

COUNTY COURT.—The May term of the Probate and County Commissioners' Courts will be held next week.

RETURNED.—Judge Hanna and the attorneys in attendance on the Circuit Court for Josephine county returned last Wednesday. The docket being light, was soon cleared.

FROM LAKE COUNTY.—A. Langell, of Langell's valley, is in town. He informs us that the residents of Lake county have ceased depending on communication with the outside world by mail.

FINE PRINTING.—Wedding invitations and cards, calling cards, catalogues, pamphlets and every description of fancy printing promptly executed in the highest style of the art and at San Francisco prices at the Times office. We only ask a trial.

RELIGIOUS APPOINTMENTS.—Rev. J. R. N. Bell, Presiding Elder of Jacksonville District, M. E. Church, South, has made the following appointments: Third Sunday in May, Illinois Valley, Josephine county, quarterly meeting; fourth Sunday, Antelope, Jackson county, quarterly meeting.

FOR THE FLOWERY KINGDOM.—A Chinaman in the employ of the Grand Applegate Company was drowned in the Big Applegate last Tuesday while attempting to cross that stream in a boat in company with a cousin who was rescued with difficulty. The accident was attributable to their awkwardness in handling the craft.

FOR SALE.—Dr. Robinson and wife and Miss Angie L. Ford left Jacksonville for Salem on Tuesday morning last. This trip is attempted for the benefit of Mrs. Robinson's health, which has been quite poor for some time past. We trust that we may be able to announce the early convalescence of the lady and the speedy return of Dr. Robinson to this place.

IN SALEM.—Ex-Governor Chadwick, who has been on an extended tour through Southern Oregon examining quartz mines, has returned to his home in Salem. The "Standard" says that he represents California capitalists and will soon pay another visit to the mines, and if satisfied with the outlook will purchase claims and work them on an extensive scale with the most approved machinery.

NEW TERM.—E. T. Kugler, instructor in music, will close his third term to-morrow, May 3d. The fourth term will commence on Monday, May 12th. Mr. Kugler has established the following scale of prices: Single lessons, $1.50 each; per term of twenty-four lessons, $24. His classes have been large and he is meeting with success in his endeavors to furnish the public musical instruction of a high grade.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY.—An attempt to burglarize the mercantile establishment of Wimer & Son at Wadwo was made last Friday night. The would-be burglar was evidently interrupted in his operations, as he had made considerable headway when he abandoned his work. A half-breed Indian from Happy Camp, who had been lurking about the premises, was arrested on suspicion and had his case referred to the Grand Jury in session at Kerbyville the Monday following.

AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS.—C. C. Kuney, the general traveling agent, is still in our midst prepared to supply the farmers with every description of agricultural implements. He represents the well-known house of Knapp, Burdell & Co., Portland, whose reputation for furnishing the best goods at moderate prices is established. Mr. Kuney will remain a few days longer, and those desiring anything in his line should give him a trial, for he guarantees satisfaction.

BASE BALL.—The Jacksonville Base Ball Club reorganized for the season last Saturday by the election of the following officers: President, Chas. Nickell; Vice President, C. D. Carlwell; Secretary, Wm. Mensor; Treasurer, Chas. Prim; Executive Committee, W. G. Kenney, F. M. Overbeck, W. W. Carlwell. First and second nines will be organized immediately, and the club will then be prepared to issue and receive challenges. The ensuing base ball season bids fair to be more interesting than any preceding it.

ANOTHER BRICK FOR ASHLAND.—We are informed by parties residing in Ashland that Messrs. Helman, Fountain, Inlow and Farlow, who own lots in the burnt district, will probably join together and build a substantial brick structure next summer. It is also reported that the Odd Fellows of that place have the project of adding another story to the above mentioned building in view. We trust these surmises may prove to be well founded, for such improvements will add much to the appearance of the town.

EXONERATED.—The Roseburg "Star" says: Sometime since we published an account of a tragedy that was enacted at Four Mile, I. T., in which a man named Gregory was killed by Gideon Kent, formerly a resident of Douglas county. We take pleasure in informing the many friends of the latter gentleman that the grand jury of New Perce county, which convened on the 7th ult., after fully examining into the circumstances of the killing, entirely exonerated Mr. Kent, deeming the act to have been committed in self-defense.

