

NOTICE.—Homestead claimants desiring their notices of final proof published in the Times can be accommodated by requesting the Register of the Land Office, through their agents, to send them to this institution, where the service will be performed at halcyon rates.

MINISTERIAL APPOINTMENTS.—The M. E. Conference made the following appointments for this section at its recent session: Presiding Elder, J. S. McCall; Ashland, L. L. Rogers; Jacksonville, D. A. Crowell; Klamath, L. M. Nickerson; Sprague River, G. W. Roork.

FRUIT IN LAKE.—H. M. Thatcher of Linkville has a peach-tree in his garden bearing fruit for the first time that promises well. This antagonizes the generally accepted opinion that little or no fruit can be raised in this end of Lake county and may induce others to engage in its culture quite extensively.

PROPOSALS WANTED.—L. M. Nickerson, agent at the Klamath Indian Agency, will receive sealed proposals at his office until one o'clock P. M. Saturday, September 6th, for furnishing the following supplies: 50,000 lbs. beans, net; 50,000 lbs. flour, sacked; 15,000 lbs. corn meal, sacked; and 200 lbs. of mess pork in barrel. Also, 100 head of yearling heifers and 20 milk cows with calves from two to five years old.

HOUSE BURNED.—Two residences of Abram Tenbrook, in Goose Lake valley, was destroyed by fire a few nights ago, together with its contents, the occupants barely escaping with their lives. The fire is thought to have originated from a candle left burning by one of the family. A loss is considerable and falls heavily upon Mr. Tenbrook, who was making preparations to assume charge of his hotel at Lakeview.

HOW THE NEWS TRAVELS.—The New York Herald has heard of the equestrian exercises tending the Fourth of July celebration at Willow Springs, mention of which was made in the Times, and comments thus: "Jacksonville, Oregon, has a social club which enjoys peculiar and fascinating amusement. The young ladies and gentlemen meet at a grove on horseback go through a number of races to the music of a violin."

SOUTHER BALL.—As will be seen by advertisement elsewhere, Louis Herling will re-open house on Poorman's creek, which has just been thoroughly renovated, with a grand ball September 8th. Mr. Herling long ago had the reputation of giving the most enjoyable parties, and this one will be no exception. The best of music and supper will be had, while no endeavorers are being spared to a success in every respect. Those a pleasant time will not fail to be on.

ARD BOUND.—Gen. Forsythe, Gen. Pollock and Capt. Adams, officers of the 1st Army, who have been holding a ball at Fort Klamath, were in town and resumed their journey homeward-bound. These gentlemen are identified with the Department of the Interior, having taken a leading part in the visit to Eastern Oregon during the past few years. Last visit to this section for some years seemed to thoroughly enjoy it.

TO THE MILLERS.—Flour has become scarce and this staple is now rising. We suppose those engaged in the market are fully aware of what is going on. Yet we cannot but doubt the wisdom of this action for more reasons. This great reduction not only works advantage of the miller, but it also affects the best interests of the farmer-consumer is not encouraged to utilize amount of flour by this war among millers, and where its beneficial results lie mainly a mystery with the insiders.

OF "PERCHERON FERRE."—This well-known Percheron stallion, the property of W. E. of Ashland, died on the morning of the 11th. It is believed that the animal came to death by a slow poison, which the testimony of Doctors Chitwood and Royal, who examined the body soon after its death, goes to corroborate. The loss of "Percheron" is not only a serious blow to W. E., but to the stock interests of Oregon as a whole, as he was a fine horse in every sense of the term, selling at public auction just after arrival from France for $3,070. Should such a full and summary justice be meted to the scoundrel who would be guilty of a dastardly outrage, to the injury of no person, but to the benefit of the whole.

