

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

FOR PRESIDENT: SAMUEL J. TILDEN, OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT: THOS. A. HENDRICKS, OF INDIANA.

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS: W. B. LANSWELL, Of Grant; HENRY KLIPPEL, Of Jackson; E. A. CROXIN, Of Multnomah.

FOR CONGRESS: LA FAYETTE LANE, OF DOUGLAS.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

Hon. Henry Klippel and Gen. W. H. Odell, Democratic and Republican candidates for Presidential Elector, will discuss the political issues at the following places and on the designated dates:

ABOUT DEFEALCATIONS.

Mitchell, in his speech last Thursday evening, made a comparison between the administrations of Presidents Jackson and Grant, and claimed that the loss on each $1,000 of revenue under Jackson's administration was $10.55 and only 30 to 40 cents on the $1,000 under Grant, and he inferentially said that Grant's was the best and purest of them all.

The particular losses in each presidential term being also desired by the resolution they have been ascertained. * * * Among the disbursing officers, looking to the amount disbursed, the largest losses were from 1821 to 1825, next from 1817 to 1821, and next from 1809 to 1813; and they were smaller from 1829 to 1833 and from 1833 to 1837 than in any other term whatever, except from 1789 to 1793.

It will be borne in mind that the two terms of Jackson's administration covered the period last mentioned and with which Mitchell made comparison. The following figures are extracts from statement of aggregate amount of defealcations and ratio of losses from 1789 to March 4th, 1837, furnished December 30th, 1839, to Congress, and found in House Document No. 10, first session Twenty-Sixth Congress, including public debt:

Table with columns for years/terms and amounts. Rows include: Total disbursements from Mar. 4th, 1835, to Mar. 4th, 1837, including public debt; Total defealcations; Ratio of loss per $1,000; Total loss by disbursing officers from 1789 to 1837; Total receipts from Mar. 4th, 1833 to Mar. 31, 1837; Total defealcations; Ratio of loss per $1,000; Total loss by receiving officers from 1789 to 1837; Total receipts and disbursements during Jackson's last term; Total defealcations during Jackson's last term; Ratio of loss per $1,000; Ratio of loss per $1,000 during same term as stated by Mitchell; Losses from 1789 to Mar. 4th, 1837 (48 years); Annual loss; GRAND TOTAL AMOUNT; Loss from July 1st, 1861, to June 30, 1875, (14 years); Annual loss.

The above is conclusive proof that Mitchell is impaled on one or the other horn of the dilemma—this, too, after he so patronizingly looked around at Democrats in the audience and challenged them to gainsay it, knowing full well that Democrats are gentlemen and do not interrupt speakers, although said speakers should falsify history.

FACTS AND FIGURES.

Let us hear something from the orators of the Republican party on the question of economy. The Democratic House of Representatives last Winter, laboring in the face of the most strenuous opposition by the Republican Senate, succeeded in reducing the national expenditures to the amount of $30,000,000. Had the Senate been Democratic, the reduction would have been $45,000,000. The $15,000,000 difference is what the country pays for the luxury of a Republican Administration and Senate.

OUR NEW SENATOR.

The contest for U. S. Senator ended last Friday in the election of Governor Grover, the Democratic caucus nominee, six members, (Brady, Butler, Crain, Goodman, Hayter and Straight,) who had voted for Nesmith the day previous, casting their votes for him, which gave him two more than necessary for election. The vote stood as follows:

For Grover—Bradshaw, Brady, Brown, Burton, Butler, Clark, Cochran of Lane, Crain, Crooks, Davis, Ferguson, Fenton, Green, Gould, Grimes, Goodman of Umatilla, Haley, Herrin, Hughes, Haines, Holmes, Hayes, Hayter, Jasper, Lawrence, Love, Munkers, Myers, Mitchell, Morrow, Mosier, O'field, Palmer, Porter of Linn, Reed, Rosa, Ruckman, Savage, Straight, Staats, Stannard, Sumner, Thompson, Van Cleave, Wilson, Wisdom, Mr. President and Mr. Speaker—48.

