GENERAL NOTES AND NEWS.

James Lick died in San Francisco on the 1st inst. A number of naturalized Chinamen will vote in Massachusetts this year.

Belle of the West won the mile dash at Louisville for two year-olds in 1:44. There were sixty interments in Savannah on Sept. 29th from yellow fever.

C. B. Masters has begun the manufacture of vinegar from watermelons at Roseburg. Wheeler & Wilson's Sewing Machine Company have been awarded the first medal at the Centennial.

Gen. Braxton Bragg, aged 61, fell dead with heart disease, in the street at Galveston, Texas, on the 27th ult. There is a bill before the Legislature providing for leasing the convicts to certain parties at a compensation of $12,000 per annum.

Fully 800 tons of ammunition were shipped from the Winchester factory at New Haven, Connecticut, on the 3d to the Turkish Government. Levi, of Louisiana, is in New York and very confident that the Democrats will elect the entire State and Congressional tickets in his State.

Referring to the Vermont election the Philadelphia Times observes that the same percentage of change would make Pennsylvania Democratic. They have a campaign song beginning, "Come, all ye honest Republicans."

Why is it that they thus leave the great bulk of the party uninvited? The mints are now running to their fullest extent. Russian gold is being converted into American coin.

There is an active demand for silver to export to China. A cable dispatch from Paris says that Gen. Sickles has left that city for the United States. This man will be almost certain to displace Kilpatrick in the Radical heart.

The question of calling a Constitutional Convention for the purpose of framing a new Constitution has been freely canvassed among the members of the Legislature. The Sioux campaign is closed. Terry and Crook, by a marvelous display of generalship, have succeeded in escaping from Sitting Bull, and the army is saved for the campaign in the South.

Hayes' friends claim that it was his wife, not himself, who joined the crusaders. He didn't crusade, but sometimes let his wife crusade for him. There is a suspicion of Belknaping in this sneaking use of dimity.

There is a paper in Somerset county, Maine, whose editor is so anxious not to offend anybody politically that he publishes portraits of Hayes and Wheeler on one side and Tilden and Hendricks on the opposite page.

The Republican idea at the present time seems to be that the exposé is worse than the thief. The Democratic investigating Committee who brought to light the plundering operations of high officials are denounced, while nothing is said against the plunderers.

The State Librarian, A. F. Wagner, has placed us under obligations for a copy of his report to the Legislature. It is a neat pamphlet of 80 pages, and the report is very clear and complete.

There are now belonging to the Library, 7,384 volumes, 1,026 of which have been received during the last term. In January, 1875, Congress passed an act whereby it pledged the country to a resumption of specie payments in January, 1879.

Ever since the passage of that Act, every possible surplus applicable to the purpose of existence. Will our astute financiers tell us how, in this manner, the said Act could have been made effective?

We understand that the horses, wagons and harness belonging to a Mr. Wilson who contracted to haul the circus company throughout its wanderings, have been attached upon complaint of Montgomery Queen, who it seems has a large bill against him for demurrage consequent upon his failure to reach several points at the time agreed upon.

The stock is pastured on Columbia slough and the remainder of the property is stored in Portland pending the final issue. The Butler has been nominated for Congress again by the Republicans of Massachusetts. That is not indorsing back-pay grabs, and all other grabs, is it? While the Democrats are trying to get such men as Horatio Seymour, Charles Francis Adams, Blue Jeans Williams, in addition to their Presidential candidates, the other party is promoting its Butlers, its Blaines, its Mortons, its Chandlers, its Logans, and is putting forward negative Presidential candidates with negative qualities and without records. Choose ye!

FOR TILDEN AND REFORM.

