SORROW.

Out of darkness cometh dawning,
Songs and mirth e'er follow mourning;
The peak where latest lingers light,
Will soonest drop the robes of night.
So, Sorrow's crown of thorns in time,
Shall bloom in buds and flowers divine.

Friend Sorrow! sweet tho' sad thou art;
Comet of our lives take thou a part.
The soil can ne'er yield ample crop
Till plow and harrow break it up.
Break thou their hearts, and gently rain
The tears of love upon our pain.

Sweet sister! lend a guiding hand
To clench Life's hill, till set we stand;
For better thou with mournfulness
Than pleasure's empty promises.
From God, meek angel, thou dost come,
To lead His weary children home.

Behind the cloud still shines the sun;
Life but begins, when life is done.
Oh, why rebel beneath the rod?
When wielded by the hand of God?
For when His promise shines least clear,
He smiles to bless His children dear.

Sorrow endures for a night—
Joy comes with the morning light;
With seven-hundred radiance in the sky,
The Bow of Promise beams on high.
Bear thou thy grief, nor count its loss,
In Heaven's thou't change for Crown thy Cross.

GENERAL NOTES AND NEWS.

If a man sits down on a task he generally rises to remark.

Blessed is the man who never says his mother's pleasure better than his wife's.

A number of fast race horses are expected from California to participate in the coming State Fair.

If you think you are too tall, marry an extravagant woman, and you will soon find yourself short enough.

This is the latest form of wedding invitations: "Come and see me capture a mother-in-law at 8 o'clock, sharp."

A dealer in ready-made linen advertises his shirts and chemises under the mellifluous appellation of "male and female envelopes."

There are now confined in the State penitentiary one hundred and four convicts. The authorities are looking for two or three more next week.

Last year 29,500 new farms were opened up in the United States and Territories. There is no need to feel impatient, the country will be settled in time.

Any lady can press her old bonnet over into the new summer style by placing it on a pavement block and let a loaded ice wagon back over it lengthwise.

The Warm Spring Indians are to be employed by the Government to aid in hunting down Joseph and his band. Joseph is now fleeing through the Lolo trail to Montana.

If Barnum shouldn't succeed in finding Charlie Ross he might try his hand at looking up an honest Indian agent. Such a curiosity would be a great attraction in a live show.

The wheat growers met in council in San Francisco on the 13th ult. The most important part of their proceedings was the adoption of a resolution to ship wheat the coming season through the granger agency in that city.

What agonies must the poet have endured who, writing of his love, asserted that he "kissed her under the silent stars," and found that the composer had made him declare that he "kicked her under the celestial stairs."

It is estimated that $500,000 have been paid this year by Oregon dealers in agricultural implements for freight alone. One firm in Salem has paid $55,000 for this purpose. Surely this is an inducement for the building of manufacturers.

Daniel Baker, editor of the Clarion (Iowa) Leader and a member of the Legislature of that State, is traveling through Oregon, and was at Albany the other day. He says it is probable several hundred Iowans of his section may come to our State this fall.

I am willing to rock the baby while women folks are boiling soap; I am ready to cut rags to work into rag carpets; they can keep me hunting hen's eggs, or picking green karruts; or I will even dip candles and core apples for sass, but I won't churn—Josh Billings.

"Don't put too much confidence in a lover's vows and sighs," said Mrs. Partington to her niece; "let him tell you that you have lips like strawberries and cream, cheeks like a tarnation, and eyes like an asterisk; but such things often come from tender heads than a tender heart."

A woman is worth either a good deal or nothing. If good for nothing, she is not worth getting jealous over; if she is a good woman, she will give no cause for jealousy. A man is a brute to be jealous of a good woman—a fool to be jealous of a worthless one; but a double fool to cut his throat for either of them.

Even postal cards may get a man into perplexities. As a recent consequence of a young man's misdirection of a couple of them, a Syracuse shirt firm got an invitation to take a carriage ride by moonlight and the gallant's girl was requested to send him a sample of the stuff of which her shirts were made.

A survey of the falls of the Yamhill river at Lafayette has been made, and the fact disclosed that locks costing $12,000 will raise the water so that boats can go to McMinnville during the Summer as in the Winter season. Parties are ready to furnish the money necessary to complete the improvement. It is thought that by the middle of October the work will be completed.

Recently a very modest young Boston lady, who wanted a pair of garters, addressed the shopman thus: "It is my desire to obtain a pair of circular appendages, capable of being contracted or expanded by means of oscillating burnished steel appliances that sparkle like particles of gold leaf set with Alaska diamonds, and which are utilized for retaining in proper position the habiliments of the lower extremities, which innate delicacy forbids me to mention."

A farmer in San Joaquin county, Cal., has invented a machine which at one operation cuts, threshes and sacks grain at the rate of thirty acres a day. Four men and twelve horses do the work. The machine cuts a swath sixteen feet. As the sacks are filled and sown up they are dropped on the ground, and subsequently hauled to the warehouse. This prodigy of labor-saving machinery is not a theory or an experiment, but it is an actual operation. The cost of cutting, threshing and sacking is said to be only fifty cents on an acre.

Coughs and Colds.

From Samuel A. Walker, Esq., the well-known Real Estate Auctioneer of Boston: "Having experienced results of a satisfactory character from the use of WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, in cases of severe colds, during the past two years, I have full faith in its renovating power. I was first induced to try this medicine by the strong recommendation of a friend, who was well-nigh gone with consumption, and whose relief from the use of it satisfied me of its great value. This medicine, I believe, and most clearly demonstrated to my mind its great value as a restorative, that only needs a fair trial to insure a grateful recognition from the public." Sold by all druggists.

Important to all Invalids. Iron in the Blood.

THE PERUVIAN OIL is a protected solution of the peroxide of iron, strikes at the root of disease by supplying the blood with its vital principle, or life element—iron. This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhoea, Boils, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Sold by all druggists.
