TO THE PUBLIC.

We, the undersigned, having read the leader in the Oregon Sentinel of May 29, 1878, headed "Fitness for Office," would state as a simple act of justice to Mr. Plymale that we are personally well acquainted with him, and that his education fully qualifies him to fill the office of County Clerk; and, with the practice which he will have after July next, he will conduct the business of the office with credit to himself and friends.

NOT TO BE OVERLOOKED.

In the heat of our local campaign Democrats should not overlook the fact that we have a full set of State officers to elect. Our nominees are known to be men of ability, integrity and personal worth. There is not one of them, from Governor down, but what merits the support of every Democrat and the conservative masses in general. The Democratic State ticket is in every way vastly superior to its competitors. We challenge a comparison as between them and invite an individual canvass of the qualifications of the various candidates.

Hon. W. W. Thayer, for Governor, is an eminent lawyer, of undoubted integrity, and unquestionably the man for the place.

Honest John Whiteaker is recognized by even his opponents as one who will serve the people in Congress with zeal, ability and diligence.

Thos. G. Reames combines all the qualities that go to make a splendid Secretary of State.

For State Treasurer, Hon. A. H. Brown is again presented. He has gained an enviable reputation as a capable, conscientious and first-class officer generally.

A. Noltner will make a very acceptable State Printer. He is fully identified with the art preservative and is well acquainted with the requirements of the position.

Last, but not least, is T. J. Stites, candidate for Superintendent. A better nomination could not have been made. An Albany correspondent fully sets forth his claims to the place on our first page.

Let Jackson county give the whole ticket a rousing majority.

For Senator and Representatives.

Democrats should not lose sight of their legislative ticket. A successor of J. H. Mitchell is to be elected and every vote counts. Our candidates for the Legislature are known to be men well qualified. Col. Miller, for Senator, has had one term's experience in the position and will make us a first-class officer. A better nomination for Representative than Wm. M. Colvig could not be made. He possesses all the attributes of a valuable member of the House, which he will certainly be. Mr. Crain has served us once before and has established the reputation of being a conscientious and diligent legislator, who knows just how to vote. Give them all a rousing majority.

THE PLAIN DUTY OF DEMOCRATS.

Democrats, remember that next Monday is the day of election. The result of that election will decide the polity of the State and nation. Jackson county has been selected by the opposition as the place to make their great fight for the ascendancy in the United States Senate, and it is conceded that, if the Democracy loses the legislative ticket in this county, the opportunity of electing a Democratic Senator in Oregon is lost. Let Democrats consider this fact in all its bearing.

The Republican party has controlled the legislation of the country for the period of seventeen years; hence is responsible for the same.

Four years ago the Democratic party assumed control of the lower House of Congress. They have kept that ascendancy since, during which time the expenses of the Government have been reduced over $45,000,000 annually. The wholesale plundering of the U. S. Treasury has been stopped and the backbone of class legislation broken. Yet there is much left undone; and, in order to enable the House to bring about a full measure of relief for the people, we must also have control of the U. S. Senate.

We are now on the threshold of success, and if we remain true to ourselves victory will perch upon our banners. Let Democrats remember that the Radical majority in the U. S. Senate enabled Hayes to usurp the Presidency. It enabled the leaders of the Republican party to stifle the clear and unequivocal expression of a vast majority of freemen, and took from them an honest and fairly won victory. Let Democrats note the fact that the Presidential stool could not have been perched on the American people without that Republican majority in the U. S. Senate. Two years will soon pass and we will be called upon to vote for another President. What guarantee will or can the people have that this same robbery will not again obtain? These are momentous and stubborn facts, and it behooves every lover of his country to ponder them well.

This is the principal issue you must decide at the ballot-box NEXT MONDAY. You are called upon to either rebuke or tacitly endorse this terrible crime against American liberty. Yea, more than that: You are called upon to decide whether that U. S. Senate shall remain Radical and whether J. H. Mitchell, one of the chief conspirators in the Presidential steal, shall again disgrace the people of Oregon in the councils of the nation.

It is a duty we owe to ourselves and to posterity to do all in our power to thwart the recurrence of such a gigantic and outrageous wrong. Democrats of Oregon have the golden opportunity to throttle the hydra-headed monster, and Jackson county is one of the strategic points of the battle-field. The opposition have staked their all to defeat the Democratic ticket of this county, and men of Jackson, we appeal to you to consider the importance of this election. Do not be swayed from your plain duty by the many puerile and silly lies manufactured by the opposition. You have the chance to strike the decisive blow. DON'T FAIL TO DO IT.

On the Lookout.

We learn that several of the Republican Greenbackers in this county now propose sneaking back to their first love and vote the Republican State ticket, having deceived all the Democrats possible into this Greenback delusion. This is what may have been expected. We all along contended that this would be done, and advised Democrats to beware of the traps set for them. This new-fangled movement cannot hope for the smallest success, and for Democrats to insist in it is the sheerest nonsense. It directly aids the natural enemy of the Democracy, the Republicans, and that is certainly enough to condemn it with them.

