

SOCIAL DANCE.—A party will be given at the rooms of the Jacksonville Social Club next Monday evening, to which a general invitation is extended. Good music will be in attendance. Tickets, $1.

PETITION WITHDRAWN.—A petition to the Governor of Oregon, for the pardon of Daniel Doty, has been in circulation for some time past, which, we are informed, was withdrawn recently. We also learn that a remonstrance is in circulation, but we do not know how true it is.

R. A. M.—A number of Royal Arch Masons met at Odd Fellows' Hall, in Jacksonville, on January 20th, and inaugurated preliminary steps for organizing a Chapter in this place. All Royal Arch Masons in Jackson county are earnestly solicited to meet at Odd Fellows' Hall on Monday, the 29th, at 2 o'clock, P. M., to complete preliminary arrangements.

STAGE RUNAWAY.—On Sunday night, as the stage was descending the Siskiyou mountains, the brake failed to hold the wagon and, the horses becoming unmanageable, ran away in spite of the best efforts of Joe Goodwin, the driver. One animal was killed and the stage badly demoralized. Luckily no one was aboard. The driver escaped unhurt.

SCHOOL FUND INTEREST.—The attention of our readers is called to the notice of State Treasurer Brown. Those who have borrowed money of the local agents of the Board of School Land Commissioners, or of the State Treasurer, are requested to pay the interest due January 1, 1877, or suit will be instituted to foreclose mortgages. Read the advertisement elsewhere.

GRANGE INSTALLATION.—The following officers were installed at a meeting of Phoenix Grange No. 104, held on the 12th inst.: A. N. Jones, Worthy Master; John Coleman, Overseer; John S. Herrin, Lecturer; Henry Norton, Steward; W. H. Jacks, Assistant Steward; Miss A. H. Gore, Lady Assistant Steward; E. E. Gore, Chaplain; W. S. Gore, Treasurer; L. Colver, Recording Secretary; S. C. Taylor, Gate Keeper; Mrs. Wallace Bishop, Ceres; Mrs. L. Colver, Pomona; Mrs. Carrie Gore, Flora.

FUNERAL OF R. B. HARGADINE.—The body of this gentleman arrived at Ashland by private conveyance this week, and was interred on Thursday last, a large concourse following the remains to their last resting-place. Mr. Hargadine died in his room at the Forest City Hotel, Oakland, Cal., on the morning of Saturday, the 13th. He had packed up his trunk in anticipation of starting home some days previous to his death, but became so unwell as to be unable to proceed. His ailment was a disease of the heart, but he did not die suddenly on the street, as has been reported.

MYER VS. NEUBER.—This case consumed the attention of Justice Kent's Court for several days, and was finally decided in favor of the plaintiff last Monday night. It seems that some five years ago, while John Neuber was acting as County Treasurer, B. F. Myer advanced $100 on some school land, taking Mr. Neuber's receipt for the money. From the evidence adduced, Myer did not advance the balance due on the land, nor did he get the land. Some time since, he applied to the executrix of the estate to have the money refunded, which, being refused, suit was instituted. Two juries could not agree on a verdict, and the third finally rendered one for the full amount, after being out several hours.

CHINAMAN KILLED.—An affray occurred on Kane's creek, in the Willow Springs Mining District, last Sunday morning, between B. A. Knott and David Mardon and some Chinamen, which resulted in the death of one of the Mongolians. The trouble originated over the waters of that creek. Knott came to town and delivered himself up, and had an examination before Justice Kent this week. The evidence of the whites tends to show that the Chinamen were the aggressors and that the killing of Loy Foo by a rifle in the hands of Knott was justifiable. The testimony of the Chinamen was of an opposite character. The Justice discharged the defendant, and the case of Mardon, charged with being an accessory, was dismissed on motion of the Prosecuting Attorney.

Hon. A. H. Brown, State Treasurer, elsewhere advertises that he has funds to pay certain warrants and coupons. Read his notice and see if you are not interested. A quarterly meeting of the M. E. Church, South, will commence in Applegate Circuit, at Drake's school house, to-day, continuing to-morrow. Rev. J. R. N. Bell presides. The judgment held by McWilliams and Asn against B. F. Dowell having been stayed three months, the sale of property advertised to transpire last Monday did not come off.

That our readers may have their glasses ready in time, we herewith inform them that there will be a total eclipse of the moon on the 27th of February, visible in this country. Col. J. H. Reed and James S. Howard returned from Josephine county Wednesday last, where they have been attending to matters concerning the Colonel's mining interests there. The miners have little or no water as yet, with discouraging prospects of having much this season. The weather is very favorable for farmers, however, and a large crop is promised. Quite a number of people from Willow Springs and vicinity were in town this week, in attendance on the cases of Knott and Mardon, who were undergoing an examination in Justice Kent's Court for killing a Chinaman. Dr. Callender, County Coroner, held an inquest over the body of the Chinaman killed on Kane's creek. The verdict of the jury was that Loy Foo came to his death by a shot from a rifle in the hands of B. A. Knott.