Rapp has furnished us one of the finest water-melons of the season, for which we render thanks. We learn that W. J. Stanley's school at Central Point will hold a picnic in McCoys' grove on September 5th. Carlos Goldard has just completed a neat residence for C. Mings that is a credit to his skill as a mechanic. Wm. Cameron of Uniontown is supplying Jacksonville with fine blackberries, selling three gallons for $1. Old Jupiter Pluvius sent L. Hubert ashling for a few days, but his sprinkler was again called into requisition. The Ashland Woolen Mills are running to their fullest capacity and turn out a fine assortment of first-class goods. Certificates of merit and every description of blanks for school teachers furnished by the Times office at reasonable rates. Nick Ficke has purchased of Major Glenn the neat residence on the corner of Third and D streets, paying $600 therefor. The road from Fort Klamath to Crater Lake has been placed in excellent condition for the accommodation of excursion parties. Breckenfeld has received some new and popular brands of tobacco and cigars that are pronounced very fine by connoisseurs. Eastern Oregon is quoted at 17c/20c, and valley at 22c/25c in the San Francisco market, a slight change for the better. D. N. Birdsey informs us that about thirty men are now engaged in improving the road between Bardanelles and Rock Point. The Jacksonville Minstrels expect to give a performance before many days. Saw on your buttons tight when the fun commences. A. W. Sturges is putting his dry-house in order and will soon commence curing a large amount of excellent fruit for Winter use. Wisdom & Snider, at the Sterling saw-mill, are furnishing the market with an excellent quality of lumber, and plenty of it, too. Passenger travel on Phillips' Linkville stage line is increasing. The stages may be depended upon for speedy and comfortable transit. We have been placed under obligations by C. H. Woodward & Co. of Portland for a supply of Vanity Fair fly-paper, the best in the market. The melancholy days have come, the saddest of the year; when too warm it proves for whisky straight and much too cold for lager beer. One Joseph Lanich has patented a portable fence. It will be popular with farmers of Jackson county who have watermelon patches. We offer a year's subscription to the Times as a premium to the person who presents this office with the largest water-melon this season. Chas. Carey, employed at the Big Butte saw-mill, had his right hand rather severely injured the other day by some of the machinery. Some of our citizens paid Phoenix a visit Sunday. We learn that the hotel at that place has been on the verge of bankruptcy ever since. We have just printed a homely supply of subscription receipts and will be glad to furnish whatever will fill them out ad libitum. Call and see us. The showers of this week have done the farmers no perceptible good. Those whose grain is still unthreshed are especially discommoded. D. H. Feathers, agent for the Singer, has a variety of second-hand sewing machines, in good order, for sale cheap. See what he has to say elsewhere. The Tomblason silver mine of Arizona, in which Schiefelin brothers are largely interested, is paying well, according to the "Scientific Mining Press."

It is said that G. W. Holt proposes adding another story to his building now in course of construction; but this is probably news to Mr. Holt as well as to us. The Jacksonville Brass Band will probably be engaged for the Pioneer Reunion, in which case it will also furnish music for the ball at Honck's hall in the evening. R. W. Huston, administrator of the estate of David Huston, deceased, offers a warrant for 160 acres of land for sale. For further particulars apply at the Clerk's office. Business men can keep their money at home by ordering their bill-heads, letter-heads, notes, receipts, etc., at the Times office, where the best printing is done at low rates. Next Monday is the last day for entries in the handicap race, to come off during the Fair week at Yreka, and those who neglect cannot get their horses in after that date. A wind and rain storm did considerable damage in the vicinity of Linkville last week. The frame of Jay Beach's building, in course of construction, was blown down by it.

