

The Democratic Times.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1876.

ELECTION next Tuesday. A CITIZEN of the State can vote anywhere in the State next Tuesday.

EVERY Democrat should be at the polls next Tuesday, and work and vote for Tilden, Hendricks and Lane.

COUNTY COURT.—The November term of the Probate and County Commissioners' Courts will be held next week.

We vote for President through the Electors, who are only representatives of the Presidential nominee. To not vote for the Electors or any one of them is voting that much against the candidate for President.

RETURNED.—Hon. A. L. Waldon, of Josephine, returned from a visit from Illinois the other day. He reports Tilden's prospects as bright, even that State being liable to go for him.

A. C. JONES, Esq., addressed a large and spirited meeting of the Ashland Tilden Club last Monday evening. The gallant Democracy of that precinct will give a good account of itself next Tuesday.

RETURNED.—Judge Prim and Messrs. H. K. Hanna, E. B. Watson and A. C. Jones returned from Kerbyville on Friday last, where his Honor has been holding the October term of the Josephine Circuit Court. The docket was rather light.

SOUTHERN OREGON will roll up a Democratic majority that will cause a tremendous rattling of the dry bones of Radicalism. Let every Democrat strive to make it so overwhelming that it will cause the Portland Custom Ring to stand aglance at its magnitude!

RALLY AT ASHLAND.

A grand Democratic rally will take place at Ashland on Monday evening next, Messrs. W. M. Colvig, J. R. Neil, W. J. Plymale and others are expected to address the meeting. Everybody is invited to attend.

FROST.—We have had some very cold nights during the past week, which has been severe on vegetation. Verily, the season is now at hand when the female horticulturalist protects a couple of five-cent plants from the frost by covering them up with the old man's $50 overcoat.

ALARM OF FIRE.—Jacksonville was considerably excited last Friday afternoon over an alarm of fire caused by a dense smoke issuing from David Crone-miller's residence. It proved a false alarm, however, as only the chimney was burning out, and the town soon resumed its wonted equilibrium.

If you want another term of Grantism then vote for Hayes and Wheeler. The Republican platform openly endorses Grant, Hayes and Wheeler endorse him, and the Republican speakers and press generally speak in high terms of him, even comparing his infamous Administration to that of the immortal Jackson!

GRAND RALLY!

The Democracy of Jacksonville and vicinity will close the campaign with a grand rally on Monday evening next. Messrs. Henry Klippel, A. C. Jones, H. K. Hanna and others will address the meeting. Music will be in attendance, anvils will be fired, and a rousing time may be expected. Let everybody come who can. Front seats reserved for ladies. Rally, rally, rally!

LA FAYETTE LANE is the only Representative Southern Oregon ever had. The Willamette already has both Senators and we ought to at least have the Congressman. Every citizen of this section, irrespective of party, who has its interests at heart, should therefore consider it a duty to assist in sending Mr. Lane back, as he has proven himself an able, upright and industrious Congressman, and will do what he can for us.

TOO MUCH FOR HIM.—Our able representative, Hon. Henry Klippel, on every occasion proves too much for Gen. Odell, and the latter has to a great extent abandoned National issues and fallen back on state local matters. A correspondent, writing from Kerbyville under date of October 27th, says:

Mr. Klippel done well here. He completely impaled Odell. I have never before been better pleased with the result of a political discussion. Odell is far from being honorable in his conduct of the campaign, but Henry nailed him fast and his friends were completely chop-fallen. I only wish the people generally could have heard them.

GOV. GROVER'S SPEECH.

