THE GIRL WITH A CALICO DRESS.

A fig for your upper-ten girls, With their velvets and satins and laces, Their diamonds and rubies and pearls, And their milliner figures and faces. They may shine at a party or ball, Emblazoned with half they possess, But give me, in place of them all, My girl with the calico dress.

She is plump as a partridge, as fair As a rose in its earliest bloom; Her teeth will with ivory compare, And her breath with the clover perfume; Her step is as free and as light

As the fawns whom the hunters hard press, And her eye is as soft and as bright-My girl with the calico dress.

She is cheerful, warm-hearted and true, And is kind to her father and mother; She studies how much she can do For her sweet little sister and brother. If you want a companion for life, To comfort, enliven and bless, She is just the right sort of a wife-My girl with a calico dress.