Geo. Howard has been appointed collector of dog-tax and those owning canines of high and low degree will be on guard for him, as he proposes clearing the town of non-resident dogs. The State Board of Education has decided that deeds to school land given by School Superintendents are unauthorized by law and good deeds will be executed upon application. G. W. Holt is making another kiln of brick with which to finish his building. Operations have been temporarily suspended on the structure until the brick are completed. The jury to which was submitted the case of Parker vs. McCoy, a replevin suit that came up in Justice Huff's court last week, disagreed and a new trial has been ordered for September 15th. The Hutchinson family, whose fame as singers of rare sweetness and force, has become national, will probably pay this place a visit soon, as their advertisements have already reached us. Dr. L. T. Davis of Windsor, Sonoma county, California, has favored us with photographs of Dr. Glenn, the next Governor of that State, and also speaks by prominent men now laboring in his cause. The committee of arrangements for the Pioneer Reunion made a good selection for the honor of the day in J. K. Neil, Esq. He is a pioneer himself and will no doubt do the subject full justice. A fine hall of large dimensions has been cut off in the second story of Holt's new building and it will be initiated by a grand ball on Christmas. It will fill a necessity that has long been felt here. Pamphlets, catalogues, programmes, well-drawn and inviting, tickets, business cards—in fact every description of plain and fancy printing, neatly executed at the Times office at San Francisco rates. We notice a substantial improvement progressing in the stone wall Judge Duncan is having put down in front of his property on Oregon street. Similar action by other parties would not be amiss. The weather of the past week has been phenomenal, turning suddenly cool, with showers of frequent occurrence. Fall seems to have set in earnest, though Summer has but hardly bloomed. The most elegant stock of calling cards ever brought to Oregon has just been received from New York at the Times office and we are prepared to print any number in the best style and at Eastern rates. It is said that a foot-race for $100 a side, single dash of 100 yards, will be run at Wilderville by Henry Menor of this place and Geo. Lewis of Josephine county. In case it transpires fast time may be expected. Several of our German friends, accompanied by their families and a few others, held a picnic on the camp-meeting grounds near Bybee's ferry last Sunday. It proved a highly enjoyable affair and was thoroughly appreciated. Two members of Eckelson & Co.'s surveying party, now on Evans creek, strayed from camp recently and wandered about in the hills for two days before they were recovered. Eck. proposes putting a bell on them hereafter. Reames Bros. are closing out their stock of goods at prices that "will astonish the natives." Gen. Reames will soon pay San Francisco a visit for the purpose of laying in a magnificent assortment for the Fall and Winter trade and room will be an object; hence this marked reduction from his usual prices. Alturas, a village of Modoc county, Cal., has organized a fire department. In this she is just that much ahead of Jacksonville, which has double her population. Another first-class conflagration is all that is necessary to remind us that a fire department would not be amiss ever here. Col. John E. Ross last Saturday exhibited a four-year-old colt that is undoubtedly one of the largest ever raised in the State. He is about eighteen hands high, well proportioned and will weigh in the neighborhood of a ton when fully matured. Constant's horse "Samson" is his sire. Sheriff Bybee is now busily engaged in levying upon the property of several delinquent tax-payers and others responding with alacrity. In many cases the tax, which originally amounted to a small sum, developed into a large one by reason of the dilatoriness of the delinquents. The last number of the "Literary Vilette," published monthly at Salem, is on our table. It is well filled with choice reading matter and in neatness of appearance compares favorably with the best Eastern periodicals. Send 50 cents to E. O. Norton & Co. and you will receive the "Vilette" for a year. It is worth it. The spell of warm weather that came suddenly to a close last week, is reported to be unexampled in our history by the "oldest inhabitant." The thermometer neared 100 several successive afternoons and the miner who died during its prevalence, like the soldier at Fort Yuma, is said to have returned to his blankets. Geo. Hilliard, one of the pioneers of Southern Oregon, died at the residence of C. Magruder, Central Point, on the 21st inst., after an illness of a few days, aged about 60 years. He laid the brick for the first building of that description erected in Jacksonville and was well known in an early day as a first-class mechanic. A fraud sporting the title of Dawktor Eley from New York, entered into negotiations with Knights & Short of the Forest House, a resort situated near Yreka, to purchase the property for $22,500, but failed to put in sight when the deeds were to be delivered. As usual, several confiding creditors mourn the gay Doctor's sudden departure. J. B. Thomas' new saw-mill at the Meadows, Table Rock precinct, is now in operation and fully prepared to fill bills for lumber of every description and of a superior quality at the lowest rates. Jesse has furnished his mill with the most improved machinery and will spare no pains in giving the fullest satisfaction. Read his advertisement elsewhere. Morrell's Minstrels passed through the valley last week, en route for California. They did not tarry here, though they did play at Rock Point. Walter Parks, their strongest card, has joined Beath's Minstrels, a first-class troupe that gives nightly performances at Roseburg and comprises such well-known performers as Tom Lynch, Harry Austin, Prof. Barnes and others. D. Linn is in receipt of a large stock of material from San Francisco and is now prepared to do fancy work in his line in better style than ever. His stock of furniture is also first-class, and when we talk of constructing buildings this establishment is not to be excelled by any in Southern Oregon. Dave makes undertaking a specialty and his coffins are said to be superior to those who have tried them.