The announcement that Hon. L. F. Grover would speak Saturday afternoon was sufficient to fill the Court House in this place with a large and appreciative audience, though the weather was anything but favorable. Judge Prim introduced His Excellency, and for an hour and a half his hearers listened attentively to his remarks, which were highly appreciated. He reviewed the principal issues now before the country, in the course of which he showed the fallacy of comparing Grant's administration with Jackson's. He thoroughly analyzed the Southern question, proving that the troubles there were caused in the interest of Northern politicians; that there was no rebel debt existing at all, as the promise of the Southern Confederacy was that its debts should be paid six months after its independence. He exposed some of the sophistries advanced by Senator Mitchell, showing him to be incomprehensible in his statements when he stated that rebel claims to the amount of twenty-four thousand millions would be paid if Tilden was elected. He proved by the testimony of Henry Smith, Journal Clerk of the House and of the War Claims committees of former Congresses, that there were a larger number of claims reported and allowed at the first session of the Forty-third Congress than at the session of the Forty-fourth Congress just closed, and the first session of the Forty-third Congress was not so long by two months. In the first session of the Forty-third Congress there were 1,230 cases before the Committee, representing $28,000,000. This last session there were 1,230 cases, representing $26,000,000. At the first session of the Forty-third Congress the House Committee reported seventy-nine cases, involving $744,000, besides three cases of 600 bales of cotton, also the bill known as "The Ironclad contracts," involving $5,000,000. During that session the House passed forty-four cases amounting to $291,000. In the present House, during a longer session, fifty-five cases were reported involving $215,000, of which thirty-seven were favorably reported by the last Congress. Of the fifty-five reported only seventeen passed, involving $73,000. He was severe on the Republican administration and gave cogent reasons why every citizen should vote for Tilden and Hendricks. He advised every Democrat to vote the whole ticket, as to sacrifice any man on personal grounds might work serious injuries to the election of our candidates. Having reviewed National matters in a brief and able manner, he devoted a few minutes to State questions. He pronounced himself with us on the railroad question, pledging himself to labor assiduously for aid in the completion of the railroad from Roseburg, and also one to the Coast when that was finished. The Indian spoliation claims due settlers of this section he promised to see and have them settled. Having to go to the House that evening, Mr. Grover concluded his speech at about three o'clock, and the crowd reluctantly dispersed, highly pleased with what the Governor had said, only wishing that he could have extended his remarks.

Upon the Democratic ticket the candidate for Vice President is that great and pure statesman Thomas A. Hendricks, who has filled the highest offices in the gift of the people of Indiana with distinction and honor to himself and to the great satisfaction of his constituents. The Radical nominee for this position is W. A. Wheeler, who is known as the king of railroad jobbers in Congress. He is also notorious as having blackmailed a New York railroad company out $20,000, and a suit has been instituted to compel him to disgorge. Quite a difference existed between these candidates.

If you want Chinese immigration checked vote the Democratic ticket. The Republican platform dodges the issue, while many of its leaders say openly that it should be continued in the interest of cheap labor. The Democratic speakers and platform openly and unequivocally proclaim that it must and will be checked if the Democracy has a say in the matter. Choose ye between them.

THE Republicans have considerable to say about our standard-bearers not being Union men. We nevertheless find Generals Joe Hooker, McClellan, Palmer, Hancock, Rosecrans and, in fact, nearly all the prominent Generals of volunteers in the Union army, to say nothing of the thousands of rank and file, supporting Tilden. Comment is unnecessary.

SAM'S VALLEY & BROWNSBORO'. A. C. Jones, Esq., and others will address the citizens of Jackson county at the Brownsborough school house tomorrow at 1 o'clock P. M., and at Stanley's store in Sam's Valley on the Saturday following, at 1 o'clock P. M. Turn out, everybody!

PERSONAL.—Gen. J. E. Ross and daughter have returned from a visit to the Willamette.

The Eugene City Guard says that Geo. S. Walton and family of that place will soon remove Jacksonville.

G. Karewiski and daughter returned from San Francisco Monday night.

If you want the thousands of thieves and scoundrels now infesting Federal offices continued in power, then vote for Hayes and Wheeler. If you want them cleaned out and punished and honest men put in their places, then vote for Tilden and Hendricks.

ARRESTED.—H. A. Grigsby was this week arrested by Deputy Sheriff Seybert for shooting at Mrs. Grigsby, his wife. Justice Kent bound him over in the sum of $1,000, in default of which he was sent to jail.

No Democrat should fail to be at the polls next Tuesday. Now is the time when he should by all means vote.

THE present hard times prevailing throughout the country is due to the thievery, mismanagement and venality of the present Republican Administration. If you wish them to continue and perhaps get worse, then vote for Hayes and Wheeler. If you want our financial condition to improve, honesty, dignity and efficiency to characterize our Government, then vote for those great statesmen, Samuel J. Tilden and Thomas A. Hendricks.

