

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

The candidates on the Democratic ticket and others will address the citizens of Jackson county at the following places and times:

Grant's Pass, Thursday, May 25th, at 1 o'clock p. m.

The genuine Republicans, who Kelly attempted to sell out in the election two years ago, are going for his scalp and intend to make things tropical for him.

DEMOCRATS should leave nothing undone to elect their nominees. Their ticket is one of which they can well feel proud, and they should spare no efforts to ensure its election.

MANY a Republican has already expressed his preference for the Democratic ticket, recognizing as he does that he has no ticket in the field.

THE people of Jackson county should not for a moment hesitate in their choice for Sheriff. J. W. Manning has served them two years in this capacity and has proven himself an efficient and courteous officer.

TAX-PAYERS, LOOK TO YOUR INTERESTS.—It is highly important that the people of Jackson county should choose men to manage its affairs whose interests are identified with theirs, and especially should the office of County Judge be in such hands.

BEWARE OF SWAPPING.—Democrats should by all means beware of swapping votes. The Pizzarinkums are already beginning to despair of electing the most of their ticket, and when the time comes, will without doubt attempt to swap off everything for votes for Bybee and Owen.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

J. E. Bowe arrived from Galice creek the other day.

The prospects of a large fruit yield in this valley have been injured by the recent severe frosts.

Don't forget the school meeting this evening at four o'clock p. m. Business of importance will be transacted.

John A. Boyer returned from Salem the other day, where he has been in attendance on the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows.

E. Jacobs received a large stock of first-class dry-goods, groceries, etc., last week. For good bargains give him a call.

The Jacksonville Social Club will hold a meeting this evening at their rooms. A full attendance of the members is requested.

Two Sisters of Charity from Portland were in this place during the week soliciting subscriptions for the purpose of liquidating the debt on St. Vincent's hospital, in their city. We learn they met with fair success.

ASHLAND ITEMS.

For persistency in misrepresenting facts we commend the average Pizzarinkum to the God of Liars.

Our old friends, Dan Walker and E. H. Loftus, intend starting for Nevada to-morrow with a drove of cattle.

A dance was given last evening in honor of our Jacksonville lady friends sojourning with us at present. It was a pleasant affair.

J. M. Sutton has received his printing press and is now busily engaged, with the assistance of George Howard, in setting up the same.

When a young man assists a lady to alight from a carriage he should manage, if convenient, to let her light on her feet. There is more style in such a maneuver.

We were this week shown an egg laid by a seven-months old pullet, the property of Dr. Inlow, of this place, which measured eight inches in circumference. Trot out your pullets and try that pullet a whack.

A number of soldiers were noticeable on our streets last week. Some were traveling north and some were going to Fort Klamath on business connected with a Court-martial, so we are informed. One of them, by the name of Wilkinson, lectured at the Academy Sunday afternoon.

Ashland was last week imposed upon by the presence of a Pizzarinkum "bore," whose name is J. W. Simpson. He swaggered through the streets and talked "bosh," while the common hoodlum stood around and enjoyed the fun; but instead of converting any one to Pizzarinkumism it only made the members of that faction feel more "shaky."

BYBEE is inclined to quibble and squirm out of the charge made against him by the people of Sam's Valley that he has kept the fords on Rogue river closed to compel the people of that section to cross over his ferry, and is therefore not so much of a man for the people as his strikers would have them believe, by saying that he does not own any fence along the line of the river.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.—The following is the platform adopted by the Democratic County Convention, held on the 13th inst.:

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the platform of principles adopted by the Democratic State Convention held at Salem, April 26, 1876, and pledge ourselves to use all honorable means for the success of the State ticket.

Resolved, That the Democracy of Jackson county, recognizing and endorsing the doctrine that it is the first and highest duty of the State to provide for the education of its children, favor such legislation as will maintain our common school system and tend to make it more efficient for that purpose.

Resolved, That we are in favor of strict economy in the administration of all matters pertaining to State and county affairs, and hereby instruct our Representatives to oppose any and all measures calculated to increase taxation.

PERSONS coming to town now-a-days should have their buttons sewed on tightly and be well prepared to listen to and provided against any quantity of campaign slanders.

They are then fixed to witness the Pizzarinkum party in its native state. Upon arriving here they will be taken in tow by Major Wm. A. Owen, ably supported by his lieutenants, Chas. Schultz, Stephen Booth and others, who may almost at any time be seen conveniently posted on the corners or elsewhere, waiting for some new victim on which to pounce.

A vast allowance must be made for what they say, for they are only striking for what is best known as the Owen or Cayuse ticket, and are not particular what they talk about if they think you are susceptible of being hoodwinked. But by all means don't for a moment believe because these busybodies are abundant on the streets that this a sign of the political status here.

The mass who are attending to their various vocations and their own business will be found to almost invariably be of the opposite kind, and with silent contempt look on these fellows attempting to gull the citizens from the country. You have only to know who they are and you will drop these fellows, calling themselves electioneers, like a hot potato.

BYBEE does not profess any particular ability for the office he seeks. He is said to declare that he can furnish the necessary bonds in case of his election, which he claims is sufficient guarantee that the duties of the office will be properly administered. Legally, that may be the case, but when the people elect an officer they generally want him to attend to his duties as such.

He probably intends to farm out the Sheriff's office, if elected, and is only running to secure a sinecure whereby he can pocket a respectable sum and receive the honors of Sheriff without troubling himself at all. A very nice plan indeed; but, it would be better for him to be elected first, for "The best laid plans Of men and mice gang aft a-gley."

Not a man on the People's county ticket has ever held a county office or sought one before, that we can find out.—Pizzarinkum Journal.

Great Scott! Was every such assurance and willful falsifying witnessed? Shades of McCall, Bybee, Owen, Kelly, Howard! The fellow that penned the above must have a conscience that never troubles him and cheek like a government mule to write such an execrable falsehood.

THE Pizzarinkums are exceedingly anxious that every Republican should see the Wrisley-Danforth affidavits in relation to the Dowell matter, hoping to gain their votes by these pretenses. But the hugest joke of the season is that of Kelly in a private letter to these Republicans vouching for Danforth and Wrisley.

SOME of Bybee's friends assert his inability to conduct the Sheriff's office in connection with his other affairs if he should be elected. They claim that his interests will suffer in such case, and some of them will even vote against him on such grounds.

THE falsity of the charges concerning the Grover-Dowell matter, peddled by Kelly and his compatriots, is effectually proven by the fact that the execution against Dowell is now in the hands of the Sheriff for collection and is being adjusted.

DEMOCRATS of Josephine, by all means see that your Legislative ticket is elected. Dan Green and W. W. Fidler are the men for Senator and Representative, and will make good legislators.