However, a prominent Greenbacker says that he has confidence in the sincerity of the Republicans in that movement, and informs us that they shall show their hand on election day. If they prove faithless, a general stampede of Democrats in the cause to the old party will follow.

Pass It Around.

Wm. M. Turner, the editor of Bro. Beekman's organ, is endeavoring to do a lively business in the way of swapping votes. He has impudently a number of Democrats to trade, offering to vote for any candidate on the Democratic ticket for a vote for Beek. Democrats should not be caught on a pin-book by this very astute political trickster. DON'T SWAP.

Campaign Duties.

Mart. Brown is issuing the Democrat daily during the campaign, and is making a red-hot and effective sheet of it.

Bro. Turner, of the East Oregonian, who is never behindhand, also issues a daily. He is making a splendid fight for the Democratic ticket.

For Treasurer.

The Democratic nominee for Treasurer, Neuman Fisher, is an established merchant of this place, who is well known throughout the county. None can say aught against him, and, as he is well qualified for the position, the voters will do well in electing him by a handsome majority.

BECKMAN AND EARHART IN LAKE COUNTY.

AN OLD-LINE REPUBLICAN ANALYZES THEM.

MERRICKSNER, May 28, 1878.

To THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES: I have written to a reliable friend in Portland and satisfied myself as to Mr. Thayer's disinterestedness in swamp land, and I shall support Mr. Thayer and Mr. Reames—not because they are Democrats, but because I am satisfied they are honest, conscientious men, whose selfish grasping greed has not, and will not, prompt them to engage in perpetrating frauds upon the people.

Mr. Reames I have known for over twenty-four years. We were boys and school-fellows together, and during my acquaintance with him have never known or heard aught against his honesty and integrity.

Had Mr. Beekman desired to do what strict justice demanded of him in relation to lands in contest between settlers and the State to lands whereon he has a swamp land filing, he could have done so at any time during the past seven years. In one or two instances the lands he claims were occupied for a year or more before any swamp land bill ever passed the Oregon Legislature. Mr. B. could not be ignorant of the fact.

His course in conniving for, and in accepting the nomination of Governor, shows him to be lacking in modesty as well as frankness. The course of the Sentinel, under the control of such a two-faced double-dealing scoundrel as Turner, could not help being inconsistent. Before Convention it refused to publish any article tending to warn the people against the nomination of Mr. Beekman on the ground that he was not, and would not be, a candidate for that office. And to blind the people still further, Mr. B. came out in a card to the same effect. At the same time, and for a year or more previous, Mr. B. and his partners had been manipulating the wires to secure that very nomination.

The Sentinel says truly when it states that Mr. B. is not a politician. Nor will he ever be such. A man who has become by habit and association a political wire-puller, and seeks office to accomplish base personal ends, is debared by nature from ever discharging the duties of a public officer in the welfare of the public and the sacrifice of personal ends to accomplish public benefactions.

There are few Republicans with stomachs stout enough to swallow the dish of crow, "Beek" and all, dished up by our State convention. Earhart, a swamp land filer himself, and the secretary of the former Surveyor-General who was the tool of the swamp land ring to undo the work of former Surveyor-Generals and aid his friends in their wholesale land grabbing, has no more claim upon our votes than Mr. Beekman, and both have courted the defeat which awaits them.

Is it not a little curious that swamp land Democrats advocate Beekman's claims? Is it not also a little singular that one of Beekman & Co.'s ex parte affidavits, men has the nomination of the people's ticket for State Senator, when his only recommendation is his subservience to the wishes of his managers?

While desiring the success of the principles of a free and independent party, my vote shall never knowingly be given to a man whose principles and practices are at variance with the declared principles of republicanism, and whom I believe to have secured his nomination or selfish gain by the use of an inconsistent, tricky Republican.

Hoping for the success of two of your candidates, I remain,

Very truly yours,

O. A. STEARNS.

Choose Ye Between Them.

The Republican and Democratic candidates for Secretary of State are R. P. Earhart and our fellow townsman, T. G. Reames. The former is recognized as an easy-going, accommodating clerk, with nothing particular to recommend him for the important office he seeks. He is considered by even his party friends as a constitutional failure, never having achieved any success until he found his level as Ben. Simpson's chief clerk. Such staunch Republicans as John H. Moores, D. McCally, of Salem, and others, deem him as possessing no determination of character and not entitled to the confidence of the people. Mr. Reames is too well known to need an eulogium at our hands. Everybody recognizes him as a man of executive ability, financial judgment and general competency for the position he aspires to. Democrats not alone will vote for him. He deserves the votes of the conservative masses and will receive many of them—especially in Jackson county.