A FEW HONEST REPUBLICANS WHO HAVE REPUDIATED GRANTISM, AND ARE GOING FOR TILDEN AND REFORM. In answer to the general claim of the Republican party that it embraces all the patriotism and all the intelligence of the nation, the following names whose owners now support Gov. Tilden are respectfully suggested:

- Major-Gen. McClellan, Major-Gen. Baldy Smith, Major-Gen. Slocum, Major-Gen. Franklin, Major-Gen. Bartlett, Major-Gen. Sigel, Major-Gen. McCandless, Major-Gen. McClelland, Major-Gen. Morgan of Ohio, Major-Gen. Hooker, Major-Gen. Rosecrans, Major-Gen. Hancock, Major-Gen. A. G. Williams.

Charles Francis Adams, of Massachusetts, Mr. Lincoln's Minister to England during the war. Hon. Lyman Trumbull, Senator from Illinois, and Chairman of the Judiciary Committee of the Senate.

Hon. Geo. W. Julian, leading member of Congress, during Lincoln, Johnson and Grant's terms. Hon. Lucius Robinson and William Dorsheimer in nomination as Governor and Lieut. Governor of New York.

Charles A. Dana, Editor N. Y. Sun, and formerly Asst. Secretary of War under Mr. Lincoln. Andrew G. Curtin, Pennsylvania's War Governor.

David A. Wells, of Connecticut, the first statesman and political economist in America. William Cullen Bryant, of the Post. Parke Goodwin, of New York. Gideon Welles, Lincoln's Secretary of the Navy.

Justice David Davis, of the Supreme Court, United States. Ex-Governor Austin Blair, the "War Governor" of Michigan. Ex-Gov. B. Gratz Brown, of Missouri.

Cassius M. Clay, of Kentucky. General John M. Palmer, ex-Governor of Illinois. Professor W. G. Sumner, of Yale College, who wrote the Republican State platform of 1874, and who has now written the strongest letter of the kind yet published in behalf of Tilden.

Professor A. L. Perry, of Williams College, the distinguished political economist. Colonel Augustus H. Fenn, the Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor of Connecticut last year.

Frank W. Bird, of Massachusetts, the founder of the Republican party. Ex-Congressman J. F. Farnsworth, of Illinois. Chas. Francis Adams, Jr., of Massachusetts.

Henry Brooks Adams, of Massachusetts. Colonel Nicholas Smith, representing the Greeley family. George W. Fenton, of Chautauqua, brother of Senator Fenton.

Col. Fred. A. Conkling, of New York, brother of Senator Conkling. Justice Stephen J. Field, appointed by Lincoln to the Supreme Court of the United States, and assigned to the Pacific Coast District. Col. Alex. K. McClure, editor of the Philadelphia Times.

Judge Henry R. Selden, of New York. Howard Potter, of New York. Charles G. Davis, of Massachusetts. Ex-Senator Ross, of Kansas. Ex-Senator Tipton, of Nebraska. Ex-Senator Cowan, of Pennsylvania. E. S. Cleveland, late Republican Postmaster of Hartford, Connecticut. D. D. S. Brown, of New York. General E. F. Jones, of New York. Judge Edwin A. Reynolds, of New York.

Col. Charles James, of New York. Porter Sheldon, of New York. Ex-Governor David P. Lewis, the late Republican Governor of Alabama. Judge Daniel S. Gooding, Lincoln Elector-at-Large in Indiana, 1864. Ex-Congressman James M. Ashley, of Ohio, the Great Impacher.

General Jacob Brinkerhoff, of Ohio. Judge Hoadley, of the Supreme Court of Ohio; supported Hayes for Governor last year. E. W. Kittridge, the eminent lawyer of Cincinnati, supported Hayes last year.

Charles Remelin, of Cincinnati, who supported Hayes last year. Emil Hoffman, of Cincinnati, who supported Hayes last year. Ex-Lieutenant Governor Jacob Muelner, of Ohio, elected on the Republican ticket in 1871, who supported Hayes last year.

Judge J. B. Stallo, of Cincinnati, who supported Hayes last year. Frederick Hassaurek, late editor of the Cincinnati Volksblatt, who supported Hayes last year. Aug. Thieme, editor of the Cleveland Wachter an Erde, who supported Hayes last year.