ACCIDENTS.—April was a month of accidents, two having occurred during the past few days, not to mention those which have previously been noted. The first we have to chronicle this week is the accident which befall Ben Beall, oldest son of Thos. F. Beall, on the 24th ult. He had his right arm broken below the elbow by a kick from a horse he was grooming. The little four-year-old son of Chas. L. Thurman of Applegate had his right hand mutilated by a hatchet in the hands of a brother, but fortunately sustained no serious injuries. The above cases are under treatment by Dr. Aiken.

AN IMPORTANT ENTERPRISE.—Jay Beach of Fort Klamath is now engaged in laying out an extensive horse ranch in the vicinity of Linkville, for which purpose he has purchased a large area of State land. When in a fair way of being completed, Mr. Beach will remove his stables to this point and establish himself in the business of raising fine horses. His trotting horse Altamont is one of the best bred stallions in the United States, while the fillies imported by him at the same time are also animals of first-class qualities. This enterprise is a comparatively new one in Oregon and deserves the fullest measure of success.

As the roads are improving rapidly, the Stage Company will probably commence running on Summer time in a few weeks. Keep your money at home by patronizing the Times office, where all kinds of job-work is neatly executed at panic prices. E. W. Gray has purchased W. J. Stanley's place in Sam's valley and will conduct the post office at that point hereafter. Geo. W. Isaacs of Battle creek will drive a car of 200 head of cattle east of the mountain about the middle of this month.

Many of these nuisances have already made their appearance and more may be expected at any time. John Noland is expected to arrive from San Leandro, California, during the present month. He will probably relocate in this place with his family.

Our farmers have been and are still engaged in planting corn. The rains of April delayed the early sowing of this crop, but to no evident injury. A Chinaman in the employ of the Sterling Company had the fingers of one hand crushed the other day by the rigging of the derrick. H. M. Thatcher and Capt. D. J. Ferres of Lake county were in town this week. They report that section as being in a flourishing condition. Mrs. I. W. Berry is offering superior inducements in sewing machines as well as millinery goods. All kinds of produce will be taken in exchange. E. P. Pickens has been appointed administrator of the estate of Cyrus H. Pickens, Sen., deceased. His notice of appointment appears elsewhere.

Robt. A. Cook, of Foot's creek, has gone to Reading, Cal., to meet his son, John A. Cook, who has been a resident of Iowa for the past two years. Wm. Taylor, who was down from Ashland Wednesday, informs us that the crops in that section are growing finely; and, in some instances, too much so. A large number of Odd Fellows from various portions of the county were in town last Saturday, which was the occasion of the sixtieth anniversary of their Order. It is whispered that a wedding, in which a prominent county official and a young lady well known in Jacksonville are the high contracting parties, will take place soon.

We are informed that there is considerable correspondence going on through our post office under fictitious names. Look out, girls, this may prove a dangerous amusement.

The well-known Wilton Troupe will give a performance in this place next Wednesday evening, on which occasion the "Irish Orphans" and "Betsy Baker" will be presented. Those in quest of furniture should not fail to give D. Linn a call. He keeps an excellent assortment on hand and is in constant receipt of the latest and most elegant patterns. Daley & Co. of Ashland have been awarded contracts for putting up several buildings during the present year. They are excellent mechanics and deserve a liberal patronage.

The Jacksonville Dramatic Association takes occasion to render thanks for the liberal patronage accorded and good-will manifested by the public at the recent entertainments. "It's no use talking, mother, I just can't, can't make this old thing work." "Well, never mind, my dear; we'll take it down to Mr. Feathers and trade it off for a new Singer."

The rumor of the sale of the Ashland Academy to the M. E. Church is said to be unfounded, though negotiations in progress may finally give control of the property to that denomination. J. S. Howard has added a neat show-case to his mercantile establishment and has also made other noteworthy improvements. Don't fail to give him a call if you desire bargains in his line.

