DON'T TAKE IT TO HEART. There's many a trouble Would break like a bubble, And into the waters of Lethe depart, Did not we rehearse it, And tenderly nurse it, And give it a permanent place in the heart.

There's many a sorrow, Would vanish to-morrow, Were we not unwilling to furnish the wings; So sadly intruding, And quietly brooding, It hatches out all sorts of horrible things.

How welcome the seeming Of looks that are beaming. Whether one's wealthy, or whether one's poor ! Eres bright as a berry, Cheeks red as a cherry, The groan and the curse and the heartache can cure.

Resolved to marry, All worry to ferry Across the famed wa ers that bid us forg t. And no longer tearful, But happy and cheerful, for yet.

occupied by the Assembly. The ven- ceiving and informing the new comers,

OREGON IMMIGRATION BUREAU.

The unaccountable indifference of California to her immigration interests makes it specially interesting to know what is being effected in this direction by Oregon ; and accordingly a reporter of the Alta was detailed to wait on Mr. Shepherd, Agent of the Oregon office, 504 Battery street. The latter was at his post, and expressed his readiness to give the reporter all the information in his power respecting the workings of his agency. During a brief conversition the representative learned that the Sin Francisco agency is a branch office of the the main office being in Portland, and that similar agencies are established at Omaha, Boston and Philadelphia. The expenses are detrayed by private subscription of the citizeus of Portland, as the State Legislature, when appointing the Board of Immigration, neglected to provide funds for its support. Altogether an expense of upward of $15,000 is incurred annually in maintaining the head and branch offices. The agent in this city receives such immigrants as desire to go to Oregon, gives them all necessary information: about government, railroad and other localities for settlement in the State. This he is peculiarly competent to do, as a residence of sixteen years has tion of every good citizen.

In September, 1774, the delegates posted him thoroughly on the advanfrom eleven Provinces assembled in tages and peculiarities of Oregon and Carpenters' Hall, the Statehouse being Washington Territory. Besides reerable Peyton Randolph was chosen Mr. Shepherd procures them reduced President, and the man of truth, fares to Portland, and furnishes them Charles Thomson, Secretary. DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM ADOPTED AT SALEM ON APRIL 25, 1876, BY THE STATE CONVENTION.

The Democracy of Oregon in Convention assembled, re-affirms the platform of principles adopted at the last Democratic State Convention, and adopt the following in addition to the same, to-wit :

Resolved, That the action of the Demo-State Board of Immigration, at his cratic House of Representatives of the United States, in ferreting out corruption and bringing crim nals to justice, merits the commendation of every true patriot.

Resolved, That the large influx of Chinese Immigration to the States of the Pacific coast of America has been a curse to the country ; that the Chinese are a people that have not, and never can be brought to have. sia, Nervous Debility, Dropsy, Female any interest consistent with the welfare and Complaints, Non-Retention or Incont.nence prosperity of our Government and its instiof Urine, Irritation, Inflammation, or Ultutions : and that we pledge ourselves to ceration of the Oregon State Board of Immigration, use our best endeavors for the adoption of such measures as will prevent and cure this growing evil.

Resolved. That our inestimable system of common schools, and our no less valuable Chlorosis, Sterllity and all complaints inscheme of religious toleration, are the work- cident to females. manship of Pemoeratic hands, and the fruits of Democratic policy; that it is the exclusive right and duty of the State to provide for the education of its children; and it having been a principle established in the formation of our State Constitution gland. that no public funds of any class should be used for sectarian schools or societies we declare our faithful adherence to this principle, and oppose any invasion of it ; that it is the inalienable right of every citizen to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience, and no political disabilities should be incurred by reason of religions belief; and while we will defend these We feel life has much that's worth living lands, and advises them as to the best principles and institutions to the full extent. we deprecate all attempts to raise sectarian issues as utterly uncalled for and reprehensible and meriting the emphatic condemnagretted that a country parson, as he supposed, should have mistaken the occa-ion for a di-play of his ability. "But an unu-ual force of argument and a singular impassioned cloquence soon electrified the house, and an excited whi-per passed from man to man, "Who is it ?" There were but few present whoknew Patri & Henry." The members of the Congress were entertained by the gentlemen of the city at a grand banquet in the State House, at innumerable stately feasts at private houses, and finally by the Assembly in a public dinner, where the first toast was the King and the next Mr. Hancock. John Hancock comes early to the front as a most noticeable figure against the background of this Hurred and confu-ed time, not only from the steadiness of his loyalty when so many paused irresolute, but from a certain dramatic instinct in the man which lifted him to the hight of every occasion as on a pedestal. He was about 39 at this period, but looked older, being enfeetled by the gout ; was tall, thin, and dres-ed with a crupulous eve to effect. A visitor describes his morning costume at home as a red velvet cap with a hand of fine linen, a blue dama-k gown, white satin embroidered waistcoat, black satin small-clothes, scarlet shoes, and white silk stockings with jeweled clasps Itis likely that Han ock in min 1 or body was never found en dishabille ;

POSSIBLE LEFECT OF LEGOPEAN WAR .- There is some special interest for the Pacific Coast in the present menace of an European war, for it Russia should go to war, the office upon the wheat harvest of Europe may be considerable. In that event it is probable that a hasty conscription would -o deplete the Baltic provinces as seriously to interfere with the crop prospects. In the last war with England precisely this re-ult was exper enced, and we know of no reason f r anticipating a different outcome at present. At this time the crop prospects throughout the world are exceptionally good, and it nothing should occur to change them, it must be expected that wheat will rule low. The old saying that what is one mon's meat is another man's poison applies here, however, as elsewhere, and it is possible that events which threaten cal auty to Europe may improve the market of the Parific Coast producers.

It takes a long while to teach men that they must return to the good old way of making money and their living. For some years nothing was so popular as speculation. If men had only but ten dollars they could not forbear to invest it in some of the exaggerating, speculative enterprises of the day, and whether they lost or won, the influence was the same. They had tasted of the way, and they would taste more. Judgment, prudence, Their tones and their gait are borcaution and honesty suffered tearfully as a consequence, and it will require a long education and severe training to get the passion killed and the taste turned the other way.