Vest and will remove to Ashland with her family. L. L. Savag has gone to Lake county "to swing the larrikin" and chase the fastidious buffalo over the sage-brush plains of that eastern county. Wright of Lakeview passed through this place last week en route for Puget Sound, where he hopes to find a suitable business location. Rev. J. R. N. Bell has gone to Coos county, where he will hold a series of meetings, and is accompanied by Reverends Harrison and Miller of this place. H. J. Terrill of Battle creek was in town Tuesday, from whom we learn that harvest is drawing to a close in that section and that crops are generally fair. Clough & Carr, the enterprising proprietors of the Coos Bay stage line, are furnishing through tickets from Roseburg to San Francisco via the low price of $14.50. E. R. Reames and J. R. Cameron returned from a trip to the Siskiyou Tanager lake on Monday. They were quite successful, having killed five deer during the few days they were out. Mrs. Harvey of San Francisco, formerly Mrs. Roselle Wade of Jacksonville, who has been paying her relations a visit, returned to San Francisco Monday, accompanied by Wm. Short, her brother. We regret to learn that our talented friend Claude Thayer is lying dangerously ill at the residence of his parents at East Portland. He informs us that his hay contract has been fulfilled, though he met with some opposition in completing it. Jas. The people of that section will find the pictures of this institution of a superior order and second to none. H. S. He passed through town Saturday. Judge Prim of the Supreme Court returned Sunday and will remain awhile, inasmuch as the docket had been disposed of for the term when Court adjourned. His Honor was heartily welcomed home by his many friends. P. Britt and party returned last week from a trip to the Dead Indian country. He took several photographic views during his absence from town, which prove valuable additions to his already large assortment of pictures of native scenery. Kahler & Bro. intend erecting a fine brick building on the present site of the City Drug Store next Spring. It will prove a substantial improvement to that portion of town and other property-owners should not be slow in following their example. Judge Floyd and Chas. Hughes, Esq., of Josephine county, were in town this week and favored us with a pleasant call. These gentlemen report the mining season closed in Josephine county, but expect it to re-open with renewed vigor with the advent of wet weather. Adam Schmidt and Geo. Beller started for Lake county last week to look after the prospects of a brewery they propose starting there, but returned Wednesday dissatisfied with the outlook. Town lots have advanced in price since their intentions were made public. Prof. L. L. Rogers of Ashland College passed through town on the 21st, en route for Portland, to attend the State Teachers' Association, which was in session the forepart of this week. He was announced to lecture upon the "Conservation of Educational Forces" yesterday evening. W. C. Meyer, of Ashland, will make a trip to the Sound country early in September with some fine Percheron colts and fillies. Baldy Barnes, the little Shetland stallion, will stop at the outfit. On the way he will stop several days in Portland. He will not attend the State Fair this year. We received a call from A. S. Jacobs, Mr. Gaerin and others of Ashland this week, who were paying our town a flying visit. They informed us that the first story of the new Masonic building has been completed and that work will be rapidly progressing on the second before the close of the week.

