NEW MONEY ORDER OFFICES.—Linkville and Lakeview have become full-fledged post offices, the privilege of issuing money orders having been extended to them recently. REPAIRS IN PROGRESS.—The M. E. Church being thoroughly renovated and, among other things, will be furnished with a new roof. The seats will also be remodeled. Various improvements made, which will give the building quite a neat appearance. A new departure from the existing state of affairs will hardly be amiss.

Lewis of Joseph county has signified his intention of accepting the challenge issued by Henry Scott of this place. Preliminaries for the race, which will be one for $100 a side, now 100 yards, are now being arranged.

LADY PREACHER.—Miss Jennie Rush, lady of Samuel Rush of Grant's Pass, a lady of about nineteen, is said to have been the field as an exponent of the Gospel. She lived her first sermon at that place on last and is announced to preach at Aville on the 20th, after which she will tour Jackson and Josephine counties, and this place on her return home.

RELATIONS.—The following officers of the Jackson Encampment No. 10, I. O. O. F., died on Tuesday evening last by Sir: D. D. G. P.; K. Kuhl; C. P.; H. P.; T. H. Kent; S. W.; Herold; Miller; Treas.; F. May they walk through life ever be with joy and prosperity and earnestly known to them be.

WAY.—Vet Schutz' team took fright evening of the Fourth of July, while rearing from Bybee's Grove, and upset the showing the occupants violently to and severely bruising John Cimick Miller and August Bohn. The accident in checking the refractory are doing any further damage, however, brought the wounded men to town, recovering from the injuries they received.

LOST A CONFLAGRATION.—An alarm of an as sounded Tuesday night, at about 12 k, which fortunately proved a timely one prevented a conflagration. As it was, a dry-goods box (in which some ashes been deposited a few hours previously), setting in the rear of E. Jacobs' residence was consumed, though there was enough combustible material near at hand to have caused serious consequences but for the early arrival of assistance.

A KIND REMEMBRANCE.—We were last week shown a beautiful present from the late U. S. Haydon to his uncle, J. L. Hommedieu, a gentleman now in his 92d year and residing at "Hooper, Conn., in the shape of an elegant rose-water vase surmounted by a golden head. Appropriately inscribed. It was procured by Messrs. Hoffman and Cameron, executors of Mr. Haydon's estate, under provisions of his will, by whom it has been shipped to Mr. L. Hommedieu.

LECTURES.—Mrs. Duniway will lecture at the Manassah church next Sunday at eleven a. m., subject: "The Centennial Year." She is at present engaged in lecturing in Plover, and will return to Jacksonville today. Next week she goes to Ashland and will give a series of lectures at that place on Tuesday, the 11th inst. On her return to this city she will give two additional lectures before returning home. The last address will be given as a benefit for the M. E. Church. Peterson preaches at the Baptist Church, Wagner creek, on the coming Sunday.

