WIN AND WEAR.

There is no royal road to greatness;
Men must ever climb to fame;
All the wealth in misers' coffers
Would not buy a deathless name.
Is a noble goal before you?
Would you great achievements bear?
On the way you should not falter—
Brothers, you must "Win and Wear."

Toil and labor, never stopping
"Till you make the prize your own;
For you know 'tis constant dropping
Wears away the hardest stone.
Never slack sublime endeavor,
Nor 'mid cheerless toil despair;
If you'd rise above your fellows,
Brothers, you must "Win and Wear."

'Tis the hardest lesson Nature teaches
All through her wide domain;
And the text from which she preaches
Is that "Labor leads to Gain."
Moral worth and honest merit—
Better crowns than monarchs bear—
These you never can inherit—
Brothers, you must "Win and Wear."

KENTUCKY SWEETS.

Cream and peaches once a week—
Kiss your girl on the right hand cheek;
Apples green and apples dried—
Kiss her on the other side.

That evinces wretched taste.
Take your girl about the waist;
Lift her to her pink toe-tips;
And plant it squarely on her lips.

Tyros in the art of bliss,
Neither knowing how to kiss!
Gently press her to your breast,
Part the rosy lips and rest.

GENERAL NOTES AND NEWS.

Hillsboro has the Gypsies.
Portland will have two theatres running this winter.

The Hawkeye calls the President's trip "the boss bum."
Doctors frequently run their business into the ground.

A squash 7 feet long is on exhibition at the Holton House, Portland.

Joseph has been captured. It is Joseph Bradley, however.

Song of the baker—"I knead thee every hour." The first note of the song is Dough.

The Chinese adieu is "Chin-chin," and so is a good share of the American ado.

The Democratic State Convention of New York will be held at Albany, October 3d.

About half the fashion plates sent out from Paris are colored in the prisons by female convicts.

Several newspaper men have been swindled by the new counterfeit five thousand dollar bill.

Brigham Young leaves nineteen wives and forty-five children—twenty-nine girls and sixteen boys.

If the mosquito who left our nose in such a hurry that he forgot his bill, will call, he can have it, and no questions will be asked.

Here is a bit of severity from the Boston Post: "Hayes says his father was a blacksmith. He never forged election returns, though."

A Chicago clergyman says that "God never intended that any man should have $1,000,000," but we do not propose to give up a cent.

The money presented to the Pope by pilgrims during the jubilee amounted to $3,300,000. Of this sum $1,840,000 was gold; the remainder in paper.

An eccentric clergyman lately said in one of his sermons that about the commonest proof we have that man is made of clay is the brick so often found in his hat!

If Stanley Matthews is, as a Radical paper in Iowa styles him, a monumental political fraud, what sort of a specimen of statuary is Rutherford B. Hayes?

The University of Georgia has graduated six Governors, twenty-six United States Senators and Congressmen, forty-nine judges, and 257 legislators.

A Cincinnati widow advertised for "every Christian in the city" to send her ten cents. She realized twenty cents, indicating an unexpectedly large number of Christians in that city.

In a late style of marriage announcements only the names of the bride and clergyman appear. As civilization advances, the groom becomes of less and less importance on such occasions.

Frank Leslie, the popular periodical publisher, has failed for $300,000. He has made an assignment of his property. His embarrassments were occasioned by extensive investments in real estate.

An Iowa paper tells us of a smart wife who helped her husband to raise seventy acres of wheat. The way she helped him was to stand in the door and shake a broom at him when he sat down to rest.

A band of 400 horses, the property of Mr. Varney, of Madison valley, twenty-five miles from Virginia City, was "swooped up" by Joseph's warriors and driven off in the direction of the National Park.

Lame Deer's band of Indians have surrendered, which clears the Black Hills and Big Horn country of hostile Sioux. The number surrendered by Lame Deer was about 400.

John Taylor, one of the most bitter religious fanatics in Mormondom, has been chosen president of the twelve Apostles and acting president of the Mormon Church, until the new president is elected.

On account of the low price of coal in San Francisco, says the Coos Bay News, caused by the large quantities of foreign coal brought in ballast, the mines on Coos Bay have, for the last six months, run at an actual loss.