MINING NEWS.

The Squaw Lake Company has shut down for a few weeks, water being light. Crushing of ore is about being commenced in earnest at the Tellurium mine near Canyonville. Henry Todd, mining on Silver creek, took out a $30 nugget the other day, as also several smaller pieces. Green Bros.' arrastra are still employed in grinding ore of an excellent quality from the Sugar Pine ledge. A full supply of mining blanks and Cops's Hand-book of Mining Law can always be obtained at the Times office. Gin Lin is still plying away with one pipe and expects to be able to continue operations for several weeks to come. Uncle Billy Burke brought in a lot of ore from a quartz ledge located on Foot's creek, which he believes to be both extensive and rich. Rodenberger, Hart & Critzer, of the Steam Bear mines, are cutting side-ditches and getting everything in apple-pie order for next winter. The "Platindor" says that the Coyote Creek Mining Company are making ditches and improving their claims and getting ready for winter. The only diggings being operated on Sterling at present are those of Reynolds & Towne and Kleinhammer & Co. Those companies will not finish cleaning up for several days to come. F. L. Mace returned from Josephine county Sunday, who informs us that mining operations have about been suspended in that section for the season, but that much prospecting and fitting up for the next is going on. Superintendent Klippel was in from the Squaw Lake diggings last week and reports everything progressing satisfactorily there. He returned Monday, but has not much to report. Judge Hanna and Jas. A. Wilson, interested parties in the mine. J. P. Croy and Wm. Nelson are putting in a windmill in the Big Applegate near Herd's saw-mill. The bed of the creek has proved rich in gold at other points in the vicinity and they are sanguine that their labors will be amply rewarded. Hon. S. F. Chadwick has returned to Salem, but expects to be with us again before long, in company with Mr. Lightner, the California mining expert. Something to the effect of our mining interests may be expected as a result of their next visit. Capt. Anthony, the energetic Portland capitalist, who is doing so much to develop the mines of Southern Oregon, arrived on Tuesday's stage. He is now sole proprietor of the Sterling mine and his mission here is in relation to it. The ditch which he has excavated this season, which the Captain will inaugurate during his stay here. Water has begun to fall on the upper portion of Silver creek and some of the miners have departed for other scenes. It is believed by many that an extensive area of rich gold and silver exists below the falls, and will next attract attention of miners. Several gold claims have been established since the excitement began, which has not been entirely devoid of excellent results, by any means. The Roseburg "Star" says that while the present excitement exists in regard to mining claims it is well to call the attention of experts to the part of Rogue river in the vicinity of the Big Meadows. The bars there have long been known to be rich in gold, but the difficulty of access has prevented mining operations. We learn that a new one-come prospect has been discovered, which is entirely devoid of excellent results, by any means. THE PIONEER REUNION.

The committee of arrangements for the Pioneer Reunion, Messrs. McCull, Anderson and Houck, have appointed as orator of the day J. R. Neil, Esq., of Jacksonville; also the following committees: Committee on Grounds—A. V. Gillette, H. C. Hill and Jacob Wagner. Committee on table, refreshments, etc., with power to appoint sub-committees—Messrs. B. F. Myer, J. R. Tozer, J. M. McCall, J. H. Russell, P. Dunn. Committee on Music—C. K. Klum, Prof. L. L. Rogers, Mrs. L. L. Rogers, Mrs. Frances Myer. The committee of arrangements will do all in their power to make the reunion a success in every respect, and it is confidently hoped the turnout will be as large or larger than at previous reunions. In respect to refreshments, the committee calculate that the pioneers living in town will furnish the heavier meats (perhaps saving a lamb) and the bread, and the others who bring baskets are expected to have them filled with the lighter edibles, such as chicken, cake, etc. To avoid confusion, the committee request that every basket brought be marked with a tag containing the owner's name, and that all the dishes, knives, forks and spoons be marked likewise. Commensal labels may be made for the latter by spreading the white of an egg upon common writing paper.—[Times.]

