

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

FOR PRESIDENT:

SAMUEL J. TILDEN, OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT:

THOS. A. HENDRICKS, OF INDIANA.

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS:

W. B. LASWELL, Of Grant; HENRY KLIPPEL, Of Jackson; E. A. CRONIN, Of Multnomah.

FOR CONGRESS:

LA FAYETTE LANE, OF DOUGLAS.

"The Great Campaign."

A friend of ours has sent us a copy of "Brick" Pomeroy's paper, which is named The Great Campaign. Its sole object is the advocating of inflation and aiding the defeat of Tilden and Hendricks, the Democratic nominees.

One Out of Eighty Thousand.

The Republicans propose to elect Hayes President in place of Grant. The whole number of public officers is estimated to be over 80,000. One is to be changed, and seventy-nine thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine left in!

Our Indian Allies.

The expenditures of the Indian Department have increased steadily from $3,998,353.50 in 1869, to $8,381,659.82 in 1875. This great increase is in spite of the fact that there are less number of miles of frontier to be guarded, and that we possess the advantage of railroads and telegraphs to mass troops and give intelligence to settlers of hostile intentions.

Is he a Reformer?

We would be glad if some of our Republican exchanges would inform us of some act of Governor Hayes that entitles him to the name of the "Reformer." Having been a member of Congress and Governor of the State of Ohio for nearly three terms, opportunities certainly have not been wanting for him to exhibit his powers of reform if he possessed them.

TILDEN AND HENDRICKS' LETTERS.

The letters of Honorable Samuel J. Tilden and Thos. A. Hendricks, accepting the Democratic nominations of President and Vice President, have made their appearance and will be published in full next week.

Mr. Tilden's letter is a very able document, reviewing the issues now before the country in an exhaustive, statesmanlike and satisfactory manner. It is in pleasing contrast with that of his competitor, Mr. Hayes. While the latter assumes no positive position on many matters of national character, essaying to capture votes by his demagogism and sophistry, Mr. Tilden defines his views and principles in a clear and unequivocal manner, leaving no doubt where he stands on all the National questions of the day.

His main points are reform in public expenditures, the condition of the South, resumption and civil service reform. It would be idle to deny that on these points his positions are for the most part strongly and ably sustained. With much that he says under each head a large majority of his political opponents will agree. His remarks on the necessity of all the reforms referred to will meet universal approval.

A Correct Illustration.

Senator Bayard, the Delaware statesman, spoke the truth and to the point when he said: "As matters now stand reform in the Republican party is impossible, because the corrupt elements in it are stronger than the pure. It reminds one of a man afflicted with a cancer. If the man keeps the cancer it will kill him. If he cuts it the operation will so weaken him that he is likely to die, and he will remain on his sick bed many weeks anyhow. Subtract from the Republican party the admitted corruptionists, the Shepherd ring in this district, the custom-gang in New York, Kellogg, Casey, Butler, Pinchback, Whipper, Moses, Whittemore, Hayes, of Alabama, all that band of unclean carpet-baggers in the South, the whisky ring, the secret service gang, special treasury agents, and—most dangerous of all—the large body of leading Republicans in both houses of Congress, who almost openly sustain these people, and what is then left for the Republican party having the power to reform abuses? Witness the fate of such men as Chief Justice Chase, Jacob D. Cox, Charles Sumner, Lyman Trumbull and Tip-ton, of Nebraska. These and hundreds of other honest men would never have left the Republican organization had they not despaired of the possibility of reform from within its ranks."

Belknap Acquitted.

The U. S. Senate, which has been sitting as a court of impeachment in the case of ex-Secretary Belknap, has acquitted the defendant, the vote standing 35 to 25—not two-thirds for conviction. Senator Eaton, of Connecticut, was the only Democrat who voted for Belknap's acquittal, and he did so because he thought the Senate had no jurisdiction in the matter. Thus a Republican Senate permits a man to escape against whom there is every evidence of guilt. And yet they have the impudence to ask the free people of the Union to continue the party in power who will thus knowingly wink at corruption and malfeasance in high places.

A Few of Them.

The following are a few of the names of the many thousand former most influential Radicals who now support the Democratic nominees for President and Vice President: Chas. Francis Adams and C. F. Adams, Jr., of Mass.; Reemlin, and Fred. Hassaurek, of Ohio; Gov. Koerner, Senator Lyman Trumbull, Gen. John F. Farnsworth, Gov. John M. Palmer, of Illinois; Major-General Hooker, Wm. Cullen Bryant, Parke Godwin, Isaac Sherman, the Greeleys, Oswald Ottendorfer, of New York; Cassius M. Clay, of Kentucky; J. A. Doolittle, of Wisconsin; Maurice Auerbach, of Minnesota.

POLITICAL NOTES.

General Franz Siegel votes mit Tilden.

Roseburg has a Tilden and Hendricks' Club, with over sixty members. Hayes voted against censuring Oakes Ames and Jim Brooks for Credit Mobilier bribery.

Hon. J. K. Luttrell has been renominated for Congressman from the Third California District. A good choice.

In the case of both Duncan and Pomeroy, the Democracy will feel that it is "good riddance of bad rubbish."

Postmasters will please prepare to go down into their pockets and shell out for Hayes and Wheeler and reform within the party.

Ex-Governor Curtin, the famous war Governor of Pennsylvania, and ex-Minister to Russia under Grant, is a supporter of Uncle Sammy's.