Blanks of every description can always be obtained at the TIMES office. Mileage will be added to delinquent taxes not paid by next Monday. There is not a single house in Jacksonville to rent for love or money. The frame-work of Phoenix's new church building has been completed. Green apples have made their appearance and doctors are apprehensive. Fruit cans can be obtained in countless numbers at Bilger's hardware store. Rev. Herman Krebs, of Marysville, preached at the Court House on Sunday last. Unsurpassed are the bargains offered by Messer, for proof of which give him a call. Parker's Big Butte mills are running on full time and give employment to fifteen men. Jesse D. Carr has been buying beef cattle in Lake county for the San Francisco market. The well-known horse "Turk" can hereafter be found at Westrop's farm at the Meadows. D. S. Cook, an excellent blacksmith, has established himself in business at Grant's Pass. Fourth of July has come and gone and all are content to resume their wonted quietness. Trout are being caught in great numbers in the Applegate. They are also of a fine quality. Attention is called to the card of J. H. Hyder elsewhere, in which he sets himself right. John Chandler, of the Clayton creek shingle factory, will establish an agency in this place. There is some talk of organizing a base ball club at Roseburg to visit Jackson county in the Fall. Heavy showers of rain, which seemed to fall in certain localities only, are reported this week. Beautiful visiting cards of every style and shade printed at the TIMES office at Eastern rates. A. W. Sturges this week lost one of his fine horses through a disease kindred to the equine family. The last number of the "West Shore" was a model one and reflects much credit upon its publisher. The Wilton Troupe is again performing in Lake county and will return to Yreka during Fair time. J. Elliott of Elen precinct brought a load of fine honey to town Tuesday, which found a ready sale. Sheriff Bybee proposes lowering the flag-pole in the Court House yard and supplying it with new halyards. Noland & McDaniel, of the Criterion Saloon, have a new sign, painted in elegant style by Carter & Son. The supper furnished by Malame Holt on the night of the Fourth of July was a credit to her culinary skill. The jumping match at Empire City on the Fourth of July was won by Don. Short, formerly of this place. Excursion parties are forming and our town will soon assume the aspect of Goldsmith's "Deserted Village." S. P. Hanna is turning out a large amount of first-class work and is giving satisfaction to his numerous customers. The festive hunter, who intends a Summer's trip to the mountains, can find a full line of supplies at John Miller's. A patriotic lion belonging to Homer Harkness, of Grave creek, laid an egg measuring Sixty-six inches on the Fourth. Jos. A. Crain is now engaged in fencing his extensive tract of land on Dry creek, which contains many hundred acres. The Comstock House, at the Albany railroad depot, was destroyed by fire on the Fourth, but was fully insured. Miss Ella Flood, daughter of Jas. F. Flood, formerly of this place and niece of Mrs. Shannon, died at Portland on the 5th inst. The old Rock Point bridge has been removed to make place for the new one, which is being pushed forward with all speed. Some realty situated in Table Rock precinct and in this place, belonging to M. Colwell, will be sold at Sheriff's sale to-morrow. The Brass Band has ordered several new instruments and pieces of appropriate music from the East, which are expected to arrive soon. There is no perceptible change in the San Francisco wheat market, with prices ranging as high as 27 cents for the best quality. By the death of a brother in Missouri, John Fraley, engaged in the tailoring business at Ashland, has fallen heir to considerable property. Two hundred and forty couples participated in the ball at Roseburg on the Fourth. The celebration is said to have been a magnificent success. Dr. Jackson, has added to his interesting collection of natural curiosities and rarities a large acrotite recently found upon the banks of Rogue river. A man who went to Plevna, in Lake county, to whip W. H. Roberts, who runs the ferry across Klamath river, got a bullet in each leg for his trouble. A patriotic individual surcharged with "O. be-joyful" discharged a pistol on our streets on the Fourth, the bullet lodging in the Franco-American Hotel, but fortunately doing no damage. Such practice should be discouraged, and summarily, too.

PERSONAL NOTES.