Said the New York Times of Nov. 6th, 1871: "Vote for Samuel J. Tilden. The voters of the 18th Assembly district ought to esteem it an honor and a privilege to elect Samuel J. Tilden to the Legislature. He has shown himself a gallant, conscientious, efficient foe to corruption. We appeal to every Republican to work and vote for him, and do so the more cheerfully—as we make this appeal—because he is an honest Democrat."

OUR foreign born citizens certainly do not wish to vote against their own interests. To vote for Hayes would be to endorse and encourage the American Alliance, an order formed to deprive our German, Irish, French and, in fact, every citizen not born in America, of their suffrage, and the Republican candidate for President has been proven to be a member of the same and is endorsed by it.

A FEW years ago Dick Williams performed some legal services for the city of Portland which any good lawyer would have done for $250. Dick thought he had a soft thing and charged the city $5,000. But the people of that place, now having a chance at him, propose passing on his conduct next Tuesday.

THE defection of such old-line Republicans as Adams, Palmer, Trumbull and others from Hayes is causing thousands of their honest compatriots to flock to the standard of Tilden and Hendricks, recognizing in their election the only safeguard against national disgrace and bankruptcy. And who can blame them?

BOGUS TICKETS.

Democrats should look out for bogus tickets. The Republicans are desperate and will do anything to carry the Presidential election. It will therefore not be amiss to read your ticket over and see that it is all right.

LA FAYETTE LANE made a record of efficiency, industry and integrity in the last Congress rarely equaled and never exceeded by a young man of his experience. The people of Oregon should and will not hesitate in returning him by a large majority.

To compare the ability of Rutherford B. Hayes to that of Samuel J. Tilden is like comparing the statesmanship of such demagogues as Blaine, Morton, Logan and Ingersoll to that of Webster, Calhoun, Benton and Clay.

SAD LOSS.—We regret to learn that Wm. Bilger, formerly of this county, but now of San Leandro, Cal., recently lost two children by sickness. Mr. Bilger himself was seriously ill, but is now recovering.

TILDEN broke up the Tweed and Canal rings of New York. He will next Tuesday break the neck of the monster Republican ring that is eating away the people's substance through its corruption and extravagance.

WHAT has Hayes ever done that the people praise him for? Echo answers "What?" On the contrary, the great and enviable record of Samuel J. Tilden speaks for itself in this connection.

WILL NOT TAKE PLACE.—The sale of sheep and other property, advertised by Alex. Martin to transpire on Saturday next, will not take place, as he has otherwise disposed of them.

A BAPTIST minister, A. D. Manion by name, regales the readers of our contemporary with a political diatribe against another Church. Sent to such intermeddlers.

A VOTE for Tilden is a vote for better times, economy and honesty in Governmental affairs and great prosperity, dignity and influence as a people.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The November term of the Circuit Court will commence on Monday, November 13th. The docket is not heavy.

THE Germans of Ohio, Indiana, Wisconsin and the whole country, in fact, are almost a unit for Tilden.

DEMOCRATS should not hesitate to vote the straight Democratic ticket Tuesday. Don't scratch.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The Boston Herald says the only hope of the working class lies in a change of administration. The Radicals have kept the greenbacks out of their platform only to use them to outdo each other. Babcock still held his office at last accounts, of course. That's what the Radical party is in power for. Governor Tilden's real income—that which will trouble the Radicals the most—will be that of March 4th next.

The Democratic platform: Reform is necessary. The Republican platform: Plenty of money and the bloody shirt. Schuyler Colfax said in his recent speech at South Bend: "The hard times is about over." Has he made another "raise?" Tom Hendricks will please step up to the head of his class. He has done well in October. He will do better in November.

There never was such a spendthrift as Rutherford B. Hayes. His uncle, Sardis Birehard, left him a fine fortune, and in a year it was all gone, if Ruthy is to be believed. Jobber Blaine has come to New York to tell the people how to vote this month. He wastes his breath. Our citizens do not go to a corrupt legislator for instructions as to their political duties.

The Radical officials are very busy in traveling over the State in the interest of their candidates. Yet we are told that Hayes and Wheeler are not Grant's candidates and the King nominees. The Radicals were unable to find a cloak to cover their iniquities, so they took the next best thing—Hayes. But it is too thin; the people see through the maze and discover the reeking mass of corruption behind it.

