

When the bloom was on the peach, And the light was in the sky, And the love heart would teach...

Oh, how sweet it was to wander, On those tender afternoons, Where the sea beach, with its thunder, Cooled the air of sultry June...

Subscribes for the Times. A fixed fact—one that gets in a woman's head.

When a man's nose strikes the ground, it is a scenter of gravity. When a man has no mind of his own, his wife generally gives him a piece of hers.

Nature has sown in man seeds of knowledge, but they must be cultivated to produce fruit.

A Peckskill bean has just made the startling discovery that a girl's ribs run up and down. Of course so.

The Chinese have a notion that the soul of a poet passes into a grasshopper, because it sings till it starves.

"Life is what we make it," says the poet. But when we make it spades and then get encumbered, we all have a feeling of questioning the poet.

"Plant trees in the school-yard," is the advice of a San Francisco parson. Yes, plant them, by all means, and see to it that they are all birch.

While a Massachusetts man was on his knees praying, his insane wife killed him. The idea that he was wearing out his pants at the knees was more than her brain could stand.

A clergyman recently aroused his sleepy audience by asserting in the most positive manner that, notwithstanding the hard times, the wages of sin have not been cut down one iota.

Washington voted two hills; Madison vetoed five; Monroe vetoed one; Jackson vetoed seven; Tyler vetoed five; Polk, three; Pierce, four; Buchanan, one; Johnson vetoed twenty-one.

"What do you know of the character of this man?" was asked of a witness in the police court the other day. "What do I know of his character? I know it to be unbecomable, your honor," he replied with much emphasis.

An exchange tells of a young man who swore off smoking and who was worth $10,000 in five years. There's some mistake here. We know of a young man who has sworn off 50 times in five years and isn't worth a cent.

"Here," said the farmer, as he exhibited a broken jar to the manufacturer, "I packed this jar full of butter, and the jar split from top to bottom. Perhaps you can explain the phenomenon." "Oh, yes, I can," was the ready reply, "the butter was stronger than the jar."

SAD HAYGIC IN CREATED. Among the tenants of the month by allowing impurities to collect upon their surface or in their intestines, SOZODONT removes every vestige of tartar from the teeth, and renders their premature decay impossible.