The Board of Trustees met last Tuesday evening; but, beside the passage of an ordinance regulating the punishment of disorderly conduct, no business of importance was transacted. H. P. DeSkins informs us that the rocks which heretofore obstructed the Rogue river road have been removed and teamsters will find that thoroughfare in excellent traveling condition.

The grounds Messrs. Beckman and Linn offered the citizens of Jacksonville a perpetual lease of for public park purposes are now being cleared and put in order by those gentlemen themselves. S. S. Huntley, to whom the contract for carrying the mails from Ashland to Lakeview was originally let, is expected here before long. He comes on business connected with the Colwell affair.

The strawberry season will probably be the occasion of a festival, under the auspices of the ladies of the Presbyterian Church of this place, in aid of the edifice that denomination intends erecting here. There will be races at Yreka on the 4th and 5th of July. A. D. Richards, under whose management they will be conducted, has raised the necessary funds and the races will come off without fail.

Cameron & Ingram's band of sheep-furnishes instances of fecundity that are quite noteworthy. Six of the ewes are the mothers of fifteen lambs, one bearing four, another three and the balance two each. The Roseburg "Star" understands that Prof. Skidmore, formerly of Ashland, has taken the contract for performing the mechanical work on S. Abraham's brick building at that place for the sum of $8,000.

Beall, Alfred & Tallent of Elton precinct have purchased of C. C. Kuney a late improved Buffalo Pitts' Challenge threshing, straw stacker and separator. They will be ready for business when harvest approaches. E. Hober and J. Walz, between whom a partnership has existed for several years past, divided their property this week. It is said that the latter has serious intentions in view, which will accord to the dissolution.

Eugene Waldron exhibited W. C. Myer's "Arabian Boy" in town last week. This animal is a beautiful representative of the Percheron and Arabian breeds of horses and his handsome form and color attracted general attention. The New State Hotel is now in running order and seems to be receiving a very fair share of the public patronage. The proprietor, Mr. Savage, is a landlord of experience and will spare no pains to give entire satisfaction. Read his card elsewhere.

Judge W. A. Hamilton of Del Norte county, Cal., arrived by Garrett's express on Friday last and proceeded to Ashland last day. His business here is in connection with the settlement of the estate of the late Wesley Mitchell, which was his brother-in-law. The I. O. O. F. Grand Lodge will meet at Albany on May 20th, on which occasion the new Odd Fellows' temple at that place will be dedicated. K. Kubli and John A. Beyer are representatives from Jacksonville Lodge No. 10. An impressive affair is anticipated.

Postmaster Muller has informed the Post Office Department that the establishment of mail service between Rock Point and Foot's creek would be of accommodation to the residents of the latter region, and we may expect to hear of some steps being taken in the premises soon. We call especial attention to the advertisement of Frank Bros. agency for Southern Oregon, of which Alfred Steum of Roseburg is the manager. Those desiring anything in their line will find it of advantage to patronize Frank Bros., as their goods are the best and prices most reasonable.

The ladies will not fail to admire the Spring and Summer millinery goods just received at the store of Mrs. P. P. Prim and daughter. Their stock comprises a complete assortment of everything new and popular in this line. We call attention to the advertisement of the firm elsewhere, which explains itself. The Yreka "Union" says that the approaching celebration of the Imp'd O. R. M. in this city promises to be one of the finest affairs of the kind ever held in there. Over twenty members of the Jacksonville Tribe have signified their intention of attending with their ladies and a large number are also expected from Linkville.

We have just received from M. Gray, 117 Post Street, San Francisco, an exquisite little ballad entitled "Grandfather's Home." It has simple, heartfelt words, wedded to a melody that leaves a lasting impression on the hearer; that leaves to mind the good old-time songs, "Old Oakum Bucket," "Old Kentucky Home," "Lily Dale," etc. It will be mailed on receipt of 35 cents in stamps. Miss Laura M. Hale, of Jacksonville, who ever she may be, makes this mention of herself in the "personal" department of the S. F. "Chronicle." "A young lady with means wishes to correspond with a gentleman of good standing; view, matrimony. Address: Miss Laura M. Hale, Jacksonville, Oregon." A lady so liberally endowed should experience no trouble in escaping matrimony in any country.

MINING NEWS.

