UNIVERSITY FUND, The amount of this fund left by the Republicans for the Democrats to "mismanage" and "rob," to quote from the Republican platform, was as follows:

Amount of coin loaned (see Rep. Board, 1870, p. 11) $3,017 54; Amount of currency loaned (see Rep. Board, 1870, p. 11) 4,880 00; Amount of coin of hand as per Treas. Rep. 1870 273 72.

Total amount in 1870 only $7,971 26. There was due $2,205 39, as interest on this sum, but not collected in 1870, which should not be added to the irreducible fund loaned, as it made to appear in the report same p. 11.

THE MEMPHIS APPEAL thinks that two more years of courage, endurance and pluck will give the Democrats a President, the United States Senate, the House of Representatives, a solid South, and about one-half of the North and Western States.

WE ARE FULLY PREPARED TO DO all kinds of Painting, including HOUSE PAINTING, SIGN PAINTING, ORNAMENTAL PAINTING, WAGON AND CARRIAGE PAINTING, ALL STYLES OF GRADING DONE.

THE SCHOOL FUND UNDER DEMOCRATIC ADMINISTRATION.

PORTLAND May 6, 1878. TO THE EDITOR OF THE STANDARD:—These are matters of general public interest independent of their relation to the canvass.

the School Fund, and consequently got the two funds in some instances, mixed. STATEMENT OF THE FUND.

Amount in 1870 $ 7,071 26; Amount in 1872 (Rep. of Board, p. 103) 41,979 74; Amount in 1874 (Rep. of Board, p. 93) 58,380 87; Amount in 1876 (Rep. of Board, p. 11) 75,400 20; Amount in 1878 68,794 38.

It is claimed that the amount reported in 1876 was too great, because certain parts of it were not paying interest, for instance the loan to A. Meyers of $10,000, about which so much has been said.

Thousands of dollars of interest, on loans made by county local agents, was uncollected. In many cases the interest was three and four years behind.

The law requiring the interest on this fund to be collected and annually distributed among the several counties in proportion to the children in each between four and twenty years of age, was passed October, 1866, yet not a dollar was ever so distributed until the Democracy took charge.

Under the Democratic Administration there has been distributed, including 1877, $246,885 40. The fund has thus been assisting to support the schools in all the districts of the State where schools are maintained.

STATEMENT OF IRREDUCIBLE FUND. Amount in Sept., 1870 $306,420 40; Amount in 1872 (Rep. of Board, p. 101) 454,224 03; Amount in 1874 (Rep. of Board, p. 92) 504,216 46; Amount in 1876 (Rep. of Board, p. 10) 525,484 40; Amount of increase since Sept., 1870 $179,300 00; Total amount of irreducible fund now 535,484 40; To which if we add interest distributed 246,885 40; Total $782,369 80.

The above is the amount the fund would now be if no distribution of it had been made, or an increase during Democratic management, including interest of $475,879 40, or a clear increase of the irreducible principal of $229,994.

The charge of "straw securities" is based upon the loans made to J. B. McClane, A. Meyers and the West Portland Home-tend Association.

These loans were made upon the certificates of County School Superintendents, certifying the value of the lands offered as security. In each of these cases the appraisal and certificate upon which the loan was made was a Republican.

The loan to McClane was made upon certificates of two different Superintendents, one of whom was Rev. L. J. Powell, present candidate on the Republican State ticket for Superintendent of Public Instruction.

MONEY it is said notwithstanding the stringency of the times was never before so plentiful. The vaults of the various monetary institutions are filled to repletion.

THE SALES of public lands yielded, in 1874, $1,852,428; in 1875, $1,413,640; in 1876, $1,126,466; and in 1877, $986,253. This is an average of about $1,224,000 a year.

A COUNTRY youth, who desired to know how to become rich, sent a shilling in answer to an advertisement, and received the following valuable recipe: "Increase your receipts, and decrease your expenditures. Work eighteen hours a day and live on hash and oat-meal gruel."

POLITICS IN LAKE COUNTY.

LAKEVIEW, May 12, 1878. TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES: The political ball was opened last evening by Hon. D. W. Cheesman, independent candidate for Representative, in a public speech at this place.

He stated that he had been accused of being a Democrat, but that accusation was false. That he did two years ago accept a position on the Democratic ticket, but that was for the purpose of accomplishing a certain object; that object being accomplished, viz: the removal of the county seat to this place, he was no longer a Democrat, but a Republican of the Sumner type.

He stated that he had been cheated out of the Republican nomination by the Land Office ring, composed of Evans, Conn, Watson and the little mogul of the Republican party, J. A. Moon; that proxies instructed for him had been suppressed, or rather smothered. He then read a letter which he received from Moon during the last session of the Legislature, advising him to vote for Grover for U. S. Senator; also one from Receiver Geo. Conn, endorsing his action in the last Legislature.

Mr. Cheesman then paid a glowing tribute to President Hayes, Secretary Evarts and Schurz, and wound up by promising, that if elected, to support female suffrage, temperance and every other measure that would tend to make the people better, purer and holier.

He was followed by Mr. Moon, who stated his opinions in a very forcible manner. He could not see what right Cheesman had to read his private letters in public; thought it was a breach of the rules of decency; he could not see what claim Cheesman had upon the Republican party; he thought that, because the Democrats would not have him, he had no right to force himself upon the Republicans.

The speaker thought the best thing that could be done with Mr. Cheesman was to give him a bunch of matches and let him start a little hell of his own.

In response to calls, C. B. Watson arose and made a few very pertinent remarks. He said that Mr. Cheesman was mistaken, to use no harsher term, when he asserted that the proxies from the west end of the county were instructed for him; that he (Watson) used four of the proxies in the Republican convention, and he knew that none of them were instructed for Cheesman.

The speaker then announced that he would speak next Tuesday evening upon the political situation and the Republican candidates.

C. A. Cogswell was called upon, who arose and thanked the audience for calling him out, but stated that as this seemed to be a Republican quarrel he thought it would be in bad taste for a Democrat to take any hand in it.

Mr. Cheesman then announced that he would stump the county, and invited both the Democratic and Republican candidates to follow him, promising to make it the liveliest campaign ever known in Lake county.