The corn doctor and the galvanic battery manipulator are the latest tramps that have infested this section. Their victims did not prove numerous. "Roses bloom and then they wither," but overlasting are those imparted by the unexcelled beverages of Matt. Dillon. His liquors never fail to please. The mail for Wright's, on Big Applegate, leaves here Thursday mornings until the 1st of October, when the time of its departure will be changed to Tuesday. Wedding invitations and cards and every description of fancy printing executed at the TIMES office in the highest style of the art at San Francisco prices. The foundation for the proposed Masonic building at Ashland was commenced this week. The structure will be hurried toward completion as rapidly as possible. The P. O. Department warns the public against certain rascals now prowling in Southern Oregon and pretending to be agents of California fashion journals. Willie Bilger and Frank Vining have constructed an ice-cream saloon on the vacant land between the stores of Jas. Drum and C. Coleman. Give the boys a call. R. J. Cameron informs us that a heavy frost occurred on Applegate on the night of the Fourth, which nipped the tender vegetables and did considerable damage. Business men can keep their money at home by ordering their bill-heads, letter-heads, notes, receipts, etc., at the TIMES office, where the best printing is done at low rates. G. W. Holt has engaged the services of Mr. Scott of Ashland, an excellent bricklayer, who in conjunction with himself, will hurry the new U. S. Hotel toward completion. Several thunder showers occurred in this section during the past week, cooling the atmosphere and laying the dust. No particular damage to crops has resulted from them. T. T. McKenzie has just received several new fixtures for the Eureka flouring mill, and is now engaged in placing that institution in first-class condition for the busy season. Hardly a day passes but what a peripatetic fraud levies tribute upon this section for an existence and not unfrequently victimizes a considerable number of the unsophisticated. The celebration at Jerome Prairie under the auspices of Josephine Grange was a successful affair and attracted a large crowd. The proceedings were varied and quite interesting. Nothing further of importance has developed itself in the harbor question. Cape Foulweather, Crescent City, Port Orford and Cape Arago are all favorably mentioned in this connection. The weather for 1879 has thus far been a phenomenal perplexity. Not only have we had little if any summer weather, but frosts are of almost as frequent occurrence as if it were early Spring. The fixtures for J. B. Thomas' new saw-mill at the Meadows have arrived and will immediately be put into position, enabling Jesse to furnish the market with an excellent quality of lumber before long. The erection for the Fourth of July celebration at Lakeview was delivered by Geo. E. Strong and is said to have been one far above the average. J. H. Evans officiated as chief marshal for the occasion. Smith & Waisman this week commenced the construction of an office for Dr. Aiken on the lot almost opposite Carlwell's livery stable and which he recently became possessed of. It will be quite a substantial structure. The following officers of Jacksonville Lodge No. 10, I. O. O. F., were installed on Saturday evening by John A. Boyer, D. D. G. M.: W. K. Plymale, N. G.; Fred. Lay, V. G.; Frank Krause, R. S.; John Miller, Treasurer. Rev. Chas. E. Philbrook, P. E., announces that quarterly meetings of the U. B. Church will be held at the Rogue River Mission on July 12th and 13th; Umpqua Mission, July 19th and 20th; Coos Mission, 25th and 27th. The Coos Bay "News" says A. P. Owen has accepted a situation in E. B. Dean & Co.'s store at Marshfield. Mr. Owen has had much experience in that line of business, and is one of the best book-keepers and salesmen on the bay. The party at the Union Hotel at Kerbyville on Fourth of July night was largely attended and proved much of a success. Excellent music was furnished by Alex. Orme and Prof. Wright, while the supper by the host was superb. The "Holt County Press," published at Curry, Missouri, announces that Thos. Curry, Wm. Brodbeck and John Schlotzhaner have started for the Pacific Coast, to seek their fortunes in the far West, and may wend their way hither. J. W. Collins' horse Dick Turpin was last week exhibited on our streets by A. McDonald of Table Rock. Dick is a large bay, over sixteen hands high, weighing 1,350 pounds, and for shape and action is unsurpassed. He is undoubtedly one of the best horses in Southern Oregon. Geo. H. Young has improved his premises considerably by the introduction of water from Rich gulch through pipes, of which he has 1,200 feet. The success of this enterprise enhances the value of his land many-fold, as he will have enough water during the entire year for irrigating purposes. A large audience greeted Rev. Father Blanchet at St. Francis' Church, Eagle Point, on Sunday last and was favored with an excellent discourse. The church building is one of the neatest and most substantial to be found in the interior, reflecting much credit upon those instrumental in its erection. A correspondent writes: Mrs. Susan R. Wallace, a lady of fifty-three years, walked from the head of Grave creek over a rough and mountainous trail to the residence of S. J. Steckel, 17 miles distant, in six hours on the 1st inst., intending to celebrate the Fourth for the first time in her life, which she did at Willow Springs. The Foot's Creek Minstrels performed at Veit's hall on Saturday evening last; but, probably owing to the fact that the Fourth of July had been quite generally observed the day previous, their audience was not a large one. The boys only require practice to make them adepts in their burnt-ork pretensions. The gay and festive soda-fountain now sizzles in the land, and Deacon and good Mrs. Jones around the counter stand. The lady's gentle eccentricity: Within the glass is fizzing; The Deacon slyly winks and says: He'll take the same in his'n.