For County Judge.

Jackson county should be very careful in its selection of the persons who are to conduct its affairs, and especially in the choice of the County Judge.

This is an affair of the utmost importance, and the citizens should know who they are electing to that position. The character and qualifications of Silas J. Day, the Democratic candidate, are well known to all. For twenty-three years he has been a resident of this section and is thoroughly acquainted with its every want.

Can as much be said for Harrison Kelly, the Pizzarinkum candidate? Unfortunately not. Compared with Mr. Day he is almost a new-comer, having been here but a few years. Entirely unacquainted with many portions of the county, his knowledge of our requirements is limited indeed.

Although a lawyer, his qualifications are by no means equal to those of his competitor. Unknown to a large number of our citizens, he is also wholly untried and in no measure a suitable occupant for the office of County Judge.

If the people of Jackson county, irrespective of party, desire to have the man for the place they certainly will not hesitate to vote for Silas J. Day under any circumstances.

Swamp Land.

The swamp land contests which were pending before the Linkville Land Office came up for trial on the 15th inst., B. F. Dowell, Esq., appearing for contestants, and Major Q. A. Brooks and C. A. Oggswell, Esq., for the State. Upon motion of the attorneys for the State, the cases were continued until the 7th of July.

It is understood that the object which the State seeks to accomplish in these contests is to establish the fact that the lands in contest are "swamp and overflowed," so that if patents are issued to the settlers the State may get lien lands for her swamp lands.

THE WHAT IS IT.

The object of what is called (falsely) the "People's" party and the causes of its formation are too well known to need any explanation from us. Anybody at all acquainted with the nominees thereof can see at a glance that they comprise nothing but a crew of disappointed and hungry office-seekers who have abandoned the old organizations solely because they could not use them to place them in office and prostitute their principles to gratify their own selfish ends.

The leaders of this movement do not even give a reasonable excuse for its formation. They cannot elucidate why the people of Jackson county should encourage them. Consequently, they cannot expect the least support from the average citizen who is a consistent member of any party, if he were desirous of a change, for it would really be a change for the worse under any circumstances.

Composed of a few in former days pretending to be Democrats, (but now gangrened with malice against the organization to which they once claimed allegiance because it would not give them office,) and Republicans likewise dying for place, it is certainly not a combination likely to be looked upon favorably by those not directly interested in the patronage they expect to distribute in case of its success. Because the Republican party is naturally opposed to the Democracy, and having no ticket in the field, this crew of frantic office-hunters expects to capture the greater mass of its voters, and by misrepresentation and promises tries to force them into its support.

A Dodge that Won't Win.

In Gov. Grover's report to the Legislature, in answer to Senate Joint Resolution No. 10, October 9, 1874, we find that O. C. Applegate has filed upon 700 acres of swamp land; L. B. Applegate, 1,500 acres; I. D. Applegate, 700 acres; Jesse Applegate, 392,000 acres.

Now, O. C. Applegate, who is the Republican candidate for Representative of Lake county, is attempting to make the people believe, in spite of these figures, that he is not a "swamp land holder," and, in order to do this, his brother Lucien comes out in a card, stating that O. C. Applegate has never filed upon any swamp land, and that he (Lucien) was the only member of the Applegate family that has paid the 20 per cent. on these lands.

This is a very weak excuse, as the Applegates certainly filed upon this swamp land, as Lucien admits, and it matters not whether they did or did not pay the 20 per cent. At all events, O. C. Applegate will not succeed in convincing the voters of Lake county that he has filed upon no swamp land when the official report of the Governor tells them the contrary.

Refuses to Follow Them Off.

The Albany Democrat of a late date says:

Some of the Jackson county Republicans went into a coalition with sore-head Democrats and nominated an Independent ticket, and now the Jacksonville Sentinel, the Republican paper of that county, refuses to support the Dolly Varden hermaphrodite or in any way countenance it. We honor the Sentinel for its straight-forward consistency in this matter. When men desert their party and wander off after strange gods and in search of the flesh-pots of Egypt, we are in favor of letting them reach the goal of their hopes without any assistance from those whom they have betrayed and deserted.

The Pizzarinkum sheet endorses C. B. Watson as its candidate for Prosecuting Attorney. Unfortunately, its endorsement is entirely gratuitous, for Mr. Watson does not in any way endorse or take stock in the party which it represents.

LETTER FROM APPLAGATE.

APPLAGATE, May 23, 1878. TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES: Seeing you have many correspondents from other sections of the county, and as your paper is a good exponent of the views of the times, I take pleasure in jotting down a few particulars from this quarter.

Grass, pasturage and everything, agriculturally speaking, is flourishing. The shining dust is being taken out in good quantities and, financially, our prospects are not so gloomy after all. As an evidence of this fact, Rev. S. W. Davies commenced the erection, not long since, of a Church edifice near Kador's School House, (an acre of ground having been donated by Mr. Lewman), and with his characteristic energy, assisted by the enterprising community, has prosecuted the work until the building is nearly completed. Sunday last a large audience was present and seated comfortably in the new Church, and, after religious services, the officiating of the Church stated that the building was some in debt. Whereupon R. v. J. R. N. Bell, after a brief address, asked for aid to liquidate the present indebtedness and, notwithstanding the hard times, the people gave twice the amount asked for, and that in a hurry, too. Rev. J. W. Stahl, Presiding Elder, proceeded with the dedicatory ceremonies.

