

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

FOR PRESIDENT: SAMUEL J. TILDEN, OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT: THOS. A. HENDRICKS, OF INDIANA.

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS: W. B. LASWELL, Of Grant; HENRY KLIPPEL, Of Jackson; E. A. CRONIN, Of Multnomah.

FOR CONGRESS: LA FAYETTE LANE, OF DOUGLAS.

THE TIDE SETTING IN.

Already has the tide, which will result in a grand Democratic victory next November, set in, and we hear it coming in all directions. Every election that has transpired since the St. Louis Convention has resulted largely in favor of the Democracy, and is an auspicious omen that the nominations of Tilden and Hendricks meet with the hearty approval of the Democracy and the people at large.

Even in Republican Maine, which rarely gives less than 10,000 majority and sometimes as high as 25,000, the Democrats are getting alarmed lest the Democracy will make substantial gains. This would be a very bad showing for the Republicans, especially with a Presidential election close at hand.

There is no mistaking these results. They are the spontaneous outbursts of a people long oppressed by a system of corruption, inefficiency and lawlessness that threatens to uproot the very foundations of our government.

Hayes a Salary Grabber.

The Republican candidate for President, Gov. Hayes, of Ohio, is shown by the Cincinnati Enquirer to be a back pay salary grabber while in Congress. The charge is, not that Hayes was in Congress when the last back pay bill was passed, but that he is a meaner salary grabber than the latest. He put into his pocket-book back pay to the amount of $2,000, under peculiarly offensive and disreputable circumstances.

The Binghamton Leader, in an article on the same subject, says: We stated last week that Hayes was a salary grabber, taking $2,000 of back pay, increased by him and other members, and in a meaner way than the last salary grab was put through.

GOV. TILDEN ONE YEAR AGO.

Harper's Weekly, which is using all the means at its command to defame the Democratic candidate for President, S. J. Tilden, thus spoke of him under date of August 28, 1875:

"All good citizens are indebted to Governor Tilden for calling the attention of the Legislature and of the State to the canal frauds; for recommending the inquiry, and for instructing the Attorney General to bring suit, which he has done. Those who say that the Governor's action is a mere political trick, and that he means nothing, evidently forget that they are speaking of the man who, when he once took hold of the Tweed prosecution, joined in pushing it relentlessly to the end."

There is sufficient evidence that the present warfare, says the Chicago Courier, which the Weekly is waging against Governor Tilden is based upon a complete distortion of the record, and that its charges are loaded with partisan vindictiveness and malicious falsehood. None will deny that the journal in question was thoroughly informed in regard to the Tweed affair. It commenced its existence in New York many years ago. It watched every phase of the exposure of the Tweed infamy, and its verdict upon Tilden, as given dispassionately and without prejudice, is embraced in the extract quoted.

Hearty Gratitude and Commendation.

The Republican platform declares that the administration merits commendation and the President deserves hearty gratitude; for what?

For crooked whisky frauds.

For unnumbered railroad jobs and swindles.

For the Leet and Stocking-Murphy custom house frauds.

For the post office straw bid frauds.

For the naval contract frauds.

For the Freedman's Saving Bank swindle.

For the secret service frauds—paying John I. Davenport thousands of dollars from this people's treasury to elect the Republican ticket.

For the Schenck-Emma mine frauds and disgrace.

For the Belknap soldier gravestone frauds.

For the Belknap post tradership frauds.

For the district ring Boss Shepherd frauds.

For the Indian ring frauds.

For the safe burglary villainy and Babcock and Harrington.

For the credit mobilier infamy.

For the St. Domingo frauds.

For "Landaulet" Williams and his infamy.

For increasing the salaries of the President and other public officers.

For increasing the burdens of the taxpayers and blocking every effort at retrenchment and reform.

These are some of the reasons why the people should commend the Republican administration and remember President Grant with hearty gratitude, and stand by Hayes and Wheeler.