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Wall of Crescent City is registered at the Clarendon Hotel, Portland. Hon. Henry Klippel arrived from Squaw Lake Wednesday and will return to-day. Division Agent Carr passed through town the forepart of the week, on his way south. Miss Donna Sisley, a niece of E. D. Fondray of this place, arrived from Baker City Sunday. Miss Tillie Miller, who has been paying Roseburg an extended visit, returned home yesterday. Senator Ross is afflicted with rheumatism and is quite unable in consequence, we are sorry to learn. N. Delamater of Brownstown, Josephine county, spent the Fourth in town and has returned home. Capt. O. C. Applegate and wife returned to Klamath Agency Wednesday, after a brief but pleasant sojourn in this county. Bob Kahler has recovered from his recent indisposition and is ready to administer to the afflicted with his accustomed suavity. We learn that Dr. J. W. Robinson, now at Salem, will return to Jacksonville and resume the practice of his profession at no distant date. W. H. Shook will soon take his departure for his old home in Lake county, where he will spend several months before returning. Messrs. Bonham and Waldo of Salem have returned from their visit to Southern Oregon. They report having enjoyed a very pleasant trip. D. M. McMenamy has returned from Eastern Oregon, and says, as there is no place like Jackson county, he is content to remain awhile longer. We were this week favored with calls from Ben Haymond and Squire J. W. Hays of Rock Point, who report matters in statu quo since the Fourth. N. Wright was down from Big Applegate Wednesday, and reports mining operations as still being continued by the large companies of that neighborhood. J. D. Fountain, H. S. Emery and A. D. Helman of Ashland were in town Tuesday, attending the installation of the officers of the I. O. O. F. Encampment. Mrs. Duniway held forth at the M. E. Church on Sunday last, delivering an interesting lecture upon a theological subject. A fair attendance was noticeable. Curly Webb returned from Roseburg Friday, but without Capt. Riley and Lieut. Nielson, those gentlemen being recalled to Vancouver on military business. Hon. P. P. Prim, Justice of the Supreme Court, left for Salem Tuesday to attend the July term of that body. His Honor expects to be absent for several weeks. Geo. W. Stephenson has taken up a residence on the farm he recently purchased of John Orth and will hereafter devote himself to farming as well as stock-raising. S. B. Kent, formerly of California, is paying his brother T. B. Kent, of this place, a visit. He will leave for Washington Territory soon, intending to permanently locate there. Jas. Wheeler of Yreka, also well known here, was in town this week. We are pleased to learn that he has almost recovered his sight, which at one time threatened to fail him. Miss Alvina Hess will pay Crescent City a visit soon, starting for that place in a few days. Miss Dora Godfrey, who intends visiting friends at Eureka, Cal., will accompany her. C. C. Brogan, who has been sojourning at Steamboat for sometime past, has returned to town. We are sorry to learn that his health has not improved and is quite poor at present. E. H. Antiereth, Esq., who went to Yreka last week on professional business, returned Monday, accompanied by his mother, who will pay this place an extended visit before returning. W. A. Cannon and family of San Francisco, who have been sojourning here for several weeks past, left for Coos Bay Wednesday, intending to take up a permanent residence there. Dr. Aiken left for Oakland, Cal., on Saturday last and will be absent for several weeks. It is rumored that he will be accompanied by a lady well and favorably known in Jacksonville upon his return. Mrs. Shaw of California is now engaged in teaching a class in dress-cutting at the Vining House, with considerable success. The method she employs is the most popular and seems to give satisfaction. Jas. Neeley, one of Josephine county's most enterprising citizens, was in town last week. He informs us that the Spring run was quite up to the average and the miners of that section have been fairly paid for their work. The "Oregonian" says that his eminence Archbishop Seghers, who has recently assumed charge of this diocese, left Portland yesterday for the purpose of making an extended tour to the different missions. He will go as far north as Helena, Montana, and return, visiting Idaho, Eastern Oregon and return home by way of Southern Oregon and Willamette valley. GONE TO HIS REST.—On Wednesday evening, at about seven o'clock, Jos. Wotter, a well-known resident of Jacksonville, passed from earth. He had been suffering from cardiac dropsy for many months and hopes for his recovery were long ago banished. Mr. Wotter was one of the earliest and most enterprising citizens of Jacksonville county, and during his residence among us had gained a host of friends, who will receive the news of his death with sorrow. He leaves a wife and a large family of small children to deplore his loss, who have the sincere sympathy of all in their affliction. A member of Jacksonville Lodge of Odd Fellows and the German Order of Red Men, he will be interred to-day, at three o'clock p. m., under their auspices. We shall miss his pleasant face and years will come and go before those who knew him best will forget "poor Joe Wotter."