The Louisville Commercial is honest enough not to deny that every crooked Republican newspaper and every crooked Republican is for Hayes.

Gen. Brinkerhoff has swung out his paper, The Ohio Liberal, for Tilden and Hendricks, and thanks God for a reformer like the great ring-smasher.

We see it stated by some Radical papers, as a rejoinder to the charge against Hayes, that Mr. Slater voted for the back-pay salary grab. They know this to be false.

John Pope Hodnett, who stumped the State of Iowa four years ago for Grant, has enlisted in the cause of Reform, and is doing his level best for Tilden and Hendricks.

Our national game: Jewell, Pratt and Bristow out at first base by Babcock and Grant; Taft out on fly to Morton. The score—Grant's Thieves, 8; Radical Reform, 0.

The people demand a change; they must have a change; they will have it. It will come—it can only come—through Samuel J. Tilden and a Democratic victory.—Omaha Herald.

Cameron nominated Hayes and Chandler is to manage the campaign. If by chance the Radicals carry the election, these worthies will remain in the Cabinet. Grantism will be continued.

The last heard from old Zueh. Chandler, Chairman of Republican National Committee, he was pouring out the vials of his wrath upon the "infernal Dutch" for supporting Tilden and Hendricks.

Governor Tilden, in a speech in New York, said: "Encourage the growth of the gold and silver producing districts as the surest and safest way out of your financial difficulties." Oregonians should remember that.

The Philadelphia Inquirer, Republican, finds it hard to conceal its admiration of the St. Louis ticket. Recently it remarked: "Tilden is, notwithstanding he is a Democrat, a very respectable, estimable gentleman."

There isn't printer's ink enough in this county to blot out Gov. Tilden's record as a statesman, a reformer, and an honest man. Voters don't bamboozle worth a cent this year. Radical editors can pin this in their hats.

When Rutherford B. Hayes arose in Congress, and in a subdued tone submitted the petition of the Cincinnati Postoffice clerks for more pay, everybody knew that there was in him the smothered fire of a great civil service reformer.

Under two years of Gov. Tilden's administration, State expenditures and taxes in New York have been reduced one-half. A like reduction in Federal expenditures would save to the government and tax-payers $100,000,000. Shall we give Uncle Samuel a chance?

The name of Tilden is inseparably associated with reform. It stands upon the Presidential ticket for a sound currency, economy in Government expenses, reform in the public service, a reduction of the burdens of taxation—the extirpation of corruption in all its forms and guises—in a word it stands for honest government.

The Northampton (Mass.) Journal, heretofore Republican, now goes for Tilden and Hendricks. The Bound-out, N. Y., Daily Freeman, independent Republican, takes a decided stand in favor of Tilden and Hendricks. It says: "State tax reduced from $15,000,000 to $8,000,000. Come, Mr. Farmer, put that in your pipe and smoke it, and think of Uncle Sammy."

Now is a good time to read the seventeenth plank of the Republican platform. Here it is: "Seventeenth—The national administration merits commendation for its honorable work in the management of domestic and foreign affairs, and President Grant deserves the continued hearty gratitude of the American people for his patriotism and his eminent services in war and in peace."

Gov. Tilden means fight, and his opponents will do well to keep that fact in mind. His speech on Thursday night was the perfection of shrewdness. It shows that he is ready for the campaign now, that his course of battle is determined, and that he will lead his party in person. The man who believes this Centennial contest is going to be a "walk over" for either party will awake from that delusion before many days.—N. Y. Tribune, (Rep.)

GENERAL NOTES AND NEWS.

General Crook apprehends heavy fighting. There are at least 6,000 hostile Sioux under Sitting Bull in the field, and with recent accessions probably 10,000.

During the month of July the San Francisco mint coined $1,606,000, which is the largest output for any month by this or any other mint in the United States.

General Sheridan says all the available troops north and west have been ordered to the Indian country, and that the number will be amply sufficient to defeat the enemy.

In the placer mines on Myrtle Creek, last week, a miner named Speck took out $98 with a rocker. The dirt was obtained by drifting, and Mr. Speck was hindered somewhat in his work, owing to the scarcity of water.

Goldsmith Maid beat Judge Fullerton, Lucille Gold-dust, Bodine and Smuggler at Buffalo on the 31, making the three fastest heats on record, to-wit: 2:16, 2:15 1/2, 2:15. Fullerton was second and Smuggler was distanced on the second heat.

The great silver inflation project has been defeated in the House of Representatives; and this result is due to the Democratic members, and especially to Messrs. Randall of Pennsylvania and Payne of Ohio. The Democracy now stand much better than the Republicans upon the little inflation question.

Mr. Smith, of Benton county, has received a specimen of Chili wheat consisting of a single root from which sprang fifty-seven stalks, each bearing a well-developed and well-filled head of wheat, of extraordinary size and length, many of them measuring five to five and a half inches in length.

How the Independent Germans Speak.

The Executive Committee of the German Independent Citizens' Association held a meeting not long ago at Beethoven Hall, New York, and adopted with great enthusiasm the following stirring resolutions:

Resolved, That we deem it our sacred duty to support the election of Samuel J. Tilden for President of the United States with all the power at our command.

Resolved, The citizens of the United States of German descent have the enviable opportunity of deserving well of the future of their adopted country by giving their energetic co-operation through the election of the candidates nominated at St. Louis, in the efforts of fighting corruption in our public life.

We feel justified in believing that that is the unmistakable voice of every intelligent German citizen in the United States.
