

THE capitalists of California are making a bitter fight against the new Constitution and it is also discovered that a majority of the newspapers of that State oppose the instrument. Its adoption is rather doubtful.

THE Washington Post thus presents the Republican position at the National Capital in a nut-shell: "What if you have got full swing in Congress?" say the defeated Republicans. "We hold the Presidency that we stole from you, and we'll use it to veto any act that we don't like."

HON. F. H. GILFROY, of Salem, has been appointed to the position of assistant Secretary of the U. S. Senate, one formerly held by H. R. Kincaid of the Eugene City Journal. Mr. Gilfroy is well qualified for the place, and his many friends will be pleased to learn of his good fortune.

THOSE who subscribed for the New York World, under the impression that it was a Democratic journal, will no doubt be surprised to learn of a rumor, to the effect that it will soon come out for Gen. Grant, being in circulation. The World's Democracy has been rather doubtful of late, if we may judge by appearances.

How silly the talk of a "solid South," in an offensive sense, says the Pittsburg Post, when Randall in caucus got nearly one-half the Southern Democratic vote, as against Blackburn, a Southern man; while Adams, a Union soldier, was nominated for clerk, by Southern votes, over Caldwell, an ex-Confederate.

A CERTAIN Journal, published not far distant, takes a peculiar delight in maligning Governor Thayer. The shortcomings of His Excellency are hardly as apparent as is the chagrin of the editor of said newspaper in not having been able to secure the position of Private Secretary he so fondly anticipated upon.

THE Republican press finds much consolation in the results of recent local elections in Ohio, which had no particular political significance; but it conveniently neglects to refer to the fact that Chicago elected the entire Democratic ticket, with ex-Congressman Carter H. Harrison as Mayor, by several thousand majority a few days before.

MR. HAYES has appointed E. A. Swan of New York as agent for the Siletz Indian Reservation in this State. It is really too bad that the Republicans of Oregon could not furnish some one suitable for the position in His Fraudulency's estimation. But, then, it may have become necessary to reward another coparcener in the Presidential steal.

THE Sentinel congratulates itself upon the fact that so many Democrats were ejected into supporting the Republican nominee for Governor at the last election. Bro. Turner should make the best of all the consolation he can derive from that source immediately, for he is not likely to be presented with such an opportunity again. And nothing has a more salutary effect upon Democrats or is more liable to cause a renewal of party vows than the exultation of their political adversaries over mistakes they may have made.

OREGON has received a recognition at the hands of the Democratic majority in the House of Representatives she has never before been favored with. Although a new member, Congressman Whiteaker is chairman of the committee on Revolutionary Pensions and a member of the committee on Indian Affairs. Recent events have attracted attention to our young and growing State, and the people of the East are awakening to the conclusion that she is more than one of the remote counties of California and entitled to a greater degree of consideration than was formerly accorded her.

WHEN we consider our isolation from the commercial center of the Pacific Coast, the lack of cheap and speedy transportation, it is a wonder that Southern Oregon has attained the prominence she so worthily enjoys. To our beautiful climate, the fertility of the soil, our vast mineral resources and the many natural advantages this section possesses, unaided by anything but the efforts of our own citizens, may be attributed this pleasing state of affairs. If Southern Oregon has flourished under difficulties that continual manifest themselves, it is evident that there is in store for her unbounded progress and prosperity when they are overcome. We can see the dawning of a new era in the attention that is now being bestowed upon this section by capitalists from abroad. It may be years before our anticipations are fully realized; but that they will be none the less certain.

THE FIRE LIMITS OF JACKSONVILLE.

The following amendment to Ordinance No. 66 was passed at the last session of the Board of Trustees: The people of the town of Jacksonville do ordain as follows:

Section 1. That it shall be unlawful for any person, company or corporation to erect or construct any wood building in that portion of the town of Jacksonville, known and described as Block No. 2 and block No. 7, as laid down on the map of said town, or to alter or change any wooden building within said blocks so as to increase the size or height of such building: Provided that nothing in this ordinance shall be construed to prevent the erection of wooden sheds or outbuildings, such as wood-houses or privies, on said blocks.

Section 2. Any person who shall erect or enlarge or cause to be erected or enlarged any wooden building in violation of the provisions of this ordinance or shall begin the erection, construction or enlargement thereof on said blocks No. 2 and No. 7, shall be liable to a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $100 upon complaint of any person made to the Recorder of said town.