Water has failed in many localities. The Grand Applegate Company expects to run the water through their ditch the first of next week.

Ed. Ranney writes us that promising diggings have been discovered on Dutch creek, in the Briggs' creek region. The Sterling Company expects to have an ample supply of water for all purposes for the ensuing two or three months. O. Harbaugh, who returned from Josephine county last week, reports the news from Briggs' and Silver creeks as of a rather favorable nature.

The Palmer Creek Company made a final clean-up last week and have suspended mining operations for this season. They will probably resume work on the lower bars next Winter.

We learn that E. F. Walker & Co. have the ditch leading from Clark creek to their mines on Grave creek completed and the pipe placed in position for active operations, which are about to commence.

Claims are being relocated on the Yank and other quartz ledges at Galice creek. The visit recently paid that section by Messrs. McNevin and Chadwick has caused considerable of a more and quartz is again attracting much attention.

Hawckett, Bybee & Co., at the Taylor claim on Rogue river, recently made another satisfactory clean-up. Water is failing and they will soon be compelled to operate with one pipe only. The company expects to take out $10,000 this season.

Robb, Eckelson & Co., at the Hamilton diggings, made a final clean-up last week and realized about $150. Near $800 have been taken out of these mines during the past season. When we consider that the proprietors were unable to work more than a few weeks, with a limited supply of water, it is apparent that the ground is rich; and there is also quite an area of it.

Hay & Magruder have suspended work on their diggings on the northwest side of Gold Hill for the present. They realized about $25 per day with their hydraulic while water was abundant. A survey of the ditch this company intends running from Sam's creek to its diggings, a distance of three miles, has been made, which will be ready for next Winter's operations. The gentlemen conducting this enterprise are favorably impressed with the prospects.

Ab. Goldings returned from Josephine county last Tuesday and will resume his position with the O. & C. Stage Company. He visited Silver and Briggs' creeks, of which sections he does not give the most flattering account. Ab. believes the latter is the best of the two, but says prospectors find both of them hard to work on account of boulders, which exist in unlimited quantities. The road is still lined with expectants and very few have left, nearly all being determined to prospect their claims throughly. The snow has disappeared from Silver creek, and prospecting is now progressing.

We learn of additional particulars concerning the incorporation of a company to develop the Steamboat ledge which Messrs. Cook & Hord have been prospecting for some time past. There will be ten incorporators, five of whom are residents of this county, viz: B. F. Williams, the valley capitalist. The capital stock is placed at $250,000, three-fifths of which will be put on the market for the purpose of raising funds to work the ledge with. Mr. Cook, who is an old quartz miner, is sanguine of the success of the enterprise and promises interesting developments before long.

THE GRISWOLD CASE.—Judge Sawyer on April 22d announced his opinion in the case of W. C. Griswold, plaintiff in error, against the United States, reversing the case and remanding it to the District Court. The points decided by Judge Sawyer briefly stated are as follows: In a civil case in which the right to recover depends on the question whether the defendant has committed a crime, the crime must be proven beyond a reasonable doubt. Second, the knowledge of an agent will not charge the principal, when crime is subject of inquiry, unless the defendant has actual knowledge of the facts known to the agent. The case was twice tried before Judge Deady, the first trial resulting in a verdict against Griswold for $35,000. The reversal of the case by Judge Sawyer will make other proceedings in the District Court necessary. The "Oregonian" remarks that it is just to Judge Deady to say that after a fuller examination of the case than he was able to make at the trial he concurred with Judge Sawyer in the second point made in his decision.

NEW MAIL ROUTE.—Postmaster Muller is in receipt of a letter from ex-Senator Mitchell informing him that the mail route between Jacksonville and N. Wright's on Big Applegate has been established and that service will be instituted immediately. Mr. Muller will receive proposals for performing the said service until to-morrow. Patriots desiring to serve Uncle Sam in the capacity of mail contractor can now put in appearance and state their terms.

RELIGIOUS ITEMS.—Rev. M. C. Miller, of the Applegate Circuit, will preach at the Heber Grove school house next Sunday evening, commencing at half-past seven o'clock. No services will be held at the M. E. Church in this place on Sunday. Elder M. Peterson will preach at the Mount district school house next Sunday at 11 o'clock A. M.

