THURSDAY.....OCTOBER 19, 1876.

CAMPAIGN SONG NO. 3.

(Air—Red, White and Blue.)

Reform's the cry, they're looking quite blue,
Since you're the grand nomination
Of Tilden and Hendricks so true,
Tilden and Hendricks so true,
Surprised at the grand nomination
Of Tilden and Hendricks so true.

Arouse, ye oppressed with taxation,
Deceived by the men you thought least,
Vote at the nation's election
For Tilden and Hendricks the true.
For Tilden, etc.

Tilden's the man for the station,
So fearless and bold we all knew :
This hero will short remonstrate,
With Hendricks o' stand by him true.
With Hendricks, etc.

Our Pilots are both on the deck,
The old ship of state heaves in view,
A warning to grabbers—a check,
Reform's on the old flag, so true.
Reform's on the old flag, etc.

South,分裂 and division,
Engendered by partisan crew,
Must go to the shades of oblivion,
While the Union advances anew.
While the Union, etc.

The east and the west never faltered,
The north and the south ever stood true,
United their foes will be slaughtered
By Tilden and Hendricks, the true.
By Tilden and Hendricks, etc.

PEN PICTURES OF OUR LEGISLATORS.—The Salem Statesman is giving pen pictures of the members of the Legislature. He thus writes up Hon. J. M. McCall, of this county :

John Marshall McCall, Representative from Jackson county, was born in Washington county, Pennsylvania, January 15th, 1825; his ancestors were of Scotch Irish, Presbyterian type who believed in the old idea "Fiat Justicia Ruat Caelum." Removed with his parents to Louis county, Iowa, where he remained until 1850, when he crossed the plains with an ox team.

In the spring of 1851 he went to the gold mines at Yreka, California; settled in Jackson county, Oregon, in 1852. He has been a Republican since 1856, having taken the complaint in the regular way (if complaint it may be called) and has stood by the guns ever since. When the rebellion broke out Mr. McCall enlisted in the 1st Oregon cavalry; was appointed 2d Lieut. in company "D," was promoted to Captain in 1866 and mustered out of service in 1866, when he returned to his home in Ashland, Jackson county, where he has settled down to peaceful avocations of life, and is now engaged in selling goods. Taking an active part in politics he comes to the present session as a member against a large opposition political majority in his county. Mr. McCall is not only good looking, but decidedly intelligent and honest, and would everywhere be taken for a Republican."

PAYING FOR THE PRIVILEGE OF PROFANITY.—August Belmont had, and has, I believe, for private secretary a young man who gave him offense by writing a letter differently from what the eminent banker had directed. Belmont looked it over and blurted out, "D—n you, I've told you a dozen times how to do this, and you have done it wrong again."

The secretary rose with dignity and said, "Mr. Belmont, you must not swear at me. I do not get salary enough to do my work faithfully and be sworn at besides."

"How much do you get?" inquired the financier.

"Fifteen hundred dollars a year."

"How much do you want?"

"Including being sworn at?"

"Yes, including everything."

"Three thousand dollars at least."

"Draw $3,000 hereafter, d—n you, and copy my letters exactly as I direct;" which shows that some men are willing to pay for luxuries.

It may be said of Belmont, in scriptural phrase, that curse clothe him like a garment, for he has a habit of swearing.—New York Letter.

INAUGURATION DAY.—When the day for the inauguration for the President of the United States was fixed upon the fourth of March, it was for the reason that the date occurred seldom on Sunday. But twice during our history has the inauguration day fallen on that day. The first was the second inaugural of James Monroe, the fifth President, March 4, 1821. The second was when Zachary Taylor was made President, March 4, 1849. Being Sunday, his inauguration did not take place until the next day. The third will be the next inaugural, March 4, 1877.

This will happen three times during each century, or one year after every seven leap years. Except when passing from one century to another, there is a slight variation, as will be observed in the following dates of the past and future inaugurations of the first two centuries of the Republic: March 4, 1821; March 4, 1849; March 4, 1877; March 4, 1917; March 4, 1945; March 4, 1973.

"You must have lived here a long time," said an Englishman to an Oregon pioneer. "Yes, sir, I have. Do you see that mountain? Well, when I came that mountain was a hole in the ground."

"Moody and Sankey" quadrilles, containing "Hold the Fort" and other hymns, are set to dancing music.