For Applegate—Applegate, Bensell, Benjamin, Bond, Colvig, Cochran, of Clackamas, Cornell, Engle, George, Grubbe, Goodsell, Gilbert, Gault, Hunsaker, Henderson, Kirkpatrick, Lee, Melvin, McCall, Payton, Porter of Marion, Richardson, Roberts, Scott of Lane, Scott of Multnomah, S. Smith, F. R. Smith, Tibbets, Tuzler, Watt, Warren, Will and Winnegar—33.

For Nesmith—Chambers, Cheesman, Fidler, Jewell and McBride—5.

For T. F. Campbell—Bentley, Fanning and Goodman of Linn—3.

Governor Grover was, of course, not the choice of every Democrat, but, when he received the caucus nomination from the Democracy, it was the general desire of that party that he should be elected. To have defeated him and elected a Senator by the aid of Republican votes could not but have demoralized the party and established a most dangerous precedent. But, as he was elected, the party remains intact and the time-honored Democratic usages unbroken.

We are extremely sorry that Messrs. Fidler, of Josephine, and Cheesman, of Lake, should have refused to support the caucus nominee throughout. Being elected as Democrats, their constituency doubtless expected them to conform to Democratic usages and support the nominee of the majority.

Hon. L. F. Grover, our new Senator, is well known to every citizen of this State, in which he has resided for the past twenty years and more. He has filled a prominent position in Oregon history, and is thoroughly conversant with all our wants. His great ability and undoubted energy and integrity will make him a prominent and valuable member of the U. S. Senate, in which he will take his seat on the 4th of March next.

By virtue of the provisions of the Constitution Hon. S. F. Chadwick, our efficient Secretary of State, will succeed Mr. Grover as Governor.

Trouble in the Radical Camp.

There seem to be many Republicans in this State who do not approve of Senator Mitchell's campaign through Oregon, and demand that he be withdrawn a la Carl Schurz. The Oregonian, the leading Radical organ in this State, indulges in the following ill-natured growl:

If anything could cause the election this fall to disappoint the reasonable expectations of Republicans that the State will be carried for Hayes and Wheeler, it is the untimely appearance on the stage of our pseudonymous Senator, who, on his own invitation, is stamping the State ostensibly for Hayes and Wheeler, but really for himself. We have faith, however, that in spite of this intermeddling, unwelcome to so many, the State will go for the Republican candidates, though the majority to which they are fairly entitled may be cut down a little. We beg Republicans to stand by their colors and elect Hayes and Wheeler and Richard Williams. Two years hence will be the time to attend to this man.

No Defense Needed.

The broad humor of the campaign is condensed in the stereotyped plaint of the partisan Radical presses that the Tilden organs have no defense to make of him. Men of Tilden's mould need no defense. If he were a Grant, or a Blaine, or a Harlan, or a Morton, or a Logan, or a Fenton, or a Babcock, or a Rawlins, or a Robeson, or a man of equivocal public character in the remotest degree, it would be the proper thing to weary the public patience with defences. The friends and supporters of Tilden who understand the motive of his nomination presumably know better than to waste time over such supererogatory work. His life has been an open page for forty years, and the utmost ingenuity of his adversaries has failed to produce a blemish upon his character as a man, his integrity as a publicist, or his wisdom as a statesman.

TILDEN'S INCOME.

The base and slanderous charges against Governor Tilden, in relation to his income tax, which have been the entire stock in trade of the Republican party in its tirade against that great and pure statesman, have been effectually disposed of, the more respectable Republicans admitting their frivolity. Hon. Abram S. Hewitt, Chairman of the National Democratic Executive Committee, issues the following letter:

TO THE PUBLIC: The N. Y. Times, which formerly was a warm friend of Tilden, has made serious assaults of late on his character, which assaults culminate in a charge of perjury, calculated to disturb some persons, and cause the writer to apply to the Treasury for certified copies of the income returns of Tilden and Hayes. These copies have not been furnished, nor has his letter been noticed, though his adversaries have had free access to these returns and have photographed them. He therefore wrote to Judge Simot, Tilden's confidential law clerk during the whole of the period in dispute, asking him to examine the pretended account of Tilden's income in 1862, published in the Times, and to furnish him (Hewitt) with an explanation. Simot's reply has been received and presented a satisfactory refutation of the Times' charges. The answer shows that out of 13 pretended items of income, amounting to $10,000, 11 items were wholly fictitious, while of the other two one of $1,100 is entirely true and the second of $25,000 is only partially true. There is therefore no ground for the assertions of inaccuracy of Tilden's sworn statement.

Mr. Simot's statement, to which Hewitt alludes, after remarking that he (Simot) is perfectly familiar with the details of Tilden's business, declares the Times' statement is false in every particular, and evidently intended to mislead. For example, the first item, Feb. 19th, reads fee for trustees and master Commissioner's deed; but the wording of the second item is made differently, and reads February 25th, fees and expenses with reference to deed, etc., and the third item is put in another different mode of expression, thus: March 1st, for deed, etc. a mortgage deed, while in the fourth item the word "fees," and this time without expense, is brought into requisition. The obvious intent of the contrivance is to give color to those bogus items, and the appearance of being copied from the real paper. Concerning Tilden's connection with the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago road, Simot declares that the first six items of the Times' statement are about points which never existed, and Tilden never made any special charge of them against any individual or corporation. Tilden became counsel for the bondholders of that road in 1852, and worked assiduously until 1862.

A Cheering Sign.

One of the cheering signs for the success of Tilden and Hendricks is the fact that all over the land old line Republicans are coming to their support, whilst it is a thing of rare occurrence for a Democrat to come out for Hayes and Wheeler. When we use the term "old line Republicans" we do not mean those who without having any special party predilections have been merely voting with the Republican party, but we refer to men who were sincere and active supporters of that party. The defection of such men is significant—it shows that something is wrong in their party; and while it weakens materially the party they leave, says the Sonoma Democrat, it gives material strength to the party they support. Such men love their country more than party, and we welcome them into the Tilden and Hendricks ranks.

Another Page in His Record.

The most that the Radical party has been able to get up for General Hayes, by way of a record heretofore, is the part he took in the war. They have pointed proudly to his war record on all occasions, but after they had mentioned that they had to quit the "record" business and jump for the bloody shirt. General Hayes has now added another page to his record, and we call the attention of his party, especially those of foreign birth, to it. He has written a letter to the American Alliance, in which he fully endorses the idea of that association that none but American born citizens should be permitted to hold office or to exercise the right of voting. This page of the Radical "candidate's" record should not be overlooked.

What Votes for Hayes Mean.

A vote for Hayes is a vote for Roberson. A vote for Hayes is a vote for Belknap. A vote for Hayes is a vote for Delano. A vote for Hayes is a vote against Re'renchment. A vote for Hayes is a vote for the Indian Bureau. A vote for Hayes is a vote for the Freedman's Bank. A vote for Hayes is a vote for Babcock, McDonald and Joyce. Every vote cast for the Republican ticket at the State elections is a vote for Hayes and all the swindlers and scoundrels of Grant's administration.

The Independent leader, Prof. Campbell, President of Monmouth College, dropped into our sanctum during the week. It will be remembered that he ran as an Independent candidate for Governor at our last State election, receiving a highly complimentary vote. We are happy to announce that he is in full accord with the National Democratic party in the pending campaign, and expresses great anxiety for the success of our Presidential ticket.—Albany Democrat.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Hayes' administration has cost Ohio $5,000,000 more than that of Allen cost. Tilden's administration has cost New York nearly $50,000,000 less than that of Dix.

The virtuous indignation of the Republicans is aroused because John Morrissey is for Tilden. Two years ago he was endorsed by the Republicans of New York for State Senator.

The tide is setting in for Tilden and reform. The Republicans have abandoned New York, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin, Massachusetts and Ohio, and are regarded as extremely doubtful.