PERSONAL NOTES.

MINING NEWS. Thornton, Kincaid & Co. are doing well on Silver creek. They have picked up nuggets weighing $89 and $47, besides several smaller pieces. The Emeline Cinnabar Company holds its annual meeting at the Court House in this place on Thursday next, at which time officers will be elected. The Sterling Company will probably commence a final clean-up of the latter part of this month and shut down for the season when it is completed. The Squaw Lake and Sterling Companies and Gin Lin are busily plying away with a supply of water that promises to hold out for several weeks to come. W. A. Johnson, an experienced miner, is opening a quartz claim in Josephine county and expects to commence crushing ore about the 1st of September. John S. Miller, writing to Capt. B. B. Griffin, says the miners on Silver creek that have their claims opened are generally doing well and money is more plentiful than usual. Every prospector should have a supply of notices of location of placer and quartz mines and a copy of Copp's Hand-book of Mining Law, all of which can be obtained at the TIMES office. Recent reports leave the impression that the richness of the Briggs' creek mines has been exaggerated. The Silver creek county promises better, as several good claims have been opened. Messrs. Eckelson and Lackland have returned to Palmer creek and resumed the survey of a ditch the Palmer Creek Mining Company have projected and which they may complete this year. Howard, Pape & Co., who own a large tract of mineral land at the mouth of Beaver creek, have loaned it to Messrs. Chadwick & McParlane, who will commence prospecting before long. Beek Bros., on Big Applegate, recently completed a ditch over two miles in length and are engaged in ground-sluicing. They expect to employ more scientific methods as they open their claim. Johnson & Allison are still engaged in cleaning up, but will be unable to complete this work before water falls entirely. They are doing well, however, having taken out several hundred dollars up to this time. McDonough, Kahler & Co. will resume operation of the well-known Fort Lane quartz ledge further and will go down about twenty feet further this season. The prospects for a well-defined ledge of unparalleled richness are favorable. H. P. McNeill, the mining expert, is expected to arrive here with his family from San Francisco in a few days. He will then resume the prosecution of mining enterprises inaugurated by ex-Governor Chadwick and himself in the interest of California capitalists. A partial clean-up was made the other day at the diggings of Kuhl & Bolt, on Farris' gulch, which proved quite satisfactory. Several nuggets of quartz containing a large proportion of gold were picked up. Operations have been resumed and will be continued for several weeks yet. Alex. Orme returned from Josephine county Tuesday, from whom we learn that the large placer mines are still being operated with a large supply of water and that no clean-up will be made before the close of the season. Considerable prospecting is now going on and some valuable diggings will be opened next winter. J. T. Layton, mining on Farris' Gulch, made another clean-up a few days since, after a three-weeks' run, which yielded 100 ounces of gold, or about $1,650. When we consider that Mr. Layton is operating with a single pipe and on ground not by any means the best he possesses, it will be seen that his diggings are among the richest the State affords. Our regular Evans' creek correspondent writes: There are between forty and fifty Chinamen still busily cleaning up on Pleasant creek. There is as much again water in Pleasant and Evans' creeks as there has been for ten years at this time of the year. Harvey, Springstead & Co., have struck what was heretofore an unknown channel on Sachs creek, that prospects well. They propose to put a hydraulic on it this fall. Judge Hanna, who left for the mines on Big Applegate Sunday, in company with ex-Governor Chadwick, returned Wednesday, leaving the latter gentleman at the Grand Applegate Company's diggings. His Honor informs us that the Squaw Lake Company is busily engaged in plying, with fine prospects, while the Grand Applegate Company is also doing some good work. The former expects to continue operations until the last of August. Ex-Governor Chadwick returned from Salem on the 3d and awaits the arrival of H. P. McNeill from San Francisco. These gentlemen will before long commence the prospecting of several different quartz ledges in this section, including the Yank at Galice creek. Should they be successful in the enterprises they have inaugurated, a new era will dawn and the slumbering resources of Southern Oregon will receive an impetus, the extent of which is at this time incomprehensible. HORSES PURCHASED.—S. Both went to Six-Kyon county, Cal., last week for the purpose of purchasing horses with which to fill J. W. Manning's contract with the Government for forty animals for cavalry service. He secured the required number, about eighteen in all. The balance were previously obtained in this section and well exhausted the supply of desirable animals that could be obtained here at justifiable prices. Horsemen should no longer neglect to turn their attention to raising more horses of this kind, as a demand similar to the present one is liable to arise at any time, and they should be prepared to supply it. JUVENILE CLASSICS.—Beautiful large type, elegantly bound editions of "Arabian Nights" and "Robinson Crusoe," for 50 cents each, and "Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress" and "Travels of Baron Munchausen," for 80 cents each, have just been published by the American Book Exchange, 55 Beekman street, New York.