The life of Brigham Young, the Chicago Times thinks, contains an example which the rising youth of the country would do well to imitate. He was a poor young man and started with only one wife. But as the result of frugal, industrious, and economical habits he leaves at his death no less than nineteen.

One of the most beautiful characteristics of woman is the unswerving confidence she places in her husband. But we have observed that when a married man goes home with a light deposit of pearl powder on his left shoulder it is merely prudence to observe that he had stopped on the way up to play a game of checkers in the flour store on the corner.

We learn that the North American Review for July and August has already passed through eight editions—a thing never before heard of in the history of this venerable periodical. Of course this success is mainly due to Judge Black's article on the Electoral Conspiracy. Brother Everts, the leading counsel for the Fraud, and one of its chief beneficiaries, should write an article in reply, and let the world see how many editions that will be capable of going through.

—N. Y. Sun.

LONG FINGER NAILS.—Chinese and Siam aristocrats invariably wear long finger nails. The disfigurement is supposed to add to the importance of the individual, as it is evident that the wearer cannot do any work, and must, therefore, be a person of elegant leisure, backed by a fortune corresponding to the length of his nails. The hand of an Annamite dandy has nails four or five inches in length. The thumb-nail has a characteristic shape, and that of the first finger is cut short to enable the person to pick up small objects. Without this slight alteration the hands would be nearly useless. Nails of still greater enormity may be seen. They are said to have attained the extraordinary length of thirteen inches, and in this instance the nail of the first finger is not entirely cut off.

Titans and Men.

"Blessed are the meek," exclaims the voice of inspiration; but can a man be meek with the consciousness that a dreaded monster is consuming his vitals? We are not a race of Titans, & Prometheus might stand chained to the torturing rock with a vulture perpetually gnawing his liver, and his face ever wear an expression of heroic and even meek endurance. But Prometheus has left no descendants. With vultures (disease) consuming his liver, the modern man makes himself and every one around him miserable. Fretful, gloomy, hypochondriacal, he sees the world and life all on the wrong side—the dark side—and whoever dares to assert that there is a sunny side regards as an enemy, or at best a mocker of his imaginary woes. Unlike the mythical Titan, the victim of disease is not successful. There is an arm to rescue—a hand to cleanse and heal. As remedies for this most depressing of all diseases,—"Liver Complaint,"—none are more efficient or popular than Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Purgative Pellets. The Pellets effectually remove the effete and poisonous matter while the Medical Discovery imparts strength and health to the entire system. They are sold by druggists.

From a Physician.

Hyde Park, Vt., Feb. 7, 1876.
Messrs. Seth W. Fowle & Sons, Boston:
Gents—You may perhaps remember that I wrote you several weeks ago in regard to the use of the PERUVIAN SYRUP for my wife, who was suffering from general debility, the sequence of Typhoid Dysentery. I had tried the most noted physicians in this state, and also in Canada, without relief. At your recommendation she commenced the use of the Syrup. The first four bottles made but little impression, but while taking the fifth she began to improve rapidly, and now, after using six of the dollar bottles, she has regained her strength, and is able to do most of the work about the house; and I feel that I cannot speak too highly in praise of the PERUVIAN SYRUP. I have presented it to several of my patients, and procured the sale of several dozen of it here. You can make any use of this letter you see fit. Yours very truly, H. D. BELDEN, M. D.

"It's only a Cough"
has brought many to untimely graves. What is a cough? The lungs or bronchial tubes have been attacked by a cold; nature sounds an alarm-bell, telling where the disease lies. Wisdom suggests, "try Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry;" it has cured during the last half of a century, thousands upon thousands of persons. As long as you cough, there is danger, for the cough is a Safety Valve. Use "Wistrans" and be cured. Sold by all druggists.

LEGAL ADVERTISEMENTS.

Administrator's Sale of Real Estate.
In the matter of the estate of Evin Taylor, deceased.

IN PURSUANCE OF AN ORDER AND license of the County Court of the State of Oregon, for Josephine county, sitting for the transaction of probate business at the September term, 1877, the undersigned, administrator of the estate of Evin Taylor, deceased, will sell as follows: On a credit, of six months at the Court House door in Kerbyville, in said county, on