There is no time like the present for calling the attention of the Pacific Coast Radicals to the fact that Democrats in their platform oppose Chinese immigration, and that Rutherford Hayes endorses the notoriously corrupt Administration of Ulysses S. Grant.

If the Democrats of Michigan, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey will do as well in November as their brethren of Vermont and Maine have done in September, the election of Tilden and Hendricks will be overwhelming.

It is encouraging to Democrats to see the great army of former Republicans, in every section of the country, who declare their intention to support Tilden and Hendricks for President and Vice-President, many of them taking an active part in the campaign.

According to the letter of Gen. Kilpatrick to his friend Gov. R. B. Hayes, the people of Indiana are desperately sick of Radicalism, and the only remedy is to apply the bloody shirt freely mixed with plenty of money. And doubtless they will be dosed heavily.

The Radical press is somewhat astounded at the revelations made concerning the returns made by Governor Hayes during the taxable period of personal property. These papers without exception try to laugh at the facts as unfolded, but their laugh is somewhat hollow.

We would like to know whether Gov. Hayes does, or does not, belong to the modernized Know-Nothing. His recent letter indicates that he does. He has a right to be a Know-Nothing if he pleases, but the people have an excellent right to know what his real principles are.

The Republican telegraph has never sent a line of news to this coast concerning Governor Hayes' income perjury; yet the Eastern papers of all shades of opinion are teeming with it. The main fact is set forth on our first page, together with a bouquet of Republican comment. Now let the slanders of Tilden hold their peace.

We understand that Pacific coast Democrats are sending Brick Pomeroy's paper back to him by the ton since he has gone into the Hayes and Wheeler combination and is opposing Tilden and Reform. Thus Judas has his reward, and thus our party adherents preserve their integrity.

Many reforms have been attempted by Republican officials, which they would not have dared to enter upon, if their party had not been confronted by a Democratic House of Representatives which made exposures that compelled and enabled Republican officials to punish great wrongs.—Governor Seymour's Letter.

In response to many inquiries as to Mr. Tilden's religion, the New York Sun tells its querists and the rest of mankind that it is the Christian religion; that he is of a Presbyterian denomination and that he has given proof of the sincerity of his faith by enforcing in the performance of his official duties that divine commandment, Thou shalt not steal.

The attempt to make Gov. Tilden out a swindler of the Government in the matter of his income tax, thirteen years ago, is an e'ctioneering trick devised by the frightened supporters of Gov. Hayes. Mr. Tilden is a man of method, a lawyer of approved ability, and a citizen punctilious in the performance of his legal duties. George Bliss is a smart fellow in his way, but he has not caught Samuel J. Tilden, and does not expect to catch him. The threatened income tax suit is a piece of political farce.

The Difference.

The difference between Rutherford B. Hayes and Samuel J. Tilden may be told in a nut shell. Hayes, as a Presidential candidate, is an ordinary sample of "machine" manufacture; he speaks when he is told to speak, and is silent when so ordered; he is a portion of the fixings of his platform, and that platform carries him unresistingly—"body, soul, and boots." Tilden, on the contrary, carries his own platform. The record of an industrious and consistent lifetime, and the heartfelt approval of the most enlightened of his fellow-citizens throughout the broad expanse of the Union, enabled him rightfully to suggest and enforce his own views of what should be the policy of his party; and those views are heralded throughout the land "with no uncertain sound," in his unanswerable and convincing letter of acceptance.

Assessing the Female Clerks.

Kilpatrick's appeal for money is exercising Zach Chandler's ingenuity as to how he shall raise it. He has at last hit upon the happy expedient of levying tribute on the female employees of the Government. The collector recently visited several rooms of the Treasury Department and assessed all females receiving sixty dollars per month and up to seventy-five dollars per month five dollars each. Those receiving higher pay will be mulcted at a subsequent day and at a higher rate. The ladies are very indignant over the act, and justly harp on the string of taxation without representation.