Taxes are coming in very slow, not enough by considerable having been collected to pay our quota of the State and School tax. Sheriff Manning proposes going on the warpath, unless the tax-payers respond more promptly and on short notice. The parcels of land belonging to Jesse Richardson, Jesse Gage and H. A. Grigsby, advertised to be sold under foreclosure of mortgage, were bid in by Alex. Martin for Major Glenn. Five hundred dollars each were bid for the first two and $250 for the latter. Sealed proposals will be received at the office of the Commissary of Subsistence, Portland, and by the acting Commissary at the post, until February 13th next, for the delivery of 1,036 pounds of sugar-cured hams and 644 pounds of leaf lard at Fort Klamath. T. B. Merry, Esq., editor of the Seattle Dispatch, well known in Jacksonville, was united in matrimony to Miss Milne, a young and accomplished English lady, at Esquimaux, B. C., on the 18th. Tom, we wish you much joy for the remainder of your journey through life.

FIRE AT PHOENIX.—A destructive fire occurred at Phoenix last Wednesday night, which totally destroyed the store of Reames & Sargent and a warehouse belonging to the Grangers' Mill Company, filled with flour. It is supposed to be the work of an incendiary, (as no fire had been burning in the store stove the preceding afternoon,) and was first discovered at about one o'clock by James R. Reames, who was awakened by a loud noise, as of a roof falling in. Upon arising to ascertain the cause, he found the store entirely on fire and already too far consumed to save anything from it. Some time afterward, when further danger was supposed to be over, a small quantity of powder stored in the cellar of the store exploded and sent the cinders flying in all directions, some of which lodged on the Mill Company's warehouse opposite. A small blaze was at first noticed and an attempt made to extinguish it. But the wind was blowing so strong that, in less time than it takes to tell it, the whole structure was ablaze and past saving. A horse kept in the building was rescued just in season. Sol. Sachs, agent of the Home Mutual Insurance Company, informs us that Reames & Sargent were insured in this company for $3,000. Their loss will approximate $6,000, which is a heavy blow to them. The Post Office and its contents were, of course, also lost. The building was owned by Solon Colver, and is estimated to be worth $1,000, with no insurance. The Mill Company had 100,000 pounds of flour stored in their warehouse, and their loss is placed at near $3,000, also uninsured. This conflagration came near finishing the place.

GRANGE INSTALLATION.—At a special meeting of Josephine Grange No. 179, on January 13, 1877, the following officers were installed: Lafayette Allen, W. M.; F. G. Burns, O.; J. W. LARGEST FARM IN THE WORLD.—John Callaghan has placed us under obligations for a copy of the Colusa (Cal.) Star, in which is given a description of the celebrated Glenn farm, known also as the largest farm in the world. It is owned by Dr. Hugh Glenn, a brother of Major James T. Glenn. We append a brief synopsis of the description, from which our readers can draw an idea of the magnitude of the Doctor's possessions and farming operations: Dr. Glenn owns all the Jacinto Grant, extending from the mouth of Stony creek four Spanish leagues down the river, and two leagues back from the river, and a portion of the Larkin's Children Rancho, adjoining the above on the south, making a total of 55,000 acres. Below Jacinto, the land between the river and the road is principally timber land; on the west of the road there are some scattering trees, but it is pretty much all farmed. The land west of the road—over 40,000 acres—is included in one fence, with cross fences running through it, both from east to west and from north to south. There are about 150 miles of fence on the place. The lower half of the farm is all rich alluvial land; the upper half is level prairie land, but red, and contains, in places, some gravel; but it is all the finest quality of wheat land. In addition to extensive farming mentioned, Dr. Glenn has 16,000 sheep, 300 of them imported; 250 head of cattle, 20 of them imported; besides all his horses and work stock.

Dr. Glenn made his first purchase of 7,000 acres on the Jacinto grant on the 25th of November, 1867, at $1.60 per acre; and a short time after he purchased about 7,000 acres more. He then kept on buying "what joined him" on either side until he absorbed all the Jacinto grant and a large portion of Larkin's Children's Rancho. As land advanced in price, he paid more. So, for his present farm he paid all the way from $1.60 to $30 per acre. Last year Dr. Glenn farmed about 15,000 acres himself, and rented some 10,000 acres each to Geo. W. Hong, Pike Gupton and Isaac Bayless. He has shipped this year 18,000 tons of wheat. His property is assessed at $708,799.