Quite an amount of fish is taken out of our rushing stream, but the Applegate country is not so fishy after all, especially cray-fish, or fishy for official position. There are no politics over here, comparatively all are Democrats. They are well satisfied with the county ticket of our party. Depend upon us, we will have victory perch where it belongs.

Allow me to say before closing my brief epistle that our enterprising merchant, John Bolt, is, in addition to his mercantile pursuits, engaged in changing the political proclivities of men by a process not known to political economy hitherto. He simply alters their views. No more now. Xenophon.

The public should be on the lookout for roorbacks and campaign slanders liable to be peddled by the Pizzarinkums about election day, when it is too late to refute them. Having not the first legitimate principle on which to work, they have spread a mass of the most outrageous fabrications, which only they can conceive, hoping to create a prejudice against their opponents by which they expect to turn enough votes to enable them to squeeze into the offices. Their tactics are too well known to be of much service, at least they ought to be. Misrepresentation has been and is now the strongest card they bring to bear on the average voter, and it will be well to learn the truth for yourself before taking any stock in their lies.

The following pitiful, buncombe resolution is all the Owen-Langell combination have to show that they are conducting this campaign on principle, platform or anything legitimate:

Resolved, That in view of the severe depression in every branch of industry in this county we are opposed to any increase of taxes for the purpose of building a Court House, at least within the next two years, deeming such an expenditure of public money at the present time inexpedient and contrary to the wishes of the people.

The italics are ours, and we ask that the public study them well, for it will easily see how utterly deceptive this resolution is. It is a piece of the smallest demagogism and only intended to create a cheap reputation for their cause with the people of the county at the expense of the citizens of Jacksonville.

The "People's" Journal.

Such is the title of the little one-horse sheet issued yesterday afternoon by the Pizzarinkums in the interest of their ticket. It is decidedly a flat arrangement, to say the most, and a great disappointment to its partisans. The greater portion of its space is devoted to a labored defence of its candidates and in reply to the Times, while the balance is simply a rehearsal of what has heretofore appeared in its predecessors, the Press and Review. The only thing remarkable about the sheet is the misrepresentation it indulges in and the check displayed in claiming its party as one having principle. Judge Watson's earmarks are plainly apparent throughout.

Poet Laureate of Lake County.

It is understood that O. C. Applegate, Republican candidate for Representative and Poet Laureate of Lake county, has modestly tendered the services of his muse to the Centennial, provided they will advance him sufficient funds to pay his fare to Philadelphia. To induce the committee to fork over, he accompanies his proposition with the following specimen of his lyric genius:

The "bard of the Cascades" is a poetical wonder. Who says he ain't I'll thrash, by thunder!

THE Pizzarinkums are endeavoring to make a point against Mr. Manning by impugning his Democracy. The people are too well acquainted with him to believe any such balderdash. His reputation as a sound, uncompromising Democrat and a honorable, high-minded gentleman is too well known for any Owen-Bybee slanders to impair his strength in the least. It is certainly very impudent in this office-seeking crew to doubt anybody's principle, especially as they have none themselves.

SKIDMORE denies that he is in favor of dividing the public School Fund for the benefit of private and sectarian schools. It is possible and quite natural that he is against thus aiding other private or sectarian schools, but his past record as regards his own in this matter is exactly to the contrary. Now, that he has entered into the business, let him successfully deny that he was not in favor of the proposition before the recent school meeting in Ashland, by which it was proposed to divide the public money of that district and apply it pro rata to the school children attending his academy. We have it from good authority that he was and championed this question, which was carried. And is this not a division of the school money in the fullest sense of the term?

DANFORTH and Wrisley, of affidavit fame, no doubt felt like crawling into their little holes and drawing them in after when Dowell pulled those muddled-about letters from Chadwick on them in town last Monday and conclusively proved how utterly false were their affidavits and the reports peddled broadcast by Kelly and his Pizzarinkum compatriots that he had ever proposed a combination with Chadwick to run a straight Republican ticket for the consideration of having the judgment on the May bond stayed until the Legislature met. They were cornered and could not squirm out of it, much as they would have desired to.

BYBEE is still much exercised about our remarks concerning the Deputy Sheriffalty, which like Banquo's ghost, will not down. Keep your shirt on, William, for that's a matter that will never trouble you after election. Wes. Manning will have the pleasure of saying who shall occupy this position, and you are only wasting time and money in your frantic hunt after office.

POLITICS in Josephine are quite interesting. The late Independent Convention was a fizzle. The Democrats drew out of it and almost a straight Republican ticket was nominated. The Democrats will doubtless carry the county as of yore. They should by all means leave nothing undone to elect their whole ticket.

TO THE VOTERS OF LAKE COUNTY.

It has been reported in the western part of this county that I have promised, in case of my election to the office of Sheriff, to appoint Clinton Brown my Deputy. This is entirely false, as I have not promised to appoint Mr. Brown or any other man as my Deputy. SAMUEL C. HUTSON, Lake county, May 18th.

NEW, THIS WEEK.

Estray Notice.