Benjamin F. Butler, in his speech at Andover, Mass., on the 13th inst., said: "The elections of the past week show that there is to be a contest of the most determined character; a contest which is doubtful. I say it, Mr. Tilden's election is not impossible; nay, not improbable."

Governor Tilden reduced the tax of his State in the first year of his administration $1,520,801.47; in the second year the reduction was more than $5,000,000 over the first, and the whole reduction from the last year of General Dix's administration is $7,198,307.76, or nearly one-half the total tax.

When the thick fog hangs over a party it is impossible to see the sun. If the people would have the gorgeous orb of prosperity shine upon this broad land they must defeat the intention of the Republicans to force a Hayes over the country under cover of which they expect to continue the work of corruption without the knowledge of the public.

The accusations against the present and other recent administrations is not that money has been directly embezzled, but that it has been extravagantly expended, and often to the profit indirectly of those who have had the disbursement of it. It is no credit to a public official that he has not stolen money as it passed through his hands, if he has wasted it or used it for the profit of himself and his friends.

Don't that says: "One of the ludicrous features of this campaign is to see this Puritan organization setting up in behalf of a man as a missionary and rallying about him with the wildest enthusiasm. Now, mind, I am making no objection to Bob on account of his belief or lack of belief, that is a matter altogether his own. But the inconsistency of these men, who howl in anguish if a Catholic be nominated for an office, and yet accept the ablest and most audacious of infidels since the day of Tom Paine as a leader and teacher, is exceedingly laughable."

Another Charge Answered.

Every Republican speaker we have heard during this campaign has charged that if the Democracy should get into power in the United States all the Southern claims would be paid. Our great standard-bearer, Samuel J. Tilden, has written a letter for publication which will effectually put a stop to all such silly twaddle. We find it in the telegrams published in the Oregonian: Tilden has written a letter for publication of which the following are extracts: "Should I be elected President, the provisions of the 14th amendment will, so far as depends on me, be maintained, executed and enforced in perfect and absolute good faith. No rebel claims will be assumed or paid; no claims for loss or embezzlement of any slave will be allowed; no claim for any loss or damage incurred by disloyal persons from the late war, whether covered by the 14th amendment or not, will be recognized or paid; the cotton tax will not be renewed; I shall deem it my duty to veto every bill providing for the assumption or payment of any such debts, losses, damages or claims, or refunding any such debt.

HeLaughsWhoWins.

It is amusing to see the squirming of the Radical press in their efforts to explain away their disasters in Indiana, Ohio and West Virginia. Our majority in Indiana has run up to 6,000. The majority against us in Ohio is not reported and is doubtless much smaller than was first announced. To have made Ohio sure for Hayes it should have given the Republicans at the late election not less than 18,000 majority. As it now stands Tilden has an even chance to carry the State in November. The skies are bright and brightening all along the line for Tilden and Hendricks. The Radicals were stunned by the stinging blow of the October elections. They stagger and strike blindly. In November next they will receive their final quietus.

More Radical Achievement.

The San Francisco Call says: The total amount of gold and silver shipped from San Francisco to China for the last ten months has been $8,345,976. Perhaps when the inhabitants of the Eastern States see the drift of gold and silver to China, which will ultimately be quadrupled unless steps be taken to encourage white labor on this coast, they will learn that their interests are intimately connected with ours.

The Republican party dodges these issues, while the Democracy is pledged to reform this nuisance. Workingmen, ponder on this.

A Heavy Fall.

The way Hayes went back on his war-horse was a caution; but that was nothing to the way he treated his pet dog. He put the horse into the tax list at $12, while the dog was assessed one year at $25, and the very next year at one dollar and fifty cents. What a fall was that, my countrymen!

HE (Tilden) is being mentioned as the Democratic candidate for Governor this Fall. Mr. Tilden would make a very good candidate, for he is a gentleman, an able man, and a man of very high character. He is a Democrat of very long standing in the party; a man of unsullied honor, public and private; a good, public-spirited man, who would be no discredit, but much the reverse, to our State. This we say with perfect sincerity.—New York Times, July 24, 1874.