Section 3. Each and every day that the erection or construction or enlargement of such building shall be continued after the same has been commenced shall be deemed a new offence and shall be punished as provided in section 2 of this ordinance.

Section 4. Any building hereafter erected or enlarged, in violation of this ordinance, shall be deemed a nuisance, and it shall be the duty of the Fire Wardens of said town, as soon as the same shall come to their notice or upon complaint made to them that such building is being erected or enlarged, to immediately have the same removed; and the expense of such removal shall be assessed against the person or persons so offending, to be recovered in an action before the Recorder.

Section 5. All ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict with this ordinance are hereby repealed.

Section 6. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Machine Disaster.

The opposition steamer Great Republic, running between San Francisco and Portland, grounded near the lower end of Sand Island while coming over the Columbia river bar last Saturday night.

There were about 1,200 passengers aboard, but all reached the land in safety. Ten of the ship's crew were lost by a boat being capsized in the surf; and this is the total loss of life by the disaster. It was impossible to save any great portion of the cargo, which was valued at $300,000 and insured for about $50,000. The ship is also an entire loss; but, as her owners carried an insurance of $50,000, they will not be seriously embarrassed by the accident.

The Portland press ascribes the disaster to the criminal folly of the pilot in attempting to enter a channel which could be safely navigated only by daylight, and is severe in its denunciation of those connected with the affair.

At His Old Tricks.

Bro. Turner is dealing out his soft sawder unusually early. If he only knew how very transparent his hypocritical references to political independence are to those he desires to hoodwink with his balderdash, perhaps he would apply his artifice to more congenial subjects. It comes with very poor grace from and exhibits a vast amount of assurance upon the part of a Republican journal of the calibre of the Sentinel to read Democrats a lecture on their political duties. The leaves and fishes to be distributed in 1880 evidently haunt our astute contemporary already. If his faith in "political independence" was one thing as great as his desire for the distraction of the Democratic party, there would be some excuse for the hypocrisy he is so free to exhibit and the doubtful compliment he pays to the intelligence of Democrats.

Agricultural Implements.

Alfred Slocum, who represents the well-known Portland house of Frank Bros., dealers in and importers of agricultural implements, wagons, etc., is now in this section looking after their interests. He has recently been appointed manager of that firm's Southern Oregon business, with headquarters at Roseburg, to which place he will return about May 1st. Frank Bros. are agents for Walter A. Wood's celebrated machinery, Chicago Pitts' threshers, and other standard agricultural implements, and those desiring anything in this line should not fail to consult their price-list, which will be furnished by Mr. Slocum on application. The articles they sell are the best in the market and their terms the most liberal. Reames Bros. are the local agents.

An Important Opinion.

It is the opinion of the commissioner of the general land office that occupancy of land merely for grazing purposes does not comply with the homestead law. The occupant must cultivate the land to come within the provisions of the act. This information may be of importance to ranchmen generally.

A CARD.

EDITOR TIMES:—Dear Sir—Having learned that the owner of Sir Walter has expressed a desire to match the stallion's foals of 1873 against the foals (same age) by Altamont, all we to say that I will match for $500, ($100 forfeit). Altamont's first colt: Altamont, black filly, foaled June, 1878, to trot either at two or three years of age, or at both ages, against any son or daughter (same age) of Sir Walter.

The taker will be given 60 days from this date to name his colt, and may accept either of both of the above propositions. If both are accepted, each event to be for $500 ($100 forfeit); and I will suggest that the trots take place at our District or County Fair, in the fall of the year when the events shall become due. The races to be trotted in harness and under the rules of the National Trotting Association. The two year old race to be mile heats, 2 in 3, and the three-year-old race to be mile heats 3 in 5. Knowing Alex. Martin, who is the mutual friend of both parties, to be well fitted for the duties, I will give him authority to act for me in the arrangement of the preliminaries. JAY BEACH, Fort Klamath, Or., April 20, 1879.

The Case Flatly Stated.

The only argument used by the Republican organs against Mr. Tilden, says the New Haven Register, is that the old man has "charis of money," some of which he uses for advancing his political interests. Tilden, if he uses money, uses his own, while the Republican party uses the people's money to bully voters, stop the mouths of Returning Board thieves, imprison innocent persons, and falsify the verdict of the people. As between Tilden's "charis" and the millions stolen by the Republican leaders, Tilden has decidedly the best of it.
