

CLOSE OF VOLUME.—This number closes the sixth volume of the Times and sixth year of its existence.

FOR WEAVERVILLE.—Wm. Bybee some days ago started a band of one hundred and thirty hogs for Weaver-ville, California.

PUBLIC INSTALLATION.—There will be a public installation of officers of Warren Lodge No. 10, A. F. & A. M., on Wednesday, December 27th, at two o'clock P. M., at the new Masonic Hall. Everybody is invited to attend.

NOTABLE DEATH.—Col. James A. Hardie, Inspector-General of the U. S. Army, a few years ago in Jacksonville inspecting the Medoc war claims for the Government, died at Washington on the 14th. Col. Hardie was an accomplished gentleman in every sense of the word, and his death is mourned by all who knew him.

CHANGE OF DATE.—After this issue the TIMES will appear every Saturday morning, as formerly. The various mails are now so regulated that our subscribers will receive the paper almost the same day as published, and we will be enabled by this change to each week give them a fuller compendium of the news transpiring.

PROBATE COURT.—The following business has been transacted in this Court since our last report:

In the matter of the estate of A. W. Jones, deceased. Wm. Miller, administrator of said estate, files his final account and asks that a day be appointed for hearing the same. Final account accepted and allowed, and February 6, 1877, appointed as the day for hearing the same. Notice ordered published in the DEMOCRATIC TIMES.

CHRISTMAS AT ROCK POINT.—An entertainment will take place at Rock Point next Monday evening, which promises to be a first-class affair. A splendid programme has been prepared for the evening, which comprises dramas, farces, songs, speeches, etc., and also a Christmas tree. We learn that a dance at White's Hall will follow. A fine time is expected, and everybody invited to attend.

POST OFFICE MATTERS.—New post offices have been established at Lucky Queen, Josephine county, with David Sexton as Postmaster; at Lakeview, Lake county, Chas. U. Snider, Postmaster; New Pine creek, Lake county, S. A. Hammersly, Postmaster. William's creek Post office, in this county, has been discontinued. Oliver Applegate has been appointed Postmaster at Yainax, Lake county.

CHIEF JUSTICE.—His Honor, Judge Prim, is again Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. He has been on the bench much longer than any of the other members, although, with one exception, they are also long in the service. Judge Prim's decisions have always commanded the greatest respect, and very few appeals have been made from his Court, while the reversions by the higher Court are still fewer. Of course his constituency feels proud of him.

A NEW ENTERPRISE.—A correspondent says a San Francisco company has purchased the fishery and mills of Riley & Stewart, Ellensburg, Curry county, and propose to run a light-draft steamer up Rogue river to the mouth of Illinois river, a distance of some forty miles. Our cotemporary sensibly suggests that the citizens of Curry, Josephine and Jackson counties unite and build a wagon road to the mouth of the Illinois river from Galice creek down Rogue river, or from Deer creek down Illinois river to its mouth, say 35 miles, and we will have an opening to the Coast and to San Francisco.

OF COURSE.—Col. J. N. T. Miller last week received a subpoena from Washington, requiring his attendance before "Mitchell's" smelling committee there, but it was countermanded soon after. Hon. Henry Klippel and other Democrats well acquainted with the INDIGNATION!!!

A SUBLIME EFFORT & GREAT SPEECH. Intimidation of the Democracy.

After a lapse of nearly two weeks, some exceedingly virtuous Republicans of Ashland finally got up to the indignating point over the Oregon electoral matter and exploded last Saturday evening. Such resolute and blowing off of 'indignation' was never before witnessed in this section. The audience (what there was of it) was called together by James Kilgore, and a string of resolutions after the Custom House plan was read and adopted. Governor Grover and several other prominent gentlemen were resolute out of political preferment and it was promulgated that they should never have any more offices. A true bill was found against the Canvassing Board, and it was decided that the Constitution had been grossly violated by said officials. (Shades of Boise, Pratt, Deady and Watson! Oh! where can you find a place to hide your diminished heads after this decision by these Ashland Solons?) Senator Grover was ordered to keep out of his seat, and a copy of this order was resolute to be sent to the illustrious Mitchell—with quotations—to see that it was carried out.

After the resolutions had been attended to, the rising young orator of jollification celebrity was loudly called for and amid storms of applause that rocked and shocked mother earth from the summit of the Cascades to the Pacific Ocean, he took the stand and poured forth in a gush of sublime patriotism and righteous indignation the following speech:

"Follow citizens: But—ah!"

After the enthusiasm over this soul-inspiring effort had somewhat subsided, Rev. J. H. Skidmore got up and belabored the offending officials some more, (after the precept of the Bible, you know), and was followed by W. Acrobat McPherson in his usual happy manner. Dr. Covert then held an inquest over the affair, and finding that the indignants were greatly relieved and in a fair way of recovery, the meeting adjourned until further instructions from headquarters at Portland.

Ashland, Dec. 19, 1876.

IN MEMORIAM.—At a regular meeting of Jacksonville Lodge No. 10, I. O. O. F., held on December 9, 1876, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That, in the death of brother Stacer, the Order has lost a bright Odd Fellow, and a true and worthy brother.

Resolved, That, while we deeply sympathize with the bereaved wife and family of the deceased, we commit them to the kind care and protection of Him, who doeth all things well.

Resolved, That, as a token of respect, our Lodge-room be draped and the members wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That a copy of those resolutions be sent under seal to the family of the deceased; also to Tehama Lodge No. 183, of California, and that a copy be furnished the county papers for publication.
