A CHANGE DEMANDED.

General Howard may be a success as a "Christian" soldier; but he has proven himself a monstrous failure as an Indian fighter of the stripe now in great demand in the Idaho war. Jo. seph and his compatriots have generally been successful in the encounters that have taken place, and are no neartr capture at present than they ever were. We doubt very much if, upon examination, the victories General Howard heralds with such a flourish of trumpets are as brilliant as he would have us believe they were. They occurred too opportunely to be altogether above the suspicion that they were originated with the intention of keeping the General in his position when the authorities were seriously considering superseding him with General Crook for his glaring inefficiency. Prompt and decisive action could have almost quelled the insurrection by this time and perhaps saved some precious lives sacrificed, and we hold that Genble therefor.

To read the dispatches from camp for the past few days an unsophisticated outsider would suppose that the Indians were about being surrounded and placed in position to be mowed down by the Gatling guns. But, from the following brought by a volunteer to Lewiston on the 15th, it will be seen that Joseph has again hood winked the venerable General and made tracks for a new country:

Capt. McConville with his volunteers, and side of Kamia, when a messenger overtook saying that Joseph had sent word to Gen. Howard that he wanted to surrender himself and go on the reservation. Upon the receipt of this dispatch a halt was ordered at 6 P. M. word had come that while Joseph and Gen. Howard were parleying, Joseph's force made their escape and Joseph himself tollowed them. It was thought by some that they took the Loio trail, and by others that they crossed Weiser camp grounds and went towards the torks of the Clearwater, and that General Howard had now become convinced that Joseph's proposition to surforce to get away.

How long such warfare will be continued it is difficult to imagine. We have little confidence in General Howard as an Indian fighter, and the soon er Crook is sent to take his place so much sooner will the disturbance be quelled and human life once more be safe in that section.

Mexico.

The Mexicans are getting troublesome on the California border, and have captured seventeen citizens down there, including a sheriff who went to rescue some wounded boys. It is not at all unlikely that a war will occur between that country and this ere long, and then some more Mexican territory will be annexed. The Boston Journal, Hayes' organ, seems to favor annexation, and ridicules Blaine's objections as stated in his Woodstock speech. It says there is less danger of Mexico being Democratic than Canada East, where the papers are now and have always been Democratic sympathizers. It says the people over there would be Democratic just as the most northern county in Maine is solidly so now, and, if Blaine is afraid of increasing Democratic strength, he had better oppose Canadian rather than Mexican an nexation.

Not a Candidate.

The New York Sun prints the statement that Mr. Tilden is not a candidate for the office of United States Senator in the place now occupied by Roscoe Conkling. The reason that Mr. Tilden cannot be a candidate "is that he amended in many particulars, to keep has been elected by the people to be President of the United States. Out of that election he has been defrauded by a crime not yet punished or atoned for. If he were to seek or accept any other office during the term for which he was thus elected the act would amount to a condonement of the crime, and to a submission toward those by whom it was perpetrated."

The Investigation Closed.

al Commission has disbanded. The deep laid plot of Mitchipple and his Federal flunkies has ignominiously failed. and they are revealed in all their hideousness and disgrace. Senator Grover's election has been proven a model of fairness and honesty. He walks forth from this ruthless investigation vindicated as few have been before him.