Col. Edward Jussem, of Chicago, brother-in-law of Carl Schurz. Ex-Governor Koerner, of Illinois. To these may be added by the thousands and tens of thousands the names of men less widely known but equally honest, sincere and honored citizens, who love their country and detest the dangerous thieves and villains that the Republican party have elevated to power.

A WORD TO THE WORKINGMEN.—This campaign is yours. It is for your families, and your action at the polls in November will give evidence of the fact whether or not you care more for your wives and children than for mere party. What is your situation now? If you have employment, does the mere pittance you receive for your hard labor suffice to furnish you with the necessities of life? Are you able to raise money enough at the end of every month to pay your rent without depriving your children of bread?

Now is the time for action. Let your voices be raised for a change; let your votes be cast for a change. Reform is the watchword, and to effect a reform a change in administration is the first step. Your condition cannot be made any worse under the guidance of Uncle Sammy Tilden than it is today, and you have the assurance of history that a change of rulers after a panic always restored confidence and brought good times in its train.

Can you longer hesitate? Look at your fellow men, in great number, discharged every day. Look at Altoona, where the Pennsylvania R. R. Co. has been compelled to discharge over fifteen hundred men within the past few weeks, and the end is not yet. A hard Winter is approaching, and if the demand for a change is not ratified at the polls, woe betide the sufferer. During the past three years you have hardly made money enough to keep soul and body together, and if Hayes is elected it will be but a continuance of the present administration, present hard times, and thieves in office.

Laboring men, give this matter your attention! Wives of laboring men, enlist in the fight; persuade your husbands to cast one vote for you and your children. Give them to understand that they have voted for party, low wages and starvation long enough.

SAVANNAH'S SCOURGE.—The city of Savannah, Georgia, is now undergoing one of the most terrible scourges that ever visited any city in the United States, if telegraphic reports of the ravages of yellow fever there are true. Late dispatches state that out of a population of 30,000 only 18,000 remained in the city, and of that number 8,000 had been stricken down with the dread disease. Even if only one-fourth part of this be true, the condition of that stricken city is indeed heart-rending; and if there be no exaggeration in the statement, its condition is absolutely appalling. Of course, as a general rule, those who have not fled the city are the poorer classes, and unless immediate and abundant aid is given, the destitution and suffering will be horrible to contemplate. We are glad to know that substantial aid is being given by other cities, and hope it will be continued so long as there shall be such urgent need for it.

OREGON STATE GRANGE.—The Oregon State Grange has concluded its labors and adjourned. Before adjourning the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: Master, Wm. Cyrus, of Sedo; Overseer, A. R. Shipley, of Oswego; Lecturer, Mrs. E. N. Hunt, of Sublimity; Steward, W. H. Thomas, of Walla Walla; Assistant Steward, G. W. Riddle, of Canyonville; Chaplain, W. H. Gray, of Astoria; Secretary, T. L. Davidson, of Salem; Treasurer, S. P. Lee, of Portland; Gate Keeper, W. H. Graham, of Fisher's Landing, W. T.; Ceres, Mrs. B. A. Miller, of Jackson county; Pomona, Mrs. S. D. Durham, of McMinnville; Flora, Mrs. E. A. Kelly, of East Portland; L. A. S., Georgia Smith, of Hood river.

GOING TO PROVE IT.—Says McClure, of the "Independent" Philadelphia Times: "The handsome fac-simile of Tilden's income tax return is doing good service. The New York Times sent the plate to the Chicago Tribune, which reprinted it, and now the Hacksack has issued it. They will still go on printing it just the same. They believe that a lie can outrun the truth any time, and are going to prove it.

THERE is a man in Denver who can't go swimming on account of a big Newfoundland dog which he owns. The dog keeps close watch on him, and every time the gentleman takes a plunge in the lake the dog plunges in after him and drags him out, thinking that he is saving his master's life.