WOOD.—The following are the latest advices from the San Francisco wood market: There is nothing new to report. Spring clips is quoted as follows: San Joaquin or Southern, 14@15c. for choice short free; 13@14c. for medium grades of free; 10@12c. for burly and seely, and 8@10c. for long, heavy and dirty lots.

FOR JOSEPHINE COUNTY.—Judge Hanna and District Attorney Neil left for Kerbyville Sunday to hold the April term of the Circuit Court for Josephine county, which convened Monday the following day. They were accompanied by Messrs. A. C. Jones and E. H. Antnerick, of the local bar, and W. M. Turner.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

L. J. Powell, Superintendent of Public Instruction, as will be seen by the annexed notice he has sent to Superintendent Fourth of this county, has called a teachers' institute, to be held in this place on the 22d, 23d and 24th of May. Mr. Fountain and the teachers of the Jacksonville district school have been appointed a committee to arrange a programme for this occasion, which will soon be announced. Institutes are conducive to a deal of good and we hope that those who feel an interest in our educational affairs will give more attention than usually bestowed to the one now proposed and make it a success in every particular.

The following is Mr. Powell's address: TO TEACHERS AND SCHOOL OFFICERS: Your attention is hereby called to the session of a Teachers' Institute, to be held in Jacksonville, Jackson county, Oregon, on the 22d, 23d and 24th days of May, 1879. Every teacher and every person proposing to teach during the present season, who is within reasonable distance of the place of meeting, ought to attend and participate in its work and share its benefits. No teacher can fail to receive great benefit from these Institutes, and especially is this true of the young, inexperienced teacher. School officers, and friends of the educational work generally, are cordially invited to meet with us and assist in every way possible to make our common school system most efficient for good to the commonwealth. The executive committee has arranged a good programme, and made other necessary arrangements to insure the success of the Institute. School directors should not do a better thing for their schools than urge their teachers to attend this Institute, even without requiring them to make up for the time spent in attendance.

L. J. POWELL, Sup't Public Instruction.

MAY-DAY FESTIVITIES.—The celebration in this place yesterday was a very pleasant affair. Though the weather was rather disagreeable, a fair attendance was nevertheless present. The introductory exercises, which were novel and interesting, occurred at the Court House, the main feature being the crowning of the Queen of May, Miss Carrie Beckman, by the May King, Andrew Hubbel, who delivered a neat address in presenting the crown. The queen was attended by eight maid of honor: Misses Kate Jones, Nellie Luy, Celia Brown, Katie Hand, Irene Danforth, Ida Fisher, Della Cardwell and Carrie Stevenson, who joined in the song "God Bless the Queen of May" at the conclusion of the coronation. The young ladies were all beautifully attired and seemed to thoroughly appreciate the situation. A procession was then formed under the direction of E. D. Foudray, Marshal of the Day, which, after marching through the principal streets, proceeded to Bybee's Grove headed by the Brass Band. The school children were out in full force, each one supplied with a bouquet of flowers. At the Grove an excellent address, appropriate to the occasion, was delivered by Ed. A. Miller. The assembly was next favored with several favorite airs by the band when dinner was announced. Foot-races, base-ball, archery, etc., for prizes completed the programme for the day, but an unfortunate runaway accident marred the afternoon's amusement. The managers of the celebration have every cause to congratulate themselves upon the success attending their efforts, for the event eclipsed all preceding ones.

Robinson of Oakland. The bridge will be a Howe truss, 14 feet wide by 134 feet in length, exclusive of approaches. The price agreed upon is $5,000. The contractors are practical bridge-builders and will doubtless put up a substantial structure. They are now making arrangements for the early commencement of work and expect to complete the bridge by the 1st of September next.

NEW GOODS.—Our merchants, consistent with the enterprise for which they are distinguished, have laid in elegant stocks of goods of the latest and most popular styles for the Spring and Summer trade, a considerable portion of which is now arriving. Among those in receipt of new goods we notice Beames Bros., J. S. Howard, Newman Fisher, Jas. Jackson and Geo. W. Elliott. Others are expecting their stocks to arrive by the next train.
