

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

FOR PRESIDENT: SAMUEL J. TILDEN, OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT: THOS. A. HENDRICKS, OF INDIANA.

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS: W. B. LASWELL, Of Grant; HENRY KLIPPEL, Of Jackson; E. A. CRONIN, Of Multnomah.

FOR CONGRESS: LA FAYETTE LANE, OF DOUGLAS.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

Hon. Henry Klippel and Gen. W. H. Odell, Democratic and Republican candidates for Presidential Elector, will discuss the political issues at the following places and on the designated dates:

Linkville, Thursday, October 19th; Ashland, Saturday, " 21st; Jacksonville, Monday, " 23d; Kerbyville, Wednesday, " 25th; Canyonville, Friday, " 27th; Roseburg, Saturday, " 28th; Oakland, Tuesday, " 31st; Cottage Grove, Wednesday, Nov. 1st; Eugene City, Thursday, " 2d.

Speaking will commence each day at one o'clock P. M.

The Rebel Debt.

The Republican press and speakers, which, for want of something better to talk about, is vigorously shaking the bloody shirt, has much to say about the paying of the "rebel debt," should the Democracy get into power.

"The validity of the public debt of the United States, authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims shall be held illegal and void."

The above provision of the Constitution forever disposes of the pretense that there are any persons in the United States who expect to secure the payment of the war debt of the Southern Confederacy.

A Radical Hamburg.

The echoes of the hue and cry raised by the Radicals, at news of the Hamburg affair, have scarcely died away, when a Roland for their Oliver comes from Charleston, S. C., that negro rioters have taken complete possession of the place, "breaking windows, robbing stores, attacking and beating indiscriminately every white man who shows his face."

The Legislature.

Both Houses of the Legislature organized on the 11th, the first day of the session, and are now at work. The organization is Democratic in both instances, the caucus nominees of that party being elected without any trouble.

The Governor's Message.

We are in receipt of Governor Grover's biennial message to the Legislature. It is an able State paper, replete with information concerning our State affairs and practical suggestions, and we regret that our limited space forbids its publication, as it is necessarily lengthy.

A CAMPAIGN OF SLANDER.

It has been evident from the outset that the Radical managers, in prosecuting the campaign, would avail themselves of the weapons of misrepresentation and slander as the only available means within their reach.

To keep the light of truth from exposing their own operations and the real character of their party leaders, and if possible to blacken their opponents with false accusations and miserable slanders is their customary mode of political warfare, and they are following it up more persistently than ever before.

Scarcely a day passes but that some new and infamous slander upon the character of Governors Tilden and Hendricks is put in circulation by the Radical press. The time has well nigh passed, however, when such instrumentalities can be effective with thinking people.

"The voters of the Eighteenth Assembly District ought to esteem it an honor and a privilege to elect Samuel J. Tilden to the Legislature. He has shown himself a GALLANT, CONSCIENTIOUS, EFFICIENT FOE TO CORRUPTION."

We appeal to every Republican to work and vote for him, and do so the more cheerfully—as we make this appeal—because he is an honest Democrat.

Will he Dare to do it?

It is one of the most hopeful signs of the times that the Republican party is not united in approving the infamous order of Don Cameron by which the United States army is to be put in command of party placemen for the purpose of controlling elections in the South.

The Maine Election.

The Sacramento Bee, though a Republican paper, admits that the Democrats have made the largest gains in the late Maine election. The largest vote ever cast in Maine up to this was in 1868, when the Republicans cast 75,834 votes, and the Democrats 55,431.

An Election by Force.

People on the Pacific Coast are slow to appreciate the full force and intent of the recent order of Attorney-General Taft, which practically declares martial law in all the Southern States.

The order of Secretary Cameron to General Sherman is worthy the careful attention of every American citizen.

Troops for the South.

It is an order to hold all the troops not absolutely required for Indian service in readiness to move. As everybody knows, there is no war nor rumor of war, foreign or domestic, in the country.