THE HARVEST.

The rains of the past week caused a total suspension of the harvest for a few days, but did not considerable injury to the grain. Operations will soon be progressing in earnest again and it is probable that the entire crop will be gathered before many days. A review of the situation shows that there will be an abundance of all the cereals, though the surplus will not be as great as by considerable as at first expected, especially of wheat, notwithstanding the increased acreage. This is mainly due to the rust, which never in the history of Oregon was so general or injurious. The cash price of wheat has not been set as yet; yet we cannot hope that it will be better than last year—at least for the present—judging from the unusually low rate at which millers are disposing of flour. However, there is a flattering prospect of an increased demand for our surplus, inasmuch as rust has done considerable injury to the crops of Siskiyou county and east of the mountains, and Josephine and Del Norte counties will probably draw on us more than ever. This alone may improve matters materially, to the benefit of the farmers' exchequer, before Spring. Let us hope so.

WHEAT WANTED.

I WILL PAY THE HIGHEST PRICE for wheat to all those that are owing me, or in exchange for saddle-bags, harness, and anything in my line. HENRY JUDGE.

THE JACOBSONS.

The Jacobson family, who have been paying their relations a visit, returned to San Francisco Monday, accompanied by Wm. Short, her brother. We regret to learn that our talented friend Claude Thayer is lying dangerously ill at the residence of his parents at East Portland. His many friends will be pleased to hear of his early convalescence. J. W. Manning returned from Fort Klamath Saturday with the officers who have been holding a court-martial there. He informs us that his hay contract has been fulfilled, though he met with some opposition in completing it. Jas. Griffin, agent of the Universal Copying Company of San Francisco, has gone to Lake county on a business visit. The people of that section will find the pictures of this institution of a superior order and second to none. H. S. Brown of Oakland (Cal.) has been called to Althouse, Josephine county, by the serious illness of his eldest son, Wm. Q. Brown, who we are pleased to learn, is now convalescent. He passed through town Saturday. Judge Prim of the Supreme Court returned Sunday and will remain awhile, inasmuch as the docket had been disposed of for the term when Court adjourned. His Honor was heartily welcomed home by his many friends. P. Britt and party returned last week from a trip to the Dead Indian country. He took several photographic views during his absence from town, which prove valuable additions to his already large assortment of pictures of native scenery. Kahler & Bro. intend erecting a fine brick building on the present site of the City Drug Store next Spring. It will prove a substantial improvement to that portion of town and other property-owners should not be slow in following their example. Judge Floyd and Chas. Hughes, Esq., of Josephine county, were in town this week and favored us with a pleasant call. These gentlemen report the mining season closed in Josephine county, but expect it to re-open with renewed vigor with the advent of wet weather. Adam Schmidt and Geo. Beller started for Lake county last week to look after the prospects of a brewery they propose starting there, but returned Wednesday dissatisfied with the outlook. Town lots have advanced in price since their intentions were made public. Prof. L. L. Rogers of Ashland College passed through town on the 21st, en route for Portland, to attend the State Teachers' Association, which was in session the forepart of this week. He was announced to lecture upon the "Conservation of Educational Forces" yesterday evening. W. C. Meyer, of Ashland, will make a trip to the Sound country early in September with some fine Percheron colts and fillies. Baldy Barnes, the little Shetland stallion, will stop at the outfit. On the way he will stop several days in Portland. He will not attend the State Fair this year. We received a call from A. S. Jacobs, Mr. Gaerin and others of Ashland this week, who were paying our town a flying visit. They informed us that the first story of the new Masonic building has been completed and that work will be rapidly progressing on the second before the close of the week.
