trayful of quick-lime will be found to absorb moisture and render the air pure; but of course it is necessary to renew the lime from time to time, as it becomes fully slacked. The last remedy will be found useful in safes and strong rooms, the damp air of which acts frequently most injuriously on the valuable deeds and documents which they contain.

A MEXICAN girl living at Tucelo has three developed arms. She can do up her hair without cramping her mouth full of hair-pins.

IN MEMORIAM.

At a meeting of Klamath Tribe No. 8, Imp. O. of R. M., held in Linkville Wednesday evening, May 10, 1876, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted: WHEREAS, The all Powerful and Good, by whom everything exists, has in his wisdom taken from our midst and from the toils of life our friend and brother, John Dick, and his estimable wife, and transferred them to a sphere beyond, making in our hearts a vacancy which our grief tells us cannot be filled, it is appropriate that we, who pride ourselves that we were their friends, should commemorate their death by an official observance; therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the death of our brother, John Dick, Klamath Tribe has lost a most zealous, faithful and efficient supporter, whose encouragement did much toward sustaining us since our existence as a Tribe; that we, his brethren, have lost a genial, devoted and earnest companion, and in the death of his wife, Mrs. F. M. Dick, we have lost a true friend and most estimable lady, a faithful wife and kind mother, and, while we meditate upon their lonely and horrible death and the heavy burden of their agony, the remembrance of them and their virtues will be a picture in our minds made more vivid and intense by the dark back-ground of their taking off.

Resolved, That to their bereaved friends and relatives, and especially to their orphan children, we sorrowfully offer our deep and earnest sympathies and sincerely hope that the same hand which has ordered this terrible calamity will give them comfort and strength to bear this their overwhelming affliction. Resolved, That our Hall be draped in mourning for thirty days, and that the members of this Tribe wear craps for the same length of time. Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records of our Tribe, and that a copy of the same be sent to the DEMOCRATIC TIMES and Oregon Sentinel for publication.

J. W. HAMAKAR, J. T. FULKERSON, GEORGE NOURSE, Committee.

THE ST. LOUIS NOMINATION.—A Washington correspondent of the Examiner, under date of April 20th, writes as follows: A marked change has occurred within a short time in the tone and feeling of Western men here. Those who were positive in their assertion of preference for candidates are now willing to accept whatever may be most necessary for the success of the party, even if it demand the nomination of an Eastern man. Tilden has gained immensely with these men within the past week. The opposition of Tweed and Canal "Ring" thieves of his own State has added to his strength, and it is certain that he will be presented at St. Louis by a united delegation, headed by such men as Horatio Seymour and Chas. O'Connor. Bayard is also very much talked of. Judge Davis is occasionally mentioned; but I think the movement in his favor, if there really be what can be called a movement, has little real vitality as yet. The sentiment freely expressed is in favor of the nomination of a life-long Democrat instead of a man of Republican antecedents, and, as far as known, present proclivities in the same direction operates strongly against him.

LETTERS.—People may be surprised to hear that more letters pass among the people of Switzerland proportionately than of any other country. In a year they carry on a correspondence of twenty-three letters for each inhabitant. England comes next with twenty and a half, then the United States with nineteen. France holds the ninth rank as a letter-writing people. In telegraphy also the Swiss beat us easily: They forward eighty-one dispatches for each one hundred souls, a monstrous advance over our fifty-four. I should conceive, however, that two-thirds of the telegraphic business in such country would lie between foreigners. Holland sends fifty-one dispatches for one-hundred souls. Belgium forty-seven, the United States thirty-two, Germany thirty-one. France again comes in low. She holds the tenth place among the thirteen quoted. Russia is last with one dispatch per one-hundred inhabitants.

TO CURE HOARSENESS.—When the voice is lost, as is sometimes the case, from the effects of a cold, a simple remedy is furnished by heating up the white of one egg, adding the juice of one lemon, and sweetening with white sugar to the taste. Take a teaspoonful from time to time. It has been known to effectually cure the ailment.