A Statesman the Only Remedy.

George Ticknor Curtis, the celebrated writer, reviewing the Presidential question, says:

It will all come to nothing until there is a man in the office of President who, raised above the necessity for conciliatory local opinions, grasping the whole of the great problem with the hand of a master and the brain of a statesman, aiming at nothing but the welfare of the whole people, and capable of understanding what that welfare requires, shall present a plan of financial and revenue reform that will so command the assent and confidence of the people that Congress will be compelled by the fiat of the nation at large to make it law.

Then confidence will return and business will revive. If we fail to get such a President we shall blunder on and wrangle on until the poor are starving and the rich have become the poor, and new sectional differences and collisions are added to the social disorganization. I know of no man in the Nation to whom I should more willingly entrust the financial problem than I should to Gov. Tilden.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Wisconsin politicians put Tilden's majority in that State at 10,000.

Austin Blair, the famous War Governor of Michigan, is for Tilden and reform.

Here is the situation to a dot: One term of Hayes would just make the third term of Grantism.

The motto of the Hayes family is Dieu me comble—"May God guide me." "Instead of which" we find Zack, Chandler at the helm.

Attorney-General Taft said the acquittal of Belknap would cost the Republican party 100,000 votes. Mr. Taft's estimate is under the mark.

It is stated in a New York paper that the aggregate circulation of German papers in favor of Tilden is as three to one compared to those for Hayes.

Col. Frederick A. Conkling, brother of Senator Conkling, a prominent Republican of New York, is out in a letter endorsing Tilden for President.

The respectable Republicans will give $100,000 for a copy of one of the reform speeches made by Mr. Hayes while in Congress.—Courier-Journal.

The Milwaukee Sentinel is thoroughly alarmed over the prospect in Wisconsin. It talks of the confidence of the Democrats as "unpleasantly suggestive."

Chas. G. Davis, member of the Liberal Republican National Committee for Massachusetts, denounces Ethan Allen and his works, and goes for Tilden and Hendricks.

Governor Tilden within eighteen months has originated measures that have reduced the expenditures on the canals $2,500,000; yet the Republicans say his reform is a "sham."

During the war of the rebellion Governor Tilden armed and equipped, by money taken from his own private purse, four companies of New York volunteer soldiers.—Burlington Gazette.

Ex-Lieutenant Governor Muller, of Ohio, who was elected on the same ticket with Hayes, when the latter was elected the second time, has declared for Tilden and Hendricks. Next!

The Cincinnati Enquirer has information that the Republican leaders hired men to hoist Confederate banners in the South with the names of Tilden and Hendricks inscribed on them.

Hayes' administration has cost Ohio $5,000,000 more than that of Allen. Tilden's administration has cost New York $50,000,000 less than Dix. Hayes is a Radical profligate; Tilden is a Democratic reformer. Which does the tax-payer prefer?

The record of Samuel J. Tilden needs no defense whatever. He smashed the Tweed ring in the great city of New York, and smashed the canal in the great State of New York, and has reduced the taxes of that State in two years from $16,000,000 to $8,000,000.—St. Louis Times.

The Cincinnati Commercial, (Ind. Republican) in its river column, has the following choice notice of Mr. Wheeler, the Radical candidate for Vice President: "To talk of statesmanship in connection with such a man, is an insult to the intelligence of men familiar with national affairs and government policy."

The New York Times, which just now is making all manner of wild and ridiculous attacks upon Gov. Tilden, said of him when he was running for Governor: "Mr. Tilden is a highly respectable candidate, and no man in the State who wishes to see the return of the Democrats to power need be ashamed to vote for him."

If Gov. Tilden's administration has lessened the expense of the New York State government $50,000,000, what would he reduce the expense of the National Government? If Gov. Hayes has increased the expense of the Ohio State government $5,000,000, how much would he increase the cost of the National Government? These are questions for the tax-payers to answer.

