Dear Sir—From early youth I was in feeble health, troubled with humor in my blood, weakness and debility of the system generally; was unable to labor much, and only at some light business, and then only with great caution.

From S. Thatcher, N. D. of Hermon, N. Y. "WINTER'S BALM OF WILD CHERRY gives universal satisfaction. It seems to cure a cough by loosening and clearing the lungs, and allaying irritation, thus removing the cause, instead of drying up the cough and leaving the cause behind."