Very Silly.

We have for four consecutive weeks advertised the ballots, nearly all in the same handwriting, that he claims to hold of the Democratic party as being in possession of Mr. Kubli.—Sentinel. "Jes' so." You have been persisting in this silly falsehood for just "four consecutive weeks." We have already considered this statement as a ridiculous fabrication, made for effect and too contemptible to notice. We now offer $20 in gold for any ten of those ballots that appear in the same handwriting and defy anyone to produce them. Either "put up or shut up."

Rather Sensitive.

Our Republican friends are exercised over the TIMES styling Beekman a demagogue. Webster defines the word to mean "an artful politician." The definition describes Beek. to a dot and Republicans need only to call to memory his exceedingly transparent card of declination, published just before the Republican State Convention, to be convinced of it.

For County Commissioners.

The people of Jackson county cannot do better than elect John O'Brien and John Daley as Commissioners. They are fully identified with our every interest, well acquainted with the various requirements of our population, and are withal just the men to manage our county affairs. They should by all means be elected.

THE CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR.

Beekman's private secretary begs the question. In his organ he desires to leave the inference that the TIMES has made personal warfare on his master. The facts are to the contrary. The TIMES has been the most temperate of all of Mr. Beekman's opponents, without any reason for its being so. What we have said against him none of his supporters presume to deny, and we could have legitimately gone further had we deemed it worth the while. Mr. Beekman is not so immaculate but what his claims to the position he seeks can be disputed, especially when his opponent is a man of sterling worth and eminent qualifications. We have the kindest of feelings for Mr. Beekman. And, in the discussion of his merits and demerits our position as a public journalist makes incumbent on us, an absence of partisan spleen and a strict observance of the facts have always prevailed.

This State has grown to such proportions that its interests are many and varied, and the executive must necessarily be qualified to determine many intricate questions which are certain to present themselves during every Governor's administration. Every measure or law passed by the Legislature must be scrutinized, approved, or vetoed by the Governor, and in order to do so understandingly the incumbent should have a thorough knowledge and be acquainted with the fundamental principles of government. Mr. Thayer is one of the ablest constitutional lawyers in the State, and is thoroughly qualified to grapple with every question that may arise during his administration. He will not be compelled to procure others to prepare his State papers, while his many other excellent qualities go to make him especially the man for the place.

"One by One the Roses Fall."

T. F. Campbell having declined the nomination for Congressman on the Greenback State ticket, his action is followed by E. R. Sutherland, who, in a letter to the chairman of their executive committee, says: As I cannot fully endorse the platform of your party, I hereby beg leave to decline the nomination for the office of State Treasurer, tendered me by said party in convention at Albany, April 30.

The Greenbackers, having no candidates for Congressman or State Treasurer, could not do better than vote for Messrs. Whiteaker and Brown, the Democratic nominees for those positions, and who stand upon a platform quite similar to their own.

Our Judicial Ticket.

The Democracy has placed a first-class ticket in the field for the consideration of the voters of this Judicial District. His Honor, Judge Prim, has long presided over our Circuit Court. His superior qualifications for the position are unquestioned, and that he is invincible the fact that his political opponents always fail to place anyone against him fully illustrates.

Jas. R. Neil, the candidate for Prosecuting Attorney, has efficiently filled the place before. He has no organized opposition and will be elected by a large majority.

Watson up a Stump.

The Judge at Foot's creek denied the part taken by himself in the matter of the attempted naturalization of Climen, and told his hearers that he did not remember of insisting on Mr. Foudray placing his Chinese clients' declarations to become citizens on record. He very conveniently omitted to make the same denial at Sam's Valley the following day, knowing full well that the proof was on hand to substantiate the statement made in the TIMES. It would be much better for the Judge to "acknowledge the corn" and take the consequences.

For School Superintendent.

The Democratic nominee for this important position, James D. Fountain, is no doubt one of the most capable persons that could be found. He has a thorough collegiate education, is a practical school teacher, and possesses all the attributes that go to make a first-class officer. Moreover, Mr. Fountain is long a resident of Jackson county and permanently located among us, which fact makes him cognizant of the many requirements of our schools.

How Very Contemptible.

The Sentinel has been distinguished for nothing but its miserable falsehoods and vile abuse, which cannot but render it utterly contemptible with the intelligent voters of Southern Oregon. This week it pays especial attention to the Democratic candidate for Clerk, besliming him with libel and atrociously misrepresenting his career. Turner & Watson know they cannot substantiate what they fulminate, but that is a secondary consideration with them.

A Card.

The undersigned tender their sincere thanks to the members of the Jacksonville Brass and String Band, who so kindly volunteered their services during our stay here. Also to others who may have assisted us, and to the public in general for its liberal patronage. Assuring them that all will be gratefully remembered, we hope to meet you soon again.