The Campaign.

We hear very little, indeed nothing, says the New York Sun, of the progress of the Hayes canvass. His Republican supporters go about the work of urging his election with all the bravery we could expect of men who feel that they are doomed to defeat.

Practical Economy.

The record of Samuel J. Tilden as Governor of New York, and of the Democratic House, are in full accord. Tilden in one year saved $15,000,000.00 to his State.

Ordered Off.

This is a queer story, but it comes from Republican sources—that Carl Schurz has been ordered off the stump in Indiana—because of his vigorous denunciation of corruption, and because he is acting as a spy in the camp of the Republicans.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The Tilden and Hendricks flag-pole in Iuka Miss., is surmounted by a new broom, the campaign symbol suggested by Mr. Watterson's Courier-Journal.

If the Republican leaders are so afraid of the issues of the war being disturbed, why are they always stirring them up and insulting us by flaunting them before our eyes?

The bloody shirt doctrine, so boldly advocated by Morton, Conkling & Co., is simply that because a man fought for his country, he has a right to steal everything in herarder.

The preparations for sending troops to different portions of the South are progressing rapidly. Grant is determined to elect Hayes if every man in the country has to be "protected."

Clapp, the Government Printer, who was put in office by Grant because Congress kicked him out for fraud, has come out for Hayes. He would be an awful lonesome thief if he didn't.

Col. Augustus H. Fern, of Connecticut, who lost an arm in the war and was the Republican candidate for Secretary of State in 1875, has declared for Tilden and Hendricks.

"Live within your income," says Gov. Tilden, and there is more reform in this trite piece of advice than in reams of such trash as "Let us have peace," and "let no guilty man escape."

According to the Radical accounts the gentleman who has been Governor of New York for the past two years wasn't Samuel J. Tilden at all. It was some other man. Very well, Uncle Samuel will establish his identity before November.

Has anybody heard that the coopers who have been making barrels for Tilden's money struck for higher wages after 3,796 barrels had been shipped away, and that old Tilden refused to accede to their demands? This is a shocking outrage.

The largest Democratic vote ever cast in Vermont, previous to this year, was 16,613 in 1873. This year the official count will show a Democratic vote of between 22,000 and 23,000.

Hayes was a furious Know-Nothing, and this, coupled with their desires for reform, accounts for the fact that nine-tenths of the circulation of all the German papers and a larger percentage of German voters are so enthusiastic for Tilden and Hendricks.

"Sitting Bull" read that "order" of Grant's, and with much satisfaction. He always did believe the worst savages were down South, and congratulates himself that the President at last agrees with him that the presence of the army is most needed in that section.

The Radical managers expect to get an average contribution of $30 from every Administration office-holder, which will furnish them a corruption fund of about $3,000,000. Hayes is no doubt aware of what is going on, but never a protest will be heard from his lips.

Union Generals For Tilden.

Notwithstanding the howlings of the Radical party to the effect that all Democrats are "rebels" and secessionists, we find the following named Union Generals openly proclaiming for Tilden: Gen. Hooker, Gen. Hancock, Gen. McClellan, Gen. McClelland, Gen. McCook, Gen. Slocum, Gen. Phelps, Gen. Williams, Gen. Buell, Gen. Sigel, Gen. Stoneman, Gen. Rosencrans, Gen. Love, Gen. Munson, Gen. Mitchell, Gen. Palmer, Gen. Casse, Gen. McMahon, Gen. Franklin, Gen. McQuade, Gen. Ward, Gen. Denver, Gen. Este, Gen. Morgan, Gen. Jeffries, Gen. Ewing, Gen. Steadman, Gen. McKibbin, Gen. Wing, Gen. Knife, Gen. Carroll, and indeed a great majority of the Union Generals that fought against the rebellion are now enthusiastically supporting Tilden and Hendricks.
