

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

FOR CONGRESS:

LA FAYETTE LANE.

OF DOUGLAS.

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS:

W. B. LASWELL, Of Grant; HENRY KLIPPEL, Of Jackson; E. A. CRONIN, Of Multnomah

The Result.

The returns from the different counties have made but little change in the result in this State as published last week. The Democrats have won the victory, as we have a majority in the Legislature on joint ballot of from 8 to 10 votes. This secures us the election of a Democratic U. S. Senator, which is even more important than usual as the two political parties in the next Senate will be so evenly divided that the loss of a member from any State would be severely felt by the Democracy.

The Republicans elected their Judicial tickets in the Second and Third Districts, but in the Fifth the Democratic candidates were, of course, successful.

This last election has demonstrated the fact that the Democracy can safely count on Oregon in the November election. In an election where local dimensions are laid aside, and where the issues are purely National, this State will give us a rousing majority. The Pacific coast may now be set down as solid for the Democratic nominee for President.

Ex-Speaker Blaine.

The charges against Blaine that are now being investigated by Congress, are proving more serious than they were at first supposed to be. Blaine is using his utmost efforts to vindicate his character by eloquent speeches and debates, but in this he accomplishes nothing so long as he produces no evidence to establish his innocence. He is making a hard fight, as his prospects of securing the Presidential nomination at Cincinnati depends on the result of this investigation and he desires just now to make it appear that he is the object of persecution. But Mr. Blaine will fail in this, and it will also be very hard for him to prove to the satisfaction of the people of the country that he is entirely innocent of these charges, and, should the Republicans nominate him, the Presidential race next Fall will be an easy one for the Democratic nominee.

The Kerr Case.

We are compelled to say that the Kerr case looks like a very dirty one; not for Mr. Kerr, but for his accuser. There is absolutely nothing, either in the antecedents or the evidence of Harney, says the Record-Union, to warrant the belief that he is other than a scoundrel. It is, as we observed some time ago, almost absurd to suppose that a man like Kerr should have taken a petty bribe of five hundred dollars, though it would be quite comprehensible had such a fellow as Harney accepted it. There is in short nothing whatever in the case to justify a supposition that the Speaker is guilty; and if the investigating committee has any sense at all it will commit Harney for contempt, and exonerate Kerr.

Election in Lake County.

We have no official returns from the election in Lake county, but learn from parties in from there that a majority of the Democratic ticket is probably elected. Brooks, the regular Democratic nominee for County Judge, is defeated by Mason, Independent Democrat. The Republicans claim to have elected their Sheriff, School Superintendent and one Commissioner. The county seat is reported to have been located at Bullards creek.

Civil Rights.

Judge Sawyer of the United States Circuit Court has recently decided that the civil rights bill is a nullity so far as theaters are concerned. His decision was in effect that a theatre was a private business and if the managers did not choose to admit negroes they had the right to exclude them. The colored population do not agree with Judge Sawyer and will probably appeal to the Supreme Court.

A Big Job for One Man.

A Republican paper says: "It is the purpose of the people, not to purify the Republican party, for this staunch old party of patriotism and honesty needs no purification." Bah! The same paper says what the party does need is this: "To drive out and punish the bad men who have made it the instrument of their purposes." Oh! The party is all right; it is only the men who compose it that are bad. It admits that the work to be undertaken is of herculean proportions, and calls for "a man of gigantic resources of mind and courage." So we should say; the man must fully equal the Hercules of old in power, or he would fail. Where is he to be found? The answer is, "So far as observation goes, the country knows but one such man, and him the people are now calling to the front—Bristow."

If Bristow be the only man known to the people of the Republican party capable of doing this herculean work, it is quite certain that a very large portion—maybe a majority—of the Republican party do not desire to have this job done at all; for Blaine, who covered himself with his cloak and dodged a vote intended to warn out one of these "bad men," is not a Hercules, if he be himself outside of the class this editor calls "bad men." And the same may be said of those who support the other candidates for Republican honors—they do not desire to have this "herculean" job done at all. The people, through the Democratic party, can out the "bad men," and the party they lead—both together—and this is the only way it can ever be done.—N. H. Union-Democrat.

A Handsome Compliment.

The following complimentary notice of Hon. L. F. Lane and the remainder of our ticket, taken from a Washington Territory paper, the Dayton News, shows how the Democracy of this State is viewed from a disinterested standpoint:

Mr. Lane has already proved himself to be one of the best representatives Oregon has ever had in Congress, and his re-election, which is certain, will be nothing more than a just recognition of his abilities and services in behalf of the interests of his State. The platform of principles presented to the people by the convention that nominated him meets all the live issues of the times, fairly and squarely, and invites the confidence of every candid and unprejudiced mind. The remainder of the ticket is made up of the best men in the party and in the State, and the harmonious action of the convention insures success next November.

Will not Vote for Nesmith.

One of the dodges used in the last campaign to secure the election of J. M. McCall was the statement that if he was elected he would vote for Hon. J. W. Nesmith for United States Senator. This story had the effect of getting a good many Democratic votes for McCall, which resulted in his being elected. While we discredited this report from the first and believed that there was no truth in it, we have now evidence that we were right in our opinion, for, in an interview with a prominent citizen of this place last week, McCall stated that he had made no pledges of that kind whatever and that he would vote for a Republican for U. S. Senator. Those persons who supported McCall expecting him to vote for Nesmith will doubtless be disappointed, but they will learn how much confidence to place in what is said by unprincipled politicians.

THE LOST CAUSE.

A MAGNIFICENT PICTURE 18x18 inches in size, printed on heavy plate paper, beautiful in design and artistic in execution. It represents a Confederate Soldier after the war returning to his home, which he finds lonely and desolate. In front of the ruined cottage, telling a sad tale of the miseries of war, are two graves with rude crosses, on one of which some friendly hand had shouldered a place in every Southern home. Sent by mail mounted on a roller and post-paid on receipt of 25 cents, or 3 for 60 cents. Address, JOHN BURROW & CO., Pub's, Bristol, TENN.

Agents wanted everywhere to sell our cheap and popular pictures. $5 to $10 per day easily made. No money required until pictures are sold. Send stamp for catalogue and terms.

NOTICE, STOCKMEN!

PENINGER'S MIKE,

WILL STAND FOR MARES AT THE stable of the owner, J. A. Cardwell, near Jacksonville, during the season of 1876, commencing April 1st and ending July 1st, at the following rates: $15 for each mare, in gold coin or its equivalent, payable at the time of service. Mike is 12 years old, was sired by old Vermont, out of a thoroughbred Whip mare; he is a beautiful bay, 17 hands high, well formed, and weighs 1,600 pounds. He has sired more fine horses, according to the class of mares that have been bred to him, than any other horse in the world, of his age, and he is without doubt the Favorite Horse where he is known. I will furnish pasturage to those desiring it at 75 cents per week. I will not be responsible for any accidents or escapes. J. A. CARDWELL.

WANTED!

20,000 Lbs. of Old Cast Iron, DELIVERED AT THE FOUNDRY IN Ashland, for which we will pay the highest price. Every farmer has more or less old castings about his premises, such as old stoves, pinions and other articles. These they would do well to gather up, and bring them before the rain sets in. We will also pay the highest price for old COPPER, BRASS and ZINC. J. M. McCALL & CO.