Mark the difference! New York bankers have just purchased two hundred thousand Georgia State Bonds at a premium, while there is not a sane capitalist in all the East who would be willing to give ten cents on the dollar for South Carolina obligations. Georgia has a Democratic State government, while South Carolina is hopelessly Republican.

The Radicals were very uneasy about the non-appearance of the letters of acceptance of Tilden and Hendricks. They shed a flood of crocodile tears over the supposed disagreement between the Democratic candidates. The letters have appeared, and as we predicted the laugh is on the other side. They now have real cause of chagrin, and can groan over their unhappy state at leisure. Tilden has impaled them on his lance.

The New York Methodist believes in Tilden as the man, of all others, to reform the Civil Service. It says: Gov. Tilden was elected to his present office by 50,000 majority over Gov. John A. Dix, a decisive test of personal popularity. After Mr. Bristow, he is the only man in high place who has risked anything in a fight against corruptionists. The Tweed and Canal Rings of this State have attracted about as much attention as the Whisky Ring. Mr. Bristow has resigned, and President Grant is pardoning the men whose conviction Bristow secured. Gov. Tilden, more fortunate than Mr. Bristow, has his foot on both the New York Rings, and was able to triumph over them at St. Louis.

What it Has Done.

The Democratic party through its able, fearless, faithful, patriotic and indefatigable representatives in the Lower House of Congress, has placed every American citizen under a lasting debt of gratitude to it for exposing the monstrous fraud, infamy and unparalleled corruption of the Radical Administration which is exciting the contempt, ridicule and derision of other nations on our Republican form of Government, and is mantling with the blush of shame the cheek of every true American.

Letter of Acceptance.

Governors Tilden and Hendricks have formally accepted the nomination of President and Vice-President. Their letters are before the people for consideration. We have, however, owing to the present crowded condition of our columns, only room this week for the publication of Governor Tilden's letter; Governor Hendricks' appear next week. Comment on these letters is entirely unnecessary; they speak to the intelligent, candid mind of any reader for themselves. But few public papers have been issued within the past forty years that are their equals. No candid, reflecting reader can possibly peruse either of the letters without feeling and realizing the fact that they are emanations from great minds; from men who thoroughly understand the subject whereof they treat. By either the one or both, the whole theory of the Government problems at issue are touched upon. Governor Hendricks, as becomes his position, deals more directly upon partisan issues. In these, however, he is clear, concise and strikingly to the point. Tilden speaks alone to the reasoning faculty on controverted points; he seeks, as becomes him, to break the force and prejudice of the hour by bringing reason to bear upon the people. The letter is long, but we do not well see how it could have been abridged, unless he merely assumed his propositions, as did his opponents, without producing any of the grounds upon which his conclusions rested.

GENERAL NOTES AND NEWS.

The Indians harass every step made by Crook to join Terry, keeping his march down to six miles a day.

A letter from Milwaukee, Clackamas county, states that nearly all of two families there are down with the small-pox.

The Spiritualists of the State will hold a camp-meeting, commencing September 1st, at Rock Island, five miles above Salem.

Two sheep were sheared at Eugene last week, which yielded 77 pounds of wool—the fleece from one weighing 33 and from the other 39 pounds.

Ben. F. Dorris, grand representative to the grand lodge of the United States, I. O. O. F., which meets at Philadelphia on the third Monday in September, started last Tuesday on his tour East.

M. Wilkins, of Lane county, has been appointed one of the international jurors to the Centennial Exposition from Oregon, and will leave for Philadelphia some time within the next two weeks.

The Congressional committee appointed to ferret out the rascalties perpetrated by the Radical leaders in the Naval Department have unearthed frauds of a most startling character, buried by no less personages than Cattell, of New Jersey, and Secretary of the Navy, Robeson. Glover, of this committee, says he has testimony most seriously damaging to our Naval Secretary, and that articles of impeachment are being now discussed.