"Sir, you have been told that we are demons in hate, and gloat in the thought of war and blood. Men of New England—men of the great North will believe me when, for the two millions of people whom I represent, and the whole South as well, I denounce the utterance as an inhuman slander and a damnable and unpardonable falsehood against a brave and, God knows, a long-suffering people. Want war! Want bloodshed! Sirs, we are poor—broken in fortune and sick at heart. Had you stood, as I have stood, by the ruined hearthstones, by the wrecks of fortune, which are scattered all along the shore; had you seen, as I have seen, the wolf howling at the door of many a once happy home—widowhood and orphanage starving and weeping over, never-returning sirens and sons, who fell with your honored dead at Gettysburg and Manassas; could you hear, as I have heard, the throbbing of the great universal Southern heart—throbbing for peace and yearning for the old and faithful love between the States; could you have seen and felt and heard all these things, my countrymen, you would, black or white, Republican or Democrat, take me by the hand and swear that the arm thus uplifted against us, and the tongue which utters the great libel on our name, should wither at the socket and become palsied forever at the root! I repeat again, let our spears be turned into pruning hooks and our swords beat into plowshares, to remain everlasting memories of returning peace and good will to the American people."

ABBOTT OF CARRIBOO.—The death of the unfortunate man Abbott, at Cassiar, says the Colonist, calls to mind some of the exciting incidents of the first gold discoveries at Cariboo. Abbott was one of a company who struck rich pay on William creek in 1861, arriving at Victoria with 300 pounds of gold in the Fall of that year. He was the "lion" of the Winter of 1862, and spent his gold lavishly on the most unworthy objects. On one occasion he entered a saloon and shied a handful of $20 pieces at a large plate-glass mirror behind the bar, shattering it. When reproached by the barkeeper he requested him to keep the "beast (the 20s) for the damage." On another occasion he and another Caribooites astonished Government street by throwing $20 at each other until stopped by the police. The throwing commenced with throwing snow-balls. On his return to Cariboo Abbott's good fortune continued, and he has been known to stake $10,000 on a hand at poker. After two or three years' prosperity Abbott got to the bottom of his claim and his purse about the same time, and was miserably poor at the time of his death—like Loring, Hard, Curry, Cunningham and host of other pioneers who made fortunes at Cariboo in a single season.

TAX-PAYING STATES.—Senator Bayard recently delivered a speech at Trenton, New Jersey, in which he called attention to the fact that in 1873 three of the Southern States, namely, Virginia, Kentucky, and Missouri, paid a revenue to the general Government of $20,000,000, whilst the whole of the New England States contributed less than $3,000,000. The three States referred to were Democratic States, now quiet, prosperous communities—States that have broken the thrall of Radicalism and carpet-bag rule. Let the other States South remain Democratic as long as the three mentioned have, and they will contribute in like ratio to the support of the Union.

CENTAUR LINIMENT!

The Quickest, Surest and Cheapest Remedy.

Physicians recommend and Farriers declare that no Liniment has ever been more cheaply and easily applied. Testimonials will present trial bottles to medical men gratis, and will guarantee more rapid and satisfactory results than have ever before been obtained.

The Centaur Liniment, White Wrapper, will cure Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Lumbar, Sciatica, Caked Breasts, Sore Nipples, Frosted Feet, Chilblains, Swelling, Sprains, and any ordinary

FLU, BONE OR MUSCLE AILMENT.

It will extract the poison of bites and stings, and heal burns or scalds without a scar. Lock-jaw, Palsy, Weak Back, Caked Breasts, Earache, Toothache, Itch and Cutaneous Eruptions readily yield to its treatment.

Henry Black, of Ada, Hardin Co., Ohio, says: "My wife has had rheumatism for five years—no rest, no sleep—could scarcely walk across the floor. She is now completely cured by the use of Centaur Liniment. We all feel thankful to you and recommend your wonderful medicine to all our friends."

Samuel Hurd, of Zanesville, O., says: "The Centaur Liniment cured my Neuralgia."

Alfred Tush, of Newark, writes: "Send me one dozen bottles by express. The Liniment has saved my leg. I want to distribute it, &c."

The sale of this Liniment is increasing rapidly.

The Centaur Liniment, Yellow Wrapper, is for the tough skin, flesh and muscles of HORSES, MULES AND ANIMALS.

We have never yet seen a case of Spavin, Sweeny, Ring-bone, Wind-gall, Scratches or Poll-Evil, which this Liniment would not speedily benefit, and we never saw but a few cases which it would not cure. It will cure when anything can. It is folly to spend $20 for a Farrier, when one dollar's worth of Centaur Liniment will do better. The following is a sample of the testimony produced:

"JEPPESEN, Mo., Nov. 10, 1873.

"Some time ago I was shipping horses to St. Louis. I got one badly crippled in the car. With great difficulty I got him to the stable, on Fourth Avenue. The stable-keeper gave me a bottle of your Centaur Liniment, which I used with such success that the horse was well again in a few days. I have been using it ever since and have never had a horse with as active and nearly well. I have been very sorry to give up my Liniment heads anything I ever used."

"A. J. McCARTY, Veterinary Surgeon."

For a postage stamp we will mail a Centaur Almanac, containing hundreds of certificates, from every State in the Union. These Liniments are now sold by all dealers in the country.
